Eddie Sarkissian Wins Ping-Pong Summer Title

A new Intramural Table Tennis Champion, Eddie Sarkissian, was crowned last Wednesday at the Summer Sessions Tournament, co-sponsored by the Union and the Department of Intramural Athletics. Bruce Cottingham, Bill Kerr, Morteza Solhjo, and Harry Eckert were all victims of a Sarkissian's blistering smashes and near-perfect defense.

In the finals, Sarkissian completely outclassed Harry Eckert in the first game of their match with a 21 to 9 score. Sarkissian fought back from a 18 to 12 deficit in the second game and went on to win with a 26 to 24 score.

In the doubles, Sarkissian and Eckert teamed up to beat Morteza Solhjo and Paul Dzawitz in a tight match. Sarkissian and Eckert walked over Bruce Cottingham and Glen Driscoll in the finals with scores of 21 to five and 21 to 17.

The winners will be presented with medals from the Department of Intramural Athletics.

RAIN

Rain that fosters growing plants
Takes the creases out of pants.

Rain that settles summer dust
Makes the mud that's roundly cussed.

Rain that, with its cleansing fall,
Washes autos, makes them stall.

Rain that fills the dwindling creek
Causes people's roofs to leak.

Rain that's welcome when it's hot
Comes, unwanted, when it's not.

Rain's a mixed-up sort of weather,
Pro and con all rolled together.

Rain is nasty, rain is nifty,
In proportion, fifty-fifty.

—Richard Armour

Regents May Charge Counties for Medicines

The University Board of Regents may charge counties for expensive medicines used in treating indigent patients at the University's Omaha hospital.

Attorney General Clarence Beck Thursday said the legislature has expressly provided that the county of a pauper's legal settlement shall be chargeable for his support.
