

Husker Matmen Show Strength

By Jim Kostal

That's the opinion of Al Partin, new wrestling coach at the University. Al, who hails from Cornell, a school known for some great wrestling teams, is pretty optimistic about the coming season because of the large number of top wrestlers he has for each weight division. And Partin should be a good judge of talent, for he won both the National A.A.U. and Collegiate Championships while wrestling for Cornell. He also was a member of the football team.

Al, who is in his first year of coaching at the comparatively young age of 28, is also line coach for the freshmen football squad. He is married and has one daughter. He gives his address as "Huskerville Heights."

Potentially Great

Coach Partin feels that the current squad, which is one of the largest in Cornhusker history, is also potentially the greatest. The squad member have been going all out to get ready for the first match.

Oklahoma A. & M. will open the Husker home season, this match is scheduled for Jan. 13. Undoubtedly, this will be the toughest match of the season for the wrestling team.

Coach Partin stresses aggressiveness on the part of his squad members, and says that this year's team "will be out to pin their men."

Competition within the different weight classes is the most spirited ever, and Coach Partin indicates that most team positions are still wide open.

Tryouts will be held sometime before Christmas to determine the members of the team for the first meet. Coach Partin lists the men who have shown up well in early workouts.

Three in 123 lb.

In the 123 lb. class three boys are fighting it out for a team berth. They are Lou Caniglia, Jim Farris, and Don Bean. Caniglia was 1949 Big Seven 121 lb. champion, and is a two-year letterman. Farris and Bean are both outstanding sophomores who should be pressing Caniglia all the way.

Harold Gilliland dominates the 130 lb. class, and was Big Seven champion last year in the 128 lb. class. Gilliland is also a two-year letterman.

Bob Russell and Perry Leitel are fighting it out for the 138 lb. berth. Russell, a senior, has lettered two years in the 136 lb. division while Leitel is having his first taste of varsity competition.

The 147 lb. class is led by Ken Fischer, a brilliant sophomore prospect.

Lane or Jones

It will be either Ed Lane or Bob Jones in the 157 lb. class. Lane is a junior letterman and Jones is a sophomore.

Dave Mackie has looked the best in the 167 lb. class. Al Johnson or Dick Richardson will represent the Huskers in the 177 lb. class.

Herb Reese will very likely represent Nebraska in the heavy-weight class. Herb, moving up from the 175 lb. class, has been Big Seven champ in that weight division the past two years. He will be gunning for his third consecutive conference title this year.

The squad will be bolstered second semester by the presence of Rich Reese, who becomes eligible for varsity competition at that time. Rich is a heavy-weight.

The schedule this year includes two extended road trips, one in the East and one in the West. The Huskers meet 3 teams on each of these trips. The eastern trip includes Iowa State Teachers, last year's N.C.A.A. and A.A.U. champs and Cornell, which Nebraska has never beaten. Coach Partin feels pretty confident that "we're gonna beat Cornell" and most of the rest of them.

Irv Petersen, Sig Alphas Cop Golf Crowns

The 1950 Intramural Match Play Golf Tournament came to an end last Sunday with the crowning of individual champion, Irv Petersen of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Petersen also walked off with last year's crown, thus becoming the first two-time winner.

The team trophy also goes to the Sig Alphas, their total of 64 points being thirteen better than that of second-place Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Sig Eps finished with 49.

Trailing the leaders were Phi Delta Theta with 29 points; Delta Tau Delta, 2; and Sigma Nu, 1 1/2.

84 Compete

Eighty-four players competed in the qualifying round, a new record for intramural golf.

Play in this year's tourney consisted of three flights of 16 men each. There were both championship and consolation brackets in each flight, with those losing in the first round a play automatically moving into the consolation bracket.

Bob Scoville, also a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, copped second flight honors while Chuck Lawson of Sigma Phi Epsilon was the third flight titlist.

Petersen, playing brilliant golf throughout, swept by Jack Heck-enively, Chick Battey, and Bob Mockett on his way to the title.

Foot Weather

Tournament play this year was somewhat hampered by poor weather conditions which necessitated extension of the deadlines for the playing of the matches.

Scoring for this year's meet was on the following basis: Winners in the championship bracket of the three flights received four, three, and two points, respectively. The winners in the consolation bracket received two, one and one-half, and one point for each match in each of the three flights.

Final results of tourney play:

First Flight

Irv Petersen, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, defeated Bob Mockett, Phi Delta Theta.

Consolation: Roy Wythers, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, defeated Jim Kostal, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Second Flight

Huskers Place Five AT MILLER'S On Rag Big-Seven

Oklahoma's Big Seven champion Sooners collected eight berths on the Daily Nebraskan's Big Seven Team today to lead in the final tabulation. Nebraska's runnerup Cornhuskers landed five men on the first team, three on the offensive team and two on the defensive eleven.

All conference teams with the exception of Kansas State placed at least one man among the top 22. The K-Staters, however, managed to get some recognition among those in the honorable mention.

Jim Weatherall, giant Sooner tackle, led the way in the balloting, which saw 42 men receive mention. Weatherall received the distinction of holding down a tackle berth on both the offensive and defensive units.

Four Unanimous

Four men received unanimous support for the offense. They were Bobby Reynolds, Nebraska halfback, Jim Doran, Iowa State end, Don Strasheim, Nebraska guard, and Charlie Toogood, Husker tackle.

Harry Moore, Sooner center and Gene Ackerman, Missouri end, were nearly unanimous vote getters.

Closets fight for an offensive spot was for the quarterback berth. Phil Klein of the Tigers finally won out over Billy Weeks of Iowa State.

On the defense line-up, three men were unanimous selections. Dick Panches, Colorado guard, Mike McCormack, Kansas tackle, and Frank Anderson, Oklahoma end, received all of the possible votes.

Johnny Glorioso received both offensive and defensive mention to land his defensive halfback spot.

Closets race on this team was between Husker Verl Scott and Kansas-Merlin Gish for a line-backer position. Scott finally won out on the narrowest of counts.

One thing The Daily Nebraskan voters tried to comply with all through the balloting was the placing of the men in the positions they played in during the year. None of this putting four halfbacks in the offensive backfield or moving a guard to tackle and the like. The teams are represented by the best man at his position.

By teams the positions were awarded as follows: Oklahoma—8, Nebraska—5, Missouri—4, Colorado—2, Kansas—2, and Iowa State—1.

Of all the men mentioned, Oklahoma got ten men mentioned, Nebraska—11, Missouri—6, Colorado—2, Kansas—8, Iowa State—5, and Kansas State—1.

Gator Bowl Nod Goes to Wyoming

The last football bowl game of any significance was filled Wednesday when it was announced that unbeaten Wyoming would be the second team in the Gator Bowl. The Cowboys, champions of the Skyline Six and winner of nine games, will meet Washington and Lee, champion of the Southern conference in the Jacksonville, Florida classic.

Wyoming has lost but one game in two years, and is one of only four major teams unbeaten and untied this season. This year it scored successive victories over Montana State, Baylor, Colorado A&M, Utah State, New Mexico, Idaho, Brigham Young and Denver.
