Cooper, Jones Set All-Time NU Marks in Vault, 880

By Bill Mundell.
Nebraska's indoor cindermen ran Kansas State into a 69½ to 34 2/3 defeat in Memorial Stadium Wednesday night. The Huskers captured first place honors in eight of the 12 events to top their fourth dual meet in five starts. Only the loss to Missouri mars the Husker record.

Huskers Don Cooper and Hobe Jones took good care of four records during the evening's activity. Both took one first place, but each was good for two new records.

Vaulter Cooper shattered the old Nebraska-Kansas State dual record of 13 feet, 8½ inches early in the evening. "Moose" cleared 14 feet and then took aim at the all-time Nebraska indoor record, which he had set in the opening dual meet this year.

Over For a Record
On third try he slipped across the bar and established a new mark of 14 feet 5½ inches. Cooper wasn't through trying and narrowly missed 14-8 on the third try.

Jones set his records in his specialty, the half-mile. Hobe and Dick Towers of K-State set a blistering pace for the first three laps which saw Towers leading most of the way.

Around the last turn it was too much for the Wildcat and he faded badly as Jones roared on to win in 1:57.3.

This was 1.1 seconds better than the old dual mark set by Kopf of Nebraska in 1947. What was even better was that it eclipsed the all-time Nebraska 880 record of 1:57.1 set by Bobby Ginn.

This was all the record-breaking during the meet although the Wildcat mile-relay team came within one-tenth of a second of that mark. The Kansas aggregation of Don Thomas, Trevor Watson, Bill Stuart, and Thane Barker edged the Husker foursome by two yards in the time of 3:29.5.

Jacobsh Leads Off
Ken Jacobs started the Huskers off on the right foot by capturing the mile in 4:26.9. "Jake" was pressed most of the way by K-Stater Ted Hanson who finished second. Gene Yelkin of the Huskers copped the third place.

Jacobs also brought in second-place points for Nebraska as he crossed the finish line behind Jones in the 880. Dale Schnackie, also a Husker completed the NU sweep of the half. Wildcat Towers, who had fought with Jones for most of the race, finished a poor fourth.

The other Husker sweeps were highlighted during the evening. The Scarlet took one-two-three in both the 60-yard high hurdles and the shot put.

Paul Grimm heaved the iron ball 45-5 to snag the victory in that event. Lowell Neilson and George Prochaska finished right behind Grimm.

Becker Wins Two
Don Becker captured one of his two victories of the evening in the high hurdles to lead his Husker mates to that sweep. Don skinned the barriers in :07.6. Second and third places went to Don Tolman and Blake Cathro.

In the low hurdles Becker sped to a :07.2 victory. Tolman again took second and Wildcat Walters placed third.

Other Husker first-place winners were Dick Meissner in the high jump and Bob Kruger in the two-mile run.

Kruger staved-off a last-second challenge by Cat Don Thurlow to take the "long one." Bob led most of the way, but had to battle at the finish.

Meissner Wins Easily
Meissner had things all his way in the high jump. Dick wasn't seriously pressed as he won with a leap of 6-4. Irving Thode gave the Huskers points with a second place tie with two Wildcats, Hoskins and Maupin at 5-10.

The Purple's Herb Hoskins was much better than a second-place tie in the broad jump, however. Hoskins leaped to victory with a jump of 23 feet 11½ inches. Thode turned in his best performance by copping second with a 23-6¾ leap. Husker Glenn Beurline took third.

Thane Baker was the Wildcat double winner as he copped firsts in both the 440 and 60-yard dashes. Lee Alexander and Bob Barech finished second and third to Baker in the 440 while Thode gave the Scarlet their only point in the 60 with their third behind Baker and Hoskins.

Norris House Cornhusker Win Battles

Norris House maintained their lead in league V Tuesday night by blasting Acaia, 39-19. The Norris men had their 19 points just before the first half ended and then matched the Acaia effort all during the second half.

The win gives the Norris House a record of 6-1 to date while the loss shows Acaia practically out of the playoff picture.

Joe Babcock led the contest's scorers with 16 tallies while his Norris teammate, Al Kramer, connected for 13. Cunningham had 13 for Acaia and Meiner gave six more to the Mason total.

Cornhusker Co-op kept a firm grasp on second place in league IV by measuring Tau Kappa Epsilon, 39-20. The Co-op men are only behind Pioneer House in that league to date.

The game was all over at half-time as Co-op led 25-7. Despite Jerry Ewing's 12 markers, the Tokes were an easy foe throughout. Bob Heffelfinger and Dale Flood each garnered nine for the victors.

Long Island U. Quits Sports

Another bomb shell was thrown into the intercollegiate basketball scene when Long Island university—the most recent victim of big-time gambling—announced it would quit all college sports.

The Brooklyn school has been noted for its outstanding basketball teams for many years. The action also includes the cancellation of this season's four remaining basketball games.

Three star players on the present squad and one former team member have been charged with taking $18,000 in return for fixing seven games.

These four, plus three stellar members of the national champion C. C. Y. N. team and a player from New York University, admitted obtaining a total of "25,000 in bribes, authorities said.

Players
The arrested players are: Sherman White, 6-foot 7-inch LIU forward who was the leading scorer in the nation and was the Sporting News "outstanding player of the year."

Leroy Smith, LIU playmaker and ace set shot artist.
Adolph Bigos, L. I. U.'s main rebounder.
Ed Warner, star of C. C. N. Y.'s national champs.

E. Roman, top scorer on the C. C. N. Y. team.
Al Roth, C. C. N. Y. playmaker.
Harvey Shaff, a New York university leading scorer.

Ed Gard, L. I. U. team captain last year.

Salvatore
All eight players received the bribes from Salvatore T. Sollazzo, according to the district attorney's office. Sollazzo is a Manhattan jewelry manufacturer and ex-convict.

He remained in jail Wednesday after state supreme court justice Samuel H. Hofstadter denied Tuesday his latest plea for freedom on a habeas corpus writ. He has been refused bail.

According to rumor, District Attorney Frank S. Hogan isn't finished with the sensational college basketball expose that has kept the sports world on edge since he first started his questioning last Saturday.

Kansas State college was asked by its president to examine its policy on off-campus basketball games. One of the games in the L. I. U. stars were charged was the one which they defeated the Wildcats, 60-59 in December.

Iowa State Athletic Director
Louis Menze said he believed the question of Big Seven teams participating in Madison Square Garden will be discussed at a meeting next week.

"Did you get home late from the party all right last night?"
"Yes, thanks; except that just as I was going down the sidewalk to my house, some idiot stepped on my fingers."

Humphrey Enrolls; Creates Problem

by Shirley Murphy
"Humphrey" has enrolled at the University of Oklahoma. Harold Keith, publicity director at Oklahoma announced the enrollment of a gigantic 364 pound shot putter who was a mid-semester high school graduate. Louis "Humphrey" Miller created an equipment problem for John Jacobs, track coach for the Sooners.

"I have to put three towels in his locker every day. It takes that many to dry him after each shower," says Jacobs.

The Big Seven's outstanding first year man in basketball is Gene Landolt of the Missouri Tigers, according to the University of Kansas Daily Kansan. The Kansan boosted the Missourian because he was "a prime factor in the Tigers' 39 to 38 upset victory over Kansas at Columbia on Monday night."

Sharpshooter Landolt was the Mizzon's high point man when the Tigers lost to KU in Lawrence. He has a season score of 143 points, an average of 8.3 per game. From the field he had hit 54 baskets in 126 attempts.

"National Collegiate Champions 1950" will be the engraving on the fourteen-inch trophies awarded to each letterman on Oklahoma's champion football team. The player's name will also be inscribed on the award. Each player on the 60-man crew has been given a watch by the Sugar Bowl organization. The boys were Big Seven conference and National Collegiate champs last season.

College wrestlers are beginning to get a boost for their tussles. Walter Smith, former Iowa State grappler, has announced he will give an engraved ring to the outstanding wrestler on the Cyclone squad. The winner will be chosen at the end of the season.

Farm House Hands Phi Psi's First Loss; Delta Chi Wins

Another unbeaten basketball team bit the dust in competition Tuesday. Phi Kappa Psi "B" owning a five-game win streak, ran into the Bees of Farm House and were subdued, 25-23.

The upset produced a tie for first in league VIII between the two outfits. "The Phi Psi's had earlier measured the aggie eagles.

Farm House jumped off to an early lead and led 8-4 at the quarter, but a Phi Psi spurt overcame that margin and the losers held a 13-12 halftime lead.

Take Over
The Aggies took over again in the second half and jumped to a two-point margin which they maintained practically throughout the remainder of the contest.

Bob Britton of the losers led the game's scoring with ten points while teammate John Dick potted eight. Marvin Panetz topped the Farm House scoring with eight with Ray Vlasin adding seven more.

Faced by the fourteen points of Mickey Sisley, Delta Chi ran all over Delta Sigma Pi to the tune of 20-18. A poor third quarter spelled doom for the Delta Pi's as they ran up only one tally while the DX men were counting ten. Halftime score stood at 12-12.

Besides Sisley's contribution, Frank Easterbrook dunked 31 points for the winners. Lincoln with eight and Binkler with five were all the losers had to offer.

Brown Palace kept rolling along by blasting Theta Xi, 43-27. The Palaces jumped to a 18-6 quarter lead, widened that to 23-8 at intermission and coasted in.

L. Stueleck scored nine and Don Stake potted eight for the Palaces while Laese notched ten for the losers for high for the game. Bale of TX added nine more.

Phi Gamma Delta "B" got back into the win column Tuesday by smacking the Sig Alpha Bees to the tune of 27-21.

After a slow first period that saw the score tied at 5-5, the Fijis got rolling and held a 18-11 lead at the rest period. The Sig Alphas closed in going into the final stanza, but faltered in the final five minutes to give the win to the Phi Gams.

Maupin led the scoring with 11 markers for the winners while Paul Grimm added eight more. Bob Jensen garnered eight for the SAE's and Bruce Perrine got six.

Delta Sigs Win
Delta Sigma Phi rang up its third consecutive victory by outlasting the men of Sigma Alpha Nu for the second time this season. The final score was 28-23.

The Delta Sigs began inching away in the second period and gained momentum in the last half to win. They led 24-21 going into the fourth quarter.

Marlin Downey and Bill Wilson contributed seven points apiece to lead the Delta Sigs. Lochman scored six for the Samurais and Rosenberg five more.

NINTH STRAIGHT WIN . . . Husker Herb Reese is shown here decisioning the Iowa State heavyweight to chalk up his ninth consecutive win this season. He'll try for number ten Friday night.

Matmen Seek Fourth Win Against Omaha U Friday

by Glenn Nelson
Omaha U's matmen will face a much improved Cornhusker wrestling team when they invade the Coliseum Friday night.

Nebraska was victorious in only one of their first six meets, but they have displayed much more scoring punch in their last three engagements. Big Seven opponents Kansas State and Iowa State have gone down in that order by the climbing Cornhuskers in their last two duals.

Preceding these wins the Huskers had defeated only Denver U. and fought to a 12-12 draw with Wisconsin.

Nebraska's victory over Iowa State helps to substantiate their improvement. The Cyclones trampled Colorado in the Huskers' only Big Seven loss by a score of 15-7.

Top Condition
Coach Al Partin expressed his optimism in saying that his team is in top condition for the meet. A back injury may sideline Harold Gilliland, however, in favor of Darrell Adamson, Cherokee, Iowa, sophomore.

Al Johnson will take the mat for his second time this season in the 167 pound class. He will test his ability against that of Lynn Ferris, Omaha U's top-flight grappler.

A pair of brothers, Frank and Charles Mancuso, will wrestle for Omaha. Frank will battle Perry Leitel in the 137 pound match and Charles will face Harley Richardson in the 177 pound bout.

Herb Reese, Nebraska's undefeated heavyweight, will meet the Indians' Howard Bryan, and Dave Mackie will probably be paired with Fred Pissale in the 157 pound class.

The 123 pound event lists no known contender for Omaha U. to oppose Ken Brown. Ken Fisher is slated to meet Indian Paul Bushes in the 147 pound contest.

The dual will begin at 9 p. m. immediately following the Nebraska Wesleyan game. Coach Partin announced that admission to the meet would be free.

The Nebraska lineup:

Big Seven Cage Crowds Fall in 1950

Four Big Seven schools have reported a nose-dive in basketball attendance this season. Only Kansas State and Iowa State are showing larger crowds for the cage sport while the University of Kansas is drawing about the same size crowds.

Kansas State, with a team closing in on the championship and playing a new, two million dollar field house, has attracted 95,900 for nine home games—a record for Big Seven members.

The big decreases have been at Oklahoma, Nebraska, Missouri and Colorado.

Colorado (4-16), suffering its worst season in years, is down an average of about 1700 per game.

Nebraska's attendance also has gone down with its team standing. The 1950 Huskers, who shared the title with Kansas State and Kansas, drew 24,166, an average of 4027 for its first six home games. This time the average for the first six was only 2904.
