Cagers Visit Iowa State; Can Climb to Third Place

Nebraska's Basketball Cornhuskers must either climb into third place in the Big Seven Standings or drop into the cellar as they travel to Ames for a repeat performance with the Iowa State Cyclones this Friday.

A Nebraska win over the thus-far impotent Cyclones will give the Scarlet a 2-2 record in the league standings and boost them from sixth into a tie for third with Missouri.

Coach Harry Good's lads will try to duplicate their 51-49 win over the Cyclones that resulted from their first meeting on the Husker floor earlier in the year.

Public Opinion Spawns Commercialized Sports

BY JOHN REGO Staff Sports Writer

The business of commercializing athletics during the last decade has been receiving much adverse criticism from most of the sports writers and has aroused the indignation of the public in general.

Skilled Hands

Those special hands... the guiding, teaching hands of the occupational therapist or the physical therapist...

Akromis Tops Akromis was the big gun of the Nebraska attack in that first meeting between the two schools. Bernie swished nine field goals through the meshes to finish the evening with 18 points.

It will be the first contest for the Huskers in almost three weeks, the boys taking time out from competition for final examinations.

The next two periods will be practices. Rifle tournaments will begin at the third meeting.

Hill Selected As USC Mentor

Dr. Fred B. Fagg, Jr., University of Southern California president, announced Tuesday that their nationwide search for head football coach had ended.

From This Corner... Commercialized Sports

To achieve this end, we must find the source from where it was put into motion and why.

Because the athlete is receiving the most abuse from public opinion, let us see whether or not the shoe fits his foot.

Coop. and Kehl

Don Cooper, who soared to a record-breaking 14'4 1/2" in his pet event, the pole vault, will again limit his efforts to this event in the Colorado duel.

Spreads Fast

It had only to begin in a few colleges in various sections and then it spread like a contagious disease, involving every institution of higher learning in the country.

The final score read 35-24 for the Ag Men and stretched their win streak to four games.

No other cage games were scheduled for Tuesday.

Hill Selected As USC Mentor

Dr. Fred B. Fagg, Jr., University of Southern California president, announced Tuesday that their nationwide search for head football coach had ended.

Jesse Hill, head track coach at USC and one of the greatest all-around athletes in the school's history was selected.

Among those considered for the position were Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns, Ray Elliot, Illinois football mentor, and Fritz Crisler, athletic director at Michigan.

The job was vacated six weeks ago by Jeff Cravath under alumni pressure. Hill was engaged for an "indefinite period," contrary to the one year custom at USC prior to Cravath's three-year contract.
