

The Daily Nebraskan

Member
Intercollegiate Press

FORTY-SEVENTH YEAR

The Daily Nebraskan is published by the students of the University of Nebraska as an expression of student news and opinions only. According to Article 11 of the By Laws governing student publications and administered by the Board of Publications, "It is the declared policy of the Board that publications, under its jurisdiction shall be free from editorial censorship on the part of the Board, or on the part of any member of the faculty of the University but members of the staff of The Daily Nebraskan are personally responsible for what they say or do or cause to be printed."

Subscription rates are $2.00 per semester, $2.50 per semester mailed, or $3.00 for the college year. $4.00 mailed. Single copy 5c. Published daily during the school year except Mondays and Saturdays, vacations and examination periods, by the University of Nebraska under the supervision of the Publications Board. Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office in Lincoln, Nebraska, under Act of Congress, March 3, 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 8, 1917, authorized September 10, 1922.

EDITORIAL

Editor Norma Chubbuck

BUSINESS

Business Manager Chuck Burmeister

Religion Topic Of 3rd Union Marriage Talk

"Religion in Courtship and Marriage" will be discussed in conjunction with the Union-YW Marriage Clinic, Wednesday, July 5, from 1:30 until 3 p.m.

The speaker will be Rev. John Douglas Clyde of Lincoln's Westminster Presbyterian church. Rev. Clyde is known to campus circles and Lincolnites as a speaker, counselor, and organizer of youth groups. His topic will cover the place that religion has in marriage, in the family, and decisions along the lines of religion that one must make prior to marriage.

Questions are welcomed, and students, faculty and staff are urged to present their questions in the Union Activities office Wednesday morning.

Chairman of the event is Janet Zlomke, with Ellie Erickson, Ralph Hannaman, Carolyn Kunkel, Mary Hubka as members of the committee.

The two remaining sessions will include a talk by Dr. Janet Palmer on July 12. Her topic will be "Sexual Adjustment in Marriage." July 19, two films will be shown which depict marriage as it is today. The film "Who's Boss" raises the problem of a dual income family, and the film, "Marriage Today," surveys modern marriage. Speakers will be Dr. Malcomb Swanson, staff physician in Student Health, and Mrs. Angeline Anderson, assistant professor of home economics.

Red Cross Crew Gives 'Varieties'

Red Cross entertainers, under the supervision of Joanie Hanson, displayed a variety of acts—from piano to pantomime—before the patients of the State Mental hospital Tuesday, June 27.

Gladys Novotny, pianist, began the show with "Tea For Two" and "Tales From The Vienna Woods." Next Rex Walker played "Twilight Time" and "Lady of Spain" on his accordian. Following this Jack Lange displayed his ventriloquist talents with his side-kick Chester.

Next came Audrey Schuller at the piano playing "Too Each His Own," "Minute Waltz" and "Alexander's Ragtime Band." Also on the program was Margie Shurman, who gave the comedy reading "Gertrude the Governess." Bud Inlay was the next performer, tap-dancing to "Lady Be Good," "Dinah" and "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy."

Following this, a group of all-stars presented the main attraction of the evening, the play "The Pot Boiler." The cast was composed of Elva Mae Thomas, Tom Tobin, Bob Watmore, Jim Hunter, Vaughn Augustin, Esther Jo Fleming, Mary Overback, Carol Jean Sabatka and manager Ralph Hunkins. The play was directed by William Dempsey, who was also master of ceremonies.

Anyone interested in performing in one of these shows should contact Joanie Hanson at 2-2149.

A New York scientist believes man can live between 70 and 90 on a diet of milk alone.

As Seen From... The Cloister

BY FRITZ PICARD

(Editor's note: The opinions expressed by Mr. Picard are his own, and not necessarily those of the Daily Nebraskan or the University.)

Who is putting the finger on Trygve Lie? Mr. Lie, a man of unusual diplomatic talent and heretofore unquestioned integrity, was, until a few weeks ago, a popular statesman who seemed, according to all reports, to be doing his best in a difficult job as secretary-general of the United Nations. Now he has suddenly acquired a "bad press," an avalanche of execration more venomous than that heaped on Ted Williams by the Boston sportswriters or on Clement Attlee by Bertie McCormick.

This treatment reached the editorial pages last week, not long after Mr. Lie's trip to Moscow in an effort to halt the then cold war when, at a press conference, he was asked by a reporter (of the isolationist Chicago Tribune, a fact not mentioned on any editorial pages this past week) whether or not he had ever been a member of the communist party. Mr. Lie indignantly replied that such a question was hardly proper for a man who had to refrain from any partisan remarks in view of the delicate nature of his job in the UN.

It is true that Mr. Lie answered this infantile question with a good bit of asperity, but his remarks hardly justify what has been said about him. However, after the press conference, Mr. Lie again pointed out the necessity for his neutrality. He stated that his record in Norwegian politics was open for all to read and that he was a member of the Norwegian Labor Party, "which is a Socialist, not a Communist party." He went on, "Today I am responsible to all governments and all the peoples of the United Nations and I do not and cannot take part in partisan politics, national or international. The only ideology I advocate is world peace and progress." For such a statement Mr.

Lie has been excoriated in our newspapers. Here are some samples.

"The United Nations is supposed—and you can understand the word supposed—to stand for something more than that. ("That" meaning the world peace and progress Mr. Lie said were his aims.) It isn't much of anything, if it doesn't—and the more Mr. Lie you can underscore 'isn't much of anything.'"

And so Mr. Lie's trip to Moscow, an obviously sincere effort to bring about some understanding between the Soviet Union and the West, is contemptuously referred to as "playing footie with Stalin."

ANOTHER editorial, after calling the secretary-general a "Mr. Big" who "would answer in impressive gobbledegook," offers the following noble sentiments: "And since the United States pays most of the bills for the United Nations" Mr. Lie—Socialist or Communist—is working chiefly for the American taxpayers, who are neither Socialists nor Communists."

This is a wonderful attitude. No doubt it serves to strengthen our friendship with every other nation, increasing, as it must, their confidence in our motives. However, there are a few people who feel that this urging to regard Mr. Lie as our glorified messenger boy is hardly the action of a nation that professes respect for fair play.

Nor is it the policy that should be adopted by a nation which opposes domination of the many by the few. But this attempt to undermine the UN is only one of many. For this reason, it is necessary

Classified

WANTED—Softball pitcher for Class A League. Call Andy at 2-8284.
Typing wanted—Theses, reports, etc. Good quality work. Prompt service. Telephone 5-5295.

'Mikado' Operetta To Show July 9

"The Mikado," Gilbert and Sullivan operetta comes to the Union screen, Sunday, July 9, at 7:30 p.m. as the third in the Summer Artist Series. Sponsored by the 1950 Summer Sessions and the Union, the artist series is free to faculty, students, staff, and guests of the University.

Starring Kenny Baker, John Barclay, and the D'Oyly Carte Chorus, "The Mikado" features all the melodies, lyrics and charming twists which critics have acclaimed. The movie version of the operetta is authentic and filmed in technicolor.

attacks, supposedly caused by Mr. Lie's answer at the press conference, were not caused by that answer.

This can be proved by the following: The press conference took place June 23, but two members of the U.S. Senate viciously attacked Mr. Lie on June 19 in this fashion: "He adopts the same insidious tactics as the Communists themselves and becomes at least their tool, if not their actual ally." Now this drive is part of the attempted sabotage of the UN that has been going on since "prosperity" Herbert Hoover labored and came forth with the sinitillating proposal that we should bar Russia from the UN, the only forum for voicing world opinion, the best means of effective mediation that we have.

DANDEE DIAPER SERVICE

"DOUBLE PROTECTION"

Baby talk magazine free each month. For information call the "Double Protection" diaper service,

1920 So. 12th St. Ph. 3-8853

Men's Sport Shirts

Handsome and Cool

We give NO. Green Stamps

SHORT SLEEVE STYLES

Good looking shirts in solid colors and attractive prints, in a wide variety of fabrics.

- CORONET... Fancy Seersucker Washable... Needs no ironing..... 2.95
- BEAU BRUMMEL... Colored or white Porous cotton mesh..... 1.95
- HOLIDAY... Fancy Rayon Bright floral patterns..... 3.50
- SUN FASHIONS... Hawaiian Prints Made in Honolulu..... 4.95

GOLD'S... Street Floor

AT MILLER'S

Brilliant GUATEMALA SKIRTS

Ready-to-Make Yours to Wear in Less than an Hour!

Guatemala skirts with a hand-loomed, hand-embroidered look, belted and bordered in ancient Mayan motifs. Vat-dyed, pre-shrunk, never need ironing. One size fits everyone, with ample fabric for pleating or gathering. Simple-to-sew instructions on tag. Made by Bates, the manufacturer who makes those wonderful college bedspreads and drapes. 5.95 All yours, just the newest, gayest fun-fashion for college, country, cruise, casual wear.

NINE EXUBERANT COLORED BORDERS

Turquoise, Gold, Copper, Charcoal, Blue, Sand, Coral Pink, Aquamarine.

FABRICS... Fourth Floor

MILLER & PAINE