

All-Staters Move Into Final Week

The Mid-Century 10th Anniversary of All-State fine arts course is entering its final week. Concerts, plays, and parades are scheduled for the boys and girls.

Two-hundred and sixty of them from all parts of Nebraska have been on the University campus for special instruction in music, speech, and art. Thursday, June 29 is the final concert to be held in the Stadium. Choral groups, the band, the speech choir, and orchestra will participate. An art exhibit will be displayed in the mall. Any of the All-State alums present may go up and sing with the choir in their final number.

Directors

The directors of the concert are David B. Foltz, choral groups; Russell Suppiger, band and trombone choir; Walter Olsen, marches; Maxine Trauernicht, speech choir; and Paul O. Steg, orchestra.

The All-State banquet will be held in the Union ballroom at 5 p.m. Thursday, June 29.

On Wednesday, June 28 at 8 p.m. the boys and girls will attend the artists series program, The Gypsies.

Debates are scheduled Tuesday afternoon in the Union starting at 1 p.m. At 4 the same afternoon a one-act play for the speech students only, will be given in the Temple, Room 201. The production is "Overtones."

Orchestra Concert

Paul O. Steg, director of orchestra, public schools, Hutchinson, Kansas, will direct the orchestra concert Tuesday, June 27 at 7:30 p.m. Eight numbers are to be played. The orchestra officers are: president, Duane Young Columbus; vice-president, Kent Phillips, Lincoln; and secretary, Paul Bieberstein, Lincoln.

Monday the All-Staters paraded through the downtown district of Lincoln and two one act plays were given in the Temple. The plays were "The Little Prison" and "The Pot Boiler."

Sunday, June 25 the band gave a concert which was directed by Olsen and Suppiger. The band officers are: president, Billie Claire Croft, Fremont; vice president, Dorothy Ralston, Geneva, and secretary, Iris Siemsen, Fremont.

Dramatics

Sunday evening two more one-act plays were produced, "The Florist Shop" and "Old Lady Shows Her Medals."

During their stay the All-Staters made radio programs, had picnics, gave recitals and did many other interesting things. The All-State Fine Arts course is held each summer for boys and girls of high school age from all over Nebraska—and a few from outstate. Students are selected for the extensive studies by application. They are chosen on a basis of ability and balance for the large groups.

Alum Receives Navy Commission

Ensign Stewart E. Tangeman, USN, was designated to naval aviator on June 14, 1950. He was presented his aviator's diploma and "wings of gold" at a ceremony conducted by Captain Norman Ellis, USN, Commanding Officer of the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas.

A graduate of Gretna high school in 1943, Ensign Tangeman attended the University, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree. He enlisted in the Navy on June 4, 1948, taking pre-flight and basic-flight training at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida. Advanced training in multi-engine aircraft was taken at the Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas.

After a few days leave, Ensign Tangeman will report to the Pacific fleet for operational flight training.

July 4 Weekend To Offer 'Breather'

Fourth of July weekend will be the break in the summer session for NU students. There will be no classes held Monday or Tuesday, July 3 and 4. Classes will resume on Wednesday, July 5.

School will be held on July 8, the following Saturday to make up for classes missed on the 3rd.

Berg Attends Red Cross Convention

Gene Berg, former president of the campus Red Cross unit, is attending the National Red Cross convention in Detroit, Mich., June 26 through 29.

Berg is being sent to the convention by the Lancaster county Red Cross chapter. Also attending from this chapter are Carl Junge, vice chairman of the Lancaster group, and Howard Wilson, a national director of Red Cross.

Berg

Berg will appear on a panel as a representative of the midwestern area of college Red Cross units. He will speak on "Why give special attention to college students as participants in Red Cross services?" Berg will point out the advantages which result to both the local chapter and to the college students themselves. Also appearing on the panel will be college representatives from the East and from the West.

Delegates to the convention will discuss problems and ideas of local chapters, and hear a speech by George C. Marshall, national president of the Red Cross.

First President

Berg served as the first president of the campus Red Cross unit, and was one of the founders of the campus chapter. He has also served as an adviser to the Nebraska group.

Berg is the new president of the University of Nebraska Builders, a member of Innocents, and a former managing editor of the Daily Nebraskan. He is now working as a reporter for the Journal newspapers.

After the Red Cross convention, Berg plans a short trip to Hamilton, Ontario, to visit his twin brother who plays baseball for a farm team of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Hall to Address Marriage Clinic

The second program in the series on marriage relationships will be held Wednesday, June 28 at 1:30 p.m. in the Union.

Approximately 250 students attended the first meeting held last week. The topic for this week's discussion will be "The Choice of a Mate."

Speaker of the day will be Dr. William Hall, professor of educational psychology and measurements.

"This charming couple," the film to be shown, focuses on the false ideals of "romantic" love on which many unsuccessful marriages are built. The film follows the courtship of a young couple who refuse to evaluate each other's good qualities and short comings in a realistic adult fashion.

The Union and the YM-YW are sponsoring the meetings which will be held every Wednesday afternoon during the six-weeks summer session.

Programs for future meetings include a talk by Rev. John Douglas Clyde, Westminster Presbyterian church, on "Religion in Courtship and Marriage"; Dr. Janet Palmer, lecturer in medical information in social work, who will speak on "Sexual Adjustment in Marriage".

'The Gypsies' to Present Folk Music in Union Show

"THE GYPSIES"—The second in the Union sponsored Summer Artists Series will take to the stage of the Union ballroom for two hours Wednesday night beginning at 8 p.m. when "The Gypsies" appear in a show combining song and dance. Music in the show will range from traditional gypsy folk tunes to American popular tunes and the classics. There is no admission charge for the show.

Saddler's Wells Ballet Troupe To Appear at NU Nov. 20

The Sadler's Wells Ballet which has been upsetting all ballet box-office records at the Metropolitan Opera House will visit the University Coliseum, Monday, Nov. 20.

This announcement was made by the Union following the news that the film, "The Red Shoes," is booked at the State Theatre June 27 through July 3. Sadler's Wells Ballet is featured in the film.

65 Dancers

Directed by Ninette de Valois, the Sadler's Wells Ballet consists of 65 dancers headed by Margot Fonteyn, Robert Helpmann, Moira

Shearer, Pamela May, Beryl Grey, Violetta Elvin, Alexis Ransine, Harold Turner, Michael Somes and John Hart.

The organization, which recently celebrated its twenty-first anniversary, has earned an international reputation for its performance of the classic repertory which includes full-length, evening-long productions never seen here before such as "Sleeping Beauty" and "Le Lac des Cygnes," as well as modern works by its principal choreographer, Frederick Ashton, and Miss de Valois.

In addition to its dancers, the Sadler's Wells Ballet carries a full staff of technicians and an orchestra under the direction of Robert Irving which brings the total of the entourage to more than 150.

Now in London.

The Sadler's Wells Ballet, is currently appearing at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden in London where its season will terminate the first week in July to allow the company a month's vacation prior to its embarkation for America and a coast-to-coast tour.

The Company is presented by the Covent Garden Opera Trust, David L. Webster, General Administrator, in association with the Arts Council of Great Britain and the British Council.

Tickets will be $4.80, $3.60, $2.40, and $1.80. A special price will be given to University of Nebraska Students.

Red Cross Unit Entertains Vets

A group of Red Cross volunteer entertainers, composed of all-state and University students, under the direction of Joanie Hanson preformed at the Veteran's hospital Thursday evening, June 22.

The performers and their numbers were: Audrey Schuler, pianist, who played "Clair De Lune" and "To Each His Own;" Rex Walker, accordionist, who played "Lady of Spain," "Twilight Time" and "Chatanooga Shoe Shine Boy;" Shirley Jesse, tap dancer, who danced to "Bye Bye Blues" accompanied by Marilyn Lehr; Margie Schurman, who gave a comedy reading; and Harriet Swanson, who sang "I'm Falling In Love With Someone" and "Italian Street Song."

A similar show will be held Thursday, June 29, and anyone interested in performing or who knows someone that might be interested is urged to contact Joanie Hanson at 2-2149.

Artist Series To Continue Wednesday

A two-hour show of music and dances will be presented by "The Gypsies" as the second in the series of Summer Artists sponsored by the Union. The show will begin at 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 28 in the Union ballroom.

Seven members of the company will appear in numbers ranging from comedy to authentic gypsy dances and songs.

The company is directed by Herbert Bagwell, who is known for his story telling as well as his violin solos. Bagwell will present some of his gypsy tales in the style of "Uncle Remus." Two of the favorites of audiences which have witnessed the show are "The Star and the Nightingale" and "The Golden Bullet." All of the tales are delivered with original gypsy music in the background.

Featured Dancer.

Featured performer of the company is Annabell Escoc, a descendant of a Creek Indian chief. She has appeared in her song and dance numbers throughout the United States, as well as Europe and the Far East.

To add to the air of authenticity of the gypsy group, Peggy George, the pianist, also displays her ability as a palmist during the show.

The show is centered around a theme which takes the audience back to the days of the gypsies upon whose tunes Liszt and Brahms fashioned their compositions. During the performance the musical selections will range from that played by all of the gypsy tribes of Europe to South American rhythms, American hit songs, and classics. Critics have called the musical program of the "Gypsies" comparable to a "song-filled trip around the world."

Sequin Costumes.

The costumes of the cast have created much attention among audiences. Several of the gowns worn by the cast are covered with sequins, hand-sewn into designs. The gowns are highlighted by the use of black-lights during the performance.

The third feature of the Union Summer Artist series will be the film version of the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "The Mikado." Starring Kenny Baker and the D'Oyly chorus, the film will be shown in the Union ballroom July 9.

The final Artists will appear July 19 when Katherine Flowers brings a troupe of dancers to the Union stage. The show is entitled "From Bamboula to Bop" and will re-create the evolution of Negro dancing.

Fine Arts Band Elects Officers

The 265 high school students attending the University's tenth annual All-State Fine Arts summer course named officers Friday for their Band, Orchestra, Speech and Art organizations.

The 1950 officers: Band: Billie Claire Croft, Fremont, president; Dorothy Ralston, Geneva, vice president; Iris Siemsen, Fremont, secretary.

Orchestra: Duane Young, Columbus, president; Kent Phillips, Lincoln, vice president; Paul Bieberstein, Lincoln, secretary.

Speech: Betty Lester, Grand Island, president; Don Smith, Grand Island, vice president; Jean Claire Davis, Lincoln, secretary.

Art: Leon Berg, Lincoln, president; Bryce Belisle, Lincoln, vice president; Fritz Emerich, Fairfield, secretary.

Boys Get Top Scores in NU Regent Exams

High scores in the University Regents Scholarship competition show high school boys are better scholars than girls by a three to one ratio since the end of World War II.

Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, Director of Admissions, said Friday that top five scores, including duplicate awards for ties, have been won by 25 boys and 8 girls since 1945.

The 1950 top scholars in the Regents Scholarship competition were four boys and one girl, but the girl was No. 1. She is Adrienne Ellefson of Columbus whose score in the comprehensive examination held last spring topped that made by any other of the nearly 2,400 high school seniors who competed in 410 schools.

Second high score was made by Wayne Towner, of Scottsbluff; third by Gerald Rosenfield, Trenton; fourth, John J. Thomas, Lincoln high school, and fifth by William Herndon of Boys Town.

The Regents awards have a value of approximately $100 for the school year. Two hundred and fifty scholarships are awarded to top scholars in as many high schools of the state.

During the past six years the University's top scholarship scores have been made by seniors in the following high schools: Omaha Central 4, Lincoln high school 3, Lincoln Northeast 2, Superior 2, Columbus 2, Kearney 2, and Valentine 2, and one each to Omaha North, Omaha Benson, Boys Town Scottsbluff, Trenton, North Platte, Seward, Valley, York, Wahoo, Craig, Sidney, Lincoln Cathedral, Minden, Alliance, and Humboldt (Bratton Union).