

Bobby Reynolds—Rambling Robert has been selected to a first team berth in the Football Writers' Association of America selections appearing in Look magazine.

Bobby Gets 'Look' All-America Berth

"Ramblin' Robert" Reynolds, the Huskers' heralded halfback, added another All-America announcement to his already large collection of honors today as he was named to the first team of Grantland Rice's and Look Magazine's 1950 All-American Football Team.

Bobby was placed in the offensive backfield along with Vic Janowicz of Ohio State, Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist, and Bob Williams of Notre Dame.

Going even farther into the honors and awards bestowed upon the blond sophomore from Grand Island, he has been selected as halfback on both the Associated Press' and World Herald's All-Big Seven outfits and on the All-Players All-Midwest Team.

In naming the offensive band of backs, Look said, "...and Nebraska's exceptional sophomore Bobby Reynolds ranks with the best selected in any year."

The magazine went on to say, "The sophomore Reynolds proved to be the most dangerous, spectacular and competitive ball carrier the Big Seven has ever seen."

The 1950 Look All-American was chosen this year by Grantland Rice and the Football Writers Association of America. A grand total of 489 football writers worked with Rice in naming the team.

Specifically, Bobby is currently holding down two first place offensive halfback positions and one first team defensive back spot.

Only two more All-American teams of any significance are still due to come out, those being the Associated Press and the All-Players'.

The Look selection of stars included only one team of an offensive and defensive platoon and fifty-four men given honorable mention.

Charley Toogood, standout Husker tackle was one of those few who received honorable mention from the selectors. Charley was one of six as only six tackles were mentioned.

Other Big Seven players who received mention in the magazine were Jim Weatherall, Oklahoma, at first string offensive tackle, Buddy Jones, Oklahoma, at first string defensive safety, Leon Heath, Oklahoma in honorable mention, Merwin Hodel, Colorado in honorable mention, and Bill Weeks, Iowa State in honorable mention.

cagers held on until the midway rest period. At halftime the score stood—Nebraska, 24; Teachers, 17.

In the third quarter the Huskers really began to roll and as the final stanza was ready to go, the Nebraskans led 42-25. Pierce was the big gun during this rejuvenated attack, getting seven points on three goals and a free toss. Good tossed in four markers and Akromis, three.

Pull Away
The Huskers continued to pull away even in the final period when Coach Good used 18 players. Nine Huskers contributed to the point total in this frame with Buchanan's four being tops. Others to chalk up a mark beside his name in this final stanza were Norm Wilkes, Cecil Vols, Akromis, Good, Subby Ruma, Dwight Herendeen, Bob Howey, and Gus Lebsch.

In a pre-game contest between a green and red outfit of the freshmen squad, the Greens came out on top by a 50-46 score. The Reds outscored their rivals from the floor, getting 18 field goals to 16 for the Greens, but lost out at the free throw line. There were 29 fouls called on the losing Red outfit to only 15 on the Greens and that told the whole story.

Seger and Weber
Seger led the victors with eight points, Horner added seven, and Brandon garnered six. For the losers it was Weber with ten markers. Weigand had a night's work of nine for second best.

Pressure on KU Jayhawks; Tabbed as Basketball Giants

The UN Security Council and the 1950-51 Kansas basketball club have something in common . . . both are on the spot.

Phog Allen's Jayhawks, who open their 34th season under the veteran court-master against Creighton at Lawrence Monday, got there through an unprecedented pre-season buildup which was being brewed even before Kansas crowd-fights warned the approach of the football season. KU has scored heavily along the national sports publication front, being ranked no worse than 11th and as high as fifth in the national picture by the free throw and foul clairvoyants.

Clyde Lovellette, the Mt. Oread's mastodontic center, drew pre-season orchids along with his team's lofty ranking. No less an expert than Curt Gowdy, one-time Oklahoma City broadcaster who owns a highly discerning eagle eye, tabbed the Jayhawk's Fabulous Frenchman as the No. 1 player of the year. Gowdy now airs basketball out of New York.

"Sport" Magazine
Writing in the current issue of "Sport" magazine, Gowdy says . . . "at the risk of sounding dogmatic we'll carry the prophecy even further and say that Clyde Lovellette, the big University of Kansas center, will prove to be THE college basketball player of the year."

Ed Warner of L.I.U., Sherman White, Long Island, Gene Melchiorre, Bradley, and Sam Ranzino, North Carolina State, are placed with Lovellette on "Sport's" All-American team.

Most recent accolade accorded Kansas was a fifth-ranking spot in the United Press' pre-season poll, which draws its vote from a nationwide board of coaches. Only CCNY, which won both the NCAA and NIT crowns last year; Bradley, runner-up in both; Kentucky and North Carolina State were rated ahead of Kansas.

Kansas State, expected to be the Jayhawk's chief Big Seven contender, was ranked 11th in the same sweepstakes.

KU also was rated fifth among the nation's elite by "Look" magazine's Tim Cochane. The same four teams again were placed above the Jayhawk. State again drew the eleventh spot, just six lengths back.

Lovellette was named on "Look's" ten-man All-American squad with Charlie Hoag, the sophomore halfback sensation out of Oak Park, Ill., and Wally Beck, sprint champion out of Shawnee-Mission high, were tabbed as "Sophomores to watch."

Ranked Sixth
In an article entitled "Basketball, USA," carried by "Sport" magazine, and written by Leonard Ansell, the Jayhawks were accorded sixth ranking with St. John's, one of their early opponents, moving up with CCNY, Bradley, Kentucky and North Carolina State, in the top five. The Altamers tackle St. John's in Madison Square Garden December 12, and meet Kentucky at Lexington, December 16. The Jayhawks drew the No. 11 spot in "Liberty," in an analysis by Clair Bee, famous Long Island coach, and Haskell Cohen. Another Red and Blue foe, Oklahoma A. & M., was rated fifth here. The Jayhawks and Cowboys renew their steaming feud in two games this year, February 5 in Lawrence, and March 10 in Stillwater.

Stanley Woodward, the highly esteemed football and cage observer in New York, tabs Kansas best in the Prairie and Mountain States area, with A. & M. close up and Utah third.

Lovellette and his fellow All-American berth here on a ten man squad, as Woodward types . . . "The big problem of all Kansas opponents is to stop Lovellette, and the basketball cognoscenti, who gathered on the Borscht circuit in New York State's Catskill Mountains last summer, are almost unanimous in believing it cannot be done."

Behind Bradley
Nat Holman's "Basketball Annual" rates KU behind only Bradley in the plainsland area. Lovellette also is tabbed on this All-American team by the veteran tutor of CCNY's double national champions.

Captain Jerry Waugh, senior guard, is chosen on Holman's all-area team along with Lovellette; Ernie Barrett of Kansas State; Oklahoma's Marcus Freiburger, and George Lafferty of Missouri.

Do Allen and Lovellette feel the pressure? Not intensely.

"This rating of basketball teams is interesting but almost impossible," the doctor will tell you. "There are so many good basketball players these days and it takes only five to make a team. There are several groups of five players who can be very good." Lovellette takes the competitive attitude. "I just feel that the center I'm playing against on any given night is a great player," explains Cumulus Clyde.

All organized houses are requested to send the names of all their members who were on the 1950 Nebraska varsity football team to Kimon Karabatos, 715 No. 16th, as soon as possible. This information is needed for the new publication, "Spotlighting the Husker Greats of Yesterday and Today."

50-Dash, 1-Lap Run Open Indoor Track and Field Meet

By Jim Kostal
That on again, off again Intramural track and field meet definitely gets under way today with preliminaries scheduled for the 50-yard dash and the one-lap run. The prelims will continue through this week and all of next and then the finals of all events will be held the first Monday after Christmas vacation.

To make sure that every interested trackster has a chance to show his wares, the prelims will be held between the hours of 3 and 5:45 p.m. This gives all R.O.T.C. students and Freshmen football players a good chance to participate.

Each man running in the preliminaries of the different events will be clocked separately so that you will be running against time and not your opponent in a particular heat.

No Advance Entries
No advance entries are necessary in order to be able to compete this year. All that is required of a man is that he appear some time during the running of the prelims to get his time or distance recorded.

This year's meet will feature eight running events and four field events. Included in the list of track events are the 50 yard dash, the 60 yard dash, the one lap run, the two lap run, the 440 yard dash, the 880 yard run, the 60 yard low hurdles, and the 60 yard high hurdles. The field events are the 12 lb. shot put, the running high jump, the pole vault, and the running broad jump.

Two relays will also be held, the 4-lap relay and the mile relay. The winning times in the high hurdles, 440 yard run, 880 yard run, broad jump, and the mile relay will go into the books as records.

Phi Delta Theta, Presby House, and the Student Union are the defending champions in the three classes: Fraternity, Interdenominational, and Independent. Both Presby and Student Union had an easy time winning their 1949 titles while the Phi Deltas barely emerged as victors in the Fraternity division.

Wide Open
The 1950 race for team honors is a wide-open affair, with most organizations sporting several former prep stars to bolster its chances for the various titles to be awarded.

Team trophies will be awarded to the Fraternity and Denominational champions with members of the winning independent team receiving medals. In addition, certificates will be given to all first place winners, all record breakers, and to the highest point maker in each class.

Scoring for the meet is as follows: The relays will be on a 13-10-8-6-4-2 point basis, with the scoring for the other events being 7-5-4-3-2-1.

Phi Delta Theta and Alpha Kappa Psi climbed into the number one spots in leagues III and IV respectively in bowling competition over the week as the play neared the playoffs. The Phi Deltas replaced Sigma Nu atop their league while the AKPsi men climbed ahead the Lutheran Student association.

The Phi Deltas rallied just in time, to as they bopped Phi Kappa Psi three straight. Those were their last three contests in regular season play and it gave them the league III title.

The Sigma Nu's, meanwhile, were losing two of three to the Theta Xi's. Other league III competition saw the Kappa Sigma drop SAE three straight and then lose two of three to Beta Sigma Psi.

Lutherans Lose

The AKPsi keglers took three from the Methodist House to get the number one spot. Phi Gamma Delta and Delta Tau Delta finished in a tie for the top position in league I by both sweeping their last three games. The Fijis dropped Delta Upsilon while the Deltas were handling Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests
Number 8...THE SEA GULL
"I'm not as gullible as I look!"
Maybe our little over-water friend is just fishing for a compliment. On the other hand, he may have reference to all these quick-trick cigarette tests you hear about nowadays. Well, he's not the only one who's been at sea. Frankly, how can you judge a cigarette by a swift sniff? Or another cigarette by one fast puff. What's all the rush about, anyway? When it comes to making up your mind about cigarette mildness, we think you'd like to take your time. That's why we suggest:
The sensible test—the one that you make on a dry after day, pack after pack tryout for 30 days. It's the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test! Simply smoke Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days. Let your own "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) be your proving ground. When you've tried Camels as a steady smoke, you'll know why . . .
More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
