

FRAN NAGLE—The Husker's All-Big Seven quarterback will play two more football games before his collegiate playing career is ended. He'll be quarterback on the West team in the East-West Shrine game at San Francisco December 30, then will hurry to Mobile, Ala., for the Senior Bowl game, January 6. Nagle, the West Lynn, Mass. lad, never played a single game of high school football. He went to Ft. Devens as a basketball and baseball prospect. Husker backfield coach Bob Davis was the Ft. Devens mentor, and was the first to recognize Fran's ability with a football. Nagle saw limited duty at Fort Devens as a freshman. He improved as a sophomore, then moved with Coach Davis to Nebraska. Last year he started to show promise. This season he came into his own as signal-caller for one of the most-powerful ground-gaining teams in 1950 collegiate ball. All Cornhusker football followers will agree that it's a fine tribute to a great guy that Fran Nagle should be selected to represent Nebraska in two of the country's biggest bowl games.

Grapplers Into Second Day; Delts Pass Fijis in Qualifiers

By John Sinclair
The second round of Intramural Wrestling brings the team of Delts Tau Delta into the lime light as they lead the second place Phi Games 9-6. In third place thus far are the Sigma Nu's, with the Betas and Sig Chi's tied for fourth.
In the 138 lb. division last night, Delt Glenn Nelson tossed Fiji Bill Kerrer in 3:06 in what the "dopesters" had figured to be the battle of the evening.
Also in the light weights, Hillman, of the "Muscleman" forfeited to Heddon of the Men's Dorm.
The "grunt and groan" boys in the 147 lb. division had a rough and ready evening of it, as they vied for a win. Victors in that class last night were: Phil Sprague, who took Beta Max Andrews to the cleaners in a free-for-all which lasted 4:45; Bill Falt, who outlasted Eddie Craren to win 8-5 in a close match; and Gene Heddon, Sig Ep, who pinned Sig Chi Jim Boeltheher in the quick time of 2:07.

Duis Wins
Bob Duis, Phi Gam, took Beta Charlie Swinger in tow and won handily with a fast fall in 1:36 of the first period.
Results of the 157 lb. division, saw Ed Gross, of Phi Gamma Delta outpoint Delt John Wilson 8-5 in a fast moving match which went the distance.
Favored Barney Sprague, of Delta Tau Delta, suffered a decisive defeat at the hands of Harold Dietrich in a surprise match, 6-9.
Bernie Wallman from the Lutheran Student House pinned Beta Tom Weeks in 3:00, in an action packed match.

Rich Fiala of the "Ag men" took advantage of an early break and applied the binders to Delt, Bert Sample, with a pin in the quick time of 1:50, in the first period.
Middle weight Bernie Leonard, Sig Chi, out-foxed Jack Field to win an 8-1 decision in a match that went the distance.
Larry "Red" Carney from the Beta House outpointed a hard-fighting Johnny Reta, to win 6-3.
Sig Nu Tom Podhasky thru ATO Bob Barry in a fast-moving tussle that lasted 3:00.

Last on the card of the 167 pounders was Delt Jerry Yeager and Beta Stuart Snow. Yeager used his superior ability and strength to quick advantage and vanquished Snow in a fast fall in 1:20 of the first period.
In the light-heavy division, Phi Delt Bob McBride squeezed by Fiji Emerson Scott, to take a close decision, 3-2, in a battle-royal that went the full six minutes.
Independent Darwin Dahl conveyed Sig Chi Don Schnieder to the canvas and pinned him in 1:06 of the second period.
Phi Gam Don Field wasted no

Cleveland Buys Birdie Tebbets
The Cleveland Indians have purchased catcher George Red Sox, Cleveland general manager Hank Greenberg announced "Birdie" Tebbets from the Boston today.
The 36-year old Tebbets, who came up to the majors in 1936 with Detroit, batted .310 in 79 games last season. Birdie went to the Red Sox from Detroit.
Greenberg revealed that it was a straight cash deal with no players involved. He declined to announce the sum.

time in asserting his mastery over Bob Spearman, Sig Chi, and throw him in 1:30 of the first period.
In another upset of the evening, Delta Sig Don Becker won a closely-contested match from Beta Tom Harper, 7-6.
The heavy-weight division brought its usual quota of mat slapping, grunts and groans, as the behemoths of the campus sought to maim each other with that good old college try. Winners in the unlimited class included:
Eldon Park, Delt, over Fiji, "Big Bear" Handshy, in a hand-to-hand contest that shook the building. Park finally applied the crusher in 1:45 of the third period.
Beta Sig Dick Goeglein won by default from Sig Chi Joe Kindler.
Sigma Nu Herman "Wildman" Dinklage rolled over "Muscleman" Garner in a fracas that was ended by Herman in 1:54 of the first period.
Fiji Paul Grimm, took Beta Rocco Yapp into camp by using his head. A quick parry and thrust with same, a knee drop, and a fast head sit downed Rocco for the count. The time was 1:58 of the first period.
Several wrestling authorities were on hand to watch the encounters. Among the most prominent were: Judge Charles Thoenes, Mr. Harmon Ruliffson, Dr. David Doyle, and Mr. Harris Carnaby.

Cyclone Cagers Face Problems
Iowa State college basketball players will have three immediate problems on their minds as they prepare for the return game with Drake Dec. 22.
First will be final examinations for the fall quarter. That little problem started today and will continue almost right up to game time, Dec. 22.
Problems two and three are interlocked—improvement of play and beating Drake. Coach Clayton (Chick) Sutherland will have more than a week of drills before taking on the final pre-tournament foe on the Cyclone schedule. That week will see the Cyclone mentor working mighty hard to take advantage of the lessons learned in the first four games of the season.
Iowa State has won three of the four contests, stopping South Dakota, Simpson, and Utah State, while bowing to Drake.

Reynolds ...

awards, trips and gifts also have poured his way.

Amazed
But Bobby is taking all his glory in stride with a little amazement and a lot of gratitude. He repeatedly has exclaimed that it is the boys "up-front" who deserve all the credit. He says it was the guards and tackles, and blockers ahead of him, clearing out the opponents, who were the real team heroes. He repeatedly has added that it was the work of his backfield mates in their ball handling and faking that sprung him loose time and time again.

Bobby greatly appreciates his honors but feels that he cannot be singled out as responsible for the success of the Cornhuskers.

Feelings Understood
Those who have seen and known him can understand how he feels and what he means and find they must agree with him. But those who have seen and known him also must confess that he is a football player extraordinary and that he is justly worthy of all honor and attention he has won.

For they have seen him run Cornhusker opponents ragged on the football field; they have seen him score points in almost every conceivable manner; they have seen him punt and pass with brilliance; they have seen him decoy the opposition away from his ball carrying teammates.

More Proof
The doubtful have more to convince them. They have the actual words from the gridders who opposed him on Saturday afternoons. They have heard these gridders say he is the greatest football player they ever have faced.

These words come from the men who should know, the men who know all the facts, the men who know whether a blocker prevented them from tackling Bobby or whether it was Reynolds' change of pace, his "limp legs," his bursts of speed or his smart all-around capability as a great footballer.

To break the national collegiate scoring record, Bobby needed help, but he also needed a fighting spirit and tremendous ability. It is evident now that he has all this and he still has two years of eligibility remaining.

Ten Qualify In I-M Track, Pole Vault

With preliminaries completed in all events but the 50-yard dash and the broad jump, the three early leaders—Sigma Chi in the Fraternity class, Presby in the Denom, and Field House in the Independents—have increased their margins over the second and third place teams.

In the only qualifying event held Wednesday, the pole vault, Sigma Chi paces the Frat division with three vaulters, followed by Alpha Tau Omega with two. The other places are split up among four clubs. Qualifying one apiece were Cornhusker Co-op, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

All qualifiers for the pole vault in the Fraternity division cleared 9-5. The lone Denom entrant, Dick Stansbury of Presby, also cleared this height. Don Coupens, ATO, present holder of the State high school vault record and an outstanding sophomore prospect on Ed Weir's varsity, is favored to win this event and possibly break Leonard Keh's record of 12-6, set in 1948.

Using qualifying times and marks as an indication of how teams stand in comparison with teams from other organizations, here is the way the scores would look.

Sigs Still in Front
Sigma Chi would have amassed a total of 63 7/10 points in the Fraternity division, thus stretching their lead over second-place Alpha Tau Omega to almost nine points. The Taus remain in the runnerup spot with a total of 55 7/18 points.
Sigma Phi Epsilon, strong in the running events but showing a weakness in most of the field events, rests in third place with 48 43/90 points.
Back of the three leaders, Phi

Field House Leads
In the Independent class, Field House would still have 84 points as compared to 41 for independent competitors. Ag Men's Social Club is in third place with 14 points.
Defending champion Presby House is making a runaway of the Denom class, increasing their lead to 108 points, seventy-one points better than second-place Lutheran Student House, who has 37.
Ag YMCA is next in line with 21 points, followed by Inter-

Sig Gams, Stars, Rinkydinks Win

Independent basketball was in full swing Wednesday night as the P. E. maples saw 11 games, some close, some run-aways.

Defending Independent champion, Sigma Gamma Epsilon, rolled along impressively during the first half of their initial battle and then struck a snag during the second half and barely emerged victorious. Obstacle for the Sig Gams was Alpha Sigma Phi, the final score being 39-36.

The Geologists started off fast with Chuck Nunley and Jack Yelkin from last year's All-Star team leading the way. The Alpha Sigs were hampered by a strong Sig Gam defense during the first two periods, but began finding the range just before the half. A quick spurge by the Alpha Sigs narrowed the score at halftime to 19-11.

Christensen Leads Way
Arved Christensen was the high scorer for the Alpha Sigs and of the game with a total of 14. Vern Hruza and Paul Sigmund added nine and eight, respectively, to the losing total.

Nunley and Yelkin were tops for the victors with 12 points apiece. Carter contributed eight.

A.S.M.E. scored one extra point in the first half of their game with Phi Alpha Delta and made that point count as they won by a score of 21-20. The engineers were ahead at halftime by a 12-11 score and both outfits notched 11 markers after intermission.

Bernard Packett, with eight points for PAD, led the scoring during the game. Luther with seven and Anderson with six were high for the engineers.

Charles Broughton led Nebraska Co-op as they fought from behind to win their game with Pharmacy. The final was 19-16.

Broughton Rolls
Broughton helped his mates to an early lead that was shaved to one point at the end of a 8-7 first quarter. The Co-op men ran into severe trouble during the second period and failed to score at all, Pharmacy getting three to lead at the half, 10-8.

The scoring action failed to pick up in the third period as both outfits garnered two points. The fourth period was different, however, as Broughton and his mates regained their shooting eye and fashioned nine points holding Pharmacy to four.

Broughton's 12 counters was by far tops in the game. Bailey was top man for Pharmacy with three points.

The Lilies, perennially strong, started off on the right foot by beating the Pirates, 27-21. D. McCormick and Clare Johnson were the leading scorers for the Gamma Delta is fighting off a Sigma Alpha Epsilon challenge and continues to hold the number four spot with 25 1/3 points. The Sig Alphas, with 23 43/90 points, hope to overcome the Fiji lead in the broad jump.

Cornhusker Co-op jumps into the number six position with 8 29/45 points as compared to 8 20/45 points for Phi Delta Theta, defending champion. A Jim Thorpe performance by the Phi Dels couldn't possibly make them title contenders this late in the meet.

Sigma Nu maintains its eighth-place standing with 4 1/3 points. Fighting it out for the ninth and tenth places in the Frat standings are Beta Theta Pi with 1 1/5 points and Delta Tau Delta with 1.

Field House Leads
In the Independent class, Field House would still have 84 points as compared to 41 for independent competitors. Ag Men's Social Club is in third place with 14 points.

Defending champion Presby House is making a runaway of the Denom class, increasing their lead to 108 points, seventy-one points better than second-place Lutheran Student House, who has 37.

Ag YMCA is next in line with 21 points, followed by Inter-

Lilies with nine markers. Dick Frogge led the Pirates with six.

The two teams from Dorm A fought a bitter battle before the Stars defeated the Comets, 32-26.

The Comets kept the game close throughout and led at halftime, the score standing at 11-10. R. Sovalin led the contest's scoring as well as all the scoring during the evening of basketball with a total of 17. Dick Giles was tops for the Comets with 15.

Gunners Win
The Gunners scored heavily in the first and last quarters in their opener to down the Pluggers, 31-20. The Gunners started fast and at the quarter led 8-1. That margin was narrowed to almost nothing at halftime, however, as the Pluggers roared back to make it 13-12.

The third quarter was even all the way, but the Gunners again began to hit in the final stanza and won going away.

Kiburz of the winners and Hoskins of the losers tied for the scoring honors with ten markers apiece.

The City YMCA clicked after a slow first half to wipe out the Dusters, 27-18. The first half was slow and even all the way with the Yers leading only 8-7 at the intermission.

A quick flurry of baskets in the third quarter practically sewed up the game for the Y.M. Shull led the victors in the scoring with ten points. Rod Pope was high for the Dusters with six.

The Plamorers had little trouble with the Ag Men's Club "B" as they won 22-10. The victors kept things all even in their scoring getting 11 points in both halves.

Top scorers for the two outfits were Sanders of the Plamorers with seven and Pierson of Ag Men with six.

The Ag College YMCA B squad recovered from their opening defeat at the hand of their "A" squad to rack Vocational Agriculture 21-14.

Win in First Half
The YM men clinched the game in the first half with 15 points while holding the Voc Ag men to six. Morrison and Harris led the winners with eight and six points, respectively. Beck got six for the losers.

The Rinkydinks and Dorm B & C hooked up in a thrilling

Varsity with 8 and Newman Club with seven.

The semi-finals of the 50 yard dash have been moved to 5 p.m. Friday instead of Thursday, as was previously scheduled. The change was necessitated because of the fact that most of the participants had ROTC at 5 p.m. Thursday.

Sports Briefs

After Phog Allen's Kansas basketball team had defeated St. John's, 52-51, in New York Tuesday night, the Jayhawk coach was overheard referring to his opponents as "alley fighters" and "we'd beat them by 40 points at home with good officiating."

... Southern Methodist's campus is boiling about the late football season, during which the team didn't live up to its press clippings. Some are inclined to blame it on the coach, H. N. Russell, because his son was a quarterback.

... Bob Reynolds is in the Naval ROTC and will be taking advanced work next year. So the Husker All-American halfback should be on the campus a while longer as far as the military is concerned.

... Five Oklahoma Sugar Bowl team members are included on the squad for the Senior Bowl game in Mobile, Ala., Jan. 6. They are Frank Anderson, defensive end; Leon Heath, fullback; Norman McNabb, guard; Harry Moore, center; and Claude Arnold, quarterback.

ball game with the Rinkydinks finally finishing on top by a 29-28 tally.

It took a second quarter spurge to give the winners the lead and a determination to slap down a fourth quarter Dorm rally to give them the nod.

The Dorm boys led at the quarter 7-4, but trailed at the rest period, 9-12. The Rinkydinks kept their three-point lead going into the final period, 19-16.

Bill Giles was high scorer for the victors with 11 counters while Heuermann notched eight for the Dorm B & C.

Cage Teams To Pick Stars

The intramural basketball teams and their managers will again pick the All-University All-Star teams this year. As last year, The Daily Nebraskan will sponsor the balloting of the players and their managers in an effort to determine the top players in each of the four divisions as well as the All-University stars.

Teams currently in action are asked to keep in mind the top men opposing them so when balloting time comes they can name the top performers. Teams will vote for only the players they face during the season and in their own division.

Ballots will be sent out to the managers of all the teams sometime later in the season for voting—so keep your eyes peeled.

There will be a meeting of those interested in ice-hockey as an intramural sport this Sunday night at 7 p. m. in the Union. All organized groups are asked to send two representatives to this meeting and all men who would like to compete independently in the sport are asked to attend.
