The annual College of Pharmacy banquet honoring outstanding students will be held at Cotner Terrace Friday, May 12.

Various awards and medals for scholarship will be presented to students by Joseph B. Burt, dean of the College of Pharmacy. More than 250 students and alumni are expected to attend the banquet.

The Kappa Psi scholarship award will be given to one student in the college. The Kehring medal and the Merck award will be presented to two senior students on the basis of scholarship. The Rho Chi scholarship winners will also be announced.

Talks will be given by the four class presidents—Robert Svang, Bill Mickle, James McIntosh and Jack Christensen. Toastmaster will be Walt Gloor. He is president of the University chapter of the student branch of the American Pharmaceutical association, sponsors of the banquet.

Repeat Showing Of Revue Tonight

"I Can Almost Hear It Now," the Alpha Epsilon Rho two-hour musical revue, is scheduled for a repeat performance tonight in the Union ballroom.

Admission is free to the show, which begins at 8:30 p. m. Written and directed by Gaylord Marr, the production received enthusiastic audience approval Sunday evening. Presented originally in a pocket-edition as entertainment at the annual Alpha Epsilon Rho banquet in March, the revue was scheduled for a one-night appearance at the Union Sunday. Display of a "standing room only" sign and calls to the Activities office resulted in the repeat performance.

Wide Appeal
The revue is tied together with the theme of radio's influence. It presents a cavalcade of thumbnail sketches depicting the American scene from 1900 to 1950. The treatment includes slapstick, corny comedy and sophisticated wit.

The revue is planned to appeal to all age groups. The "Moonlight Bay" number, shown by living lantern slides, should be a favorite among the older audience. The middle-aged find memories in the "Red Hot Mama" sketch which features the record mimicry of Patsy Dutton. For the college students, topics are presented which satirize a commercial carried on two Lincoln radio stations and the concluding skit of the revue.

Cartoon
The last skit shows a thinly-disguised caricature of a campus dignitary, a good-natured but irreverent thrust at the Ivy Day tradition and the suggestion of boosting student-enrollment by providing every university with a side-show barker.

The cast includes Dutch Meyers, Gus Riedy, Sunya Cole, Dick Carson, Bud Inlay, Dick Frech, Joan Speidel, Jack Anthony, Mary Lou Blattspieker, Ed McCullough, Dale Anderson, Twilla Walker, Lois Nelson, Barbara Rayburn, Nanci Harrison and Barbara Malin.

Bob Volmer provides incidental piano improvisation which accompanies the sketches. Harold Allen and Chuck Wildmaier stage-manage the production. Marvin Grimm and Thom Snyder handle lighting for the revue, and Jesse Crump, engineer of the University radio studios, is in charge of the technical production.

Juniors To Initiate Class Day

The Junior Class takes the campus limelight today as the first Junior Class Day festivities in many years shine forth from Antelope Park. A barbecue, a softball game and a dance are on the agenda tonight for Junior Class members and their dates.

The "Mystery Band" will be revealed Friday night when Juniors dance in the pavillion. Identity of the local band has been kept secret as an added feature of the Junior Day.

Invitations have been sent to about 1,800 members of the class of 1950 for the all-junior party. According to Betty Green, however, the lists may be incomplete or the addresses incorrect, and any junior who did not receive a letter should contact her at 5-4545 or Herb Reese at 2-7757 immediately.

'51 Ribbons
In the letters from President Herb Reese and his council were red and yellow "Class of '51" ribbons to be worn all day Friday and to be used for tickets of admission for juniors and their dates. An addressed postcard was also enclosed in the letter for reservations to the barbecue.

Juniors, who for any reason did not receive letters containing ribbons, should come to the barbecue and obtain a ribbon upon showing their ID cards.

Reese has urged everyone "to be sure to come on out, because this first Junior Day is really going to be a wonderful deal."

Gov. Val Peterson, Chancellor R. G. Gustavson, "Potsy" Clark, Coach Bill Glassford, Fritz Daly, Alumni association secretary, and William Day, president of the Alumni association, have been invited to attend.

Meet At Union
All juniors who do not have rides to Antelope Park should meet in front of the Union at 6 p. m. to receive transportation.

The 50 cents per plate charge for the barbecue dinner will be the only charge made for all the activities, including the dance. Juniors will pay the fee as they enter the line for the barbecue. If class members do not wish to eat they are urged to come whenever possible and stay for the dance.

The dinner will begin at 6:30 p. m. and the dancing at 8 p. m.

ROB RAUN—Raun added the title of president of the second session of the Interim Student Council to his long list of executive offices last night at a Council meeting.

'Starlight Ball' Will Include Magician Act

Giving the atmosphere of an open air night club, "Starlight Terrace Ball" will feature the music of Gerry Mayburn and his orchestra, along with intermission entertainment by Berry Thompson, locally prominent magician.

Directly in front of the Ag Union, the dancing under the stars is scheduled to commence at 9 p. m. Friday. It will continue until 12 p. m.

Preparations for the climax of Ag Union entertainment this semester are nearing completion. The dance is sponsored by the Ag Union dance committee in correlation with other Union activities.

Orchestra
The orchestra will be on the balcony overlooking the front lawn of the Union building. Its terrace front is being waxed to provide a dance floor. Tables will be set up on the drive and soft drinks as well as other refreshments will be served.

In case of rain the entire entertainment will be moved to the gymnasium in the Activities building.

Intermission entertainment will feature the art of wizardry as shown by Berry Thompson, University sophomore from Oshkosh. He has performed for several local clubs as well as fraternal organizations.

Entertainment
It is reported that further intermission talent is being engaged. Performers names are not yet known, but Gerard Pritchard, dance committee chairman, says a boogie-woogie specialist, has been asked to perform.

Tickets, priced at 60 cents per person will be on sale from dance committee members or may be purchased at the dance. Each ticket reserves the holder a table on the drive.

Dance committee members are Jeanne Vierk, Marleen Anderson, Dick Walsh, Rob Farnum, Frank Sibert, Joan Sedlacek, Joan Graham, Jayne Carter, Elaine Rowley, Phil Olson and Dave Danielson.

Council to Close Year With Picnic

Student Council members will be off on a picnic Saturday, May 13 to Pioneer's Park.

Instead of the usual debates on constitutions, elections, and cheating problems, the Council will spend the afternoon playing softball. The game will begin at 2 p. m.

The picnic will wind up the Council's activities for the year. A picnic will be held this year in place of the banquet which Councils have had in the past. A number of University faculty members will attend.

Instead of attending to the usual new business and old business, council members will retire after the softball game to picnic tables.

The purpose of the picnic is to give the 1949-50 members of the Council a chance to become better acquainted with each other and with members of the faculty.
