

NU Swimmers Meet Iowa State Today

Kanamine-Brown Sprint Duels To Highlight Splash Events

By Glenn Nelson
Staff Sports Writer

Coach Hollie Lepley's Husker swimmers will be out to even up their 2-3 meet record in a dual meet with Iowa State Friday afternoon in the Coliseum pool.

But the Cyclones will no doubt prove to be Nebraska's toughest opponent this season. They boast a victory over coach Joe Glad-ner's Oklahoma swim team, defending Big Seven champs.

Iowa State has surpassed three Big Seven records, all against the Sooners. Their medley relay trio of Lee Anderson, Tom Maine, and Ed LaBerge clocked at 3:02.7, well under the conference mark of 3:07.2.

Kanamine Vs. Brown
Ted Kanamine, undefeated Husker sprinter who has smashed three records this season, will battle with Bob Brown of I.S. in the sprints.

Brown turned in times of :22.9 seconds in the fifty and :50 in the 100-yard free style to beat the league standards of :23.7 and :53.8. These times are also under the Coliseum tank records of :24 and :54.

Another record which is threatened is the 200-yard backstroke. Buele Balderson finished in 2:28.8 against Illinois last week, the only time the event has been held in Nebraska's pool.

4:15 Friday
The meet is scheduled to start at 4:15 p.m. Coach Lepley announced that there would be plenty of seats available, and there will be no charge.

Nebraska entries:
300-yard medley relay—Buele Balderson, Omaha; Robert Phelps, Lincoln; Ted Kanamine, Omaha.
220-yard free style—George

Warriors Fall; Stars Rally to Smack Comets

By Jay Benedict

Wednesday evening's play in I-M basketball was hard on another of the undefeated ball clubs. The Warriors received the crushing blow to the tune of 34 to 26 from the Phillips 33 entry. Don Strashelm with his eleven points did all he could to lead his team to the victory, but he and his mates were no match for the eyes of Christiansen and Bob Clark and their fourteen points each. This loss left the Warriors with a 3-1 record and Phillips with a 4-1 mark.

As was expected, the Bee squad of the Farm House came through to smash Delta Sigma Phi's Bees 50 to 14. It was Farm House all the way with no serious opposition from the Delta Sigs.

Watson led the game's scoring with eighteen points, but he had able assistance from Vasin, who posted fourteen points himself. Don Dell Paoli could not possibly have done anything about the loss even though he led the Delta Sig scoring with seven points.

Phi Delta Phi continued in its habits of mowing down its opponents with their victim this time being Delta Theta Phi. The Phi Delta Phi's ran the score to 45 to 25.

Although Richards managed eight points, and Roebuck and Bump hit six each, for the losers, they were not enough to offset the balanced PDPPhi scoring punch headed by Wenke with nine points and Wilson with eight. Thus Phi Delta Phi still has a clean record of eight wins and no losses.

PAD Upsets
Phi Alpha Delta came through with one of the two upsets of the evening by defeating the Alpha Sigs 42 to 39. The first half saw the play quite even with the Alpha Sigs leading 17 to 16. The third quarter, however, marked the beginning of the end as the Paddies surged

Phillips 33, Ag YMCA Enter All-U Ratings; Phi Deltas Hold

9. Phi Gamma Delta (5-9)
10. Phi Gamma Delta (5-9)

The top four teams of last week continue to hold their positions in the ratings of all-university basketball. The top four stretched their combined record from 19-0 of last week to 28-0.

Phi Delta Theta continues as the number one team in the university followed by Newman Club, Sigma Phi Epsilon and Phi Kappa Psi.

The Phi Deltas added wins number six and seven over the week by blasting Alpha Tau Omega 37-21 and Sigma Nu 28-26. The good Sig Nu showing narrowly misses putting the Nu's among the top ten this week. Only a poor early season showing keeps them out.

Newman Blasts Presby
Second place Newman Club added fuel to their Interdenominational title hopes by blasting second place Presby House by a 48-22 score.

Sigma Phi Epsilon had a rough time of it, but managed to come out on the long end of a 29-21 score with Sigma Chi.

Outstanding contest for the Phi Psi's over the week was their 32-31 overtime win over stubborn Brown Palace.

PDB Is Fifth
A new face is in fifth this week. Phi Delta Phi, the law fraternity, climbs one notch to round out the top five. The PDPPhi's bumped off their nearest contender, Delta Theta Phi, by a 45-25 score last week.

Pioneer House also makes a one-step climb and this week is found in sixth place. The Pioneers added wins number six and seven over the week of action.

Another independent team rests in seventh place this week. The Geologists jump from tenth in the last rankings to the lucky-seventh position. They are unbeaten in four contests.

Four Husker Teams See Weekend League Action

Four Nebraska Cornhusker teams see action over the coming weekend. Only the NU gymnasts will be sitting this week out. Swimming gets the first nod as the powerful splashers from Iowa State invade the Coliseum pool for a Friday meet. Coach Hollie Lepley will try to snap his merman out of a three-game losing streak against the Cyclones.

He could have picked an easier team, however, as Iowa Coach Joe Gladner is bringing a veteran crew of swimmers.

Spotlight on Sprints
Spotlight of the meet will probably center upon the sprint duels of Husker Ted Kanamine and the Cyclone Bob Brown. Kanamine is undefeated and has broken three pool records this year and Brown has unofficially snapped a couple of world records.

Saturday will see two Nebraska teams in competition. The Husker wrestlers will entertain the Iowa State grapplers while the Scarlet trackmen will be in Columbia, Mo., battling the Tigers.

Wednesday night Coach Al Partin sent his matmen into battle and the Huskers wound up on the long end of a 21-8 score over Kansas State.

Strong Poe
In getting their third win of the season, the Scarlet wrestlers must halt a formidable foe. The Cyclones, who own three-fourths of the Big Seven wrestling championships, are always tough and Saturday night will prove to be no exception.

At Columbia the Huskers and Tigers should hook-up in what will probably be the top dual meet of the conference this season. The Huskers, riding the crest of three straight victories, face a mighty band of Golden Tigers.

Pre-meet comparisons favor the Huskers in first places, but Mizou has had the benefit of only one contest to date. The Tigers are also expected to pick up plenty of seconds and thirds. On this basis the Tigers are being ruled as slight favorites to stop the Cornhuskers.

Winner Is Loop Favorite
The winner, one way or the other, will probably be ruled the favorite going into the league meet next month.

Monday night the cellar-dwelling cagers will play hosts to the same Missouri Tigers. If the Huskers are to escape the loop basement, they must pull this one out of the fire.

The Tigers are currently third in the conference and will go into the game a strong favorite. The Huskers have one Tiger scalp, however, beating Mizou in the pre-season tourney.

week in eighth place. The junior Fiji's are one of the only two undefeated "B" teams remaining.

Two newcomers grab ahold of the top ten this week. Independent Phillips 33 and Ag College YMCA "A" hold down the ninth and tenth spots, respectively.

Both outfits toppled previously undefeated teams last week. The Phillips 33 crew smacked the Warriors while the Aggie YM dropped last week's number five team, Ag Men's Club "A."

Presby Second
In the Interdenominational division, Presby House continues to hold second behind the top-ranked Newman Club. The Presby record shows six wins and one loss.

Holding steady in the third, fourth and fifth positions are the Lutheran Student Association, InterVarsity and the Methodist Student House.

In the fraternity "B" rankings, it is still Phi Gamma Delta and Phi Delta Theta except that the two outfits exchanged places from last week after the Fiji victory.

Phi Psi Third
Phi Kappa Psi, unbeaten in five starts, makes a big jump this week, climbing from fifth to third. Delta Upsilon, the winning team in the "Bees" follows right along, climbing from sixth to fourth.

Sigma Chi and Sigma Phi Epsilon make way for the DU and Phi Psi advance. Both were handed their first defeats last week. The Sigma Chi's fell before the DU's, 41-26, while the Sig Eps bowed to the Sigs, 30-27.

Alpha Tau Omega and Farm House remain steady in the seventh and eighth spots and the ninth and tenth teams exchanged places this week. The Sig Alphas climb to ninth while the Betas drop to tenth.

Independent Shakeup
The independent division experienced the shakeups of the week. Not one team occupies the same berth this week as it did in last ratings. On top of that, three new teams have drawn a spot.

Last week's number one team, Ag Men's Club "A," received its first taste of defeat and dropped from first to seventh. The Aggie conquerors were the Ag College YMCA "A," who jump from seventh to fourth.

The old reliables, Phi Delta Phi and Geologists, hold down the top two spots. Phillips 33 makes the jump from six to three on the strength of their conquest of the Warriors. The Warriors in losing fall from fifth to sixth.

Stars Jump
The Dorn A Stars jump from eighth to fifth this week. The Stars conquered their traditional foe, the Dorn A Comets, to give them undisputed first place in their respective league. The Comets, earlier had handed the Rinkydinks their first defeat. The Comets enter the rankings this week in ninth, just behind the Rinkydinks, who are in eighth.

Another Ag College outfit reappears in the ratings after a couple of weeks' absence. The Pioneers capture the number ten spot this week. They own the only victory over the Ag YMCA "A."

Fraternity "A" competition continued hot and furious the past week. The top five outfits kept their respective positions but the second five experienced a general shakeup.

ahead and remained there the rest of the game.

Howard Hansen poured in twenty-one points to lead the victors, and Edstrom helped with his eight. Paul Stegmann dumped in 13 and Lavern Hruza 14 for the losers.

Although the City YMCA was expected to win their game with the Dusters, the margin of 50 to 20 was not expected. Fourteen points by Schmidt and thirteen by Hanson were in this upset of pre-game expectation.

The Dusters squelched attack was led by Gordon with six and Pope with five points. The Dusters kept the pace through the first quarter but began to falter midway in the second period. From then on it was all the Yers' game.

After the Dorn A Comets had knocked off the league leaders, the Rinkydinks, they went down to defeat before their dorm mates, the Dorn A Stars by the score of 35 to 29. It was the second time this year that the Stars have pasted the Comets' hopes.

Leading scorers for the Comets were Dan Switzer with eleven points and Dick Giles with ten. For the winners Swahla with thirteen and Clark Caly with eleven headed the scoring list.

EDDIE CRAVEN, Husker senior from Omaha South, has been picking up some valuable points as the swimming team's leading diver. Eddie also is a member of the varsity gymnastics team and specializes in trampoline work.

VETERAN DON COOPER will try for his fourth consecutive Big Seven indoor dual meet win when the Husker track team meets the University of Missouri Saturday. "Moose" has consistently cleared 14 feet and is aiming at the intercollegiate vault record for a dirt runway which is 14 feet 9 inches.

Fem Breaks Men's Reign In Rag Sports

Shirley "Queen-of-the-Half-Nelson" Murphy is the first girl in the long and illustrious history of the "Rag" to cover a wrestling match.

Shirley finally has shown that sports writing is not necessarily a man's job and that she can tell the difference between basketball and wrestling.

Shirley started her sports writing career Wednesday night by covering the "rassling" match between Nebraska and Kansas State. During the first part of the game, she sat on the very end of the bench; but when someone found out that she was a real live sports reporter, she got the best seat in the house—right between the two official judges of the meet.

Not only did Shirley cover the match, but after it was over, she dashed down to the Journal news room and wrote it off for next day's edition of the "Rag."

Shirley has memento of this occasion—a score card from the first sports event she ever covered.

Cyclones Close Indoor Season

Iowa State closes its indoor dual meet track season at Des Moines Friday when it meets Drake in its annual battle.

The contest shapes up as just about as tight a contest as any rabid fan would call for. A check and recheck of the points here in Ames reveals that either team is capable of winning on the basis of performances so far this year.

Last week both teams meet Big Seven foes, Iowa State bowed to mighty Missouri while Drake failed to stop Kansas State by just two points.

U.S.C. Job to Navy Coach

Don Clark, line coach at the United States Naval Academy last season, Monday was appointed line coach at the University of Southern California.

Clark, 27-year-old former captain of the 1947 Trojan varsity, was graduated cum laude in engineering after three years in the infantry.
