

ED HUSMANN... was tops defensively speaking for the Cornhuskers Saturday, breaking up Colorado play after play.

DON BLOOM... played excellently on defense for the Huskers. His pass interception was timely.

VERL SCOTT... play his usual good linebacking play at Colorado Saturday. His pass interception helped.

DON BOLL... was rugged on the line for Nebraska. He stopped many a ball carrier during the day.

Husker Frosh Show Promise In Thrashing Jr. Wildcats

By Jim Kostal
Staff Sports Reporter

Wait till next year! Once again this statement will become a popular slogan when Cornhusker football fans gather to talk about the future of Nebraska football. That was proved last Saturday afternoon as Coach Ike Hanscom trotted out his hoard of red-jerseyed Freshmen players onto Memorial Stadium sod to give a spirited Kansas State Frosh eleven a real lesson in football. The final score was 34-12.

JERRY MINNICK... sparkled on defense for the Husker frosh in Saturday's game with Kansas State.

BILL NOBLE... Saw plenty of defensive duty for the freshmen in their 34-12 win over Kansas State.

The Husker yearlings outplayed the K-Staters in every department of the game. So completely were they outclassed that Ray Novak, a star halfback on the 1950 squad, was used exclusively for kickoff duties after the first quarter. Even this chore became tiring as the afternoon progressed. Players as Dennis Emanuel, Bobby Decker, and Don Vogt seldom got to lug the pigskin because of the weakness of the opposition.

Only in the second and fourth quarters did the Nebraska defense weaken enough for the Wildcat yearlings to score. One of these touchdowns came on a long pass, the other was the result of the Nebraska team failing on a fourth down gamble, and the Wildcats took over and drove over for their final score.

Many Passes

Jerry Garris, the Kansas State quarterback must surely have a tired right arm this evening as he threw an amazing total of 25 passes and completed but 3 of them. Thus pass defense, which is the main worry for the Varsity at the present time, should be vastly improved in future years with boys such as Dick Westin, Bobby Decker, and Sam Sarette to break up pass plays.

Two Frosh ends, Jim Senkbeil and Jerry Paulson, deserve special praise for their fine defensive play as do tackles Steve McGill and Jerry Minnick, guards Marvin Anderson and Harvey Goth, and linebacker Bill Noble.

Leading the Nebraska scoring parade were five different backs, showing the depth of Coach Hanscom's backfield this year. Sam Sarette opened the scoring for the Frosh as he raced over the Kansas State goal standing up with five minutes left in the first quarter. Bobby Decker calmly made the first of his six extra points and the Huskers sported a 7-0 lead. Before the afternoon was over, Bobby had himself a total of six extra points in seven tries. His last effort of the day was blocked, thus ruining his chance for a perfect record.

Novak Close

Ray Novak was loose on what would have been an eighty-yard run only to lose his footing as he was evading the last Wildcat defender on the Nebraska 44 yard line.

Harold Gallagher, Hot Springs, S. D., fullback completed the first half scoring for the Husker yearlings on an end sweep that completely felled the Wildcat defense.

Dick Westin, fleet-footed running star of the game, scored the third Husker touchdown late in the third quarter. Don Vogt bucked over from two yards out for the fourth, and Dennis Emanuel scored the fifth T.D. on a fine fourth-quarter run.

Outstanding on offense for Nebraska's Frosh besides Westin were George Ghode, ex-Lincoln high star, and Sam Sarette, the Berwick, Me. lad. Sarette also got off some fine punts on the few occasions he was called upon to perform his specialty.

The lad who did an outstanding job of quarterbacking, running, and passing was John Bordogna, a Turtle Creek, Pa., product. With him and all these other Freshmen players around for the next three years, Varsity Coach Bill Glassford won't have many problems for the future.

Huskers Return Home to Face Penn State Lions

Final Non-Conference Foe; Big-7 Competition Tough

By Bill Mandell
Sports Editor, Daily Nebraskan

Well—it's back to easy non-conference competition as the Cornhuskers prepare for this Saturday's battle with Penn State.

The Huskers found that they were entered in a rough football league last Saturday as twice beaten Colorado spoiled Nebraska's debut in league play by walling the Huskers, 28-19. So, it's back to work for Bill Glassford, his crew, and the varsity.

This Saturday's opponent, Penn State, is the last non-conference foe for the Huskers this season. Following this game in Memorial Stadium, the NU gridders must meet Kansas, Missouri, Kansas State, Iowa State, and Oklahoma in that order and all of them tough.

Of the five, Oklahoma looms as the toughest because of being defending champion and also on the strength of their 14-13 win over Texas last Saturday. Also, Iowa State and Kansas look harder to hurdle because of their wins over Colorado earlier. Kansas bopped the Cyclones last Saturday, 33-20.

Penn State Tough

But, looking at this Saturday's game with Penn State which is more immediate. Although the Cornhuskers have been the most successful against non-conference to date, Penn State will be no soft touch. The Nittany Lions have a powerful ground attack that will keep the Huskers on their toes all afternoon.

Saturday's defeat at the hands of Colorado was hard to take for most of the Husker faithful who had visions of grandeur. It was hard for them to believe that Colorado could have been that tough. It was hard for the gridders themselves to take the Buffs too seriously. And in evidence of the game the Huskers definitely were below their Minnesota peak.

But not to take anything away from Colorado, the Buffalos played a smashing game and simply outclassed the favored Nebraska men. Their blocking and tackling were terrific and their backs were continually in the Huskers' hair, both offensively and defensively.

Except on one spectacular run by Bobby Reynolds, the vaunted Nebraska one-two punch of Reynolds and Bill Mueller failed to get the chance to perform. The Husker linemen were continually outcharged and the holes that were supposed to open, just weren't there.

Reynolds Runs

On one occasion, however, Reynolds went as it should and

Bobby Reynolds scooted 84 yards to score behind good blocking and terrific interference downfield.

Reynolds again was the whole scoring show for the Cornhuskers as all 19 of the Nebraska points were recorded beside Bobby's name. Just before the half, Bobby took a five yard pass from Fran Nagle in the end zone for the initial Husker points.

His 84 yard run produced the second NU tally, and Bobby received another Nagle pass late in the game for the third and final score. His conversion after the third touchdown provided him with the 19th point.

The Huskers almost had another when with but seconds remaining in the first half, Ron Clark intercepted a Colorado pass and eluded tacklers down to the Buff ten yard stripe. The half ended before the Huskers got to use their four downs. It is not too much to believe that if Clark could have gone all the way on that play, it would have broken the backs of the Buffalo spirit, but as it was—the Buff spirit was not broken and Colorado was not to be denied the victory they had worked for so hard all week.

The Husker defense had more individual stars of the day as many a Buff back was set down with jarring tackles. Leading the way were Ed Husmann, Verl Scott, Don Bloom, Ron Clark, Don Boll, and Dick Goeglein.

BOBBY REYNOLDS... offensively was the only Husker able to shake the Buffalos. He scored all 19 points.

Phi Psi's Rally to Overcome 18 Point Lead

Talk about comebacks! The gridders of Phi Kappa Psi pulled one for the books Thursday night as they overcame an 18 point fourth quarter deficit to surprise Alpha Gamma Rho by a 20-18 score.

Going into the final period, the Phi Psi's were hopelessly beaten and on the short end of a 18-0 score, but nobody told them that they were whipped. Three times they pushed the ball across the AGR goal, the last time with only 20 seconds remaining in the game. It all happened this way: Alpha Gamma Rho started off with a bang by scoring the first time it got hold of the ball. A 20 yard pass play put the ball on the Phi Psi 2 yard line from where Gene Engle flipped to Glenn Moritz for the touchdown. The try point failed, but that didn't bother the Aggies.

Early in the second period Moritz intercepted a pass by Bob Britton and scampered 25 yards unmolested to boost the AGR score to 12. The important point failed again, but the AGR's were not through yet.

In the same stanza, Dave Noble of Phi Psi went back to pass. His aerial never reached his intended receiver's arms as Del Olson plucked it for the Aggies and dashed 25 yards for a touchdown. The third try for point went astray as the half ended, 18-0 in favor of Alpha Gamma Rho.

During this initial half, the Phi Psi's were completely outclassed and never got anything resembling a drive under way.

The second half was different however. In the third quarter they suddenly came to life and their running and passing started to click. They looked like the superior team on the field except for the one thing, they couldn't score.

But score and score they did in the final period. Noble unleashed a 30 yard pass that Dick Hollander gathered in on the one and stepped across to score to open the scoring parade. Hollander turned passer for the point and flipped to Britton. With six minutes remaining the score stood, 18-7.

The AGR's took the ball, failed to gain, and punted and the Phi Psi's were off again. Four plays put them on their own 30. On the next play Hollander stepped back and fired a long one to Crawford who went all the way to score. The play covered 45 yards. The same combination clicked for the point and with a little over a minute remaining the score stood at 18-14.

Alpha Gamma Rho took the ball and attempted to stall. In doing so they lost considerable yardage and with their backs to their goal, were forced to pass. This is what Phi Psi's were waiting for and with 20 seconds remaining in the game, Roberts reached out, intercepted an Aggie aerial, and stepped forward two yards to give Phi Kappa Psi the spectacular victory.

The first went to Frogge and the ball was on the Newman Club 26. The next, also to Frogge, moved the ball to the ten. The third went to Sam Pearis and was good for a touchdown.

Late in the same period they started again, this time from their ten yard line. Leggett passed to Pearis who lateraled to Jensen, the play good for 30 yards. Then Leggett hit Frogge who made a beautiful over the shoulder catch and the Baptists had their game, 31-0.

Taus Regain Top; K. Sigs, Sig Nu, Newman Club Fall

- ALL-UNIVERSITY
1. Alpha Tau Omega (2-1).
  2. Brown Palace (3-0).
  3. Sigma Nu (3-1).
  4. Phi Delta Theta (2-1).
  5. Presby House (4-0).
  6. Sigma Phi Epsilon (5-0).
  7. Delta Tau Delta (4-0).
  8. Kappa Sigma "B" (3-0).
  9. Pi Kappa Phi (4-0).
  10. Bengals (2-0).

Alpha Tau Omega is back on top of the intramural grid ratings this week after losing it for one week. The Taus battered last week's top team, Sigma Nu, by a 12-6 score to regain the leading spot. Sigma Nu in the number three position.

Holding fast to the runner-up spot this week as last is Brown Palace. The Palacers lost a chance to move into first place over the week by failing to get into action. They did pick up one win, however, a 1-0 forfeit from Zeta Beta Tau.

Phi Delta Theta remains the number four team. The Phi Deltas, also, were inactive last week. Highlighting the 2-1 record is a 6-0 victory over the top ranked Taus, the ATO's only loss.

Presby House, also, failed to get into competition over the week and hung on to the number five rung. Their 4-0 record keeps them well above the other denominational outfits.

Holding down the number six position in the All-University ratings is Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Sig Eps were unrated a week ago due to an erroneous score, but have been reinstated to their rightful position this week. Their record of five wins and no losses is the finest in the University to date. Last week the Sig Eps downed Beta Sigma Psi, 6-0.

Delta Tau Delta is the number seven team, holding tight to the rung they claimed last week. The Deltas dropped the Betas over the week, 20-9.

A newcomer appears in the number eight spot this week. Kappa Sigma's "B" squad has moved into this position with a 3-0 record to date. Two victories last week, 2-0 over Delta Upsilon and 6-0 over Sigma Nu, topped the Kappa Sigs.

The K. Sig "Bees" have the distinction of being ranked higher than the Kappa Sig "A" squad. The "A" team absorbed a 13-0 licking at the hands of Delta Upsilon last week to drop them out of the standings altogether. It was the first win in four starts for the DU's.

Pi Kappa Phi climbed a peg since last week and currently are ranked number nine. The Pi Kaps turned in two victories last week, a 19-0 shellacking of Acadia and a 8-7 squeeze by Theta Xi.

The top Independent outfit, the Bengals, this week is ranked in tenth place. The Bengals, sixth last week, slid because of inactivity. They did pick up a win, however, a 1-0 forfeit from the Lillies. The Lily forfeit gave evidence that they will not defend their Independent championship won last year.

- DENOMINATIONAL
1. Presby House.
  2. Ag YMCA (3-1).
  3. Baptist House (2-2).
  4. Newman Club (2-2).

Following Presby House in the Interdenominational ratings this week is the Ag YMCA. The Aggies moved up from fourth last week due to a general shuffling and hold a 3-1 record.

In the number three denom spot is Baptist House. The Baptists have cut loose with a late season spurge. After dropping their first two starts, last week they showed the rest of the league some power. Tuesday they bopped Inter-Varsity, 7-0, and Friday they crushed Newman Club, 31-0.

Following the Baptists come Newman Club and InterVarsity.

Sigma Chi Wins
In the Fraternity "B" ratings,

Theta Xi Rolls To 36-0 Win

Theta Xi scored in every period to crush Tau Kappa Epsilon Thursday night by a 36-0 score. The TX men chalked-up one touchdown in each of the first three quarters and exploded for two more and a safety in the final stanza.

For the Tekes, it was just too much. Bob Bale as the TX back passed to 22 points.

Al Blaha was on the scoring end of the first Bale touchdown flip in the first quarter. The play covered 25 yards. The same combination provided the TXers with their second score in the second quarter, this time covering 30 yards.

In the third period, Larry Donarico speared a Tekes pass and ran 60 yards to boost the winners' margin to 19-0. Bale's pass made it 20 markers going into the final period.

The fourth quarter continued to hail touchdowns on the Tekes' heads, but first Theta Xi added two points on a safety. Jim Ochmer, back to pass for the Tekes, watched a high pass from center sail over his head and out of the end zone for the two-pointer.

- FRATERNITY "A"
1. Alpha Tau Omega.
  2. Brown Palace.
  3. Sigma Nu.
  4. Phi Delta Theta.
  5. Sigma Phi Epsilon.
  6. Delta Tau Delta.
  7. Pi Kappa Phi.
  8. Sigma Alpha Mu (3-0).

  10. Farm House (2-1).

1. Bengals.
  2. Sigma Gamma Epsilon (3-0).
  3. Ag Men's Club (2-1).
  4. Wheels (2-2).
  5. City YMCA (1-0).

Following the leading Kappa Sigs, come Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Chi, Beta Theta Pi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Sigs are newcomers this week and gain the number three spot by virtue of their 8-6 win over the Betas. Last week the Phi Deltas crushed the Phi Gams, 21-0.

After the Bengals in the Independent ratings this week are Sigma Gamma Epsilon, Ag Men's Club, Wheels, and City YMCA. Last week's activity saw the Sig Gams drop the Ag Men, 19-6 and the Wheels whip the Tridents, 19-0.

The Fraternity "A" standings this week are similar to the All-U ratings for the first four teams. Number five, six, and seven positions go to Sigma Phi Epsilon, Delta Tau Delta, and Pi Kappa Phi.

A newcomer is in eighth place this week. Sigma Alpha Mu, unbeaten in three starts, holds this rung. Last week the Sammies downed Farm House, 7-0.

Another new face is number nine. Phi Kappa Psi, which roared back from obvious defeat to whip the AGR's, 20-18, last week is in this spot.

Farm House drops a peg this week by losing to the Sammies and rounds out the top ten.

Baptists Stun Newman Club

The Baptist Student House, roaring along behind the accurate passes of Loren Leggett, crushed favored Newman Club Friday by a 31-0 score. The Catholics were never in the game as the Baptists marched up and down the field, seemingly a new team.

Leggett began his flipping early in the game. The first time the Baptists got the ball, he directed them to a score. The actual scoring play was a 29 pass play from Leggett to Dick Frogge. A 30 yard aerial to Jim Jensen had setup the score.

Early in the second period Jensen took a Newman Club punt on his own 12 yard line and raced 63 yards to score behind terrific blocking. Before the half the Baptists scored again. This time Leggett scooped up a loose Catholic fumble and raced 25 yards to make the halftime score 19-0.

The Baptists completed the scoring in the third period with Leggett passing all over the field.
