High School Cage Tourney Rag Experts Pick Winners Begins Today at Coliseum of Tourneys

By Bob Banks
High School basketball—which came in like a lion—will exit the same way with the inaugural of the state tournament today at Preliminaries begin today at 12:30 in Classes B and C. The A and D brackets will not begin play until Thursday.

The tourney will end Saturday night with championship games in A and D.

All four fields are crowded with potential title winners. The teams are so evenly matched that no single class lists a unanimous favorite.

The regional tournaments were filled with upsets. Underdog teams paid little attention to the role cast their way by sports writers and "crystal-ball gazers."

No team was strong enough to go through the season unde-feated. Last year Minden, Paw-nee City, St. Joseph's of Atkinson, Chadron Prep, and Hil-dreth all were sporting un-tarnished records at state tourney

Sportsmanship Trophy o Be Awarded Soon

The Sportsman Basketball trophy of the Big Seven has added prestige and importance in the light of the recent basketball scandals. The winning school will be announced March 20 at a banquet at the Hotel Continental in Kansas City, Missouri. The gold trophy is presented to the Big Seven school which has shown the best sportsmanship on the part of the spectators, players and coaches. This is a memorial to Big Seven athletes who were killed in World War II.

Freshmen will become eligible September 1, providing they enter college directly from high school. Any student competing as a freshman after September 1 or the first year of a junior college may have a total of four years varsity participation.

Paticipation will be counted as one year regardless of how brief the time is or cause of interruption.

The University Daily Nebraskan named more star teams. Jim Buchanan was listed as guard on the Big Seven first team and rated as fourth best Big Seven player faced. Bob Pierce copped forward position on second team. Eleven players too part in choosing the Big Seven opponents.

Five Colorado players performed in their last game of college basketball for the Buff squad in the squabble with the Sooners last week. The boys are all seniors: Wayne Tucker, Bill Clay, Fred Johnson, Hal McVey and Jack Foistad. Tucker was rated by the Jayhawker paper as forward on the All-opponent first team and the Big Seven first tea.
