George Cobel, council member, announced at Wednesday's meeting that a student-faculty committee meeting will be held Friday to discuss the campus parking problem.

The committee will talk over ideas for improving the parking situation and will discuss the possibilities of reserve faculty parking.

Parking Survey
Cobel reported to the council the results of a parking survey taken last Wednesday morning by Sgt. John Furrow. He said that there are 1,461 parking places on the campus and that at the time of the survey there were only 1,212 cars parked.

Cobel reported that the empty spaces were mostly in the tenth street lot across from the stadium, in the area around the Military and Naval Science building and in the two lots near Bancroft school.

The committee asked that any University students who have ideas concerning the parking problem submit them before Friday to George Cobel or Rex Messersmith.

Student Migration
The Council also discussed and reported on by members of the Council were class spirit, faculty rating and the new Student Council constitution.

The Council passed a recommendation approving the setting up of a system of class organization for the purpose of improving class spirit.

AUF Solicitations Due Monday

The executive board of AUF is selecting organizations for which they will solicit funds during the fall term.

Any campus organization wishing to have AUF solicit for them must send in their requests before Monday, April 16 and meet with the AUF executive board some time this month.

Budget . . . World-Herald Man Reports on Budget Committee Appropriation for University

Harold Andersen of the Omaha World-Herald has figured out the facts and figures of the latest tentative decision of the budget committee of the state legislature in regard to University appropriations.

The budget committee has decided tentatively to recommend to the legislature that the University get $1,500,000 more tax dollars than Governor Peterson proposed in his 1951-53 state budget.

According to Andersen, that would be an increase of $450,000, or 56 per cent, over the University's current appropriation from the tax-supported state general fund.

$12,500,000 Budget
Anton Schmidt, University tax dollar budget of $12,500,000 for the two years starting July 1. This recommendation would be a boost of $1,500,000, or about 13 1/2 per cent beyond Governor Peterson's recommendation but would be $1,182,639 less than the University requested.

The University would have a total operating budget for 1951-53 of about $23,700,000, including money from all sources—tax dollars, student fees, Federal funds and "auxiliary enterprises" like athletics and student cafeterias.

No Funds For Med. School
The committee reportedly decided against earmarking of funds for the University's medical college in Omaha.

This decision is tentative and could be changed before the committee sends its recommended 1951-53 state budget to the floor of the legislature.

Fifty-Four Coeds Apply For Yell Squad Positions

Fifty-four girls have applied for the cheerleading positions on the 1951-52 yell squad.

Cheerleading practice will be held Friday, April 13 from 3 to 5 p. m. in the Coliseum. Frank Piccolo, Brick Paulson, Don Devries and George Hancock will lead the group.

Tryouts will be Thursday, April 19. The exact time of tryouts will be announced later. The Advisory board members will select two coed cheerleaders and two alternates. Members of the board are Nancy Porter, Bob Raun, Bob Parker, Frank Piccolo, Brick Paulson, Don Lentz, Patsy Clark and Jack Geier.

Fresh, Sophs Available
Freshman and sophomore girls are eligible to try out. Girls who have applied are: Pat Peck, Dorothy Elliott, Marilyn Ogden, Rose Mary Castner, Beth Rohrer, Marilyn Preusse, Virginia Poppe, Betty Lester, Barbara Wylie, Jo Lamb, Corinne Clore, Bicky Nedrow, Polly Stratton, Katy Walensky, Bonnie Eilers, Adele Coryell.

Suzi Tewel
Suzi Tewel, Katy Coad, Donna Palmer, Betty Stratton, Sue Gorton, Ruth Raymond, Nancy Beal, Susie Bothum, Jo Dusek, Kathy McMullen, Susie Reinhardt, Jane Calhoun, Patricia Mayer, Dolly McQuistan, Jan Beachler, Sally Stockstad, Shirley Stehlik, Christine Pivonka, Phyllis Loudon and Judy Wiebe.

The girls will be judged on general personality, crowd appeal, grace of motions, voice and aptness in picking up the yells. The board felt that one reason men lack interest in cheerleading is because the majority of state high schools have girl cheerleaders.

Don Devries is the yell king for next year and George Hancock is his assistant. Ira Epstein and Jerry Tubbs are hold-over members from this year's squad. Dick Claussen and Jack Chedester were appointed as new members. Stuart Reynolds and Marshall Kushner are alternates.

Points Given for Scores
At the end of the day, scores of both classes will be computed. Five points will be awarded to the winning team of each event, 4 points for second place, 3 points for third, 2 points for fourth and 1 point for fifth.

The winning team will not be announced until the Junior-Senior prom in the evening. On Ivy Day, the losing class will present the winner with a trophy.

California Loyalty Oath Held Invalid

The State of California Appellate Court has held the University of California loyalty oath invalid. Warning against the threat to academic freedom, it ordered the board of regents to rehire the 18 professors who refused to sign a special non-Communist pledge as a condition to employment.

The decision came 14 months after the board first told all university employees: take a non-Communist oath or be fired.

The decision said, "we are also keenly aware that equal to the danger of subversion from without by means of force and violence, is the danger of subversion from within by the gradual whittling away and the resulting disintegration of the very pillars of our freedom."

Truman Act Starts Furor In Congress

General MacArthur's views on his dismissal, Congressional talks of impeachment, European and Japanese views on the dismissal and public opinion polls taken from the map on the street filled the headlines and the front pages of the news Wednesday night.

President Truman relieved General MacArthur of his position as supreme commander of allied powers, UN commander in chief of the U. S. far eastern army because the senior five-star general "was unable to give his wholehearted support to the policies of the United States government and of the United Nations in matters pertaining to his official duties."

Lt. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, commander of the U. S. Eighth army in Korea and MacArthur's personal choice to succeed the late Gen. Walton H. Walker, assumed all the titles by direction of Defense Secretary Marshall.

A White House press conference was called at 1 a. m. Wednesday. Over 50 reporters and photographers crowded into the office of Presidential Secretary Joseph Short, at 1 a. m. behind locked doors, he distributed the president's order.

Mr. Truman's action apparently was a surprise to everybody in London except possibly the highest-level officials. The British, who have been urging a negotiated peace in Korea, have felt that MacArthur was jeopardizing chances for it by his political utterances. They have been making formal protests to Washington for some time.

MacArthur To Speak To Joint Session
Senator Wherry of Nebraska and Representative Martin of Massachusetts, the G.O.P. floor leaders, talked to MacArthur by trans-Pacific telephone.

Following this Martin announced to the house:

"I am authorized to say that General MacArthur would be delighted to have an invitation to speak" to a joint session. He added that MacArthur "can be here in about three weeks."

Most of the capital hill split over the MacArthur removal was along party lines. For the most part, the democrats were quick to line up in support of Mr. Truman's action.

Martin introduced a resolution calling for an invitation to MacArthur to address congress.

Wherry, introducing an identical one in the senate, asked unanimous consent for a vote on it. Senator McFarland of Arizona, the democratic leader, objected.

"When Martin was asked if the impeachment talks applied to anyone in particular, he answered that it applies to anyone 'who transgressed.'"

The implication was that Republican leaders felt an impeachment move might be warranted against President Truman, Secretary of State Acheson and possibly others in the democratic administration.

British Support Truman Move
British Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison praised Gen. Douglas MacArthur as a "brilliant soldier" but said the principle of subordination of the military to political leaders was paramount.

Students Express Views On Firing of MacArthur

The news of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's removal from his commands in the Far East took the campus by surprise Wednesday.

Students, some of them indignant, had much to say in a Daily Nebraskan poll.

Said one coed: "I don't think MacArthur could have done anything so drastic to merit the action taken."

"Taking another stand, Jim Wamsley believes that, although MacArthur is a fine general, he should know that it isn't his job to formulate American foreign policy."

"Even MacArthur should realize that he occupies a subordinate position," Wamsley said. "The administration obviously had their reasons."

Pat O'Brien believes that it was unfortunate for Truman to relieve MacArthur in the middle of the critical war situation. However, there undoubtedly are reasons for the changeover which the American citizen now knows nothing about, she said.

The firing of MacArthur was a very wise move, said Don Secord. MacArthur went out of bounds in some statements he made, and due to the resulting pressure, he was forced to be fired.

Agreeing with Secord is Warren Cole. "Though MacArthur understands the Oriental people, he succeeded in rubbing the British the wrong way, and therefore was fired he said.

"MacArthur is as qualified as 'on the spot' observer of far eastern affairs as anyone in the world today," says George Wilcox. His record in the orient is supported by 26 years of experience. It is unfortunate that he is in a political feud with Truman and certain Republican politicians.

Wilcox believes that Truman has pulled his biggest political boner in a long time.

MacArthur has done a good job, but he has overstepped his authority, said Lynn Kunkel. But things which happened were not all his fault.

"Truman didn't consult the American people, and that is bad," said Ted Holtgreaves. "It will hurt us in Japan."

Cliving another similar opinion was Red Weidner, who blames

Juniors, Seniors Invited To First Annual Class Day

Juniors and seniors—with an eye toward establishing a new campus tradition—are urging fellow class members to participate in the first annual class day, Friday, April 13 at 2:30 p. m., at Pioneer park.

Anton Schmidt, senior class president and chairman of the class day activities, stated that all junior and senior men and women, are invited to take part in class competition which will begin with a softball game between the Mortar Boards and junior coeds.

Innocents vs. Junior Men
Henry Cech, in charge of the softball game between the Innocents and junior men, said that if enough students are interested in participating, other softball games between the two classes will be scheduled.

Those junior and senior men interested in entering the softball competition should contact Cech at 3-9160. All junior and senior women who wish to play on their class teams should contact Pat Wiedman, 6-2440.

The junior coeds team will meet the Mortar Boards at 2:30 p. m. in a four-inning game. The Innocents vs. junior men game will follow at 3 p. m.

After the softball competition, other mixed games will be held. Sack races, egg throwing and three-legged races will be included.

Points Given for Scores
At the end of the day, scores of both classes will be computed. Five points will be awarded to the winning team of each event, 4 points for second place, 3 points for third, 2 points for fourth and 1 point for fifth.

The winning team will not be announced until the Junior-Senior prom in the evening. On Ivy Day, the losing class will present the winner with a trophy.

Eileen Derieg, Hastings, Honorary Commandant, will present Minute Man awards to outstanding cadets in behalf of the Lincoln chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution.
