

Huskers Hosts to Spirited Wildcats

By Bill Mundell

A spirited band of Wildcats from Kansas State invade Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon, determined to make things a little gloomy for the Big Seven contending Huskers. Most prognosticators are giving the Huskers a wide margin of victory, but the pepped-up band of Aggies see things differently.

Upset is foremost in the minds of the K Staters who are pointing to this game as a Wildcat victory. Still fresh in the minds of the Kansas State faithful is that 13-7 Nebraska victory at Manhattan last year. The Wildcat is still burning over that defeat, especially since the Huskers did nothing to win except in the first ten seconds and the last minute of the first half.

Clark Scampers

Ron Clark's opening kickoff runback of 100 yards was a blow to the Aggie hopes and they are determined not to let anything resembling that happen this year.

Kansas State's Ralph Graham saw his charges come within the proverbial whisker of winning a Homecoming game for the first time in eight years as they pushed and passed their way at will against Iowa State last Saturday only to come out on the short end of a 7-13 score. Three times the Wildcats were within the Cyclones' 10-yard line only to see the TD doors close—something they are determined won't happen against the Huskers.

But the word from Manhattan is that the Iowa State game is long forgotten and the only thing they are concentrating on now is how to stop "Nebraska and the sensational Bobby Reynolds."

The Staters are expected to be at full strength in the line, with the possible exception of end Glenn Channell, still hobbled by an early season knee injury. But in the backfield, it's another story. Halfbacks Hi Faubion, Ralph Tidwell and fullback Elmer Creviston are definitely counted out of the fray and halfback Gene Gill still is a question mark. All have bad knees.

Although his squad is definite underdogs against the resurging Nebraskans, Graham figures his crew still has a few surprises left in their battered war bag.

One of the big reasons for optimism in the Wildcat fold this week was an outstanding passing job done by quarterbacks Frank Hooper and Lane Brown. Last Saturday Hooper hit on four passes for 110 yards while Brown connected on two for 43 yards.

The K State outfit will employ two versions of the T formation against Nebraska, one, the regular T which the Husker defense has handled successfully; but, two, the split-T which the Scarlet defense found running them ragged last Saturday.

Coach Bill Glassford sent his gridders out into the cold Thursday afternoon for their drills to start getting them used to it. Saturday's game will undoubtedly be played in near freezing weather.

Two Iron Men

Ron Clark was added to the one-man list of Charley Toogood and will start on both offense and defense. Clark, usually a starter as safety man on defense will be called upon to fill the shoes of injured Bill Mueller who may not see action Saturday. Toogood has been starting at tackle on both platoons the past few games.

Guard Art Bauer and tackle Walt Spellman have been named co-captains against Kansas State. Both are starting on the offensive eleven.

Kappa Sigs, Delta Sigs Stop Placer's, Nu's Win Streaks

By Glenn Nelson

The intramural volleyball league standings continued to tighten Wednesday as two of the three previously unbeaten clubs suffered their first losses of the season.

Sigma Nu, which had won six straight going into last night's matches, dropped all three of its games to fourth place Kappa Sigma in League I. The Kappa Sigs ran up scores of 15-8, 15-2, and 16-14 while moving into second. The loss, however, did not move the Nu's from first place.

Brown Palace, another crew which lost its perfect record, downed Delta Sigma Phi two to one with scores of 10-15, 15-8, and 15-0. The Palacers are still at the top of the League III ladder with a 11-1 record.

Cosmopolitan Club remained the only unbeaten team. They added three tilts to their list of 12 games without a loss by smashing fifth place Nebraska Co-op 15-6, 15-8, and 15-6. The win put Comc Club well ahead in League V.

In other League I play, Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Alpha Tau Omega twice in three tilts with scores of 15-9, 13-15, and 15-13 but dropped to third place. The other match in that league saw Delta Upsilon, the last place team, move into fourth by winning two out of three from Phi Gamma Delta, 15-6, 13-15, and 16-14.

Sigma Phi Epsilon took over first place from Alpha Gamma Rho in the only League II match, winning three straight. The Sig Eps ran up scores of 15-8, 15-12, and 15-9 to drop the AGR's into a tie for fourth place.

Sigma Alpha Mu continued its strong bid for League III honors, downing Theta Chi two to one to hold second place. Their scores of 16-14, 16-14, and 11-15 dropped Theta Chi into sixth place.

In the same league, Farm House romped Pioneer House three times, 15-8, 15-6, and 15-12 to remain behind third place Delta Sigma Phi.

Also in League III, Theta Xi climbed from eighth to sixth after receiving three forfeits from Zeta Beta Tau. That drops the ZBT's to last.

In the only league IV match of the night, third place Baptist House edged Methodist House two of three tilts with totals of 15-11, 15-2, and 9-15. The one Methodist win moved them up to fifth in that league.

Recognize these keys?

Eight are the famous keys of national honor societies. No. 9 is an important newcomer. It's the Bell System's new keyset for the direct dialing of Long Distance telephone calls. And, though not yet "national," it already has "chapters" in more than 900 cities and towns.

By pressing these keys, your operator can dial calls straight through to telephones in many distant places. Calls go through faster, more accurately.

Automatic dialing of Long Distance calls by operators, a development of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, is being extended steadily. This new method of putting through Long Distance calls is especially important right now, when the nation is counting on telephone service to help speed the job of defense.
