

Huskers Take Conference Track Title at Kansas City

Coach Ed Weir, his pet theory, and his track team won the Big Seven indoor track title Saturday night at Kansas City.

The Husker cindermen scored 40 1/2 points to lift the title from defending champion Kansas and favored Missouri.

Weir has long supported team depth as being the surest way of winning track championships. And it was depth which won the Husker title this time.

The title was annexed on second, third, fourth, and fifth places. In fact, only two Nebraskans, Hobe Jones and Leonard Kehl, won blue ribbons.

After the meet was over Weir emphasized that it was the team working as a unit and not as individuals that enabled Nebraska to win.

Weir Says
"They were a fine bunch of kids," Weir asserted, "and every inch of energy they had was put forth. They came through in the pinches."

Vaulter Don Cooper was a prime example of giving up personal interests for the benefit of the team. He had a good chance of breaking the conference pole vault record of 13-feet-11 1/2 inches set last year by Sooner Bill Carroll. The Husker star had cleared 14 feet consistently during the entire season.

Cooper
But he sacrificed this personal interest in order to run the 60-yard dash. And in doing so won third place in a race which Nebraska had been weak in all season. His sprinting effort may not have been a reason for his inability to break the record.

But it still served to spur the Huskers on. And the team elected him honorary captain for the indoor season.

Fortunately, Leonard Kehl was up to par and equaled his best mark of the season, a 13 foot 6 inch effort which won first place.

Settles Feud
Hobe Jones settled his feud with Tiger sophomore Pete Gallup. Both men were rated top contenders to win the 880. Jones not only won the race but set a new Nebraska mark of 1:56.4. Gallup faded to fifth at the end of the race.

Another outstanding performance was contributed by Wendy Cole. He had been out of action most of the season with a bad leg. He shook off his injury and ran a close second to Jayhawk Jack Greenwood in the 60-yard low hurdles.

Hurdler Don Bedker also gave a surprise performance by running second to Greenwood in the 60-yard high hurdles.

Shotputters Paul Grimm and Lowell Neilsen rate a loud applause for their efforts. Grimm tossed the iron ball 45 feet-four inches and Neilsen followed with a 44 feet-ten inch heave. Both marks were good enough for fourth and fifth places, respectively.

Broad Jumpers
Sophomore broad jumpers Irving Thode and Glenn Beerline copped third and fourth places in their event. Thode jumped 23 feet-four inches. Beerline was only an inch behind him.

Dick Meissner was below his usual form and got caught in a four-way tie for second place at 6 feet-two inches in the high jump.

Ken Jacobs came through with a third place in the mile run. He failed to place in the two-mile event.

Mile Relay

Nebraska hopes in the mile relay received a set back when Wendy Cole, the second Husker runner fell on the turn. However, he got up and finished the race. Nebraska was shut out in time comparisons.

Missouri was second in the meet with 37 1/2 points, Kansas third with 30, Kansas State fourth with 25 1/2, Oklahoma fifth with 25, Colorado sixth with 18 1/2, and Iowa State brought up the rear with 3 markers.

Weir summed the meet up when he said it was well run and every school performed credibly.

From The Sports Desk

Sports Editor, Daily Nebraskan

Hats off to a fighting band of Cornhusker tracksters. We knew they could do it.

It was great to see Ed Weir's cindermen come through in the clutch to pick off the big plum of the Big Seven carnival last weekend. It was a fine victory for a fine bunch of competitors.

What was even better to see was the fine team interest shown by the Huskers. Personal ambitions were set aside so that the team as a whole could carry home the prize.

Foremost in my mind is senior pole-vaulter, Don Cooper. "Moose" has been a Husker vault mainstay for four years and has always been near if not at the top of the conference vaulting.

This year it was definite. "Moose" had six times in six meets bettered the Big Seven pole vault mark set by Carroll of Oklahoma last year. "Moose" had soared higher than any other athlete in the history of the conference and was nearing the world's record for a vault from a dirt run-way.

But Don has a couple of other assets. He is one of the faster sprint men in the loop and he is a non-selfish individual.

And so, because of these, Don ran the 60-yard dash for Nebraska and picked up three all-important points by placing third.

Don't let anyone kid you; running 60 yards in fast company can tire a fellow plenty.

And so after the 60, Don went into his pet event, the pole vault, tired and exhausted and finished second to teammate Lenny Kehl.

Look at the standings that would have resulted if "Moose" hadn't run the dash.

Subtract the three points for Nebraska in that event and add one more to Missouri which Harold Carter, who finished sixth, would have gotten. There's your three-point victory margin gone and Missouri would have been champion by one point.

Don could have spent all his energy on the pole vault and undoubtedly would have established a new Big Seven record beside his name.

Don won't go down in the conference record books as the man who holds the loop vault record, but in the hearts of Huskerland he's an all-time record-holder and a wonderful guy.

Thanks a lot, "Moose."

DON COOPER . . . gave the indoor champion Huskers an added boost with a third in the 60-yard dash last week-end. "Moose" has been named honorary captain of the team for this indoor season.

NU Frosh Win Postal Meet; Thinclads Stomp Missouri

The Nebraska freshman track team opened its indoor track season with a 59-47 victory over the Missouri frosh team.

The Husker yearlings were led by Tom Carrodine, former Boys Town athlete, who won victories in the 60 yard dash and the 60 yard low hurdles.

The Tiger frosh featured Hall who had double victories in the 440 yard dash and the mile run.

The next Husker meet will be against Oklahoma. This year's squad is "comparatively thinner" than last year's team and Coach Weir claimed that "the boys have not fully rounded into top shape as yet."

Final results:
60 Yard Dash: Won by Carrodine (N) second; Berning (M), third; Kushner (N). Time 06.3.

60 Yard Low Hurdles: Won by Carrodine (N), second; tie between Railsback (N) and Lindquist (N). Time: 07.4.

60 Yard High Hurdles: Won by Lindquist (N), second; tie between Railsback (N) and Reynolds (M). Time: 08.0.

440 Yard Dash: Won by Hall (M), second; Hunley (N), third; Hodges (M). Time: 53.0.

880 Yard Run: Won by Hodges (M), second; Bradshaw (M), third; Scott (N). Time: 2:02.9.

Mile Run: Won by Hall (M), second; Scott (N), third; Miller (M).

2 Mile Run: Won by Miller (M), second; Rutz (N); third; no entry. Time: 10:17.5.

Pole Vault: Won by Dickey (M), second; Hughes (M), third; Gum (M). Height: 12' 9 1/2".

Broad Jump: Won by German (N), second; Kushner (N), third, Reynolds (M). Distance 21'0".

High Jump: Won by Heidek (N), second; Moreland (N), third; Parker (M). Height: 5' 11 1/2".

Shot Put: Won by Dale (N), second; Giles (N), third; Kieffer (M). Distance: 43'4".

Mile Relay: Won by Missouri (Bradshaw, Berning, Hodges, Hall), second Nebraska. Winning time: 3:36.7.

Dusters Hit Phillips, Stars, City YM Win

By Marlin Downey and Buck Ulin

Highly touted Phillips 33 fell before a determined bunch of Dusters Saturday afternoon in a thrilling 32-31 overtime affair. The Phillips crew was the third independent team in the University while the Dusters were unranked in the last ratings.

In the initial period the Dusters jumped to an early 8-3 lead. However when the half ended the Phillips had narrowed the margin to 14-12 and in the next stanza were ahead 22-18. The roaring fourth quarter saw both teams fighting for supremacy, neither seeming to be able to break the 29-29 deadlock. In the heartbreaking overtime the Dusters crowded out a fighting Phillips team by a skin-light one-point margin.

Fred Muhall led the Phillips with nine while close behind were Bill Johnson and John Johnette each having six. The Dusters top scorers were Dan Linquist and Bob Johnson who dumped in 10 apiece.

Geologists Spree
Geologists downed the Pirates 47-23. The Pirates couldn't seem to stop the sharp eye of Gene Carter as he garnered 16 and Jack Yelkin who flipped in 10. Ralph Hall was the leading hoopster for the losers with 13 points.

The Dorm Stars drubbed Dorm B&C to the tune of 51-31. It was an evenly matched game until the hectic fourth quarter when the Stars hit for 24 points.

Ray Swehla scorched the nets for 24 while teammate Bud Harris hit for 13. Both boys play for the Stars. Notching up the markers for Dorm B&C were Bill Stout, grabbing 15 and William Hearman, accounting for 10.

Nebraska Co-op Wins
Another thriller for the day saw Nebraska Coop break the Dorm A comets 31-29. Both teams gave a good account of themselves in the upset.

Broughton netted 12 and Young bucketed six for the Co-Op's. Dick Giles banged away 10 and Dan Switzer bagged nine for the Comets.

Fill Rollers took an easy one, 2-0, on a forfeit from the Rinkydinks.

Fiddle-de-Fees Wins
Phi Delta Phi, No. 1 Independent team, rolled over Alpha Sigma Phi 33-26. As usual, lawyer Don McArthur led the scoring—this time with 14 points. Teammate Bill Wenke helped with eight. Alpha Sigma Phi Paul and Joe Siegmund kept the losers in the running with 12 and 8.

In a Saturday "B" game, Sigma Alpha Epsilon broke a Beta Sigma Psi hex to take a 27-24 decision. Sig Alpha Bruce Perrine was the wheel—flipping in a nifty 17. McAfee and Huebner of the Beta Sigs split 14.

Inter-Varsity Downed
Presby House shellacked a willing Inter-Varsity squad 46-36-26. Clark Beteke's 13 and Norm Sothan's six made the better half of the winner's score. Dick Heigel's 10 and Wagner's 8 helped the I-V cause.

City YMCA overran an underdog Gunnars, 52-25. Schmidt, Green and Osterman were the big-guns in the YM offense. They scored 13, 12, and 15 points, respectively. Flipping the points in for the gunners were John Rasmussen, who had seven and Scott Stockton and Rog Steeves, each contributing six.

Delta Sigma Pi met and defeated Acacia, Saturday. The quarter scores were 14-6, 27-12, 39-15, and 51-23. Three boys from Delta Sigma Pi couldn't seem to be stopped as they plopped in point after point. They were Simon with 17, Lincoln with 14 and Cottingham with 13. Acacia's John Ewin and Chuck Miner had six.
