Grapplers Meet Rams, Wisconsin

Al Partin, a Cornell graduate in the class of 1950, will take his University of Nebraska wrestling charges to Mt. Vernon Friday night to challenge another 1950 Cornell graduate's wrestling crew. The Cornell coach is Lowell Lange, whose Ram wrestlers will be out to annex their fifth dual meet win of the season.

The Huskers will be seeking either their second or third win at Cornell's expense, depending whether or not the Huskers were able to topple the powerful Iowa State Teachers Thursday night.

The Husker matmen will journey on to Madison, Wis., where they will meet the University of Wisconsin Saturday.

The Cornell coach has been conditioning the Cornell team all week for what he thinks will be one of the stiffest tests of the year for his Iowa wrestlers. Husker Partin's outfit fell before Oklahoma A. & M., 21-5, while Cornell lost that one, 26-0.

Nardin Debate

The Purple squad will be bolstered for the Cornhusker meet, by the return of Bill Nardin and Don Kettlecamp to the wrestling fold. Both missed the southern trip of the Rams, and will help to bolster Cornell's chances in the important meets coming up.

Nardin has won three dual meets this season, and has lost none. His over-all dual meet record at Cornell is 10 wins and 2 losses.

Ray Foy, Cornell 167 pounder, displayed his best form of the season against Grinnell last Saturday when he pinned Bernie Onkes, Grinnell 167 pound representative, in 4:44. Onkes took second place in the Midwest Conference last year, and is expected to be one of their main point-getters in the conference meet.

Sampson Faces Reese

Ralph Sampson, who alternates between the 177 pound post and the heavyweight position, also turned in a fine performance Saturday, against a much heavier, but inexperienced opponent. Sampson defeated Grinnell's Harris, a 205 pounder, 18-3, and had Harris in several near falls, but was unable to pin the bigger man because of the difference in weight. Sampson has won three dual meets, while losing two this season.

Probable Line-up

Potent Cats Seek No. 17 Against MU

Kansas State's high flying Wildcats will put their undefeated Big Seven string on the line again Saturday night for Missouri's third place Tigers to claw at. An expected capacity crowd of 15,000 will be on hand for the important league scuffle.

The Wildcats are heavy favorites to make the Bengals victim No. 17. Their national prestige took a tremendous surge last weekend when they blasted Long Island 86-65. As a result of their convincing win over LIU and the ensuing 60-45 triumph over Colorado Saturday night, the Gardeners are rated fourth nationally by both the Associated and United Press.

But the Purple clads aren't selling their Missouri visitors short. They remember all too well the unhappy experience with Sparky Stalcup's cagers the past two years.

Tigers Took Two.

The Tigers won 59-43 at Columbia last year and added insult to injury by copping a 58-55 decision at Manhattan to knock the Cats out of first place in the Big Seven. Two years ago the Gold and Black also won both games.

Kansas State broke a 13-year Columbia jinx earlier this season as they slugged the Tigers 60-43 for their first loop win. Jack Stone spearheaded the drive into foreign territory by bagging 18 points.

Missouri's last conference outing was last week when they nudged Iowa State 49-46. Their other league win was a 41-39 surprise over Oklahoma at Norman. Kansas has been the only other club to drop MU—winning 61-46 at Lawrence.

The visitors have a potential game wrecker in their big-little forward Bud Heineman. The 5-10 mite's jumping left-handed peg is one of the midland's most potent point getters. He leads MU scorers with 199 points—15 of them garnered in the first meeting with the Cats.

Okie Splashers Host to Kansas

Trimmed by Iowa State 46-38 in their opener here last week, Coach Joe Glander's Oklahoma swimming team, defending Big Seven champs, meet Kansas in Norman Saturday.

Four marks in the Sooner-Cyclone dual surpassed Big Seven conference records. Bob Brown of Iowa State did 22.9 seconds in the 50 and 53 in the 100 to beat the league standards of 22.7 and 53.8. The Iowa State medley relay trio of Lee Anderson, Tom Maine and Ed LaBerge swam 3:02.7. Conference record is 3:07.2.

Weir-men Seek Third Track Win

Cornhusker track men face their toughest competition of the season when they meet the University of Kansas in a dual meet at 6 p.m. here Saturday night.

Even though Kansas Coach Bill Easton lost the Jayhawkers' one-two punch in Bob Karnes and Pat Bowers, he still has 10 returning lettermen from last year's squad.

The Jayhawkers who won points in last year's Kansas-Nebraska indoor meet and will be back this year are:

Jack Greenwood, first in the 60-yard low hurdles and third in the high hurdles; Bob Deviney, second in the low hurdles and third in the broad jump; Emil Schutzel, first in the 440; Herb Semper, third in the mile; Cliff Abel, first in the two-mile; Dave Breidenthal, second in the two-mile; Jim Floyd, third in the pole vault.

Abel set a new Husker-Jayhawk meet record last year in the two-mile run with a time of 9:53.4.

Vault Competition

Don Cooper, York, and Leonard Kehl, Scottsbluff, will meet their roughest competition of the year in Marvin Rengel. Coach Easton believes that Rengel is capable of 13 feet in the vault. Cooper did 14 feet 4 1/4 inches in a dual meet against Iowa State.

A football trio, Galen Fiss, Oliver Spencer, and Merlin Gish, give Easton his most promising shot-out corps in four years.

Track Coach Ed Weir will use the same squad that beat Iowa State and Colorado at dual meets.

Cole Doubles

Wendell Cole, senior from Weeping Water, will run in both the high and low hurdles. Cole turned in a fast 306.9 in the low hurdles against Colorado. If he can repeat Saturday night, the existing record of 207.7 will be broken.

Hobe Jones, former Lincoln High athlete, will compete in two events. Hobe will have to run his best 880 of the year to beat the record of 1:56.9 held by Pat Bowers of Kansas.

Bob Kruger, Husker two-miler from Schuyler, will run into some rough competition in Cliff Abel, Jayhawk, who set a new meet record last year with a respectable 9:53.4.

Phi Psi's Edge Palacers; Delta Sigs, Delta Chi Win

Phi Kappa Psi remained unbeaten in basketball play Wednesday night, but only after taking a squeaker from powerful Brown Palace. The Palacers came within a whisker of upsetting the high-riding Phi Psi's, the final score reading 32-31.

Trailing by 11 points going into the final frame, the Palacers put on a terrific burst and just missed winning out.

A free-scoring second period gave the Phi Psi's the lead after trailing 4-5 entering that stanza. The winners outscored the Palacers 15-8 in that period to give them the lead they never again relinquished.

Two Get Ten

One man from each squad topped the night's scoring with ten points. Jerry Anderson turned the trick for the victors while Strelecki was the man for the losers.

Sooners Play Toughest Clubs Big-7 Second

Oklahoma dribbles against two of the country's strongest clubs in the next ten days, battling Oklahoma A&M (No. 2 nationally) Thursday at Stillwater and Kansas State (No. 4) February 17 at Norman.

All of which brings up the question, why does Coach Bruce Drake book such wicked schedules? They're hard on the wond-and-lost record.

Drake is nationally-famous for the thorny road down which he makes his teams travel year after year. Based on the Dick Dunkel Rating system, Drake's Oklahoma Sooners are playing a tougher schedule than any of the clubs currently rated in the Nation's top ten by the various basketball polls ranked by vote of sports writers and coaches.

Oklahoma's 1951 opponents averaged 67.4 in difficulty, rated on Dunkel's final tabulations for last year, and the Dunkel System soundly ranks the teams on how well each has performed in relation to the strength of its opposition.

Indiana Next

This surpasses the schedule difficulty of any of the country's ten leading teams today as computed from Dunkel's final 1950 tables: (1) Indiana 67.2, (2) Kansas State 67.0, (3) Oklahoma A&M 62.3, (4) Bradley 61.5, (5) St. Louis 61.3, (6) Long Island U. 61.0 and Kentucky 61.0, (6) North Carolina State 60.4, (9) Columbia 59.6 and (10) St. Johns 59.1.

Last year Oklahoma played six games against three teams in Dunkel's top ten, CCNY's grand slam champs (No. 1), Kansas (No. 7) and Kansas State (No. 10). The Sooners also met Illinois (No. 12) home and home and Oklahoma A&M (No. 24) home and home besides playing a tough double round robin in the formidable Big Seven conference. Only other opponent was Texas, which normally is the team to beat in the Southwest loop.

Big Seven Second

The Big Nine conference was the strongest basketball league in the country from top to bottom last year with the Big Seven second, the Dunkel system revealed. Here's how the various league rated:

1. Big Nine	70.1
2. Big Seven	68.2
3. Pacific Coast	65.3
4. Mountain States	62.6
5. Eastern Intercollegiate	62.5
6. Missouri Valley	62.7
7. Southwest	61.9
8. Southeastern	61.8
9. Southern	60.2
10. Border	60.1

The races were routed across the 25-yard width of the pool. A crowd of 500 saw the meet, jamming the bleachers that had been erected.

Cagers Face Lovellette, Jayhawkers

Another bleak evening seems to be in store for the Cornhusker basketball outfit Saturday. Cumulus Clyde Lovellette comes to Lincoln that evening.

The scoring scourge of the Big Seven and his University of Kansas mates meet the Huskers in a league encounter at 8 p. m. in the Coliseum. The game has been set back to that time to allow fans to see both the track meet and the basketball game. The track meet begins operations at 6 p. m.

Could Be Spoilers

With all title hopes gone, the Cornhuskers could act as spoilers by beating the Jayhawkers. With only one Big Seven defeat against them, the Jays' title chances would be seriously hurt should they lose to the Scarlet.

Kansas State is currently leading the pack with six wins and no losses. The Jays hold second place with four wins and one loss, that lone defeat at the hands of the Wildcats.

Saturday's encounter will mark the third meeting between Kansas and Nebraska this season. The visitors have won both previous games. The first, in the pre-season tournament at Kansas City, was racked up 63-47 by the Jays and the second, a Big Seven contest in Lawrence, went to the Kansans, 66-41.

Lovellette Both Times

Both times Lovellette has been the big headache for the Huskers. In the first meeting he scored 28 points and in the second he racked up 26.

The Jayhawkers will be without the services of one man who helped down the Huskers in the first two contests. Guard Jerry Waugh completed his competition at mid-term.

To take his place, Kansas Coach Phog Allen has named sophomore Charley Hoag of football fame.

Probable Starting Lineups

Kansas	Nebraska
Bill Lienhard	F. Bernie Akroms
Bob Kenney	F. Jim Snyder
Clyde Lovellette	F. Bob Pierce
Bill Hoagland	G. Jim Buchanan
Charley Hoag	G. Joe Good
Officials: Jim Knight (Chicago), Earl Gibb (St. Thomas).

Lightning broke loose in the Delta Sig ranks after that slow first half. Dale Turner, Bob Hallock and Buck Ulin poured point after point through the hoops amid the bewildered Zates.

Turner turned in the top scoring performance of the evening with 13 points followed by Robinson of the losers with 12. Hallock and Ulin each collected ten.

Delta Chi stopped the Theta Chi winning streak at one as they won over the TC men, 25-20, Wednesday night. Although leading practically all the way, the Delta Chi's were continually pressed.

Half-time score in this contest read 16-13, DX.

Mick Sisley topped the contest's scorers with 15 points to lead the victors to the win. McKangid added nine more to the DX score, Burkard was the scoring cog of the losers, getting six points during the game.

It was the third win of the year for the Delta Chi's and the fourth loss for the Theta Chi's.

Illinois Opposes Husker Swimmers

By GLENN NELSON

Nebraska's tankmen will face a tough opponent Saturday when they encounter a strong University of Illinois team at 3:30 in the Coliseum pool.

Coach Hollie Lepley predicted close races in several of the events. Much of the strength of both squads rests upon their sprinters and divers. Ted Kanamine and Tom Harley will represent Nebraska in the 50 and 100-yard free style, and Eddie Craren and Pete Slusar are the Husker divers.

Kanamine, a senior from Omaha and Big Seven sprint champ, may set a new record in the 50-yard free style. He broke several records on the team's western tour.

One Record Sure

Lepley is sure of one new record going into the books—the 220-yard backstroke. It will mark the first time the event has ever been held in the University pool. Buele Balderson and Pat Healy will compete for Nebraska in that event.

Coach Lepley announced that there would be plenty of seats available for spectators. There will be no admission charge for the meet. The entrance to the pool is on the main floor of the coliseum.

Relay—Buele Balderson, Omaha; Robert Phelps, Lincoln; Ted Kanamine, Omaha.

220-yard free style—George Hill, Omaha; Jerry Desmond, Lincoln.

50-yard free style—Kanamine, Tom Harley, Lincoln.

Diving—Edward Craren, Omaha; Pete Slusar, West Point.

100-yard free style—Harley, Kanamine or William Greer, Peru.

200-yard back-stroke—Balderson, Pat Healy, Lincoln or Robert Peters, West Point.

200-yard breast stroke—Phelps,

Greer, or Bill Douglas, Lincoln. 440-yard free style—Hill, Desmond; Homer Munson, San Bernardino, Cal.

Cu Trackmen Meet Aggies

Colorado trackmen will enter second indoor meet of the season Saturday against Colorado A&M at Fort Collins in an attempt to avenge last week's 76-28 defeat at the hands of the Nebraska Cornhuskers.

Buff mentor, Frank Potts, has no inclination on how this meeting between the traditional rivals will turn out. The Colorado squad was weaker than anticipated in the meet with Nebraska last week.

"We have very little information about the Aggies this season," Potts said. "We know pretty well who we'll be running against, but we have no reports on their best times this season."

Saturday's indoor meet with Colorado will be the first competition of the season for the Aggies. The majority of the A&M squad is composed of sophomores with just a few of the old standbys to fill in the gaps.

Aggie Coach E. D. "Doc" Taylor says his prospects for the 1951 season are "mighty dim." "It's going to take some miracle and a lot of unexpected talent for us to do very much in any meet this year."

Union Dance . . .

The Union entertainment committee will sponsor a dance to be held tonight in the Union ballroom.

For particulars concerning the event, students are requested to check in the Union activities office today.

Head golf coach, Marvin Franklin, has announced that all varsity golf aspirants who can break an 80 should begin working out with the golf nets in the coliseum basement as soon as possible.

We'll take the little one

They're both good basketball players. But if we were to judge them the way we judge telephone equipment, we'd take the small one.

You see, telephone equipment occupies valuable space, uses costly materials. Paring down its size helps keep down the cost of telephone service.

Take voice amplifiers, for example. Telephone engineers put the squeeze on size, came up with a new small type. When 600 of these new amplifiers are mounted on a frame two feet wide and eleven feet high, they do a job which once required a roomful of equipment. Size was cut—but not performance!

This is one of many cases where the Bell System has made big things small to help keep the cost of telephone service low.
