

Editorial Comment

Force Stops Force? . . .

Editor's note: Reprinted from the Nebraska Wesleyan. Farmer Botts wasn't very intelligent. In fact, people around Hayseed Center who knew him, said he was downright dumb. Take for example, that time his cousin ("My Congressman cousin," Botts called him) came out to see Farmer Botts one day. Botts' wife told the Congressman that Cousin Botts was down in the south eighty, "takin' keer o' them thar weeds." So Cousin Hubert goes puffing down to the south eighty, where he finds Farmer Botts walking back and forth through the knee-high corn sowing some kind of seed.

The Congressman watches his antics for awhile, then asks curiously: "What on earth are you doing, Cousin?"

Without breaking stride, Farmer Botts replies: "Sowing weed seed."

"What?" explodes the Congressman. "Are you crazy?"

"Nope," replies Botts matter of factly. "Just trying to git rid o' them weeds."

Cousin Hubert's hat turns over three times as it goes up in the air. His cheeks puff mightily as he tries to contain a full head of steam. Finally, when his will power has conquered, he gives Botts a disarming smile and says: "Now Cousin, just come over and sit in the shade for a spell. You'll feel all right in a minute."

"Feel all right now?" Botts answers tartly as he continues casting great handfuls of weed seed right and left.

At this, the congressman can restrain himself no longer. He grasps Botts' arm and shakes him. "Snap out of it cousin!" "Do you want to go to the looney house?"

Botts' activity stops as if he's been poled. "Gracious no, Cousin," he says bewilderedly. "Why did you ever ask such a thing?"

"Because that's just where you'll end if people catch you sowing weed seed to get rid of weeds! That's crazy!"

Farmer Botts looks hurt. "Why Cousin," he says, "I'm sorry to hear you say that. After all, I'm just doing my business like you're doing yours."

"What's that?" asks Cousin Hubert cautiously.

"Why sure," replies Botts. "You Congress Fellas have been sayin' for years that war is the only way to stop war, and a bigger army is the only way to stop Russia's army. So I naturally figured sowing weed seeds was the only way to get rid o' them I already got."

Cousin Hubert is speechless for a minute. Regaining his voice, he sputters: "Well, now, Cousin Botts—ah—that isn't just right—ah. You see, with war it's different—sh. Yes, that's right—it's different!"

"That's interestin' Cousin," replies Botts. "Now tell me—just how is it different?"

"Well" . . . stammers Cousin Hubert, "It's just that war is . . . well, what I mean is—ah—you see, in dealing with other people—er—there's just one way—ah, let me see. Oh yes! Force is the only thing some people understand! So, we have to use force with them!" He smiles triumphantly.

Botts frowns skeptically. "Seems t' me," he ventures, "you're sayin' that as some folk like to use force, the only way to git rid o' their fightin' spirit is t' use more force than they got."

Cousin Hubert beams: "Yes! That's what I was trying to say!"

Still frowning, Botts scratches his head. "Then it seems to me, that if'n these here weeds have a mind to grow where they ain't wanted, the only way t' git rid o' them is to plant a lot more weeds than there already is."

Cousin Hubert's smile fades. "Aa—no—ah, that is . . . I mean—it isn't just the same, Cousin . . . that isn't really how it works."

Botts looks crestfallen. He turns his head and looks about at his cornfield. "You mean to say," he begins, "that what I'm doin' won't git rid o' them weeds?"

"I'm afraid not," replies Cousin Hubert. He too looks bewildered and confused.

"Oh rats!" ejaculates Botts. "I suppose next you'll tell me that if I catch a cold next winter, I can't git rid of it by layin' out in the snow till I catch new-monia."

Hubert's face is white as apprehension floods his mind. Somewhere inside of him a tiny voice is asking: "Is it possible that force isn't the way to handle our problems?" But he doesn't speak.

He just turns and runs stumbling back to the house where his car is parked. Botts looks after the retreating figure with curious eyes, and then with a sigh, reaches down and picks up his sack of weed seed.

Tall Corn

'Countryman' to Feature Ag College Rodeo Queen

by Rex Messersmith

Just a week and a half away! Yes, that is all the time left between now and the Farmer's Fair. Of course Farmer's Fair is just a part of College Days this year, but it is the part closest to us Aggies. If anybody is worried about not having enough to do to contribute to the cause, they should end all worrying at once. Because as the plans are now there will be plenty to do either by working on the Rodeo, open house displays, barbecue, parade floats or decorating for the cotton and denim dance.

The beards on Ag have caused quite a lot of talk this year. Seems as how some of the boys have shaved them off, some of the boys should shave them off and the men are still wearing them. Really though, I can think of no better form of advertisement than those miniature brush piles the fellows carry around with them!

According to Clayton Yeutter and Alice Flowery this year's barbecue is going to be the biggest ever. Of course they too are hoping that the weather man will not disappoint the crowd as the rodeo and parade chairmen. The tickets for this event go off sale Friday, so all you people who plan to eat a good barbecued meal the night of the 27th should be getting those duats.

As in the past the number to be sold is quite limited so get your tickets this week from any Fair board member or at the booth in the Ag Union.

The Animal Husbandry department's annual Feeder's Day is scheduled for this Friday. The address will be held in the College activities building and the demonstrations of feeding experiments, etc., will be out in the rodeo arena. Bleachers have been set up out there to take care of the expected 4,500 people so they won't have to stand all day.

I guess the weather will play an important part in the success of this affair, too. Of course, if past experience is an indication, all Ag college has to do is plan some big event and it will rain.

Ag Exec board voted to put the proposed amendment to their constitution up for an all-campus vote next Monday. For goodness sake, Aggies, here is your chance to get out and make a decision on a very pertinent subject. I think we should all realize that this is something affecting every Ag college student; and every Ag college student should get out to vote. Whether you are for or against it, here is the time and the place to express your opinion in the form of a vote. (Mighty good habit to get into, this voting!)

Ag Exec board voted to put the proposed amendment to their constitution up for an all-campus vote next Monday. For goodness sake, Aggies, here is your chance to get out and make a decision on a very pertinent subject. I think we should all realize that this is something affecting every Ag college student; and every Ag college student should get out to vote. Whether you are for or against it, here is the time and the place to express your opinion in the form of a vote. (Mighty good habit to get into, this voting!)

Stolen Goods

'Ignited Press' Advocates No Basket in Basketball

By Connie Gordon

Spring is in the air of the campuses all over the country. It has even effected the study habits of some students—for the better. From the Daily Tar Heel of the university of North Carolina comes the following concerning the study habit changes of one chem class (read on and you will see that spring had very little to do with the change).

The Tar Heel reports that one chem class there took up in lecture the fascinating study of ethyl alcohol.

"Carried away by the potency of his subject, the prof began explaining in detail the art of fermentation and distillation. He even delved into the manufacture of Scotch and bourbon, complete with illustrative diagrams on the board.

For the first time this quarter, the boys in the back row took notes."

From the Ballyroot column of the Iowa State Daily, at Ames, Iowa, comes the following "world news" by the "Ignited Press."

He wrote, and I quote: LAWRENCE, KANSAS — Basketball coach Phaw Gallen proposed that the basket be eliminated from basketball. "It would cut down on so much scoring," he said.

GEORGIA—A new law requires all school teachers and other persons on relief to sign a loyalty oath saying, "I hate all Anarchists, Communists, Republicans and others who would overthrow the government."

WASHINGTON—A newly proposed bill would require all members of state legislatures to sign a loyalty oath. Twenty-three states are preparing to withdraw from the Union if the bill passes."

The following is stolen from The Line of the College Eye at Iowa State Teachers College and I dedicate it to many "Rag" readers on campus.

"They find fault with the editor

The stuff we print is rot.

The paper is so peppy

As a cemetery lot.

The news shows rotten management,

The jokes, they say, are stale;

The upperclassmen holler

The lower classmen wail.

But once a week on Friday

(And we say it with a smile)

If someone doesn't get one,

You can hear him yell a mile."

Well, it's 30 times again,

So, until next column time,

So long!

"FLASH"

The Daily Nebraskan

Member Intercollegiate Press

FOURTY-EIGHTH YEAR

The Daily Nebraskan is published by the students of the University of Nebraska as an expression of student news and opinions only. According to Article II of the By-Laws governing student publication and administered by the Board of Publications, "It is the declared policy of the Board that publications under its jurisdiction shall be free from editorial comment on the part of the Board, or on the part of any member of the faculty of the University but members of the staff of The Daily Nebraskan are personally responsible for what they say or do or cause to be printed.

Single copies 10c. Published daily during the school year except Saturdays and Sundays, vacations and examination periods and one issue during the month of August by the University of Nebraska under the supervision of the Committee on Student Publications. Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office at Lincoln, Nebraska, under Act of Congress, March 3, 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103 Act of Congress of October 3, 1917. Authorized September 18, 1933.

EDITORIAL

Editor: Jerry Warren
Managing Editor: Tom Blanche
Business Editor: Kent Axtell, Jeanne Lamar, Sue Gerten, Ruth Raymond
Sports Editor: Bill Mandell
Student Affairs Editor: Bob Banks
Editorial Board: Dick Walsh, Donna Prescott, Bob Raymond
Right News Editor: Ruth Raymond

Dr. Lancaster Continues AKP Lecture Series

Dr. Lane Lancaster, professor of political science, will continue the Alpha Kappa Psi lecture series tonight at 8 p.m., in Love Memorial library. He will speak on the topic "Communist Political Theory and the Democratic Tradition."

Dr. Lancaster has just returned from Norman, Okla., where he delivered the 10th annual Joseph L. Daniel Memorial lecture at the University of Oklahoma on "What Form of Government is Best for the Happiness of Men." This lecture is soon to be published by the University of Oklahoma Press.

During his teaching career, Dr. Lancaster has been visiting professor in many large universities including Yale, California, and the University of Hawaii. He was teaching at California when the controversial loyalty oaths were being pressed in that school. As a visiting professor, the oaths did not apply to him; however, he learned a great deal about the teachers and students reaction to the oaths.

The fourth in a series of five speeches on the topic "Communism—Threat to the American Economy," Dr. Lancaster's lecture will explain the difference between Communist political theory and Russian imperialism.

Dr. Maurice C. Latta, assistant professor of economics, will act as moderator for the lecture which is in the form of a "town-meeting." Questions from the floor will follow the speech. Next Wednesday, April 25, Governor Val Peterson will conclude the series speaking on "Do We Want Communism?"

NUCWA Mass Meet to Hear R. D. Robinson

Richard D. Robinson of the Institute of World Affairs will address a mass meeting of NUCWA Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Parlor B of the Union. The former military government official in Korea will speak about the situation in the near east.

Robinson is now the institute's consultant in Turkey and the Black Sea basin. He sends information on economic and social conditions of the countries to interested groups in the United States. "These reports," Robinson said, "are somewhere between newspaper accounts and the comprehensive book form which appears later."

He lives with the people of the near east, learning their problems at the "grassroot's level."

This week Robinson is addressing University classes and seminars on how to study foreign affairs.

Harold Peterson, president of NUCWA, will preside at the meeting. Announcements about the election of new officers will follow Robinson's speech.

Essay, Speech Honors Given By Palladium

Frances Rogers won first place in the essay division of the 25th annual Palladium oratorical contests held at the University Temple building.

Jack Lang, tied with Alice Meyers, for top honors in the oratory division and Nancy Koehler won first place in the verse division.

The six speakers heard during the evening were:

Jack Miles, "Kefauver investigation and its implications."

Alice Meyers, "How do you talk about people?"

Arnold Allen, "The strange concept of modern physics."

Merritt Cushing, "Layman's orientation to psychology."

Jim Ellington, "What infinity looks like."

Jack Lange, "On origin of war."

The contest was sponsored by the Gavel club which is composed of past presidents and vice presidents of Palladium.

Inez Robertson, presided.

ROTC Cadets Given Awards At Parade

Twenty-two outstanding first year ROTC basic cadets were given Minute Man awards at ceremonies inside the coliseum, last Thursday at 5:00 p.m.

Miss Eileen Derieg, 1950-51 Honorary Commandant presented the awards on behalf of the sponsors, the Sons of the American Revolution.

These awards are based on knowledge of the regulations of the hand salute, position of the soldier at attention, and knowledge of the American creed and preamble of the Constitution.

Cadets receiving the awards were:

Roland W. Ahrens, Charles R. Lawley, Harold M. DeGraw, James F. Estes, Donald W. Hackbart, Eugene E. Harnish, Jack Keene, John E. Kuenzi, Dean E. Lambrecht, Rex J. Meyer, Duane L. McCutchan, Loren E. Mynek, Wayne L. Moody, Maurice R. Norton, John P. Obermire, Jack L. Pulic, Jerald R. Ramsdell, Melvin R. Smith, Roland K. Swanson, Marvin M. Thompson, and William E. Wageman.

University men interested in being chairman of the mental hospital section of the Red Cross college unit board should write up an application and put it in the Red Cross box in the Union basement.

The application should include the applicant's plans for mental hospital projects.

Junior Division Procedures Told

Ag college students who have been advanced from the junior division and who have not yet reported to Dr. Ephraim Hixson's office, must do so this week.

Also, those who have visited the office, secured a card contacted an advisor, but who have not yet returned the card to the assistant dean's office must do so with in the next few days.

Those who are instructed to advance received written notice to that effect last week. So far, very few students have been in, according to the secretary to the assistant dean.

The procedure instructions are: Report to Hixson, take a transfer card to your department chairman, get his signature and a new advisor, then return the card to Hixson.

Hixson's office is located in Room 206, Ag Hall.

NU Grad Appointed Editor of Popular Science

Volta Torrey, who was graduated from the University in 1926, has been appointed editor of Popular Science magazine.

Managing editor of the magazine for the past five years, Torrey has worked on the Aurora, Neb., Republican, Omaha World-Herald and several metropolitan dailies.

At present, Torrey is head of the National Association of Science Writers.

Five Union Representatives To Attend College Association

The 28th annual Association of College Unions will be held at Michigan State college from Wednesday, April 25 to Saturday, April 28.

Students representing the University at the association are: Bob Mosher, vice president; Marilyn Mooney, chairman of house and office; Betty Roessler, budget and orientation evaluation chairman;

Chuck Widmer, board member, and Dick Walsh, chairman dance committee.

The Union members representing the University at the association are Duane Lake, Union director and Gene Grimm, activity director.

The main purpose of the association is to acquaint the students with the way different unions are operated. These ideas from the different unions will be incorporated to serve the University Union.

A few activities that the program includes for the association are a tour of Michigan State Union, a speech at the opening dinner by President Hannah.

On the last day, Saturday, they will take a tour to Mt. Pleasant college.

Group discussions will also be held. Different students will represent their college by taking charge of these panel discussions.

Bob Mosher will represent the University.

"John and Marla," Union musical revue, starring Patsy Dutton and Henry Chee, will be performed Sunday night at 7:30 p.m. instead of the previously scheduled Friday night, because of "Good News" rehearsals. "The Late George Apley," will be shown in the Union lounge at the same time.

There is no admission charge to see the performance.

The parts in the play are taken by the members of various French classes. The students participating in the production are: Majorie and Doris Bratt, Bernadine Robb, Buelah Taylor, Margaret McCoy, Robert Firestone, Sydna Fuchs and Robert R. Beck.

There is no admission charge to see the performance.

The Constitution of The Student Council Of The University of Nebraska

- PREAMBLE
- We, the students of the University of Nebraska, with the consent of the University Senate, do hereby ordain and establish this constitution for the administration of student affairs.
- ARTICLE I Name
- The name of this organization shall be The Student Council of the University of Nebraska.
- ARTICLE II Purpose
- The purpose of this organization shall be to act as the supreme student governing body in the regulation and coordination of all phases of student self-government and to serve as an agency through which faculty-student relationships may be maintained.
- Section 1. Legislative Powers
- The Student Council shall have the following legislative powers in so far as these powers do not conflict with general University regulations: The decisions of the Student Council shall be binding on all students and faculty.
- a. To regulate and coordinate the activities of all student organizations and groups of general university interest.
- b. To recognize and approve the constitution of any new student organization, without which recognition and approval an organization shall not be permitted to function.
- c. To review and approve the constitution of the Student Council.
- d. To control student pep rallies, pep demonstrations, and student migrations.
- e. To schedule and conduct all student elections of general university interest.
- f. To act as liaison between students and faculty.
- g. To exercise other powers that may benefit the student body and out the foregoing powers of the Student Council.
- Section 2. Executive Powers
- The Student Council shall have the following executive powers in so far as these powers do not conflict with general University regulations: The decisions of the Student Council shall be binding on all students and faculty.
- a. To suspend or dismiss from office any student executive who shall refuse to carry out his legislative intent.
- b. To suspend or dismiss from office any student organization or faculty member to the appropriate committee of the University Senate.
- ARTICLE III Election and Duties of Officers
- Section 1. The following representatives shall comprise the Student Council:
- a. College Representatives
1. The colleges listed herein shall be entitled to the number of members as follows:
- Agriculture 2 (one woman and one man)
- Arts and Sciences 3 (at least one woman and at least one man)
- Business Administration 2
- Engineering 2
- Law 2
- Pharmacy and Dentistry 1
- Teachers 3 (at least one woman and at least one man)
2. These members shall be elected at the general spring election.
3. Any change in the college representation shall be on the basis of one representative for every 500 students or major portion thereof, as determined by the Student Council. Each college or school shall be entitled to a minimum of one representative.
4. In the case of a student member elected by a college or school, resignation, or ineligibility, the second-highest person on the list shall serve as the replacement unless he is ineligible or rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
5. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
6. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
- b. Organization and Group Representatives
1. Each organization or group listed herein shall be entitled to one member elected in the spring by secret ballot. Unless the number of votes cast represents at least two-thirds of the membership of the organization or group the election shall be invalid.
2. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
3. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
4. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
5. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
6. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
7. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
8. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
9. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
10. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
11. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
12. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
13. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
14. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
15. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
16. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
17. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
18. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
19. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
20. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
21. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
22. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
23. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
24. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
25. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
26. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
27. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
28. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
29. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
30. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
31. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
32. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
33. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
34. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
35. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
36. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
37. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
38. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
39. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
40. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
41. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
42. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
43. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns or is rejected by a two-thirds vote of the Student Council membership at the first regular Student Council meeting held one week after the vacancy has been announced to the Student Council.
44. The Student Council shall have the power to elect a replacement for a student member who resigns