

Huskers Meet Missouri Teachers Here Tonight

Northwest Missouri Teachers invade the University Coliseum tonight to help the Cornhusker basketballers inaugurate their 1950-51 home cage season. The Teachers will hope to avenge a 39-58 lacing they took from the Cornhuskers a year ago in the Coliseum.

The Huskers went on from that victory last year to wind up the year with a total of 16 games won against seven defeats and also brought home a share of the Big Seven championship for the second year in a row.

It is supposed to be a vastly different story this season, however, according to pre-season dopesters in general and Husker Coach Harry Good in particular. The Huskers, hard hit by graduation, are supposed to finish behind Kansas and Kansas State at best and maybe even trailing Oklahoma and Missouri, too. Currently, the Huskers are favored to win but nine of their scheduled 23 contests this season.

Numerical roster for the Huskers for their first home game is:

3 Norman Wilkes, F	11 Paul Kipper, G
4 To Be Assigned	12 Bertie Akonnis, F
5 Bob Pierce, C	13 Jim Buchanan, G
6 Bob Meredith, G	14 To Be Assigned
7 Joe Good, G	15 Jesse Self, F
8 Al Blessing, F	16 Jim Walsh, F
9 Jim Snyder, F	17 Bud Ward, F
10 Steve Hanna, G

It will be the second game of the year for the Cornhuskers who met the Gophers of Minnesota at Minneapolis Saturday night after this paper went to press.

Modern Nebraska basketball scoring records that this year's floor men will be shooting at are:

Total points scored three seasons—Claude Retherford (1946-1949), 815 points.

Total points scored one season—Milt Whitehead (1949), 360 points.

Total points scored one game—Milt Whitehead (Against Western Reserve on Dec. 21, 1948), 27 points.

Field Goals scored one game—Milt Whitehead (Kansas on Jan. 10, 1950), 12 out of 17.

Free throws scored one game—Milt Whitehead (Against Iowa State on Feb. 19, 1949), 10 out of 10.

Total points scored regulation game—Vs. Western Reserve on Dec. 21, 1948, 83 points.

Total points scored overtime game—Vs. Iowa State on Dec. 30, 1949, 85 points.

Field goals scored regulation game—Vs. Western Reserve on Dec. 21, 1948, 34.

Free throws scored regulation game—Vs. Idaho on Dec. 23, 1949, 26.

Free throws attempted regulation game—Vs. Idaho on Dec. 23, 1949, 42.

Personal fouls against, regulation game—Vs. Colorado on Jan. 16, 1950, 34.

I-M Basketball Gets Going Tuesday With Six Contest

The biggest intramural event of the winter season, 1950-51 basketball competition, will swing into full gear Wednesday when twelve cage teams begin play in their quest of the All-University championship.

The 1949-50 champ, Alpha Tau Omega, was hard hit by graduation last Spring, but is expected to be in the thick of battle again this year. Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Phi Delta Theta, all of whom fielded strong teams last year, are going to be considerably weakened by the loss of key men. Out Ag College will perennial contender Farm House will again boast a potent aggregation.

Powerful Sigma Gamma Epsilon has the same team returning that lost to the Taus in the All-University finals last year and should be a hot contender. Another perennially tough outfit in the Independents, the Lillies, should field another challenger.

Two Denoms

Two potent Denominational aggregations are returning practically en masse. Defending champ, Newman Club and runner-up Lutheran Student Association are all set to go. The Catholics were fifth in All-University last year.

All-in-all the race for the All-University honors appears to be a wide-open affair with many upsets expected before the regular season schedule of 459 games is completed.

This year all games will start promptly at 5, 7, 8, and 9 p.m., with a few games scheduled for Saturday during the month of February. This will be necessary in order to permit a double round-robin schedule.

Games will be 40 minutes in length during the 1950-51 season, with one-minute rest between quarters. There will be a five-minute rest between halves. Each team will be allowed one time-out per half.

No Re-scheduling

Two officials will be assigned to each game. The competing teams will provide the timers and scorekeepers. Lineups must be in the scorebook at least five minutes before game time.

Postponed games will not be re-scheduled unless the games are postponed by the intramural office and then only for unavoidable conflicts.

The schedule for the first week's play:

Wednesday, Dec. 6

7 p.m.—Court I: Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Sigma Nu; Court II: Delta Upsilon vs. Kappa Sigma.

8 p.m.—Court I: Phi Gamma Delta vs. Beta Sigma Psi; Court II: Delta Tau Delta vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon.

9 p.m.—Court I: Phi Delta Theta vs. Alpha Tau Omega; Court II: Alpha Gamma Rho vs. Sigma Chi.

Thursday, Dec. 7

7 p.m.—Court I: Beta Theta Pi vs. Theta Xi; Court II: Sigma Alpha Mu vs. Zeta Beta Tau; Court III: Delta Chi vs. Acacia; Ag Col. Ag Y.M.C.A. "A" vs. Ag Y.M.C.A. "B".

8 p.m.—Court I: Farm House vs. Brown Palace; Court II: Cornhusker Co-op vs. Pioneer Co-op; Court III: Theta Chi vs. Norris House; Ag Col. Ag Men's Social "A" vs. Ag Men's Social "B".

9 p.m.—Court I: Pi Kappa Phi vs. Phi Kappa Psi; Court II: Delta Sigma Phi vs. Tau Kappa Epsilon; Court III: Sigma Alpha Epsilon "B" vs. Sigma Nu "B"; Ag Col. Vocational Agricul. vs. Ag Extension Annex.

Navy Shocks Army; Scores 14-2 Upset Win

Army played a college football team Saturday and saw their cherished string of 25 victories go up in smoke as insignificant Navy tossed in one of the biggest football upsets of the year and won 14-2. For the Navy it was only the third win of the year, but for the Army it was the first defeat in over three years.

Navy was superb as it took everything the over-rated Kaydets had to offer and then threw a couple of Sunday punches of their own. After the game Navy owned everything—the first downs, the yardage, and the game.

The Middies crammed all their 14 points into the second period. Zastrow plowed through the center of the line on a quarterback sneak for six yards for the first score. With conversion, the Navy led 7-0, but Army suddenly caught fire.

A Blaik to Foldsberg pass netted the first Army first down of the game and Navy had their backs to the wall. But a terrific Middle defense stopped the Kaydets cold as it did all afternoon and Navy took over in the shadow of its goal posts with the supposed intent of running the clock out. At least that's what Army thought.

Instead, the Middies roared back up the field, mixing their passes with end sweeps and Zastrow's quarterback sneaks. With less than a minute remaining in the half Zastrow fired a touchdown pass and with the point after touchdown, "mighty" Army was behind 6-14.

Navy again dominated the second half with their defense throttling the Kaydets, but good. Zastrow was hit in his own end zone trying to pass in the middle of the last half for the only Army points of the day. The "ferocious black knights of the Hudson" had several chances to score in the last quarter, but the Navy defense would not give.

This was Navy's way of telling the Army that winning streaks are not so hot when you're playing weak sisters.

Pi Beta Phi Stages Upset Blasts Fijis

Blithely scampering across the practice field for a 24-6 victory, the Pi Phi's made good their challenge to the Phi Gams Thursday afternoon.

Despite those double-reverse, quarterback sneak and "sleeper" plays staged by their opposition, the Pi Phi's "Bombshell" Betty Lester and "Bunny Rabbit" Lazear, with their kicking, passing and deceptive dodging, nimbly by-passed the Phi Gams for a score in every quarter.

Pi Phi Betty Lester, a Grand Island's Jerry Lee product, was a menace with her all around booting, pitching and speed. She dashed over for the first score of the game.

Top scorer in the game, "Bunny Rabbit" Lazear, sparkled in her long touchdown sprints. Especially spectacular was her 69-yard touchdown run, touched off by a pass from the 50-yard line in the fleeting seconds of the game's final canto.

"It Was Nothing"

When congratulated on this play, the "Rabbit" shyly admitted, "Oh, it was nothing."

The Fijis were plagued with penalties. Because of this handicap, several of their touchdown plays were nullified. John Sinclair racked up the only Phi Gam score, going over in the fourth.

Out in full force with all of their 65 players, the Fijis came to the front on their "Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep" maneuver, in which the ball-carrier flopped over, seemingly in a profound sleep.

Equally effective was the Phi Gam "Single Reverse" specialty. This time, the defenders all turned their backs, volleyball style, to the puzzled Phi Phi's and commenced with their passing attack.

Bamboozled

After the first half, there was a change in the game's complexion. Touch competition reverted to a modification of the tackle technique. Again, the Pi Phi's were bamboozled, but this medicine was not powerful enough to break their scoring streak.

Conceding defeat, the frolicsome Fijis joined in a loud long cheer for the Pi Phi's.

Coaching the Pi Phi team were veterans Nick Adduci and "Bear" Handshy. Said Handshy in commenting on the victory, "It was a stupendous game."

Jerry Solomon and Sibyl Mark took referee honors.

Together winner and loser left the field. Their destination was the Pi Phi house, where the losers were the winners' guests for dinner.

Thetas Enter WAA Playoffs In Volleyball

A championship game Monday will officially close this year's WAA intramural volleyball tournament, while two other sports are already in full swing.

The final playoff will begin at 5 p.m. in Grant Memorial. Kappa Alpha Theta, who walked off with the soccer-baseball crown, will again vie for top honors. The Theta's possible opponents have not played off their championship game in the second bracket yet.

Volleyball this year was a double elimination tournament. This enabled more teams to participate in more than one game. The loser of a game automatically moved into the consolation bracket. The winner of the consolation tournament will thus play the winner in the other bracket to determine the final champion.

Table Tennis

Next week's game program of table tennis is not as yet complete due to rescheduling. Monday's games include: Mary Maxwell, Terrace hall vs. Betty Roessler, Gamma Phi Beta; Bonnie McCoy, Terrace hall vs. Kathie Agnew, Tri Delta; Phyllis Loudon, Delta Gamma vs. Marge Garey, unaffiliated; Jean Rosenswrig, Tri Delta vs. Leonor Strain, Towne Club.

If a contestant is unable to play on the scheduled date, she must notify Jean Hedstrom, phone 2-7742, at least one day in advance.

Nebraska Ball

Going into its second week, this sport is being participated in by a large number of organized houses. Rules are similar to volleyball, but the ball is much larger.

Coming events include:

Monday, 5 P.M.

Delta Gamma-1 vs. Kappa Kappa Gamma-3.

Chi Omega vs. Terrace hall.

Tuesday, 5 P.M.

LSA vs. Sigma Delta Tau.

Delta Gamma-3 vs. Alpha Chi Omega-3.

Oklahoma Drops SMU by 47-39

The first Big Seven basketball team in action this year, Oklahoma, won its first 1950-51 start Friday night. The Sooners raced past Southern Methodist by a 47-39 score.

Marcus Frieberger paced the Sooners' victory by dropping in 18 points for Coach Bruce Drake. Frieberger is the giant six foot, 11 inch senior center for the Oklahomans.

From The Sports Desk

BY BILL MUNDELL
Sports Editor, Daily Nebraskan.

The entire University was saddened Thursday by the death of former Cornhusker Dick Hutton. Those around the U in 1946, 47, and 48 will remember cheering Dick on ward in Husker football and track.

Dick was one of the most feared runners in the conference during his football campaigns. As a matter of fact, that was all Nebraska had in terms of a backfield—Dick Hutton.

In track, Dick excelled in the sprints and was a main cog in the Husker attempts for conference glory.

But, even outside of athletics, Dick was a star. Everyone who knew him personally liked the guy. His personality blossomed out over everyone.

In studies, too, Dick was on top. In all the conference graduating classes in the spring of 1949, Dick received the Big Seven award for maintaining the highest average grade in the classroom of any athlete.

Dick will be missed by all who knew him personally and he will live in the memories of all Cornhuskers.

Indoor Track and Field Meet Begins Tuesday; New Events

The intramural indoor track and field meet gets under way this Tuesday with the preliminaries of the 50-yard dash and one-lap run being staged. The prelims will continue through this week and all of next and then the finals of all events will be held in the first full week following Christmas vacation.

A large turnout of entries is expected for this first running of the enlarged indoor meet. In previous years there has been both an indoor and an outdoor meet, but due to the unavailability of the outdoor track in the spring, the two have been combined in the big indoor meet.

All events previously held in the indoor will be carried along with the addition of the following events: 60-yard high hurdles, 440-yard run, 880-yard run, and broad jump. There will be an additional relay, also, the mile relay. The winning times and distances in these events this fall will go into the books as records.

Three Champs

Three defending champions will be on hand to defend their laurels. The Student Union, defending Independent champs, will try to repeat. Phi Delta Theta, last year's fraternity champion, is expected to throw another strong team into the battle.

Presby, defending Denominational crown wearer, is also expected to have a lot to say as to who will carry away the title this year.

Student Union won their first title last year by 43½ points while Presby was out in front by an amazing 86 points. The Phi Deltas had the roughest time carrying off the crown, edging Sigma Chi by a mere one and one-third points.

Expected strength this year is hoped to come from Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Sigma Chi in the fraternity group, besides the Phi Deltas.

Methodists Strong

The Methodist Student House, along with the Newman Club, is expected to give Presby a run for its money.

The Ag Men's Club is currently hoped as the leading contender in the Independent division.

No advance entries are necessary in order to be able to compete this year. All that is required of a man is that he appear some time during the running of the prelims to get his time or distance recorded.

There will be nearly three hours for the running of the prelims on most of the events this year. That means a man has almost three hours in which to make it over to the indoor track to get his licks in. This will be especially helpful for those who have football and ROTC classes during the afternoons.

Against Time

The preliminaries of all runs will be against time, each man running will be clocked, so it doesn't matter who else is in his preliminary heat.

The correct meet schedule of events are as follows:

Preliminaries

Tuesday, Dec. 5
50-yard dash and one-lap run, 3 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.

Wednesday, Dec. 6
60-yard low hurdles and 60-yard high hurdles, 3 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.

Thursday, Dec. 7
60-yard dash and two-lap run, 3 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.

Monday, Dec. 11
440-yard run and 12 lb. shot put, 2 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.

Tuesday, Dec. 12
880-yard run, 3 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.

High jump, 5 p.m.

Wednesday, Dec. 13
Pole vault, 5 p.m.

Thursday, Dec. 14
Broad jump, 3 p.m. to 5:45 p.m.

Finals

Monday, Jan. 8
50-yard dash, 5:15 p.m.
One-lap run, 5:25 p.m.

SAE-2, Cosmo-1; Volleyball Champs

For one hour and 34 minutes they played volleyball Friday night before Sigma Alpha Epsilon was crowned All-University champion by defeating Cosmopolitan Club. The Sig Alphas won two of the three games by scores of 15-9, 11-15, 15-13.

It was a torrid and terrific display of volleyball staged by these two aggregations with everything under the sun happening.

In the first game, Cosmo took an early 2-0 lead, but ten minutes later the SAE's were in front 3-2. This game was the "quickie" of the three. It was over after a half hour.

The lead changed ownership seven different times before the Sig Alphas forged ahead 10-9 and from there it was only a matter of minutes before the Cosmopolitans suffered their first defeat of the year.

Four Times

The second game changed lead four times and was tied five before the Cosmos rallied to a 15-11 win. The Sig Alphas led 9-2 at one time during this game for the biggest lead of the evening.

Game number three was a

Price Named Texas Coach

Ed Price was named head coach of Texas University football team this weekend. Price had been line coach at Texas.

Given the hot-spot coaching post for two years starting Jan. 1 at 12 thousand dollars a year, Price recognized he had a tough job cut out for him.

He left for Nashville before reporters could reach him for comment. He will scout Tennessee, Texas' Cotton Bowl opponent, in its battle with Vanderbilt.

Coach Price was promoted to the top position, yielded by Blair Cherry, on the unanimous recommendation of the University Athletic Council and by unanimous vote of the regents attending the meeting.

Athletic Director Dana X. Bible, whose advice to the Athletic Council had much to do with Price's selection, commended the 42-year-old Texas graduate with these words:

"Texas is facing tough schedules in the future, but, if everyone interested in the university will work as hard as Ed, there certainly will be a lot of scoring, a lot of touchdowns, a lot of victories, and a lot of credit reflected on Texas."

Lineups for the match:

SIG ALPHAS	COSMOPOLITAN
Charles Smith	Ray Soltko
Bill Fry	Mortimer Rothjoe
Bruce Ferriss	Fan Haghir
Doug Doolley	Tommy Arvett
Henry Cech	Vladimir Lavik
Bill Shalsholtz	Fikri Sekerci
