

Jayhawks Are Proven Formidable Grid Foes

Kansans Lead Conference; Reynolds-Hoag Duel Looms

by BILL MUNDELL
The Cornhuskers face a real toughie this weekend. And Coach Bill Glassford made them realize that fact Monday afternoon by pushing them through continuous drilling. "Beat Kansans" has become the battle-cry of the Huskers, but that's easier said than done.

The Jayhawkers currently are riding atop the conference standings with two victories in two starts. In those two victories the rampaging Jayhawks have averaged 30 points per game, while giving their opponents 21 in each contest.

In all games played to date

by the Kansas outfit, four wins have been chalked-up in five contests. Only a 7-14 setback at the hands of TCU in their opening game mars their record. Following the TCU defeat they came into their own with convincing wins over Denver (46-6), Colorado (27-21), Iowa State (33-21), and Oklahoma A & M (40-7).

Just First Half
Against the tough Oklahoma Aggies last Saturday, Coach J. V. Sykes' boys ran up the 40 points in the first half and then allowed second and third stringers to play out the game.

All season long they have displayed a brilliant ground game to go with a fine passing attack.

They boast a big list of stars, headed by Sophomore Charley Hoag, who is second only to Nebraska's Bob Reynolds in total yards gained by rushing and who is third in the Big-Seven scoring race. "Churning Charley" is the best bet for sophomore of the year according to reports from Kansas, and they are waiting for him to get a crack at Reynolds.

Others in the KU galaxy of stars are Wade Stinson, Bill Schaake, John Amberg, Fox Cashell and Bob Brandenburg. All rank well up in the list of the Big Seven's leading scorers.

Against the powerful line-up which had a half-game rest last Saturday, throw the tired and beaten Cornhuskers and you can see why the Kansans are being rated two-touchdown favorites.

60 Minute Fight
The Scarlet and Cream had to fight all 60 minutes to subdue Penn State Saturday, so had little time for resting. And out of the victory came numerous bumps and bruises that will make Coach Glassford's chore no easier.

Scarlet right halfback Bill "Rocky" Mueller came out of the State contest with a bruised leg and was still favoring it quite a bit during Monday's drills.

Fullback Kay Curtis reinjured the back that has been giving him trouble all year.
Charley Toogood was sporting a couple of dandy black eyes and a swollen nose in Monday's practicing. Charley, who is directly responsible for springing Bobby Reynolds loose on his long runs, is picking-up a beating in the close line play.

Monday the entire varsity first string, offensive and defensive, were running in sweat togs. Play perfection and conditioning were foremost on the agenda which calls for rough stuff Tuesday.

Scrimmaging
Meanwhile the second string was going at it hard and fast against the freshmen. Game conditions were in effect for the scrimmaging on Memorial gridiron. Both outfits used the platoon system fluently.

The frosh kept the upper hand during most of the afternoon's scrimmaging. Good blocking and hard running were boosting the frosh yardage total considerably.

Gymnastics Team Elects Dunavan Captain for Year

The Varsity gymnasts elected senior Al Dunavan captain of the 1950 squad at a recent meeting. Since the beginning of the year, the gymnasts have been working out daily in the Physical Education building in preparation for the first inter-squad meet which will take place on Nov. 21st.

Dunavan, working all six events, has been the mainstay of the squad for the past two years. This year will be his last year of competition with the team. Also seeing his last year of competition will be Art Hillman who was number one man on the side horse last year.

Coach Jake Geier's team received a tremendous boost of strength with the addition of Bruce Riley to the varsity squad. Riley who is a junior college transfer is strong on the high bar, flying rings, parallel bars, side horse, trampoline, and tumbling. He graduated from Omaha Tech in 1948 where he was a state champion gymnast.

Events and men which are vying for varsity berths are the following: High Bar—Dunavan, Bob Yarwood, Paul Hughes, and Riley; Horse—Dunavan, Hillman, Yarwood, Bob Swalm, and Riley; and Rings—Dunavan, Hughes, Jerry Tubbs, and Riley.

Other events are Parallel Bars—Dunavan, Riley, Hughes, and Tubbs; Tumbling—Dunavan, Ira Epstein, Riley, Hughes, and Tubbs; and Trampoline—Dunavan, Tubbs, Hughes, Riley, and Bob Norton.

While the varsity is busy rounding into top shape, Assistant Coach Phil Sprague is molding a freshman squad together with the idea of toppling the older boys. In last year's first meeting between the two squads, the yearlings edged the Varsity in a closely contested battle.

Working with the freshman outfit are Bill Eledge who works all the events; Dick Grosshans, High bar, Rings, and Parallel bars; Tom Kidd, Trampoline, Parallel bars, and Tumbling; and Dwayne Barrons, Parallel bars, and Rings.

Other boys working on the young squad are Doug Clark and R. E. McCoy.
Coach Geier commented that he would probably have a couple of the Varsity crew working with the freshmen in the meet.

The gymnasts are tentatively planning on performing at the Veteran's Hospital on Friday, Nov. 17th.

Presby Slips By Methodists

By Jack Mays
Interdenominational champion, Presby House, finished its league play Friday night with a 10-0 victory over the Methodist Student House to give the Presbys a perfect record of six wins going into the playoffs. But the Methodists made a battle of it all the way.

For the Methodists, the two halves were just about 30 seconds too long as the first Presby score came with only six seconds left in the first half and the final Presby tally came with only three seconds remaining in the game. Except for those two lapses, the unbeaten Presby attack was stymied.

Both outfits battled at midfield during the first quarter and most of the second. With only two minutes remaining in the half, the Presbys got their first attack under way. With Rex Knowles throwing and Bob Shuler catching, they advanced the ball to the Methodists' 4-yard line. From here and with time left for only one play, Knowles flipped a scoring pass to Bill Mundell. Knowles tossed to Gary Joselyn for the point and the half ended 7-0 in favor of Presby House.

Stop And Go
The third period was much the same as the first with Presby beginning to roll and then losing the ball either on downs or on intercepted passes. Late in the game, however, the winners managed to move again. Joselyn and Bill Pratt were the cogs in this drive and as the game ended Pratt sighted Joselyn in the end zone and hit him with a 24 yard strike. Shuler tossed to Wynne Northworthy for the final point.

Delts Rip Phi Psis

By Glenn Nelson
The passing arm of Keith Skalla proved a deciding factor as Delta Tau Delta sent Phi Kappa Psi reeling from a 28-0 defeat Friday.

Skalla figured in three touchdowns and four extra points. The first touchdown came when Bert Sample passed to Skalla for 45 yards early in the first period. Skalla hit Barney Sprague for the point. Minutes later he rifled a pass to Elmer Vandell in a 60-yard play for the second Delt marker. Skalla's flip to Bill Keeney for the extra point was good.

Don Woods fell on a fumble over the Phi Psi goal line in the closing minutes of the first half for the Delt's third counter. A pass from Skalla to Dick Lander bagged the point and the score remained 21-0 at the half.

The third quarter saw Phi Kappa Psi offer their only sustained drive of the game. Passes from Bob Britton and Dick Hollender brought the Phi Psi's to the Delt 15 yard line before Keeney intercepted. Two passes, Skalla to Woods, and Lander to Skalla brought the Delt's to the Phi Psi 15 yard line.

Ray Mladovich speared a Skalla aerial over the goal on the next play and Skalla fired to Vandell for the point, making the final score 28-0.

The win was the fifth in six stars for the Delt's and gave them second place in league II standings. It was the third loss for the Phi Psi's who finished the season in third place in that league.

win over a tough Inter-Varsity outfit coupled with the Friday win over the Y boys boosted them back into contention.

After the contest had ended in a scoreless tie, Newman got the first chance for yardage and although losing ground twice, wound-up with a net of 15 feet. The Ag Y defeat was final when their first try, a pass, was intercepted.

The City YMCA capitalized on the Wheels' shortage of players Saturday to win handily, 27-0. Mustering only four men, the Wheels could not cope with the Y attack, which scored once each in the first and third quarters and twice in the final period.

Wheels Lose to City YM, 27-0

The City YMCA capitalized on the Wheels' shortage of players Saturday to win handily, 27-0. Mustering only four men, the Wheels could not cope with the Y attack, which scored once each in the first and third quarters and twice in the final period.

The loss was the fifth in six games for the Methodists and definitely eliminated them from playoff contention.

Newman Club clinched at least a tie for second place in the Interdenominational division of intramural football Friday night by edging the potent grid team of Ag YMCA. The final score via yardage was 1-0.

The win climaxed a great comeback by the Catholics. Starting the season in easy fashion, collecting two forfeitures, they suddenly ran into successive defeats by Presby House and Baptist House. Last week's 7-6

This year as in the last three years, the Cornhusker football followers will be counting on Rex Hoy, a senior guard, who hails from Lincoln, Neb.

Rex is 22, weighs 183, and stands 5' 11." He graduated from Lincoln High school in 1945 in which he lettered one year as a tackle in football, and one year as a hurdler on their track team. He has lettered three years in football and is after his fourth this year.

Sig Nu Wins Frat Tennis Tilt; Weaver-Blocker Win

By Jim Kostal
The 1950-1951 Intramural Fall Tennis Doubles Tournament is rapidly drawing to a close with the crowning last Friday of All-Fraternity, Independent, and Consolation Champions.

The All-University Doubles Champion will be determined in a match between Walt Weaver and Don Blocker, the All-Fraternity champs, and Jimmy Collins and Phil Sorenson, the Independent titleholders.

The Fraternity Consolation winners were Bob Kubitschek and Bud Hamilton, both members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity.

The new fraternity team champion is Sigma Nu, replacing Phi Delta Theta, last year's champion. The Sigma Nu's finished with a total of 70 points, fifteen points above Theta Xi and Phi Delta Theta, who both had 55. Following the three leaders were Beta Theta Pi with 40 points, Sigma Chi with 20, Sig Alphas with 15, and Farm House with 10. Tied for 8th place were four teams with 5 points each. They were Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Sigma Psi, Phi Kappa Psi, and Kappa Sigma.

The consolation bracket was not included in final scoring because only two matches were actually played. Nevertheless, interest was high as a total of 142 players entered the tournament and played first round matches.

For the new All-Fraternity champs, Walt Weaver and Don Blocker, both of whom are members of Phi Delta Theta, it was a long road to victory. They defeated Bob Crook and Bob Bale, Theta Xi, for the crown.

The newly-crowned Independent champs, Jimmy Collins and Phil Sorenson, defeated Carl Wear and Tim Nelson for their title.

Bob Kubitschek and Bud Hamilton, Consolation winners, earned their title by virtue of a victory over Bob Carter and Don Maxey, Sig Eps.

Tau Bees Win; Drop Sig Nu's

In a game between two fighting teams, neither one of which had scored a point in intramural competition, Alpha Tau Omega "B" demolished a Sigma Nu "B" team by a 22 to 0 score Saturday.

In the first quarter ATO Bill Weber passed to Gene Cotter for fifteen yards and a touchdown. And they added the extra point on a short pass from Mac Bailey to Lyle Blue, making the score 7-0, Taus.

The boys from Alpha Tau Omega must have greatly enjoyed that first touchdown, as they roared on for two more in the second quarter. The first came as the climax to a long drive when Bailey hit Olson from the six yard line. Blue gathered in the extra point attempt, also from Bailey, and the Taus led 14 to 0. The second score in that quarter came as the result of an interception of a Sigma Nu pass by Richardson on the Sig Nu 25 yard line. Bailey found the range again for the ATO's, swelling the score to 20-0.

The Sigma Nu's kept the Tau attack at bay the second half, but found its own attack stifled also. Bob Pecha caught a Sigma Nu passer in the end zone late in the third quarter for a safety, and there the scoring ended.

Thus the ATO's won their first game of the year and the Sigma Nu's protected their record of not scoring a point yet this year. Bailey was outstanding for the Taus while Babcock stood out for the losers.

Sig Gams Collect Narrow 1-0 Win

Sigma Gamma Epsilon continued its unbeaten ways Friday night by edging previously unbeaten City YMCA, 1-0 on yardage. The two teams battled tooth and nail for the regulation four quarters with both refusing to yield even as the result of an interception of a Sigma Nu pass by Richardson on the Sig Nu 25 yard line. Bailey found the range again for the ATO's, swelling the score to 20-0.
