

Kansas State Track Team To Meet Huskers Tonight

Cindermen Hope To Return To Win Column Against Cats

By Bob Banks

The Nebraska cindermen will try to prove their one defeat at the hands of the Missouri Tigers was all a mistake when they entertain the Kansas State Wildcat tonight at 7:00 p.m.

The Scarlet are currently sporting a three win-one loss record. The Missouri took them into camp, 71-33, down at Columbia last Saturday night.

The Wildcats, stimulated by a 53-51 win over Drake, will be trying to do as well in the Big Seven.

The Wildcats may not have enough team-balance to win the meet. Coach Ed Weir asserts, "but they have some individual performers who will give good accounts of themselves."

Hoskins
Top Kansas State Wildcat is the elastic Herb Hoskins who is one of the top broad jump artists in the nation. He has bettered 25 feet during his career. He leaped 23' 8" against Drake.

Virgil Severns holds the Nebraska-Kansas State high jump record, a 6' 5 1/2" effort in last year's meet. However, he is competing in the Pan American games at the present time and will not participate in this meet.

Thurlew

Don Thurlew is rated as one of the five best two milers in the conference and will present a threat to the Huskers. Thane Baker, a sophomore sprinter, has proved to be effective in the big-time competition.

The Huskers will be facing three grid stars in Dick Towers, 880; Bill Wall, relay; and Lane Brown, broad jump and hurdles.

But Nebraska has a few performers of its own who can win when the occasion demands.

Vaulter Don Cooper will be trying to go all the way in this meet, according to Weir. Currently, the only college vaulter to better Cooper's top height in Don Laz of Illinois. The Huskers will have added punch in the event with the presence of veteran Leonard Kehl. Always good for 13 feet or better, Kehl would ordinarily be top man on any squad.

Meissner

Another Husker who will be in the spotlight in Dick Meissner, star high jumper. Meissner recently set a new all-time Husker indoor record of 6' 5 1/2". The old record was 6' 4 1/2" by Monte Kinder.

Hobe Jones, outstanding sophomore runner, will concentrate on the 880. He has been doubling up in the 440 in previous meets.

Dan Tolman has been running 70-yard wind sprints in an effort to strengthen his finish in the hurdles. He was barely nipped for a first place in the last few meets.

Irving Thode and Glenn Beeline will combine their talents to try and offset the Wildcat broad jump strength.

The Husker cause will be hampered by the loss of Wendy Cole. He has been bothered by a knee injury since the opening meet.

Nebraska entries:
60-yard dash: Dick Stansbury, Bob Barchus, Blake Cathro.

440-yard dash: Lee Alexander, Bill Hein, 880-yard run: Hobe Jones, Dale Schnackel, Ken Jacobs, Gene Yelken.

Two mile run: Bob Kruger, Ken Jacobs. High jump: Dick Meissner, Irv Thode, Robert Sand.

Broad jump: Glenn Beeline, Irv Thode, Dick Stansbury.

Pole vault: Don Cooper, Leonard Kehl. Shot put: George Prochaska, Paul Grimm, Lowell Nelson.

60-yard low hurdles: Don Bedker, Dan Tolman, Blake Cathro.

Relay: Lee Alexander, Bill Hein, Jack Scoville, Bob Barchus, Leonard Kehl.

Kansas entries:
60-yard dash: Thane Baker, Herbert Hoskins, Ray Walters.

60-yard low hurdles: Ray Walters, Ted Maupin, Lane Brown.

440-yard dash: Don Thomas, William Stuart, William Wall, Thane Baker.

880-yard run: Dick Towers, Trevor Watson, William Stuart, Dean Kaye, Ted Hanson.

Two mile run: Dean Kaye, Ted Hanson, Don Thurlow, Otto Roessler, Dean Kaye, John Hooper.

High jump: Herbert Hoskins, Ted Maupin, Lane Brown.

Broad jump: Herbert Hoskins, Ted Maupin, Lane Brown.

Pole vault: Dean Nunn, Frank Hooper. Shot put: Dick Johnson, Dalton Pace.

Relay: Thomas, Watson, Wall, Baker, Hanson, Towers, Stuart.

IRVING THODE—will try to better 23 feet against the Wildcats in the broad jump.

LEE ALEXANDER—sophomore sprinter will run in the relay for Coach Weir's squad.

I-M Handball Tournament Narrowed to 10; Betas Slip

Only ten men remained in contention for the All-University handball championship Tuesday. Four league winners have been crowned and when the finalists in the other three leagues determine the winners of those leagues, the final elimination tourney will get under way.

Dick Stansbury of Presby House took top honors in League I by whipping Bert Rochman of Sigma Alpha Mu. Stansbury's win assures him of no worse than seventh in the elimination that started with almost a hundred competitors. The same applies to the winners of the other leagues.

Howard Hansen, competing independently, was declared champion of league II after his victory over Doug Peters of Beta Theta Pi.

Strasheim Wins.

Don Strasheim of Phi Gamma Delta grabbed off the top spot of league III by downing Jim Oliver of Phi Delta Theta.

The only other league winner to be crowned thus far is the first place in league IV. Doug Dudley of Sigma Alpha Epsilon came through the victor here, winning over Dave Avery of Beta Theta Pi.

In leagues V, VI and VII the finalists still remain. In the fifth league Bill Rogers of Beta Theta Pi and James Quinn of Sigma Alpha Epsilon are still in contention.

League VI still has Brown of Phi Gamma Delta and Ted Cannon also a fight remaining. Bruce Perrine of SAE and Ken Minnick of the Betas are the survivors of league VIII.

New Tourney.

As soon as the last three leagues have been won, the seven top men will compete in a new single elimination tourney for the All-U title. To make it an eight-team bracket, one of the losing league finalists will be drawn by lot for a chance at the big-time.

As the final tourney stands, the winners of league I and league III will meet in the first round as will winners of V and II. Victors of leagues IV and VI will vie and league VII champ will meet the selected runner-up.

Only sure opposition in the final playoffs to date is the meeting of Stansbury and Strasheim.

Betas Slip.

Beta Theta Pi, which led the survivors with six out of 16 last week, lost four men in competition this week. The SAE's lost one and the Sammies the sixth.

The Sig Alpha now lead in the number of remaining men with three each of the ten. The Betas own two and one each are from Presby and the independents.

Quarter Spurs
Beta Theta Pi spurted in the first and third quarters enough to fool around the other two stanzas and still win their contest with Pi Kappa Phi. The Betas won the contest 29-22.

The victors crammed 25 points into the opening quarters of each half and added a lonely two in each of the remaining periods.

The Pi Kaps were more consistent, but consistently low. They scored six points in each of the first, second and fourth quarters and slipped to four in the third.

Reynolds with 16 markers led the victors' scoring chart while teammate Whitman added seven. Duane Gardner topped the Pi Kap point-getting with eight counters. Duane Deittering pumped in seven more.

LIU Cagers Admit 'Fixes'

Big time gambling has evidently become an epidemic. Long Island University added its name to the all ready numerous basketball teams who are taking bribes.

District Attorney Frank S. Hogan charged three members of the team of juggling games for money. Included among these was Sherman White, acclaimed by many as the outstanding player of the year. He is currently the nation's top scorer. LeRoy Smith and Adolph Bigos were also included in the charges.

Hogan charged the three with taking part in the same betting ring he broke up over the week end with the arrest of five other college basketball players and a former convict.

The trio finally confessed after being questioned by Hogan in an all-night session that started Monday afternoon and lasted more than twelve hours.

Bribes
Hogan specifically charged the three with taking $3,000 in bribes to reduce the margin of points by which they won the opening game of the current season—LIU's 60 to 59 victory over Kansas State in Madison Square Garden, December 2, 1950.

The three were involved in "fixing" other games during the team's 20-4 season, according to Hogan.

He said they admitted they took money for shaving points on games, and they operated with Salvatore Sollazzo and Eddie Gard to set up betting coups.

Gridders Fool Around; Play Sharp Ball

By Shirley Murphy

The basketball game between the red and green squads of the Husker football team at the Missouri-Nebraska basketball half-time showed the versatility of Glasford's boys. Verl Scott of the green squad controlled the board most of the time, while the full court passes kept team members, referee and spectator's heads going from one end of the court to the other. The greens emerged victorious 19 to 15 in a ten minute period, remarkable considering all the fooling around.

Burt Moore, Iowa State football line coach, swapped his gridgers for bowlers this semester. He is teaching the largest bowling class at ISC of 279 members single-handed. This is his first stab at bowling instruction. Previous to this, he had taught only football and basketball.

Four Missouri gridgers have been drafted by professional teams for 1951 tryouts. They are: Guard John Kadlec by the Washington Redskins; halfback Ed Stephens by the San Francisco 49ers; halfback John Glorioso by the Philadelphia Eagles; and end Gene Ackermann by the Chicago Cardinals.

A total of $72,611.57 has been paid to the Big Seven conference by the University of Oklahoma from its receipts from four football bowl games during the past five years, athletic director Bud Wilkinson has disclosed.

The Sooners' check for $26,611.49, representing the conference's cut from the 1951 Sugar Bowl game, went to Reeves Peters, conference executive secretary, just recently. Oklahoma paid $28,570.16 to the league from its 1950 Sugar Bowl game; $10,429.92 from its 1949 Sugar Bowl game and the minimum guarantee of $5000 from its 1947 Gator Bowl receipts.

Colorado sponsors a sport novel to the Big Seven. This is varsity skiing. The Buff team bolstered by the return to action of co-coach Jim Griffith, entered their third four-way ski meet last weekend.

Virgil Severns, holder of the Nebraska-Kansas State dual record in the high jump, will not perform with the K-State squad at the meet Wednesday at Lincoln because he is in Buenos Aires for the Pan American games. His best jump this year is six feet four and five-eighths inches. The dual record mark, set by him in 1950, is six feet five and five-eighths inches.

Charley Hoag, ace University of Kansas sophomore player, is living up to a heritage at Lawrence. His uncle was member of the cage squad back in the 1920's. He is carrying on the tradition as a double football and basketball star. Charley was a leading member of the Jayhawk backfield and has broken into Phog Allen's basketball combination.

The same, Gene Ackermann, Missouri end who was drafted by the Chicago Cardinals, finished the 1950 football season with a three-year total of 1028 yards in pass receptions. This is a career record at the University of Missouri.

Missouri's distance ace, Bill McGuire, holds three all-time records at the University of Missouri. Outdoors last year he ran a 4:10.7 mile against Kansas and a 9:16.7 two-mile in the Drake Relays. Best indoor mile mark of 4:14.8 was recorded in the 1949 Illinois Tech Relays.

BOB PIERCE—veteran Husker center appears to be on the way to new scoring record.

Bob Pierce Nears Husker Scoring Mark

Husker center Bob Pierce rolled nearer and nearer to establishing an all-time Husker scoring mark for one year Monday night as he poured 25 points through the hoops to help topple the Miz-zou Tigers.

Bob's 25 counters shoves his season total to 316 points, just 44 shy of the record of 360 set by Bus Whitehead last year. And Pierce has four more games in which to play.

Wildcats Slip To Fifth in National Rank

Kansas State slipped to fifth and Oklahoma made its appearance on the 17th rung this week in the Associated Press basketball poll. The Wildcats dropped from third place after their defeat at the hands of the Sooners. The Okies were unrated a week ago.

Another set of Wildcats, these from Kentucky, are still the number one team in the nation. For the fifth straight week, Kentucky is the leading cage team. The Wildcats, sporting a 16-game winning streak, again edged out Oklahoma A & M in the weekly poll.

Columbia, the only major unbeaten team left, moved up to third replacing Kansas State. Indiana also advanced, from sixth to fourth place, but that was before the Hoosiers dropped a 71-65 decision to Illinois Monday night.

Illinois, now a heavy favorite in the Big Ten, moved from eleventh place into the select group with a tenth place finish. The rest of the top ten consists of St. Louis in sixth, Bradley in seventh, St. John's of Brooklyn in eighth and North Carolina State, ninth.

The leading 20 teams with points based on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. First-place votes and season's records, including Monday night's games, in parentheses:
