

Carson to Emcee Annual Fall Show

A familiar face will greet persons in attendance at the 1950 annual Kosmet Klub Fall Revue, Friday at the Coliseum.

Jack Carson, master of ceremonies for the Revue the last three years, will be back again. Gerald Matzke, in charge of between-the-skits entertainment, stated that the well-known entertainer would again offer his services in his favorite role as emcee.

Carson, an honorary member of Kosmet Klub, graduated last year from the University. He majored in radio work and has been active since then with his own radio program over WOW-TV.

A quick wit coupled with an ability to perform magic, has won Carson plaudits from many audiences. His amazingly large repertoire of humor has raised howls from attendees of Ivy Day ceremonies and Coed Follies in past years.

In 1948, he was one of six final candidates for the honor of Prince Kosmet.

The Revue will begin at 8 p.m. Friday evening following. Tickets are 80 cents and may be purchased from any Kosmet Klub worker or at the Union booth.

Broadway Theme

All of the skits will portray "A Mythical Tour of Broadway," which is the central theme of the Revue. Scenes will depict the general atmosphere of Broadway as it appears to the theater-goer, the man on the street, or perhaps a tourist in New York for the first time. The accent of the show is on comedy and music.

Every group participating in the Fall Revue must meet at 7:30 p.m., sharp, at the Coliseum for dress rehearsal.

The fall and spring Kosmet Klub shows have unfolded quite a history. Since the Klub was originated in 1911, it has shared a unique position with only one other well-known organization of its kind in the country.

In 1911, several members of the junior class of that year worked together in presenting a play for the entertainment of the student body.

Annual Event

The venture was so successful that they decided to make it an annual event and accordingly organized a men's dramatic society which they named the Kosmet Klub.

During the Klub's beginning years, women were allowed to participate in the shows. However, in 1927, the demand for an all-male cast caused the Klub to return to its original policy. Girls in the shows were ignored for awhile.

In 1940, a mixed cast appeared in the Fall Revue and in 1941 coeds participated in the Spring shows. Since then, coeds have not taken part in the shows.

There was probably never more color to a Kosmet Klub show than in the spring of 1927 when, during a production, the ancient playhouse theatre, one of Lincoln's oldest, burned to the ground leaving the organization owing $4,000 for property losses. To make up the deficit, two hurriedly-produced revues and a benefit ball were organized.

1929 Fall Revue

Highlighting the 1929 Fall Revue was the premiere of the song, "Sweetheart of Nebraska," written for the annual presentation of the Nebraska Sweetheart by Joyce Ayres, '30, and Lamar Burling.

In 1936, the Spring Revue, "Southern Exposure," with its perennial all-male cast, paraded before the newsreel cameras, with Paramount, Fox and Universal News companies making the trip to Lincoln. The films were nationally distributed.

The Klub was inactive during the war years of 1943 to the fall of 1946, but has returned full strength with Fall Revues and spring musical comedies.

Styles Shown At Counselors' Annual Dinner

Versatility was the keynote in the fashions modeled at the Coed Counselor banquet, Wednesday, Nov. 15 in the Union ballroom.

Coeds representing organized houses modeled all kinds of campus wear from pajamas to formal dresses including school clothes, coats, sports wear, and afternoon dresses.

The models were: June DeGraw, Howard hall; Alice Engler, Terrace hall; Alice Engler, Wilson hall; Janice Brown, Towers club; Bezzie Smith, Pi Beta Phi; Audrey McCall, Alpha Xi Delta; Jane Fletcher, Kappa Alpha Theta; Virginia Poppe, Delta Gamma.

Faye Shradler, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Lois Ann Miller, Alpha Phi; Dee Swenson, Sigma Kappa; Joan Richards, Kappa Delta; Grace Burkhardt, Delta Delta Delta; Nancy Beal, Alpha Chi Omega; Anne Lear, Gamma Phi Beta and Lenore Baird, Sigma Delta Tau.

Ann Leuder and Peggy Marble announced the girls as they came across the stage.

Elsie Ford Piper was a special guest on the evening's program. Helen Snyder, Elvera Christiansen, Mary Augustine, and Mary Nielsen were also honored guests.

Mary Hubka was general chairman for the banquet which climaxed the first six weeks of get-togethers between freshmen women and their "big sisters."

Sunday Last Pheasant Day

Nebraska's 23-day long pheasant season, already accepted as one of the most successful and productive hunts in recent years, draws to a close Sunday, Nov. 19, one hour before sunset.

But with the end of the pheasant season, Nebraska hunters needn't lay down their guns. They can continue shooting ducks and geese until Dec. 3.

The rooster pheasant limit this year is four, larger than any other state in the nation. This in itself shows the excellent job the State Game Commission has done in building up the Wildlife resources of Nebraska the last few years.

Blue Print Staff . . .

Prize Winning Blue Print Published for 50th Year

The Blue Print, official magazine of engineering and architecture students at the University, began its 50th year of continuous publication with the October issue.

It is notable not only for the length of time it has been in existence, but also for the honors it has won in competition with schools who are members of Engineering College Magazines Association. For instance, last year the magazine's editorial page won second place among the 32 entries. An alumni news column, collected by Miss Maud Melick, College of Engineering and Architecture secretary, was given third place.

Articles in the Blue Print are all student written, except Miss Melick's column and the Dean's

Business Group Discusses Prices

"Why control prices at the present time, if at all?" will be the main topic for discussion at the bi-monthly forum of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional business fraternity, today at 8 p.m., in the Union.

The topic will be enlarged upon and these questions will also be considered: If such controls are desirable, should they be universal or selective controls? What effect would they have at retail, wholesale and manufacturing levels? Would it also include rent and price controls?

The program will be presented by Richard M. Bourne, assistant professor of economics and labor relations; Vic Eitel, OPA rent attorney; Robert L. Ferguson, owner of a local brick yard; and Clifford M. Hicks, professor of business organization and management. John Pfann is chairman of the professional committee and will act as moderator for the group.

101 Students Enter Annual Competition For Moot Court

The annual Moot Court will begin Dec. 1 when the first two pairs of upperclassmen in the law college will present their cases.

This court is a mock one modeled after the Nebraska Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court. It is called the Allen Court for Thomas Stinson Allen. A plaque in his honor is located in the law building upon which the names of the annual winners are inscribed.

The court is under the supervision of Prof. James Lake of the law department and a board of student advisers headed by Robert Moodie, a senior in Law College.

The judges for the upperclassmen competition have not been named as yet, but they will be Lincoln lawyers, Prof. Lake said. Senior law students will judge the freshmen trials.

Semi-Finals

In the semi-finals will be William Berquist and Robert Scoville vs. Lewis Pierce and Leonard Hammes Dec. 1 at 3 p.m. The winners of this argument will meet the team of Robert Moodie and G. E. Stahl next spring for the finals at the state capital.

The winners in the freshmen competition last year, now second year men, who will argue are as follows:

Eryon Johnson and Joe Koerber vs. David Downing and John Doyle Dec. 4 at 1:30 p.m.

William Sturgis and Duane Mitchell vs. Asa Christiansen and Russel Strom Dec. 4 at 3:15 p.m.

John Kalbin and Claes Uggla vs. Don McArthur and William Morrow Dec. 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Athletic Department to Handle Yell Squad, Council Decides

Red Cross Plans Meeting Thursday

A meeting of all Red Cross College Unit Vets hospital workers will be held Thursday, Nov. 16. The meeting will take place in room 316 at 5 p.m. in the Union.

The purpose of the meeting is to explain the functions of the Red Cross of the campus. The workers will sign up for Red Cross activities such as handicraft, playing cards at Vets Hospital, and others.

They will help plan a variety show to go to Offutt field in Omaha, plan the various Christmas programs sponsored by the unit and plan the radio shows sponsored by Red Cross.

One person will be selected to help with the office work in the Red Cross office in the Union.

Military Ball To Honor New 'Commandant'

M.B./M.F.C. will be the password Saturday, Dec. 2.

The Military Ball means Frankie Carle, it also means a lot of other things. Dec. 2 means the opening of the 1950-51 formal season at the University, it means the presentation of a coed to resign as the new Honorary Commandant for the year and it means cooperation and work on the part of the Candidate Officers association since they are directly responsible for the success of the Ball.

The theme of the Military Ball evening's program, guests of honor and the Honorary Commandant's attire will be announced before the ball. The identity of the Honorary Commandant will not be revealed until the night of the annual event and will serve as a highlight of the evening.

Six finalists were selected from a group of thirty-two coeds listed on the ballot, by an all-University election to be the finalists for this title.

Susie Reed, Shirley Allen, Nance Noble, Ginny Koch, Janet Carr and Eileen Derieg were the six receiving the highest number of student votes.

These finalists were presented to members of the Candidate Officers association at a tea Thursday, Nov. 2. At this time the officers chose by secret ballot, one of their honored guests as the 1950-51 Honorary Commandant.

Red Cross Gives Children's Party

A Thanksgiving program was given for the children at the Orthopedic hospital Tuesday evening by the Red Cross college unit.

Sally Krause and Kathy Swingle were in charge. The show consisted of Jack Lange and his dummy, Mack Hunt, in a magic act; and piano selections by Marty Shuter and Verlita Brown.

Refreshments were served to the children.

Others who entertained the children were: Darlene Stephenson, Ginny Pierson, Nancy Whitmore, Carly Clore, M. H. Davis, Paula Withey, Sharon Neff, Jayne Moore, Liz Miller, Mary Ann Mulligan and Ruth Ann Gibson.

New Policy Would Deny Coed Participation as Cheerleaders

A decision made by the Student Council yesterday afternoon delegates the administration of the University yell squad to the athletic department.

The yell squad, which is to be made up of only male students, will now be coached by the athletic department. Tentative plans for the squad include an advisory board from the athletic department, appointment of a regular coach for the cheerleaders, consistent workouts, supervised training and possibly awards.

Suggestion was made by the Council last week that girls be allowed to act as alternate yell leaders, cheering only for home games and not taking part in tumbling.

The athletic department emphasized that training and coaching of both men and women yell leaders would complicate the project and be hard to handle. They recommended that the policy of having only male cheerleaders be carried on.

No Enthusiasm

Discussion held by Council members on the problem brought out the opinion that perhaps the tumbling and athletic abilities of the yell squad do not particularly arouse team enthusiasm.

Rob Raun, Council president, indicated that this will be taken into consideration in the selection of future yell leaders.

It was also argued that the present plan is not particularly representative of the University. Some Council members felt, too, that women students should be given a chance to participate in leading cheers.

Can Be Changed

Raun said "If this plan proves unsatisfactory, the Student Council can withdraw authority from the athletic department." He also indicated that the Council can make recommendations to the yell squad under this arrangement.

The legislators were asked by Raun to discuss with their respective organizations the possibilities of setting up a point system for men students.

This suggestion was introduced to the Council by the student activities committee.

Last year the point system for men was discussed on the basis that it required too much administration for the good it did.

Seats Reserved

A motion was approved to reserve a block of seats for the faculty in the west bleachers of the Coliseum if they still are in favor of such a plan.

The liaison committee of the faculty presented the proposal to the athletic department. The matter was then referred to the Council.

Miriam Willey, acting secretary for the group of delegates to the Student Council convention, listed the subjects which will be presented by the University delegates at the convention. They are: migration seating, orientation program, Independent Students association problems and development of traditions.

Basketball Ticket Sales Start Nov. 27

Basketball tickets for University students, faculty members and the general public will go on sale at the Coliseum ticket office, Monday, Nov. 27.

Tickets for the students and faculty will include admittance to basketball and all other sports during the rest of the school year. Public tickets will cover basketball games only.

Business Manager A. J. Lewandowski announced that the faculty tickets will be $4 and student tickets, $3, tax included.

Ticket Prices

Reserved seats for the general public will be $1.50 and general admission tickets, $1.

The Student Council reported earlier this year that the entire side of the Coliseum and the west bleachers would be reserved as a student and faculty section at basketball games.

The Council campus improvements committee met with Athletic Director Patsy Clark and, through the cooperation of the athletic department, set up the student-faculty seating block.

Provide Better Seating

The purpose of the plan is to provide better seating for students and to develop more spirit at basketball games.

Under the new system the student-faculty section will be reserved until a definite period before game time. This period will probably be five or ten minutes.

B. Hendrickson Heads 'Verein'

Bruce Hendrickson is the newly elected president of the German club.

Vice president is Marilyn Krueger. Barbara Bredthauer is secretary and Jerry Colling is treasurer.

Officers were elected at the regular meeting, Tuesday night.

Two pictures of each candidate will be posted at the election polls.

The Eligible Bachelors will not be revealed until the Mortar Board ball, Friday, Dec. 8.

UN Observer To Address UNCWA Meet

UNCWA members will hear Edward V. Finn, a former United Nations observer, in a mass meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 17, in room 108, Burnett hall.

At present, Finn is commanding officer of the marine detachment at the Lincoln Naval Air station. He worked directly under mediator Ralph Bunche during the 1948 uprising in Palestine, representing the United States as a military observer.

The United Nations commission was instrumental in negotiating the peace during the Palestine trouble. Finn will relate his experiences when the mediators tried to bring about a peace settlement between the Jews and Arabs in Palestine.

Enforce Truce

When truces were negotiated, the military observers made sure that the truces were respected by both sides. Finn's division of the commission accomplished the truce to discontinue fighting near the Holy Sepulcher. In addition, the division investigated violations such as shooting down neutral planes, working at all times with military leaders of both the Israel and Arab armies.

Trying to find the reasons for the war and to find possible means of bringing about peace were included in Finn's duties.

During World War II, Commander Finn was a fighter co-ordinator and pilot. He received several medals for active combat in the Iwo Jima and Okinawa campaigns.

Business Session

The Nebraska University Council for World Affairs will hold a short business session at the mass meeting on Thursday. Of major importance will be the discussion of the annual spring conference which will be held in March. The council will be open for suggestions concerning a topic for the conference and the type of conference to be held.

Union to Hold 'Turkey Trot'

You will be trotting to the rhythm of the Smith-Warren combo if you come to the Union's "Turkey Trot" Saturday evening, Nov. 18, from 9 to 12 p.m.

A pre-Thanksgiving affair, this dance will be informal.

Highlighting the evening's entertainment will be Jack Van, Irish tenor, who will sing "A Little Bit of Heaven." The winning trio in the Union talent show will also perform. Others to be featured on the program will be announced later.

The Weather

Colder today with high in the 40's.

Koreans Face New Red Push

Attacking Red battalions in Korea drove back Republic of Korea troops in some sectors Wednesday.

In other areas, slowly advancing Americans reached the shores of two reservoirs which produce power for Manchuria as well as Korea. The troops encountered little resistance around the Changjin reservoirs. Well prepared defense positions were found abandoned.

A U. S. First Corps spokesman said that Chinese are using North Koreans as a screen while Chinese communists prepare stronger positions in the rear.

Acheson Speaks About 'Tragedy'

Secretary of State Dean Acheson declared in Washington that the United States must do everything possible to keep Chinese intervention in Korea from plunging the world into "a tragedy of the most colossal nature."

Meanwhile, John Snyder, treasury secretary, proposed a 75 percent tax on excess profits of corporations. He would use the taxes to pay for the expanding defense effort. Truman has said that profits are soaring under the rearmament program.

Police, Telephone Workers Fight

Police and striking telephone workers fought a two-hour battle in Philadelphia Wednesday. Police charges on picket lines enabled telephone workers of an independent union to get to their jobs.

The Philadelphia clashes came as the telephone strike neared the end of its first week. Tension was reported to be mounting on picket lines across the nation.

Cautions Spending Requested for State

In Lincoln the budget committee of the state legislature urged cautious state spending. The legislators members are looking about for possible ways to cut state expenditures.

The budget committee report recommended careful consideration of the appropriation requested for the University Medical School hospital in Omaha.

"Should a reduction in the University's overall request be necessary," said the report, "it would seem only logical that a reduction could well be made in other University activities sufficient to prevent the curtailment of hospital funds."

Consideration was also urged of having the University hospital "take over all or part of the care and treatment of patients now in the Orthopedic hospital at Lincoln, the Hospital for the Tuberculous at Kearney and the Industrial home at Milford."

Naval Training Plane Crashes

Navy operations officers in Lincoln Tuesday afternoon, four hours before the plane crashed and burned in Oklahoma. Five crewmen burned to death with the plane.

The dinner will be served in the banquet room of the Food and Nutrition building on Ag campus beginning at 5:30 p.m.
