Baseballers Drop Initial Big-7 Contest to Kansas U.

Coach Tony Sharpe's Nebraska baseball team got its first taste of Big Seven competition, and it was far from sweet. The Kansas Jayhawkers tripped Nebraska 9-5 in the first of a two-game series.

The Kansas offered Carl Sandefur on the hill and he calmly pitched five-hit ball. Sandefur was the league's outstanding hurler last year, compiling a 7-1 record, and proved it by allowing five Huskers to get on base with singles.

The Kansas attack was powered by Walt Hicks, stocky right fielder, who slammed out two home runs and a single in three official appearances at the plate. He also drove in three runs and scored three himself.

Six Jays Errors

The Huskers, only team to beat Sandefur last year, were not able to score one earned run. Their allies came at the expense of six Jayhawk errors.

Kansas was able to collect 11 hits off the offerings of Dick McCormick and Al Benjamin. McCormick was the starter and was charged with the loss.

It was Bobby Reynolds who spearheaded the Huskers offense. He lashed out two of the five singles, received two walks and played errorless ball at second base.

BOB REYNOLDS... took Nebraska's individual honors in the diamond loss to Kansas.

Trackmen Host to Mizzou, Journey to Kansas Relays

BY MARSHALL KUSHNER
Staff Sports Writer

The University of Nebraska track team will play host to the Missouri Tigers in a dual track meet April 20 in Memorial Stadium. The Tigers bring a well-balanced squad and sparkling individual performers into Husker camp for the meet.

Coach Ed Weir has indicated that he will use some new men to bolster his squad's strength in order to revenge a 71-33 loss to the Tigers in a dual meet last February.

Jack James of North Platte will be entered in the 100 yard dash along with Lee Alexander and Bob Barchus. James will fill in the vacancy left by injured Sheldon Jacobs.

Buele Balderston will run the 880 yard run and the mile run for the Husker thinclads. He will aid Dale Schnackle and Gene Yelkin in the 880 and Yelkin in the mile run.

Dean Brittenham will team with Don Bedker and Dan Tolman in the 120 yard high hurdles. Blake Cathro will also compete with Bedker and Tolman in the low hurdle race.

Jess Sell, Husker basketball player, will run in the two mile race. He will give support to Bob Krueger.

Another Missou star, Bob Gordon, will compete under a handicap. He has been bothered with a heel bruise received this year. Gordon has leaped 6-6 in his pet high jump event.

The Husker squad should be at full strength as far as injuries are concerned, with the exception of Jacobs. Jack Scoville, who has been bothered by a leg injury, should be ready to go at full speed in the 440 yard dash.

11-Man Squad

Coach Weir has also named an 11-man squad journey to the Kansas Relays in Lawrence on April 21. These Huskers will compete against some of the stiffest competition in the country.

Lee Alexander will represent the Huskers in the 100 yard dash. Don Bedker and Dan Tolman will go in the hurdle race in the Kansas carnival.

Dick Meissner and Irv Thode will compete in the high jump. They will buck heads with Walter Davis of Texas A. & M. who leaped 6-9, and Virgil Severns of Kansas University who has hit 6-7 3/4. Meissner has climbed 6-5 1/2, while Thode has hit 6-1 1/2.

Thode and Glenn Beerline will also try for the broad jump title. Kansas State's Herb Hoskins will be bidding for a victory also.

Don Cooper and Lenny Kehel will pole vault in the meet. Cooper will be a slight favorite over a field of vaulters that are capable of doing 14 feet or better. The last Nebraska athlete to win this event was back in 1942 when Harold Hunt vaulted 13-5 3/4.

Paul Grimm and Lowell "Butch" Neilson will throw the shot put in the meet. Neilson will double in the discus.

Beerline will assist Warren Monson in the javelin event. This pair took a second and third respectively in the recent Kansas-Nebraska dual.

Only Three Kansas Relay Marks in Danger Saturday

The returns won't all be in until post-time, of course, but the pro-meet form chart shows only three Kansas Relays marks in danger here Saturday.

These include the Glenn Cunningham Mile, which will match America's two greatest milers Don Gehrman and Fred Wilt; the pole vault, and the high jump.

Best bet is the Mile, now shared at 4:10.1 by Gehrman, who will be aiming at his third consecutive triumph here, and Blaine Rideout of North Texas State, now training Nebraska athletic squads. Rideout established the standard in 1940, with Gehrman equalling it nine years later while a junior at Wisconsin.

Gehrman and Wilt, in their running feud this year, have exceeded that standard a total of nine times in 11 outings to date. Most recent was the former Badger's 4:09.1 triumph in the Niagara District AAU Invitational Mile at Buffalo. Don reached times as low as 4:07.5 and 4:07.9 in winning the Wannamaker Mile and Hunter Mile in midwinter.

Two Wins

Wilt's only two triumphs of the vendetta this season were accomplished in 4:08.4 and 4:08.9 at the Knights of Columbus meet in New York and the Milwaukee Journal Games last month.

Saturday's collision will mark their first outdoor meeting of the year and, with cooperation from the weatherman, that in itself may be enough to topple the record.

They'll get opposition from Javier Montes, the Texas Western Flyer who won the Texas Relays 3000 meters and ran second to Gehrman here last year. Drake's Dewey Johnson, and Denis Johansson, a Finnish freshman from Purdue. The latter won the Jerry Thompson Mile at Austin two weeks ago in 4:21.1 outstripping Montes who tied for second.

Gehrman Easily

Gehrman had little trouble here last year, winning in 4:16.4 but Saturday will not be burdened with anchoring a Badger relay team or two, since he graduated last June and now is employed in Milwaukee by the American Automobile Association.

Jeopardizing the pole vault April by Oklahoma's Bill Carling of 14-5, erected last roll, will be Nebraska's bespectacled acrobat Don Cooper. The latter has cleared 14-0 eight times during the indoor and outdoor seasons, twice swinging higher than the existing mark, niark.

World's Record

Two weeks ago at Boulder he established a new world indoor standard off a dirt runway at 14-9 1/2. During the winter he managed 14-7 in a dual against indoor and door hout Kansas State. He hit 14-1 in the wind and cold at Lincoln last Saturday in a dual against Kansas. He now is employing a new grip, and admittedly has his eyes on 15' feet.

He'll draw opposition from Jerry Lemon, Oklahoma; Jack Simpson, Texas A & M; Paul Faulkner, Abilene Christian, and his own stablemate, Leonard Kohl.

Shooting at the high jump mark will be Walter "Buddy" Davis, Texas A & M's 6-8 basketball center. The elongated sophomore twisted over 6-9 at Austin to smash the Longhorn record, and a duplicate leap here would erase the two-year old standard of 6-8 3/16, which Bobby Walters of Texas holds.

Severns Out

Another prime threat, Kansas State's Virgil Severns, probably recent attack of pneumonia. He will miss the meet because of a cleared 6-7 3/4 at Texas and was runner-up for the NCAA title last June.

Although the batan fields in both the University and College divisions will be exceptionally well balanced, no new marks are slated.

Newman Club, Presby House, Methodists Win in Softball

International softball got into full swing Wednesday as six of the seven teams got into action.

Defending Denominational Lutheran Student Association, found the going a little tough in their opening game and fell before a Newman Club rally, 8-5.

Both outfits bunched their scoring in one inning, the Lutherans getting their five in the first frame and the winning Catholics scoring their eight in a big third inning.

Walks were the big factors in this contest as the Catholics collected only five hits and the Lutherans but three. Saugstad, on the mound for the losers, issued seven passes while Duane Dietering and McCurdy, hurling for the winners, gave up six bases on balls.

Neil Campbell led the victories hitters with two singles. Bernard

Psychology Used By Iowa State

Iowa State is a great one at employing psychological measures to help stimulate the interest and improvement of their sportsmen.

Not only does the spring football coaching staff name outstanding players of the week, but Coach Hugo Otopalik gives his golfers something to aim at.

All varsity golfers are placed in groups according to the way they have played in previous years. He puts four men in each group. Men in the groups below may advance by challenging a player in the group above. Squad members in the top group on the night before a meet are the ones who will play in the meet.

But joy upon joy and more psychology—the eight men in the two top squads get to play all rounds free!

Golf coach at Colorado, Les Fowler, says about his boys, "We have a pretty fair team, much better than last year's. I am confident that we will place higher in the conference this year.

The Buffs finished fifth in the Big Seven conference meet last year. During their spring vacation tour, the golfers dropped three matches to USC, UCLA and San Diego state. They whipped Arizona, however.

The PA boys won 10-2 over the Men's Dorn.

Harold George ruined Brandenburg's bid for a no-hit game by getting the only hit in the fourth inning. Scott, pitching for the Dorn gave the winners only six hits. No man got more than one.

Presby Rolls

Presby House jumped on Inter-Varsity for eight allies in the first inning and then coasted to a 14-4 victory. The Presby batsmen, behind the three-hit pitching of Mundell, slugged 14 hits including three home runs and two doubles.

The four-baggers were clouted by Cork Blemond, Bill Pratt and Norm Sothan. Blemond also got one of the doubles.

L. Shafer was on the mound for the losers and was tagged with the defeat.

The Methodist House opened their 1951 season successfully by blasting the University YMCA, 12-1. The Methodists scored four in the initial frame and then wrapped it up with eight in the second.

Haas Wins

Haas was on the mound for the victors. No more could be obtained from the illegible scrawlings on the score book.

The Warriors and Alpha Kappa Psi hooked up in a scoring duel that saw the Warriors finally winning out, 19-14.

Only five hits were featured in the contest that saw everyone advancing by bases on balls. Hergerrader, on the mound for the winners, allowed only one safety, but issued ten walks. Stewart of AKPsi gave up but four hits, but walked eight men.

Hergerrader led the victors' hitting with a home run and a single. Pierce got the only Alpha Kappa Psi safety.
