.688 Mo.

.688 Mo.

Mo.-Ok. A&M

Ga. Tech.

Ky.

Ky.

Ky.

Ky.

Ky.

Ky.

Ky,

DON STRASHEIM . . . slated to start for the Cornhuskers as offensive guard. Don has

DON BOLL , . , gets the nod

VERL SCOTT . . . stellar linebacker starts his fifth contest in that position for the Corn-

Underdog Huskers Leave for Kansas for a starting guard berth on the Husker defense platoon at Nebraska's Cornhuskers went the situation brightened up a bit. injured a leg against Penn State has not been working out with the team this week, but Coach Mueller. Bill Glassford said that he would see action.

both to start against the Kan- omore

to start the fray

Ends Improve More good news came from form of improved end play-a vulnerable spot in the Nebraska line in early games. Looking good and starting for the Huskers at offensive ends Saturday

Sophomores George Paynich through their last practice on and George Prochaska have also home sod before shoving off for shown a bright spark and are Kansas Thursday afternoon and slated to start the defensive ends. Charley Toogood will see ac-Good news is that Bill tion on both offense and defense "Rocky" Mueller will be in ac- at Lawrence. Charley and Curtis tion against the Jayhawkers as are the only ones named by will Don Bloom. Mueller, who Glassford to start on both units. Toogood was chosen as co-captain of the fray along with Bill

The Husker squad lost another ee action.

Bloom injured his neck in Schreiner of Hastings dropped Wade passed his illustrious practice Tuesday night and has football this year. Bob had made been wearing it in a semi-cast little progress from an early seasince then. Glassford has slated son appendectomy. He is a soph-

At Lawrence, Coach Sikes sent Kay Curtis, bothered by back his club through another of-injuries all season, is also slated fensive-defensive drill. It was obvious that "Churning Charley Hoag will not carry all the offensive load against the Huskers the Husker practice field in the as a new star, Wade Stinson, is coming up fast.

Stinson Hot

Stinson, a tightly-wound Kan-

BILL MUELLER

I-M Keglers Get Under Way; Skalla, Anderson, SAE High Intramural bowling got under ords of 2-1. The K. Sigs tripped way this week with ten matches Pi Kappa Phi while the Nu's being completed in the four lea- downed Sigma Alpha Epsilon. gues. Seven teams out of the 20 in action over the week are sporting perfect records of three wins and no losses with the other three winners getting a 2-1

CHARLEY TOOGOOD

Phi Gamma Delta and Delta Tau Delta are perched atop league I after the first two nights' competition, both with 3-0. The Figis swept the three matches from Delta Upsilon while the Delts downed Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Skalla Tops

istered the single game high score over the week with a 213

2-1 win over Sigma Phi Epsilon. that league. Theta Chi, Sigma Chi, and Delta Sigma Pi all sport perfect records of three wins to stand in first place in league H. The Theta Chi's downed Brown Palace and the Sigma Chi's tripped Beta Theta Pi.

Delta Sigma Pi earned their three wins over Farm House. The Pi's total of 802 in the final petition. game was worth mention-the second highest this week.

Phi Delta Theta is the lone leader in league III by sweeping their three games from Theta Xi. Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu are in second place with rec-

Phi Delt Upset By SAE, 27-0

SAE turned giant killer Wednesday night at the ag campus as they stopped the rampaging Phi Delts cold in their tracks. It was the last game of the season for both teams and the Sig Alphs pulled the surprise of the by dropping the Phi Delts, 6-0 in an "A" engagement.

The game was much more one sided than the score indicates. two other occasions the SAE's narrowly missed touch-They were residing on the Phi Delt two yard line when the contest ended.

The game's one lone touch-down came in the second quarter as Joe Gifford heaved a fifty yard pass to John Leach who caught it in the end zone. Phi Delt defenders knocked down a Bob Scoville to Gifford aerial try for the extra point.

Sig Alph completely bottled up the Phi Delt offense which had before been one of the most feared in the league.

SAE's High

The Sig Alphs had the top game score of the week, however, as they chalked-up an 816 in their first game with the Nu's. B. Roeser of Sigma Nu had a creditable 517 for three lines.

in the second highest line score were smashed beyond recogniof the week with a 201 in the tion when a faulty trip-flare exfinal game with the Kappa Sigs. His score was instrumental in the Pi Kans gaining the third game Skalla Tops from the KS boys by the slim the accident occurred. Gangrene Keith Skalla of the Delts reg-margin of 775 to 770. hit Stinson's forearm three days

In league IV only one match after has gone into the books. The Lu- nearly lost his entire arm. theran Student Association down-In third place after the first ed the Newman Club keglers week is Pioneer House with a three straight to take the lead in

Andreson Has 530

Andreson and Olson came through with scores of 530 and 505 for their three lines, Andreson's is tops for the first week. Alpha Kappa Psi, Dental Freshmen, and the Methodist House have yet to get into com-

Grid Playoffs Are Postponed

The intramural department announced Thursday that the beginning of the football playoffs will not be Friday as previously scheduled, but will begin Monday instead. Six fraternity "A" games will be on tap at 4:30 p.m.

at the Ag College fields. 70th and South

DANCE SATURDAY, SEPT. 16

JIMMY WHITE ORCHESTRA

ALWAYS THE FINEST IN DANCING

Adm: $1.00 Tax Incl.

pled hand, will go into Saturday's battle with Nebraska second only to the Cornhuskers' Bobby Reynolds among league ground gainers. Underpublicized and underrated at the season's start, the lightning little guy to date has unreeled 429 yards and five touchdowns, not only good enough to pace the Jayhawkers' new overland attack but also to teammate, Charlie Hoag, in their own private derby last week when he rolled 116 yards against Oklahoma A. & M. as Kansas reaped its fourth straight victory, 40-7. The big clip here was a 68 yard dash off a counter Stinson's sudden burst to prominence this season . . . senior hitch . . . has fitted the Jayhawkers with a slashing trident, of which Hoag and Fullback John Amberg form the other two prongs. Their combined running has lifted Kansas to sixth among NCAA giants with an average of 303.0 yards per game, highest in Red and Blue annals. Hoag is rolling at 421 net in 75 carries, despite the oppositions' constant ganging of his favorite lanes, while Amberg is sixth among conference runners with 273 in 39 lugs.

Good Performance

Used in only one game as a Kappa Sigma sophomore, and only for spot assignments last autumn, Stinthis in the opener against Texas Christian with a hard-ripping performance. He gained only 51 vards in 14 carries but it was he manner in which he tore through tough tackling from the Frogs' eight and nine man lines impressed the coaching

He, like KU's team, has improved each week. While the enemy watched Hoag, the fearome Oak Park, Ill., whizz, Stinson has made the most of his opportunities. You could say that's been his formula all the man high school football back- Lee on the receiving end. ground, a carload of determination, and that badly shattered left hand. He was fresh from a two-year grind in the hospital where the army medics performed a minor miracle in re-Kochelek of the Pi Kaps turned storing fingers and palm that ploded prematurely. Stinson, a first lieutenant, was on bivouac at Camp Robinson, Ark., when the accident occurred. Gangrene hit Stinson's forearm three days Sig Nu Edges the explosion and he

DEFENSIVE

HB Don Bloc S Ron Clark

OFFENSIVE Frank Simon Charley Tongond Art Baner Joe McGill Don Strasheim

G Bon Strasorio T Walt Speliman E Dick Regier QB Fran Nagie Liff Bob Reynold RH Bill Maeller FB Kay Curtis

N. W. .663 Mo. Colo. 111. Ohio St. Purd. Bill Mundell Bob Banks .638 Mo. Colo. III. Ohio St. UCLA N. W. Ohio St. Purd. Wis. Colo. Jack Cohen .638 Mo. Colo. III. Ohio St. UCLA N. W. .613 Mo. Dick Ford Frank Jacobs .613 Mo. Colo. Ind. Ohio St. Purd. Wis. UCLA III. Ohio St. N. W. Rod Riggs .613 Mo. Colo.

Ill.-Ind.

Ind.

Ind.

Colo.-Utah

Colo.

Colo.

Know Your

Percentages

C. Burmeister

Jerry Warren

B. Reichenbach .738 Mo.

ford has a talented backfield from which to pick. One of these backfield men that he will be counting on will be Jack Carroll, senior halfback, who hails from McCook, Nebraska. Jack is 23 years old, weighs 160, and stands 5-9. He graduated from McCook High School where he lettered three years in football, two years in basketball, and also was on their boxing

Jack is a senior in Teachers College and he is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity.

Taus Crush

wasn't considered seriously their winning ways Wednesday yards a game. Weeks has averin KU's first string plans this evening as they roared past a aged 183.6 yards of completions season. Hal Cleavinger, well-re- completely demoralized Kappa a game.

the three extra points. Knox have Jones also turned in a top-notch performance, catching three of the four TD passes and carrying for the other extra point.

Bick to Jones combination with trains its big guns his way, Bick tossing from the 20 yard stripe. Jones skirted end for the extra point and the Taus held a 7-0 first quarter lead.

half, but the ATO team went in- ment, to high gear in the third quarter as Bick tossed to George Mackey Palacers Stop Stinson reported as a freshman three years ago with a six-extra point, this time with Kirk Theta Xi, 6-0

Early in the fourth period Bick tossed a 45 yard strike into of the evening. Brown Palace stopped Theta Xi, 6-0. Wednesday at the Ag Campus. The game was nip and tuck through the first three quarters to the control of the evening. Brown Palace stopped Theta Xi, 6-0. Wednesday at the Ag Campus. The game was nip and tuck through the first three quarters.

Taus added insult to injury as score. But the Brown Palace Bick fired a ten yard shot to, yep, you guessed it, Jones for miscue in the fourth period to the final tally.

early lost his entire arm. Phi Gams, 6-0 Sigma Nu's "A" football team writed until late in the game to score six points and take a tightly contested ball game from the Phi Gam "A" squad, 6-0, at the Ag campus Wednesday night.

It was a see-saw battle until midway through the fourth quarter when Bob Hinde intercepted Phi Gam pass on the Phi G 40 and ran it back to pay dirt. Later in the period saw the Sigma Nus threatening again only to have their scoring opportunity thwarted when Jim Schlieger intercepted what was intended for a touchdown pass.

TOMORROW NIGHT!

SATURDAY, OCT. 28, 8:30 P.M.

1950 FIREMAN'S BALL

University of Nebraska Coliseum

Admission-ONLY $1.00 Fer Person, Tax Incl.

Freshmen to Meet Experts Choose Fighting Irish Strong Buff Frosh Although sports experte throughout the nation predict that

Here Are Your Winners

Ohio St.-

Iowa

Ohio St.

Ohio St.

Ohio St.

Purd.-UCLA

UCLA

Purd.

der gridiron. The Junior Husk-ers will be seeking their second Harold Gallagher, Sam Sarette, win in as many starts against and Don Vogt, the Coloradoans.

The Junior Buffs will be no on the offense are Dick Westin, pushover, however. The Husk- Bobby Decker, Dennis Emanuel. ers' opponent is heralded as the and Ray Novak. best Freshman team the Colorado campus has ever seen.

Coach Ike Hanscom's boys in the line by 18 pounds per man. The backs are a little evener distributed but the team as a whole will outweigh the Huskers by 15 pounds per man.

by speed and deception. He will call on John Bordogna | guards. of Turtle Creek, Pennsylvania to lead the frosh attack at quarterback. The out-of-state frosh drew a lot of praise from those watching him perform against

Weeks to Test Okla Defense

That age-old argument about the irresistible force and the immovable object is going to get its 1950 twist in Ames, Iowa Saturday when Iowa State plays host to the University of Oklahoma's all-conquering footballers.

Bill Weeks, brilliant young Cyclone passer, will play the party of the first part-the irresistible

Most recent national statistics show Weeks to be the leading passer in the nation with 63 completions. The same issue of figures shows that Oklahoma is the best team in the nation's defense against passes, allowing 32.7 per ATO "A" footballers continued cent of completion for just 45

Weeks has had plenty of praccent of completions for an average of 71 yards a game. So the Iowa senior will have had plenty of work against the difficult de-The first score came on the fenses even before Oklahoma

A year ago Weeks completed 18 of 27 passes against the Sooners, collecting 281 yards for his work for the day. Jim Doran Kappa Sig managed to hold caught 203 of the yards for a new during the remainder of the first national record in that depart-

In one of the tightest contests

Later on in the stanza the with neither team managing to seven capitalized on a Theta Xi score the deciding points. Mel Williams snatched a Theta Xi aerial on the midfield stripe and raced down the field to the

BARBER SHOP

223 NORTH 14th

11/2 Blocks South of Student Union

HAROLD'S BARBER SHOP

N.D.-M St.

N. D.

N. D.

N. D.

N. D.

N. D.

N. D.

M St.

M St.

M St.

Wis.-N.W.

N. W.

Slated to start on the offen-sive line are Bill Giles and Ladd squad from Michigan State. Other The Buff outfit will outweigh | Cochran at the ends, Jerry Minnick and James Jones at tackles,

On the defensive line will be George Bauer and Jerry Paulson Coach Hanscom will try to at the ends, Jerry Minnick and overcome this weight advantage James Jones at tackles, Marvin

Anderson and Cliff Dale at the In the backfield the defense will find Jim Tangedall and Bill Schabecker at the linebacking posts, Sarette and Westin at the halves, and Bobby Decker at safety. Hanscom named Decker and Gallagher as game co-captains. The Husker frosh will be out to avenge the 28-19 loss suffered by the Nebraska varsity at Boulder two weeks ago. The trip to Boulder calls for lunch stops at McCook both going and returning. The gridders will stop at the Shirley-Savoy Hotel in Denver and drive over to Boulder Saturday morning. They'll return at 8 p.m. Sunday team will play the party of the second part—the immovable object. Farm House set of the evening, TKE downed an overtime period. Farm House, 18-2, Wednesday in the second quarter as Paul touchdowns in each of the first Gil Rosenberg. three quarters and kept the Ag men from scoring until the final even keel after that until the zone. Tom Sterkle attempted to running play that clicked for the stopped short of the goal. Johnson's interception of Rol- end of regulation play.

and Reynolds' pass set up the second TKE TD. It came on a selves together in the overtime long pass from Cannaday to period to take the 8-7 victory. Sterkle in the end zone. Cannaday's extra point pass to AUF. Davidson fell incomplete.

The last touchdown was set up when the hard-charging TKE line broke through and blocked MIDNIGHT a Farm House punt on the 15 yard line. On the next play Cannaday fired a pass to Johnson for the touchdown. A Sterkel to Davidson extra point pass was incomplete.

Farm House's only points came late in the game when the Ag men's line broke through and blocked Sterkel's punt forcing him to fall on the ball behind the goal line.

DANDEE DIAPER SERVICE

"DOUBLE PROTECTION"

Baby talk magazine free each month. For information call the "Double Protection" diaper service,

1920 So. 12th St. Ph. 3-8853

YOU want to learn to DRIVE?

MOWBRAY MOTORS

Authorised Dodge-Plymouth Dealers

(Formerly Mowley-Lyon 12th & Q Sts

Tel. 2-1231

Penn.-

Navy

Penn.

Penn.

Penn.

Penn.

Penn.

Penn.

Penn.

Penn.

Wash.

Stan.

Stan.

Wash.

Wash.

Wash.

Wash.

Stan.

Wash.

Wash.

Notre Dame's ten year streak 7:30 a.m. this morning enroute to meet the Colorado freshmen Saturday afternoon on the Boul
Starting in the offensive backbraskan prognosticators stand fast with the belief that the Also available for Ike's call Fighting Irish will at least keep

The gridders from South Bend, games which will cause some de-Marvin Anderson and Harvey the Purdue-U.C.L.A. tilt, the Goth at guards, and Jim Oliver Northwestern-Wisconsin match, and the Washington-Stanford battle. On these games five of the experts pick Purdue, North-western, and Washington, while the other four choose the teams' opponents.

Teams receiving all nine votes are Missouri, Colorado, Ohto State, Pennsylvania and Kentucky.

Last week's top picks were Bill Mundell's Navy over U.S.C. tab, Frank Jacob's selection of Indiana over Notre Dame, and Rod Riggs choice of U.C.L.A. to down Stanford. Due to these picks, these three were the only ones to achieve percentage gains.

To us so little, to them so much. Give today to AUF.

Delta Sigs, 8-7

Delta Sigma Phi almost handed the Sigma Alpha Mu sootballers their second upset in as many games Wednesday evening. But the Sammies managed to stave off a late surge and Turning in the second big up- over come the Delta Sigs, 8-7, in

The Tau Kappa Epsilon foot-ballers dominated play through-for six ponts. Galter passed again out the contest as they scored for the extra point, this time to The two teams played on an garded Manhattan sophomore, Sig "A" outfit, 27-0.

Dick Bick was the big gun at right half during the early for the Taus as he passed for milling. But Stinson changed all four touchdowns and two of have permitted only 29.1 per statistics, and the control of the same when the working against tough defenses. His own Cyclone teamform a pass from Ralph Cannaday on a pass from Ralph Cannaday to Dairell Adamson who skirted and the control of the same and two of the same are milling. sensational catch in the end end for the score, It was the same run for the extra point but was extra point enabling the Delta Sigs to tie the SAM's 7-7 at the

But the Sammies pulled them-

For a better world, donate to

The KISS of DOOM!

DOORS OPEN 11 P. M.

