

Student Health Center Provides Expert Medical Care . . .

Students with anything from sprained toes to acute pneumonia cases are taken care of at or thru the Student Health center.

As the name denotes, Student Health operates under the University regulations and gives expert medical care to students whenever it is needed.

A staff of competent doctors and nurses, under the direction of Dr. Samuel F. Fuening, are on hand at all times to serve you, as a University student.

ALL THAT NEED be presented when you apply for care at the Student Health center is your identification card. Complete confidential records are kept of all cases entered at the center.

When special care such as major surgical care is needed, students are transferred from Student Health to a Lincoln hospital. These students are put under the care of local doctors of their choice.

Student Health center is located in a temporary building on the mall across from Teachers College high school. The two-story frame structure includes a reception room, nurses station, record room, four doctor's offices, treatment room, nurses utility room, x-ray department and several other rooms on first floor. Second floor includes the hospital bedrooms, some double and some single.

MANY STUDENTS actually enjoy their stays at Student Health, the individual care and attention given all patients.

The Student Health Center is very good insurance against widespread disease. It runs on a principle that good students are healthy students.

You pay for your Student Health care when you pay your registration fees. This takes care of the doctor's fee and most incidental supplies. Such items as medicine, room and board while in the infirmary and x-rays are billed at cost.

Medical attention is available at Student Health center 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

You can always tell a senior by his cap and gown,
You can always tell a junior by the way he struts around,
You can always tell a sophomore by his wisdom, wit and such,
You can always tell a freshman, but you can't tell him much.

Preview Of Social Activities

Your Social Calendar at Nebraska will be full almost from the minute you set foot on the campus.

From your first initiation to campus dances at the Frosh Hop, early in September, to the last spring formal you can be sure of having a "gay social whirl."

Let's take a look at the campus social events . . .

The Frosh Hop, is sponsored annually by members of the Innocents society. This informal event is held in the Student Union ballroom, and members of the Innocents society decorate the room with emblems of campus activities and organizations. Information is also available concerning campus life.

Having the honor of introducing the first campus queen of the year, "Helo Girl," are the independent students at their annual Hello Girl dance.

Sponsored by BABW, the students vote for their favorite candidate as they enter the dance.

STUDENT UNION dances . . . some informal coke dances, other requiring suits and date dresses . . . are held throughout the year, usually on Friday nights. Usually no admittance is charged and a local band or orchestra supplies the music.

It's the first big formal of the year . . . it's the time to plan your evening's entertainment and get your date at least three weeks to a month ahead of time . . . It's the Military Ball.

Held in Coliseum, you will witness the presentation of the Honorary Commandant and a grand march of all University military student officers and their dates.

The big evening usually includes date dinners at one of the nicer Lincoln restaurants followed by the dance.

You'll attend your first big University dance when you join the crowd and attend the Homecoming dance in the Coliseum. Held in November before formal season gets in swing, you and your date will dress in suits and date dresses. You'll dance to a big name band, along with students and alumni of the University, and you'll witness the crowning of the 1951 Pep Queen. This dance is sponsored by the Corn Cob and Tassel organizations.

Finally comes turn-about time with the advent of the Mortar Board Ball, one week following the Military Ball. This is the opportune time for you fellows to play hard to get, or for you gals to dream up some crazy corsage for your date. As a coed you will call for your date, present him with the traditional crazy corsage, pay for his ticket to the dance, and maybe even treat him to a meal.

Along in the spring, upperclassmen take the spotlight with the Junior-Senior prom. Don't be alarmed if you're a frosh. Only "junior and senior" in name, all students are welcome to attend. It's semi-formal, so students arrive in either tuxes and formals or suits and date dresses.

Don't forget the numerous dances held at Ag campus during the year. In the fall Ag students host the campus at the Cotton and Denim dance . . . later they hold the Junior Ak-Sar-Ben ball . . . in the spring they hold the Farmers Formal. The biggest event, Farmers Formal, features the announcement of the Goddess of Agriculture. It is the climax of the biggest event on campus during the year—Farmers Fair.

But don't think that dances are the only social events on the Nebraska campus.

There are coke dates, coffee dates, movie dates . . . you can take your date to the new Hayloft Theatre showing popular stage plays with local and Broadway talent . . . there are the hour dances and tea dances at the sorority and fraternity houses . . . you can try your hand at bowling at one of the Lincoln bowling alleys . . . and you can picnic or swim during the early fall and spring months.

Yes, it's a gay social whirl, and all yours for the asking.
