

Big Three NU Church Night Unity Plan Plans Announced Revealed

Stand Against Aggression Approved

An attack on west Germany or Berlin, "from any quarter will now be considered an attack on the United States, Britain and France, the three countries pledged Tuesday.

The Big Three foreign ministers made the announcement following a week-long conference in New York.

The countries have agreed to stand against aggression adopted previously in the Atlantic pact. The Rio de Janeiro agreement has now been extended to all of Germany not under Russian control.

Plans for sweeping revision of controls over the German economy were also announced by the ministers.

Agreement Revolutionary

The new agreement is the most revolutionary in regard to Germany since the four victorious World War II nations, including the Soviet Union, decided five years ago at Potsdam to reduce Germany to a powerless, semi-agricultural state.

On the Pacific front, U. S. marines stormed across the Han river in darkness for their final assault against Seoul, climaxing the surprise landing last week.

In Indo-China, a French army communiqué said Tuesday communist Viet-Minh troops newly armed in China were used for the first time in attacking the outpost town on Dong Khe on the Chinese frontier.

The army said the town fell Tuesday to the guerrillas after a bitter three-day fight, but that the exact identity of all attackers was not yet known.

City Attacked

The French communiqué said that the city was attacked Sept. 16 at dawn by Viet-Minh units not completely identified, but exceeding four battalions in strength and surprised by artillery and heavy mortars.

Because of the inability to identify completely the attackers, the possibility was left open that Chinese communist troops might have assisted in the fight which left the town in flames. So far there has been no official evidence of Chinese communist complicity in the attack.

In the United Nations Tuesday India stole Soviet Union's thunder by asking that communist China be given the Chinese seats in the United Nations.

Sir Bengal N. Rau introduced the Indian motion after outgoing President Carlos P. Romulo called on the delegates to back up the authority of the United Nations with adequate military power.

For the first time at a United Nations meeting the delegates of the 59 nations observed a minute of silent prayer before beginning their tasks.

Rent Controls Asked

Concerning home front problems, Rent Director Tighe E. Woods is asking congress for new authority to keep or impose rent ceilings where needed, and for the first time to put commercial property under rent control.

A 45-year-old professional diver, Charles Delphs, was pulled free from under a steel beam and the mud, sand and darkness of the Mississippi river late Monday. He calmly announced he'd be back at work Tuesday.

He had been trapped in his divers suit for eight hours and 40 minutes. The depth of the muddy river was estimated at 30 feet.

President Syngman Rhee of the republic of Korea said Tuesday that the South Koreans will advance through North Korea to the Manchurian border.

Addresses Meeting

He told a mass meeting that the republican army will not stop at the 38th parallel, which divides North and South Korea, and said he expected the "United Nations forces will not stop there either."

In London aging Winston Churchill issued his blindest words Tuesday for a political attack aimed at striking down the labor government on a vote of censure and forcing a quick general election.

The tory thunderer chose violent opposition to state ownership of Britain's steel industry.

Physical standards for army and air force enlistments are being lowered at once to the level of those fixed for draft inductees.

This was announced Monday by Fifth army headquarters in Chicago.

Ag Dancing Club To Begin Series

Saturday, Sept. 23 will close the square dance season at the Antelope park pavilion.

On that date, the Ag college square dancing club will sponsor their first dance of the school year. Dancing will begin at 8:30 p. m. to the music of the Texas Stars.

According to Allis Anderson, president of the Ag club, all University students are invited to attend. Admission will be 50 cents.

All students will have a chance Friday night to get acquainted at the annual All-University Church Night festivities, beginning at 8 p.m.

Church groups representing student denominations at the University will hold their parties at various meeting places and all students are invited to attend any of the functions.

The University has set aside the evening for the churches. No other social functions will be in operation at that time.

The events, their sponsors and the meeting places are as follows: The newly merged Presbyterian and Congregational student house is planning a party which will be held at the First Plymouth Congregational church, 17th and F. However, students needing transportation are to meet at the Presby house. There will be roller skating, square dancing and social dancing followed by a program and refreshments. Gary Joselyn and Bill Mundell are student chairmen and Rev. Richard W. Nutt, pastor. Students should wear their sports clothes.

"Boots and Saddles"
The Baptist student house has scheduled a "Boots and Saddles" party at the student house, 315 North 15th. According to Phil Sorensen, chairman, there will be eats, games, introductions, square dancing and lots of fun. Pastor is Rev. C. B. Howells.

Members of the Evangelical Covenant student group have planned a reception party for all students at the Church parlor, 20th and G. According to Warren Berggren, president of the youth group, there will be social fellowship and refreshments. University pastor is Rev. J. Alfred Johnson.

Methodist student house members have planned a "Hayloft

Hoedown" including a square dance to be held at the St. Paul Methodist church. All persons attending are asked to wear cottons and denims. President of Wesley Foundation, Bill Croft, chairman of the celebrations and Rev. Rex H. Knowles is the University pastor.

The Newman Club, University Catholic club, will feature Bobby Mills and his orchestra in the Union ballroom Friday night. It is intended to serve as a welcome party for all students here for the first time. There will be no charge of admission.

Newman Club
Dancing will begin at 8:30 p.m. and will continue until 12. The intermission program includes a welcome speech by Father Schuster. Introduction of this year's officers, and high-lights a vocal arrangement by Mary Pittman accompanied by Gladys Novotny at the piano.

The meeting of the National Lutheran Council will include informal games, introduction of the pastor, singing, and refreshments. Vespers made up of the Lutheran student choir will close the meeting. University pastor, Rev. Alvin M. Petersen will be assisted by Miss Vicki Norstog.

Members of the Episcopal University chapel are planning a "Millionaires" party starting at 7:30 p.m. in the Canterbury Club room, at 13th and R. On the entertainment program are such games as roulette, black jack, bingo and poker games. Phil Hatch, student chairman, said that all games however, will be played with stage money. University pastor is Father Joch Sweigert, who succeeds Father Harry B. Whitley.

Evangelical
Student members of the three Evangelical churches of Lincoln, Calvary, First and Southminster will sponsor a party to be held at the Southminster, Evangelical United Brethren Church at 2918 South 16th.

Lutheran students with Rev. Henry Erck in charge will greet students at the YMCA Room, Temple building. Entertainment of all kinds will be provided by Gamma Delta and a greeting committee is in charge of the reception.

Six Coeds Join Tassel Ranks

Six additional girls have joined the scarlet and cream ranks of Tassels. Recently announced by Tassel president, Shirley Allen, the new girls will fill existing vacancies.

The following is the list of girls and the groups they will represent, Sigma Delta Tau; Lois Gerelick and Sylvia Krasne. Sigma Kappa; Sara Sage, Terrace hall; Betty Lou Weiskemp. Barb at large; Mary Alice Nelson and Wanda Bott.

Tassel requirements include a 5.5 average and sophomore or above standing.

Individual Game Tickets on Sale

Tickets for both the Indiana and Penn State football games are on sale at the University ticket office, Business Manager A. J. Lewandowski announced.

Tickets remain for both games. Starting Monday, Sept. 25, individual game tickets for all home- and away-games can be purchased over the counter, Lewandowski said.

Mail orders will have been filled by that time, he said.

There are 400 season books remaining, Lewandowski said.

Frosh Coeds Meet 'Sisters' Tuesday Nite

About 450 Coed Counselors and their "Little Sisters" met each other Tuesday evening at the annual freshman party.

A skit entitled "Dream Time" highlighted the evening's program. A pantomime, the skit depicted dreams freshmen might have of various campus events and then showed what actually happens. Narrators were Jean Loudon and Elizabeth Gass.

Those in the skit, which was directed by Nanci DeBord and Tish Swanson, were: Elizabeth Rogers, Virginia Magdanz, Jo Elder, Pat Peck, Bev Smith, Nancy Button, Ardath Wilcox, Adele Coryell, Joan Finney, Cecilia Pinkerton and Liz Moody.

Group Singing
Marilyn Campfield, president of Coed Counselors, greeted the "Big Sisters" and the freshmen. Board members and advisors were introduced. Group singing was also included in the program.

The party, held in the Union ballroom, was the first mass meeting of the "Big and Little Sisters" this year. It climaxed the opening of the expanded 1950-51 Coed Counselor program. Previous activities of the "Big Sisters" were concerned with helping the freshman coed register, become acquainted to the campus and introducing her to various University functions.

Big Sisters Write
Activities of the year began during the summer when each Coed Counselor wrote her group of three or four "Little Sisters" to help them with pre-school preparations.

Coed Counselors, under direction of Peg Mulvaney, have also sold freshman beanies this year. Sales of "N" books by the organization are still continuing.

The books, containing a list of campus organizations, information about each, and pictures of the officers, cost 25 cents and may be purchased from any Coed Counselor.

Second Call! Rag Needs Reporters

Second call for reporters! The Daily Nebraskan needs more reporters. All students interested in working for the "Rag" are asked to report to the office as soon as possible. Only a few students answered the call in the Sept. 14th "Rag."

Office hours are from 1-6 p.m. A record will be kept of all reporters so that each will have an equal chance for advancement.

Students from all colleges are eligible to help on the "Rag." Reporting is not restricted to journalism majors.

NU-Indiana Game Set as Dad's Day

Nebraska will hold its second annual Dad's day since 1934 in conjunction with the NU-Indiana football game Saturday, Sept. 30.

This announcement was made by Ted Randolph, innocents representative. The event is sponsored jointly by innocents and the Athletic department.

The day will open with a luncheon at 11:30 o'clock in the Union ballroom Athletic director "Potsy" Clark and one of the player's dads will give short addresses to the group. The player's dads will be honored guests and will sit on the bench behind their sons during the game.

All University students, male and female, are encouraged to bring their dads to the game and luncheon. Students should be sure their fathers have tickets to the game, or can get them before they ask them to attend.

Tickets for the lunch and a short program will be $1.50. They will go on sale Saturday in the Union lobby. The organized houses will be solicited by Kosmet Klub workers.

"Dad's day is a part of Nebraska's tradition that we are trying to revive," Randolph said. "We should like to make this day honoring our fathers a token of our appreciation to them."

Attending the luncheon, Randolph said, would solve the parking problem for dads in attendance. They will be able to park before lunch, eat and walk over to the game.

Freshmen and Upperclassmen Invited to Attend Frosh Hop

Upperclassmen as well as freshmen are invited to the Annual Frosh hop Friday evening.

"All upperclassmen should attend the dance," said Frank Jacobs, innocents in charge, "in order to meet the new freshmen and their own class members."

In addition to the dance, students will be given a chance to become acquainted with University activities. Thirty campus organizations will explain their work in various booths.

The evening's activities begin at 9 p.m. Students will dance to the music of Aaron Schmidt and his orchestra. The activities carnival will be held in Union parlors A, B and C.

Short Skits

Intermission entertainment will consist of a short satirical skit concerning functions of campus organizations. Presidents of these groups will be seated on the ballroom stage, and will be introduced by Jacobs.

Crests and emblems of represented organizations will provide decorations for the ballroom.

Ticket sales opened Monday. Students may buy them from Corn Cobs or a booth in the Union ballroom.

Frosh Pepsters Meet Tonight

Jake Geier, University gymnastics coach, will be principal speaker at a meeting of frosh pepsters tonight at the Union ballroom.

Frank Piccolo, Yell King, and his all-male squad will demonstrate different yells.

Pepsters attending the session are requested to bring their ID cards, $5 for their football ticket and a card from the organization which authorizes them as an official representative of that group. These items are necessary in order to obtain football tickets in the pep section on the fifty yard line.

Dick Kuska, vice-president of Corn Cobs said that freshman members must attend the meeting to obtain their football tickets.

Alternate members of the group are also invited even if they have already purchased their tickets.

Countryman Staff Aspirants to Meet

The Cornhusker Countryman will hold its first regular weekly meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in the Countryman office in the College Activities building. All Ag college students interested in journalism are invited to attend the meeting.

The Countryman is a monthly magazine put out by the students in Ag college. There is opportunity to work with the business or editorial staff.

The first meeting will be devoted to assigning stories for the October issue and organizing the circulation campaign.

All Coed Counselors are urged to bring their "Little Sisters" to the program. All new coeds, Lincoln, dorm and organized house girls are invited.

The second program is scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 27, and will concern scholarship. AWS and Mortar Board members will give hints for studying, explanations of down slips and information on scholastic and professional honours.

The third program set for Wednesday, Oct. 4, will deal with campus activities. Explanations of all campus activities will be given. Representatives of each activities have been invited to attend. The last program is a week before the Activities Mart, Oct. 11, when freshman women may sign up for work.

Shucks Needs Editorial Writers

The Cornshucks is going to be bigger and better than ever this year quotes Frank Jacobs, editor. Seven issues instead of six and it's going to be printed on slick paper! He is calling for editorial or artistic ability. If you are interested contact Frank Jacobs or come to the Cornshucks office in the Union basement any afternoon from 1 p.m. till 5 p.m.

'Hello Girl' Candidate Deadline Set

BABW will start off the social year with the annual "Hello Girl" contest, Sept. 29 from 9 until 12 in the Union ballroom.

Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the "Hello Girl". Selected from candidates from each organized independent house on the campus, the first queen of the year will be presented after intermission voting.

Deadline for candidate entries is today at 5 p.m. Entries may be made at the BABW office in the Union. The following groups and houses may have an entry: Love Memorial, Hepler, Carrie Belle Raymond, Rosa Bouton, Howard, Rundle, Loomis, Love, Cox Wilson, International, Towne Club, Adelphi, Amikita, Palladian and Hesperia.

All candidates will be introduced at the dance about 10 p.m., according to Jo Hoff, BABW social chairman. Voting will take place during intermission. Every one attending will be able to vote.

Tickets will go on sale next week in booths in the Ag and city campus Unions. Tickets may also be purchased from any BABW board member.

Ag to Issue Parking Permits

Parking permits will be on sale in the Ag Union Thursday and Friday, Sept. 21-22 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Sponsored by the Ag Exce board, the permits are required at all University parking lots and along campus streets.

Students must present their registration and ID cards before permits will be granted. All students attending classes on Ag campus are eligible to receive the parking permit.

If the student has a parking permit for the city campus, they will not need another permit for the Ag campus. All students were urged to obtain their permits as soon as possible.

Activity Card Sale On for Two Weeks

The Independent Students Association will begin a concentrated membership drive this week. The drive will run for two weeks, Don Flesher, president, announced Tuesday.

Activity cards will be sold from a booth in the Union from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. each day. Representatives of the I.S.A. Council will solicit the organized houses during the second week.

A maximum of 800 activity cards will be sold. That is the number which could attend a dance in the Union ballroom.

The activity cards, which are selling for $1, will entitle the bearer to come to the following activities: a tea dance on Sept. 30, the annual Bum's Ball on Oct. 13; the Halloween dance on Oct. 27; tea dance, Nov. 3; Autumn Daze, on Nov. 10; tea dances on Nov. 17 and Jan. 12.

The ticket will admit the holder to any other I.S.A. events. The emphasis is at dances, Flesher said, would be to get those in attendance acquainted with each other. Dancing instruction will be provided for those at the tea dances who wish to learn how to dance. Instruction will be held in a separate room from the regular dance.

The I.S.A. also plans to launch an intramural sports program under the direction of Earl Moore. Teams in as many sports as possible will be organized for independent students. A student need not buy an activity card to take part in sports; he has only to fill out a personal data card. As soon as all cards are received the student will be told what team he is on and where he is to practice.

The Nebraska I.S.A. group is associated with the National Independent Students Association. Membership is open to any student who is not a member of a social fraternity or sorority.

NU Enrollment Total Reaches Nearly 7500

Latest figures show an enrollment of 7,478 students at the University, including 338 medical and 124 nurses on the Omaha campus. No new students have registered since Monday.

Drop and add procedure was advancing at a rapid pace Tuesday according to Eunice Willis, office manager for the registrar. According to one University official it seemed as though the whole student body was going through drop and add.

Students should go through the following procedure in dropping and adding subjects:

1. See his advisor and have any changes approved by him.
2. Secure the consent of his instructors.
3. Obtain the approval of the dean of his college.
4. Visit the Military Science building with the properly signed worksheet to re-register for classes.
5. Pay add and drop fees at the Administration building.

Students are asked to note the last step particularly. Last week all fees were paid at the Physical Education building. This week all fees including those for late registration will be paid at the Administration building.

Students wishing to change a class section need not go through add and drop procedure. The class section need only be approved by the head of the department.

Debaters Plan First Meeting

All students who are interested in becoming members of the University debate squad are urged to attend the first meeting, Thursday at 7:15 p.m. in Room 203, Temple building.

Debate director Donald Olson will choose the nucleus of the 1950-51 debate squad at this meeting. All students, regardless of previous experience, are invited.

The debate topic for this year will be: Resolved: That non-communistic countries form a new international organization.

Olson said that there would be plenty of opportunities for new students to participate in inter-collegiate debate conferences, since only ten members of the 1949-50 squad are returning.

The squad will be coached by Olson and Bruce Kendall, who will brief the squad on background information for future discussions.

Home Ec Club Will Hold Picnic

The Home Economics Club will sponsor a picnic Thursday evening at 5 p.m., on lower Ag campus.

Purpose of this meeting is to acquaint the new members with the club and its activities and to introduce the club's officers.

There will be a 50 cent charge for food. Mixer games will be played. All new members are urged to attend.

Ys Campaign For Members; Begin Activities

Beginning its membership drive today, the YWCA will have a days start on the YM in their annual drive for members.

The first event for the year for the YW will be a rendezvous Monday, Sept. 25 from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. at Ellen Smith hall for any girl who is not a freshman. Freshman girls must wait six weeks before they can take part in any campus activity.

Voting members of the YM must participate in at least one major activity, stated Ruth Shinn, YW director. Commission groups open to girls on the campus are knitting and discussion, religious, intercultural, five regions, intercultural, personal values on campus, social service tours, freshman commission workshop, current affairs, noon book reviews, family relations, community service, and senior commission.

Girls may also serve on such committees as publicity, social, office staff, membership, and conference co-op.

The YM program, which starts tomorrow, includes commission groups on Bible study, the church, marriage and the home, political and social actions, and such committees as social, publicity, foreign movies, worship, program, membership and intramural sports.

Charles Kemp, YM director, announced that the program will also include weekly Friday afternoon swimming parties at the city YM and debate teams which will speak in front of church groups and HI-Y's.

Tryouts Begin Wednesday For 12 Parts in 'Antigone'

Students who want to tryout for the first University Theater play of the season are urged to follow this schedule for tryouts: Wednesday, 3 to 5 p.m., and 7 to 9 p.m.; and Thursday, 7 to 9 p.m. All tryouts will be held in the Temple building.

Dean Graunke, director of the first production which is sponsored by the experimental theater, said there are parts for a cast of 12—eight men and four coeds.

The characters described by Graunke as they appeared in the play: Chorus: An ancient Greek guide who leads the audience throughout the entirety of the tragedy, which is based on the Greek myth of Antigone, a Greek maiden, and her father Oedipus. He explains the actions of the players and acts as a narrator.

Antigone: "Tomboy" Antigone: The heroine who is motivated by high ideals. She refuses to compromise with evil and does not care much about her own appearance and is typical throughout the play as a "tomboy." She is straight forward, yet very appealing to the audience. She has definite beliefs about the rights of humanity and becomes a martyr when she attempts to bury her brother, Polynices, against the orders of the Creon, regent of Thebes.

Nurse: An older woman who is a companion of Antigone. She runs the household in a comical and gruff manner.

Pursued by Men: Ismene: A sister of Antigone who is constantly pursued by the young men of Thebes. She attempts to persuade Antigone not to be "so interested in mankind."

Haemon: The son of Creon, the new king or regent. He is engaged to be married to Antigone and is distinguished as a great lover.

Creon: New regent, is ruthless and believes he knows how to handle people. The paradox shows him as a dictator who is cruel and demanding.

Court Guards: Three guards; Prominent as Creon's henchmen who are present at the courts following the capture of Antigone.

Messenger: The foreboding prophet who is constantly long-faced and sad.

Eurydice: Wife of Creon and queen of Thebes.

Any regularly enrolled student of the University is eligible to tryout. This excludes however, freshman women who are not allowed to engage in extracurricular activities until after the first six weeks.
