

Huskers Continue Work for Gophers

DARRELL ROYCE COCHRAN—Sophomore right halfback for the Golden Gophers. He is a star in football, basketball and baseball.

Polish was the aim of the offensive Huskers Wednesday while the defensive unit continued to bang skulls. Coach Bill Glassford had both platoons hard at work during the long session in preparation for their week-end assignment in Minnesota.

Most of the offensive unit were in sweat togs during the afternoon with the exception of the ends. New plays were added to the Husker repertoire especially designed to help the Scarlet offset Minnesota's tremendous weight advantage and make more effective the Nebraska aerial attack.

Against no opposition this unit concentrated on these and old plays.

Nagle's Passes Sharp
Leading the attack was quarterback Fran Nagle whose passes Wednesday looked plenty sharp. On the receiving end of Nagle's flips were ends Frank Simon, George Paynich, Dick Ragler, Larry Carney and Gerry Ferguson along with backs Bobby Reynolds, Ron Clark, Bill Mueller, and Don Bloom.

Paynich and Ferguson moved into the first string, replacing Simon and Regier. Paynich saw some action against Indiana. Ferguson, a two-letter fullback, moved to the end position after the Curtis camp. He did not get into action last Saturday.

Glassford indicated the two would start against the Gophers Saturday. He hopes improved blocking will spring the ball carriers loose.

Also working with the offensive platoon Wednesday were Joe McGill, Walt Spellman, Charley Toogood, Don Strassheim, Art Bauer, Wayne Handshy, Ted Britt in the forward wall.

Working in the backfield were Wingender, Kay Curtis, and Nick Aducci.

Defense Against Frosh
Meanwhile the defensive unit were running against an offensive group of freshmen. Both defense against running and passing were stressed.

Hard pressed by a determined bunch of frosh, the varsity nevertheless turned in some fine defensive work. Outstanding defensive man of the afternoon was Rex Hoy who from his linebacker position broke through time after time for good tackles.

Working with Hoy for the major part of the practice session were Ed Hussman, Rich Novak, Jim Godfrey, George Prochaska, Bob Mullen, Joe Ponsiego, Herb Reese, Jack Carroll, Ted Connor, Don Pedersen, and Dick Goll.

Coach Glassford announced the appointment of Guard Bob Mullen and Halfback Don Bloom as game captains. Both are seniors with two years experience.

Mullen was the Husker stand-out with the defensive unit during the Indiana game. Bloom is available for backfield duty on both platoons.

Meanwhile the Golden Gophers were hard at work also.

Defense against aerial attack was the theme in Minneapolis as Minnesota continued heavy work for the Nebraska tilt. Temperatures in the middle 30's helped keep the Gophers moving. Coach Bernie Beirman finished with indoor work.

Carlson OK

Tackle John Carlson, who suffered a cheek injury at Washington last Saturday, donned a facial mask and was back in the lineup. Joe Hendrickson was moved to the first string offensive squad.

The Cornhusker party of 50 will include 38 players. The squad will work out early Friday afternoon in Lincoln.

The plane trip calling for a 3:45 departure is scheduled to leave for Minneapolis at 4:30 p.m.

Theta Xi Holds for 12-7 Win Over Delta Sigs

Delta Sigma Phi came to within two yards of winning a football game Tuesday night but after all the shouting, were on the short end of the score with Theta Xi proclaimed the winner. The final score was 12-7 for the TX men.

With only seconds remaining in the game, the Delta Sigs unleashed a powerful attack and with the aid of an interference penalty, moved the pigskin to the TX two-yard line. One play in trying for the victory went astray in the form of an incomplete forward pass. As the Delta Sigs ran back to their huddle, the game ending whistle was sounded and all hopes for a Delta Sig victory was gone.

The victorious Theta Xi's scored both their touchdowns in the first half to win the contest.

Bale Stars
Bob Hale first put the TX boys into position with a 50 yard punt return, but they lost the ball on downs on the Delta Sig eight. Taking another punt, Bale gave the winners a first down on their opponent's 30.

On second down Bale flipped a short pass to Roback who rambled all the way to score. Bale's pass for point was batted down.

Early in the second period a Bale to Donarico pass, good for 23 yards, proved to be the game winning score.

The Delta Sigs came back strong after intermission and controlled the game thereafter, but could chalk up only a lone tally. This came after Darrell Adamson and Jim Pettijohn combined on a 50 yard pass play and moved the ball to the Theta Xi 15. On the next play Adamson hit Bob Hallock in the end zone for the score.

The win gives the Theta Xi's a record of 1-1 in league III competition, good enough for third place.

SAM Downs Tekes, 1-0

Sigma Alpha Mu edged Tau Kappa Epsilon by the narrowest of margins in their grid battle Tuesday night, the final score being 1 to 0. Yardage determined the final victory after the score ended, 0-0, and even that was close.

The Tekes' first attempt for yardage in the overtime was cut short by a pass interception by Jack Swedelson who was in the Tekes hair all evening.

The first two Sammie tries resulted in incomplete passes but the third struck pay dirt. The pass from Paul Galtier to Swedelson was for only two yards, but that was more than enough to give them their first victory in as many starts.

The Sammies controlled the game from the point of statistics all through the contest but could never quite push the ball across the goal and make it stay.

Twice Galtier hit Swedelson with touchdown heaves, one a 35 yard affair, but both times the play was called back and the Sammies were assessed penalties.

That same combination gave the Tekes trouble all evening, the Sigma Alpha Mu line giving Galtier plenty of time to get his passes into the air.

Tau Kappa Epsilon threatened but once but Sterkel and company didn't have the final push to win. The win boosts the Sammies into a first place tie with Brown Palace in league III.

Delta Chi Falls To Pioneers

Delta Chi and Pioneer played a marathon contest in intramural touch football Tuesday with Pioneer whetting out a decision by virtue of extra yardage gained in an overtime period.

The scoreboard read 6-6 at the end of regulation play. The best the Delta Chi boys could do was a minus two yards when they were given the ball.

But the Husky Pioneers promptly won the decision by racking up 13 yards when they had their whirl at the pigskin.

Delta Chi jumped into an early lead in the game on a first quarter touchdown from Mickey Sarter to Vern McKenzie. Their try for the extra point was no good and they held a 6-0 lead.

From that point of the game it was strictly an offensive minded Pioneer team against a defensive minded Delta Chi team.

Pioneers Threaten
The Pioneers drove down to the Delta Chi nine-yard line on one occasion but were unable to shove it across. The Delta Chi line made the supreme stand once more during regulation play by holding Pioneers on the two-yard line.

In the third quarter it was Pioneer's turn to get the breaks. Don Hanson intercepted a Sisley pass and ran it back for a touchdown. Their try for the game winning point also went for naught.

Neither team was able to score in the fourth frame but Pioneers took full advantage of their over-time opportunity.

Yanks Edge Phillies, 1-0 on Raschi's Two-Hitter

Brown's Double Blasts Konstanty's Bid for Win

By Bill Mundell

Behind the masterful two-hit pitching of Vic Raschi, the New York Yankees Wednesday took the opening game of the 1950 world series by the narrowest of margins, 1-0.

As in the past few years, the opening contest was a pitcher's battle all the way. Raschi's mound opponent and surprise starter, Jim Konstanty did a creditable job in holding the American League champions to but four hits in the eight frames he worked. Russ Meyer, pitching for the Phillies in the ninth after Konstanty had been lifted for a pinch-hitter, allowed the Yankees one more safety and the winners finished the game with a total of five.

Fourth Is It

The lone Yankee tally came in the fourth inning. Doctor Bobby Brown opened the inning with a ringing double into left field. Hank Bauer followed with a fly out by center that moved Brown to third and another fly out by Coleman in left field moved Brown home with the only point in the contest.

The Phillies threatened but once, that coming in the fifth inning. With one away, Puddenhead Jones lined a single over second. Granny Hammer, next up, flied out to right. Andy Seminick, the Blue Jay catcher then shot a sharp single to left, moving Jones to second.

Here the rally fell short as Raschi bore down and Mike Goliat went down swinging.

Threaten

The Yankees were in threatening positions on four occasions besides the fifth inning, but Big Jim tightened-up on the Yankee sluggers and no damage was done as far as the score was concerned.

In the opening inning the first two Yankees got on as Woodling walked and Phil Rizzuto smacked a single into left. Berra, DiMaggio, and Mize were retired in order after that to take care of that Yankee threat.

In the third frame Raschi opened with a single and Woodling followed with a base on balls. Rizzuto sacrificed the two runners along and with one out, the Yanks had men on second and third.

Yogi Berra then clouted a long fly to Sisler in left field. Raschi headed for him at the catch, but a great peg by Sisler drove him back to third. DiMaggio was intentionally walked to load the sacks, but Mize, next up, popped-up to end the inning.

Only Error

In the seventh after one was out, Raschi reached first on Jones' error, the only miscue of the game. Woodling came through with a hit to center to advance Vic to second. Konstanty came through in the clutch and forced Rizzuto to pop-up and Berra to ground out to save the Phillies once again.

In the final frame, once again the Yanks pushed a man into scoring position on Bauer's single and Raschi's sacrifice but a great pick-up by Seminick caught Woodling at first to end the inning.

The two-hit performance of Raschi was the tenth such feat in the history of the classic and is the 11th 1-0 score in all the years of world series play. The first two games last year ended in a 1-0 score, the Yanks leading the first and the Dodgers winning the second.

It was also the second series victory for the right-handed Raschi. His first came in the final contest last year.

A disappointing crowd of only

30,776 were on hand for the game. A full house of 35,000 was expected.

For Thursday the probable pitchers will be Ed Lopat for the Yanks and Bubba Church for the Phillies.

Philly hurler Curt Simmons was given a ten-day furlough Wednesday by the Army and he could be added to the weakening Blue Jay pitching staff very nicely if the Philly head office decides to use him. To date, however, they have stated that he will not be used in the series except for batting practice pitching.

Sig Nu's, Theta Xi, Phi Deltas Lead in Intramural Tennis

By Frank Schuchart
Staff Sports Reporter

With the first round matches completed, three fraternities share the lead in the intramural fall doubles tennis tournament. Netters from Sigma Nu, Theta Xi, and Phi Delta Theta tallied a total of 20 points each during the opening round contests last week.

Beta Theta Pi tennis followed close behind the leaders as they compiled 15 points on three victories.

Kappa Sigma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Farm House are tied for third with ten points, while ATO, Sigma Chi, Beta Sigs, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Psi, and Presby House players scored 5 points.

Second round matches scheduled for Tuesday evening were cancelled because of the cold weather, but it is hoped that they can be completed this week.

Tourney officials asked that all participants in the tournament check the bulletin board in the P.E. building daily so they will be sure to be informed of their matches.

Pi Kaps Drop Cornhusker

An offensive minded Pi Kappa Phi grid team gave the Cornhusker Coop a 13-0 shellacking Tuesday night at the Ag Campus fields.

The Pi Kappas wasted no time in settling down to the business of the evening. Jack Oniel crossed the Cornhusker goal line in the first quarter. Wally Leach did things up right by darting across the double stripe for the extra point.

Neither team could get a sustained drive underway during the second and third quarters. Dale Flood and his Cornhusker colleagues mixed running and passing plays but couldn't find the right spark to go all the way.

The Pi Kappa's took a fourth quarter opportunity to score again. This time it was Warner Sheffield's turn to do the honors. He crossed the goal line standing up to sew up the victory for Pi Kappa Phi.

Iowa State Will Meet Iowa Tutors

The touchdown lovers ought to have a holiday at Ames Saturday when Iowa State plays host to Iowa Teachers in the fourteenth football game between the two schools.

In the last four games played between the two schools there were an average of 44½ points scored each time. So far this year Iowa State games have had an average of 28½ points scored while those of the Panthers have had 53.

The Teachers have scored 13, 33, 33 in the three games they have played.

Iowa State will be seeking its second win of the young 1950 season when it meets Iowa Teachers. So far the Cyclones have defeated Colorado, 14-7, in a Big Seven contest and bowed to Northwestern, 23-13, in a non-conference tilt.

Teachers has defeated North Dakota, 33-21, and North Dakota State, 33-25. South Dakota State stopped the Panthers, 34-13, in the opening game of the season.

All men interested in trying out for the varsity swimming team are asked to meet with swim coach Hollie Lepley on Monday October 8 from 3:45 to 5:15 p.m. in the coliseum pool.

Farm House Hits ZBT

Farm House took a 6-0 decision over a determined Zeta Beta Tau outfit Tuesday out at Ag Campus.

The two teams battled back and forth for the first quarter with neither one making a lot of headway.

But Farm House was to have their moment of glory in the second quarter. They jumped into command of the game on a 25 yard touchdown toss from Jim Weber to Sonny Karges. The try for the extra point was no good and Farm House led 6-0.

Zeta Beta Tau got a heart breaking decision later on when Marshall Kushner packed the mail all the way over the Farm House goal only to have it called back because of a penalty. Kushner's gallop went for 30 yards.

Neither team offered much in the way of offense after that and Farm House coasted on to their one touchdown victory margin.
