I Folling Samme

WINNING CURTAIN ACT . . . The Pi Beta Phi "Bugs the best curtain act at Coed Follies. Center; the butterfly who was rescued from the wicked bonfire. Others represented glowworms, jitterbugs, Japanese beetles and a lovebug.

Thursday 3:00 "Especially For You."

3:30 Disc Jockey's Jamboree 3:45 "Johnny's Pop Shop." 4:00 Women's Show

4:15 Final Sports Edition.

4:30 To Be Announced. 4:45 "Blues and Boogie."

PE Majors

To Sponsor

'Play Day'

delegates to the affair.

instead of competition."

and shuffleboard games.

in the Coliseum pool, acquainted."

each group.

and York.

The average freshman coed out like "a fire horse with the who takes swimming may have speed of light, a cloud of dust a cinch that her hair won't hang can't be late for that class again.

down in ring-a-lets after a dip in So remember, when you see a loose. But, sad to say, the water's wetness can't be changed, and in many cases, neither can

One of the major problems of Sales Show

So after the girls have dressed, business research reported Tuesdried their hair, and grabbed day that January retail sales in ies was up 25 percent over a year ago but 17 percent below December. McCook showed the largest increase with spectacular rise of 52.9 per cent over a year ago Hastings showed a 42.9 per cent gain and Fremont 39 percent.

Retail sales in twelve repre-

over a year ago, all but two counties reported January, 1951,

The comparative January retail

9.7 - 13:3 9. Above 5 Above or below or below Jan. 1950 Dec. 1950 10.5 - 24:3 10.5 - 21:5 7 notice 40.0 1.5 10.5 - 0.5 10.5 - 0.5

or below or below Jan 1950 Dec. 1950

their respective books, they dash eight of Nebraska principal cit-

2 at 7 p.m. in Love Library audi- stantial increases in January man who develops a science out sales activity in selected cities

An editorial in the lowe State The comparative January re-hair dry, their makeup on Increases

a dark and a roving eye, but it's and a thundering, my gawd, I

Thirteen high schools have indicated that they will send par-ticipants to the "Play-day" sponsored by junior and senior physical education majors March 3. Several more schools from the 15-county district one area of the Nebraska Education association will probably send delegates to the "Play-day" also. Each high school will send five Cooperation.

"No two girls from the same will play on the same team," Miss Lee said, "We hope to provide an opportunity for high school girls in the surrounding communities to become

The morning program for the girls will include volley ball, duck pins, table tennis, deck tennis

Following the noon luncheon

The afternoon program will include musical mixers and a swim

Barnston, Hampton, Exeter,

at Ellen Smith hall the girls will have the opportunity of hearing the school songs and yells of

"Play-day" will give physical education majors experience in teaching sports. According to Mabel Lee, head of the women's physical education department, the girls participating will be taught "cooperation

5:00 Sign Off.

TNC for '51 . . .

ROSES FOR A COED-Smiling Jeanne Vierk was presented with roses by M.W.S. chairman Marilyn Moomey after she was revealed Typical Nebraska Coed Tuesday night. Miss Moomey served mistress of ceremonies. TNC Vierk was not presented until male invaders had been expelled from the Nebraska theater.

Ag Exec Board to Sponsor Contest for Ag Campus Sign

Ag college is?

an out-state traveler upon see- ceive a prize. It will be an- Towns that indicated they will ing the old "State Farm" sign nounced later by the Ag Exec send delegates are:

stopped at Ag Hall to inquire: "Could you please let me see my old Uncle Henry?"

ing a sign contest for the college. winning the contest. W. V. Lambert, complete plans, ideas or suggestions may be sub-mitted for a sign to be erected at 'String-a-lets' Coed Fate each of the two main entrances Students and faculty have long After Swimming Venture been harried by the lack of proper identification of the Ag college branch of the University. Many ideas have already materialized. The rules of the contest are: 1. All students and faculty of the University may enter.

2. Submit the plan, drawing or suggested sketches in a simple but accurate manner on-8 x 10 paper. It may be larger. 3. Turn all proposed signs into

Dean Lambert's office. 4. Contest ends March 19.

5. The Ag Exec board and Dean Lambert will judge the suggested signs and announce the winner.

Myron Gustavson To Address IVCF

A former president of the io-cal Inter-Varsity Christian Fel-lowship chapter, Myron Gustafson, will be the guest speaker at the group's meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Room 315 in the

Mr. Gustafson will speak on Spanish Movie the "Christian Student's Responsibility." Special music will be provided by Miss Emmarie Shramek and Miss Helen Virginia Nelson. Miss Shramek will give a vocal solo and Miss Nelday, March 1 and Friday, March sentative counties showed subson will play the piano. Faculty members and students torium. alike are invited to the meeting The weekly Bible Study will part. He plays the role of a be Wednesday, March 7 at 7 p.m. in Room 224 of Burnett hall. He invests his alms so wisely that he becomes a very rich financier and acts the part of both the beggar and the financier

Fine Arts Group To Give Recital

The Fine Arts ensemble, with throughout the movie.

Prof. Emanuel Wishnow, director The movie is being on the University symphony orchestra, on the first violin, will present a chamber music recital at the Union ballroom Thursday at 8 p. m. The concert will be a repeat ormance of the ensemble's An editorial in the lows State The comparative January redudent admission to the concert, to better foreign relations than ties is as follows: an International House on cam-

Chamber music, is 75 cents.

The ensemble in the second of dents live in the same dormitories and houses as American students the chamber music recitals.

"Ill play "Arisgio," "Intermezzo," Prejude" and several other

"Prejude" and several other numbers of the group sign Truman Morsman, second violin: Max Gilbert, viola: Rosemary Madison, cello and Gladys mary Madison, cello and Gladys Tanger I. Ames, Ia,

Hammers and sickles, seenes from old Russia, portraits of faithful comrades and murals were used as decorations at a Russian communist theme party recently at lowa State college at Tanger Tanger

Are the Aggies finally going It was reported the person to get a sign to show where their submitting the winning proposal rious activities will be presented will, in addition to receiving the awards at the colse of the pro-The story is going around that honor of designing the sign, re- gram.

board. The Cornbusker Countryman Fairbury, Tecumsch, Lincoln will feature the winner and the Northeast, College View, Pawnee The Ag Exec board is sponsor- sketches of the proposed sign City, Crete, Seward, Henderson, water weren't so wet and if most it all.

of the swimming caps weren't so these little freshmen mermaids is seeing that they can get their straight, and their various sundry

To Show at Love

A Spanish film, "Dios Se Lo Pague," will be shown Thurs-

Arturo De Cordoza, eminent

The movie is being sponsored by the University Spanish de-omain partment. Admission is 25 cents, Lincoln

Hammers and stekles, seenes

Spanish actor, has the leading below December.

the beggar and the financier weighted data).

partment. Admission is 25 cents. Lincoln and tickets may be purchased from Spanish instructors or at McCook Nebrasics City string-a-lets.

the swimming caps.

over in Temporary K."

Modern Theme Percival Pecunious Finds Will Highlight Art Exhibition Student Directory Problem

Morrill hall March 4 through

The exhibition is designed to bring new, experimental forms of art to Nebraska, not those which are already familiar, said Norman A. Geske, assistant director of the University art galleries. Other sections of the exhibit, however, will include paintings and prinits by American artists of the late 19th and early 20th centuries and works by established contemporary American and Eu- Union College Has ropean artists. The galleries will be open to Sandwich Battle' the public on weekdays from 9

For Union Soon

latest styles and news.

once upon a time—not so very annual exhibition of the Nebraska long ago—the little man-about—little nondescript fellow very same predicament as the man on campus, Percival Pecunious curiously. "Not at all," he said the platform. The other charac-(Pinchpenny to all non-Latin simply, "not at all!"

students) was strolling along very

"Going—going—gone:"
Percy broke into a run, and upon approaching the crowd, yelled, "Wait! Haven't you gotten things a little turned around?"

cluded in the exhibition program, dents to buy a 20-cent sandwich, Following the exhibit, some of the paintings will be added to the lunch time. At night, however, the Percy just couldn't understand knows that. University art gallery collections. college dining halls charge 20 it. "Why would anybody do a cents for the sandwich, plus an thing like that?" he thought in the reverse. The student has extra five cents tacked on for "How could they?" the lettuce

Hey kids, watch the Union for install a five-cent, across-the- that there are people who do All these 750 people have to do their newest addition-television, lunch-counter boost for lettuce at such things. Whether it be at an is go up to that office, say University students will soon all meals. At that, the students, auction or in making subscrip- "please," and those little green be able to sit in their most com-fortable chair in the lounge and According to the Concordiensis, are some who don't care enough to keep.

leisurely one day when he heard than ever, stepped a little closer. man on campus, however, the boom of an auctioneer's "What I mean is," he started The story? Last fall, B carefully, "you've sold something, solicited approximately a thouand now you're yelling Going—sand receipts for directories.

going—gone! I don't get it." Sold? Sure!

Auctioneer Explains

The man on the platform been exchanged for those little beamed down on the little man green books. and explained, "Some weeks ago, sold some things for a man and collected the money. The what they bought."

a.m. to 5 p.m., and on Sundays from 2 to 5 p.m. Admission charge will be 25 cents plus tax.

A series of gallery talks and panel questions will also be in the sandwich."

Percy was horrified. "You mean—with all the trouble people have with finances, they still haven't bothered to return for the sandwich."

Percy was horrified. "You mean—with all the trouble people have with finances, they still planked down those bright, shiny half dollars so many weeks ago.

Just think—50 cents the sandwich."

Wasted Money Originally the college tried to Well, Percy, the fact remains look at television showing the senior from Seattle, Wash, re- about their own money to redeem what they paid it for.

imply, "not at all!"

Iter, the student body, doesn't seem to run parallel to the little

The story? Last fall, Builders

However, since their issuance, 750 of these pieces of paper have

At 50 cents apiece, that means trouble is, nobody ever came after $375 gone—gone down the drain unless these individuals make an

A series of gallery talks and the sandwich."

The things they paid out good sure, there's always the complaint sure, there's always the complaint "That's right," the auctioneer that someone is always asking for money. Even Percival Pecunious the other foot! Builders have the payments.

It sounds easy enough-why

DAILY NEBRASKAN Weekly CHUCKLE Presented by Your Leading Businessmen...

"MR., CAN'T YOU DO SOMETHING ABOUT THIS KID?"

STUFFY

By O'Brien

Herby & His Pals

Supplies for

- · Leather Carving
- Other Figndcraft Items
- Let us help you with

OPEN ALLEYS ANY TIME

DUCK PINS Are Easy to Bowl

1117 P St. upstairs 2-7872

OPEN

12 Nova to 6:30 and all day Saturday and Sunday

Lincoln Bowling Parlors 236 No. 12

PATRONIZE RAG

ADVERTISERS

WE SPECIALIZE IN

- Dresden Craft
- · Textile Painting

your craft problems.

S CRAFT CRAFT