

AT MILLER'S

Sorcery for the Military Ball

Surpassing any party you attend while in college, the MILITARY BALL stands alone as an evening of complete enchantment . . . a momentous social event with beauty and excitement measured to a whirl of dancing, compliments, delight. Your formal ensemble for that evening is so important, that we have flown in dresses fresh from New York! Drop in early to find yours among our sparkling selections. Be early . . . be lovely December 1!

A. The lure of Black, here glorified with deep gilt lace bands edging the taffeta overskirt, a whiff of net skirt in the grand Ball manner. Also in Champagne. 69.95

B. Exquisitely bouffant. Jade Green rayon net in thousands of tiny ruffles makes up the deeply-cut pannier skirt, swirling over elegant satin. $100

C. Fit for royalty—your elegant wrap in Golden Flame, or plain Gold flame brocade. Deeply cuffed, sumptuously colored. $35

DRESSES . . . Fashion Floor . . . Second

D. Clutch bag in metallic Gold . . . a treasure to carry for it's capacious as well as ornamental. Others in Black Velvet. 4.95 plus tax

HANDBAGS . . . First Floor

E. Dancing feet deserve just such formal fantasies as these barely stripped sandals of Gold or Silver Kid. High and medium heels. 14.95

SHOES . . . Fashion Floor . . . Second

F. Because they'll show as you dance . . . show them off! Formal and flattering, Beautiful Bryan "Sandle Toes" hosiery, so very sheer and in delicate evening shades. 1.95

HOSIERY . . . First Floor

G. Trifari designs diamond-lovely baguette cut rhinestones in a blazing evening ensemble. Immense "Snowflake" earrings. $25 plus tax. "Leaf" necklace (perfect formal length). $30 plus tax.

JEWELRY . . . First Floor

Military Ball, December 1

H. The occasion demands ball gown gloves . . . 15-button White kid gloves, for ultra glamor. 12.95. Other styles, short to long. Black or White 6.95 to 12.95.

GLOVES . . . First Floor

Mortar Board Ball, December 8

MILLER & PAINE

