

Five Husker Teams in Action Sharpemen Seek Wins at Colorado

The University of Nebraska baseball team, stymied by rain in its last two attempts, will hope for a break in the weather when it goes to Boulder, Colo. for a two-game series against the Colorado Buffs Friday and Saturday.

The Huskers have had three league games rained out, one with Kansas State and two with Iowa State.

Coach Tony Sharpe will take a 2-1 conference record along with his Huskers in hopes of getting a decent chance of improving that mark. Oklahoma is currently the loop leader with 4-0 and unless the Huskers and Sooners get a few more games in, the Okies are a cinch to cop league honors.

McCormick and Kopf Coach Sharpe has named his mound choices against the Buffs as Dick McCormick on Friday and Del Kopf on Saturday.

A powerful hitting attack and an efficient mound staff are the hopes the Huskers are counting on in Colorado. With ten men batting at the .300 mark or over and with McCormick, Kopf, Bunson and company turning in good performances, the Huskers appear able to sweep the two-game series.

The Huskers return next week for a two-game outing against the leading Sooners in games scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday.

Coach Sharpe is taking 15 men on the Colorado jaunt. Top men making the trip are Bob Diers of West Point who is leading the club both in batting and in home runs and Bob Reynolds, second-sacker of Grand Island who is sporting a good .360 average and is far ahead in the stolen bases department.

Others in the traveling squad are Jack Shull, Topeka, Kans.; John Leach, Omaha; Johnny Rego, Natick, Mass.; Bill Fitzgerald, Omaha; Dale Bunson, Bertrand; Bill Jensen, Denver, Colo.; George Nutt, Lincoln; Dick McCormick, Silver Creek; Bob Lohrberg, Lincoln; Ray Mladovic, Omaha; Jerry Dunn, Stroughton, Mass.; Del Kopf, Lexington; Al Benjamin, Milan, Mich.

BOB DIERS . . . heading the Husker sluggers with a stratosphere average, will test the Colorado hurlers Friday and Saturday.

Injury-Riddled NU Cindermen Clash With Okies Saturday

Coach Ed Weir's cindermen will duel the University of Oklahoma track team at Norman Saturday minus the services of vaunter Don Cooper and hurdler Dan Tolman.

Cooper, who pulled a leg muscle at the Drake Relays, will probably be sidelined until the Big Seven outdoor meet May 17-19 at Columbia, Mo.

Tolman bumped a knee on a hurdle and has seen little outdoor action since. He, too, likely will not perform again until the conference meet.

Because of armed forces grades and injuries, the once high riding Husker squad has been slowed to a walk.

Hobe Jones, Sheldon Jacobs, Wayne Whitaker and Wendy Cole were all lost to Nebraska when the air guard was called to active duty.

Hopes On Kehl Leonard Kehl will carry the brunt of the Husker chores in the pole vault. He won the conference indoor title at 13-6 and will be favored to cop the event at Norman.

But in spite of Cooper's injury, the spotlight will still focus on a field event, the high jump. Nebraska's Dick Meissner, winner of the Drake Relays at 6-7, will face highly touted Sooner Dick Jones.

Dale Schnackel will be the main Husker threat in the half mile. He won the event in the Missouri dual in the last time of 1:58.8.

Trio Sprinters Bob Barchus, Lee Alexander and Jack James will represent Nebraska in the sprints. Alexander did not score in either the Texas or Drake Relays, but he has been the Husker sprinter.

Weir will run Bill Hein and Jack Scoville in the 440. Scoville has almost completely recovered from a leg injury he received in early April.

Gene Yelkin, Schnackel, Buele Balderston, Bob Krueger and Jess Sell will supply the Husker power in the longer races. But they will face strong competition from the Sooner distance men.

The weights will be handled by Paul Grimm, Lowell Nielson, Jack Greer, Hyle Thibault and George Prochaska.

SEEKS SPRINT VICTORIES . . . Lee Alexander will carry the Husker hopes in the sprints Saturday as the short-handed Huskers travel to Oklahoma to meet the Sooners. The Sooners defeated the Huskers in their indoor duel.

Bomber Wins; Meets Savold

Joe Louis took another step on his comeback trail Wednesday night as he repeated a ten-round unanimous decision over Omelia Agramonte of Cuba. It was Louis' fifth straight win since being stopped by heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles.

Louis signed to fight Lee Savold after halting Agramonte. The Louis-Savold match will be this summer after which the Brown Bomber hopes to meet champion Ezzard again in the fall. Joe could not knock out the Cuban Wednesday night, but did manage to floor his rival for a nine-count in the second round.

BILL JENSEN . . . Husker shortstop, will start in that spot against the Buffs in the two game series at Colorado.

Husker Netmen Seek First Win

Coach Ed Higginbotham is hoping the third time is charm adage will prevail for his net-ners when they meet the Kansas Jayhawks Friday and Washburn Saturday in the Sunflower state.

In their only two meets of the season, the tennis players have been shut out by 7-0 scores.

Kansas took them into camp in the seasonal opener. Last Saturday the Colorado Buffs gave them a second straight drubbing.

But the Huskers have taken a worse beating from the weather than from Colorado and Kansas. At the start of the season Higginbotham's team spent more time in the limited Coliseum quarters than it did outside.

However, he has been more cooperative this week, and the team has been able to practice outside regularly.

Radin in First Bob Radin continues to hold down the number one position on the team. He specializes in sharp slams.

Jamie Curran is listed in the second slot. The only portside on the squad, he was number one man during the early part of the 1949-50 season.

He had a tendency to be erratic in the first two matches but should snap out of it as the season progresses. He possesses a cannon ball service which is difficult to handle when it is on the mark.

Sophomore Walt Weaver has the ability to make a name for himself in Big Seven tennis before he hangs up his racket. He is exceptionally cool for a first year man and is effective in both the defense and offense departments.

Bunten or Schroeder Veteran Jeff Delton adds depth and experience to the team. Higginbotham has not definitely decided whether Andy Bunten or John Schroeder will make the trip as the number five man.

Bunten is a let'rman and held down the number three berth last year. But he has failed to hit his stride during the current season and may bow out in favor of Schroeder.

Nebraska will be facing two good squads in Kansas and Washburn. Both schools will have the benefit of experience over the Huskers.

But Higginbotham has hopes that his team will snap out of its losing ways.

"They have shown improvement," he stated, "and if this weather holds we'll improve more."

Warriors, Theta Chi Notch Wins

The skies finally cleared Wednesday and the intramural softball playoff tourneys got their first chance for action. Two independent and one fraternity team advanced to the second round of play and a like number of outfits put away their softballs after an abbreviated season.

With the weather apparently through coming down awhille, it looks as though the softballs can be flying every day.

The Warriors bunched nine runs in the last two innings to down Phi Delta Phi in the first round independent clash. The final tally was 10-5 after the Warriors roared from behind.

The winners jumped off to an early lead in the first frame and held a one-point margin for two and a half innings. The Fiddle-dee-dees came to life in their fifth of their runs. In this frame they collected their only two hits off Warrior chucker, Jerry Strasheim.

Strasheim Tough Strasheim returned to his old form after that, however, and did shut out the lawyers from there on.

The sixth stanza was the big one for the victors. They pushed across seven runs in that frame to win. They added two more insurance counters in the final inning.

Pitcher Strasheim was also one of the batting leaders as he collected two singles, Reidel, also notched two hits, a single and a double. The winners got six off the efforts of the Phi Delta Phi hurler.

Bob Scoville and Scoch got the two losers' safeties.

Theta Chi moved to the second round of the fraternity tourney by edging Delta Chi, 5-4. A two-run outburst in the fifth inning proved to be the winning rally.

DX Leads The Delta Chi's overcame a first inning 2-0 Theta Chi lead by tallying two each in the second and third frames. A lone counter by the winners in the third made the score at that point 4-3 in favor of the DX men.

Johnny Futcher went all the way for the victors in scattering five hits. All four of the Delta Chi runs were the results of four TX errors.

Varsity Huskers Face Tall Alums

The Alumni basketball team will be seeking its second straight win over Harry Good's cagers when the two teams meet Saturday night at 7:30 in the Coliseum.

The Alums will be favored to win this year as they were last by as much as twenty points.

Milton "Bus" Whitehead and Bob Pierce will spearhead the Alum attack. Whitehead performed with the Phillips Oilers last season, and from all reports he had a good season.

He stands an even 6-9 while Pierce measures 6-6 1/2. This will give their team a big advantage in height.

Whitehead set a Husker seasonal scoring record of 364 points during his senior year, but Pierce broke it last season with 384.

This pair will be backed up by Anton Lawry, Paul Kipper, Neal Mosser, Henry Cech, Don MacArthur, Bob Schleiger, Joe Brown, Darrel Brandenberg, Jess Sell and Bob Gates.

Alums Average 6-5 With Lawry, Pierce, Mosser and Whitehead on the floor, the old-timers can field a team which will average 6-5.

Whitehead led them to a 64-61 victory over the Varsity last year with 20 points. Pierce sparked Good's team with 19.

Freshman Bill Johnson will be the Varsity's main hope in the height department. He is 6-7. But even with this height he is hardly polished enough to cope with Pierce and Whitehead. He still needs a lot more drilling in defense and rebounding.

Another yearling, Don Weber, will start at forward. He is 6-3, and Good considers him an outstanding prospect for next year's team.

Lettermen Start Three lettermen will round out the Varsity five. Senior Jim Buchanan will start at guard. He finished up the 1950-51 season as second high scorer.

Good at Forward Joe Good will team up with Weber at the forward posts. He was third high scorer on the squad last year.

Norman Wilnes and Bud Ward are also returning lettermen. Wilnes was on the starting five during the early part of the 1950-51 season. Ward was highly valuable to the team as a rebounder. Depth and experience will be added to the team with the return of squadmen Jim Snyder, Cecil Voils, Bob Howey, Dean Brittenham, Al Blessing and Al Benjamin.

BUD WARD . . . Husker letterwinner, will be available for duty against the powerful Alums in Saturday's contest.

NU Golfers Journey South For Meets at Washburn, KU

This weekend Marv Franklin's Husker golfers will see plenty of action. This afternoon they take the fairways against the golfers from Washburn University at Topeka, and Saturday they will swing into action against the Kansas Jayhawks at Lawrence.

So far this season the golf team has chalked up four wins, while suffering only one defeat. The wins include victories over Colorado University, Omaha University, and Wichita University.

The lone defeat was delivered to the Huskers by the Kansas State Wildcats on a rainy day and muddy ground. The last victim of the Huskers was Wichita by a 15 to 3 count. Wichita had previously defeated the Wildcats by the same score they lost to Nebraska.

The tennis team is also making the trip with the golfers and will be seeking victories over the same schools as the swingers.

The traveling squad for the golfers consists of Joe Gifford, Dick Spangler, Erv Peterson, and Doug Dale.

Spring Election On Ag Campus Slated May 10

Spring elections for the College Agri-Fun board and Farmers' Fair board will be held on May 10.

This decision was made by the Ag Exec board at a special meeting Wednesday night. A sample ballot will appear in The Daily Nebraskan.

The new revision to the Ag Exec board is now in the hands of the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs, and plans are being prepared to put it in order for the next year.

Investigation Underway A special committee is also in the process of investigating all Ag College organizations. They are to determine which organizations will be eligible for representation on the revised board.

A resolution was passed to the effect that organizations must have two-thirds of their members present when voting on their representative to the new Ag Exec board. Large organizations such as YM and YWCA and Home Economics club may need an all day election to secure a two-thirds vote.

The board then announced that a barbecue for all incoming freshman will be during Freshman Week on Sept. 11, at 5:30 p.m. Tickets will sell for 75 cents. Approximately 1,200 freshman are expected to attend.

Mal Dunn and his orchestra is scheduled to play for the Ag college Farmers' Formal. The Farmers' Formal is one of the first all Ag college functions held in the fall.

Voting on the proposed Student Council which will be held Thursday, May 17, will be handled by the Ag Exec Board on Ag campus.

The Cornhusker office has asked the person who took two pictures from the office Thursday to return them immediately. The book cannot be published until they are returned.

AROUND THE LOOP...

K-State and Colorado Tie at Buff Relays

The two Big Seven teams that entered the 27th annual Colorado Relays tied for first place in the meet with 14 points apiece.

Kansas State and Colorado had a two point lead on number three winner Colorado A and M. In the college relay division, Colorado came in first in the 440-yard relay. Kansas State was first in both the two-mile relay and the one-mile relay.

Dick Towers, a sophomore halfback on the K-State football team last year, is the top 880 runner and a member of the mile relay team for Coach Ward Haylette's team.

Grid coach Bill Meek has excused him from the last three weeks of football practices. Towers finished third in the 880 of the Big Seven indoor track meet and is considered a threat for outdoor honors if he gets in shape in time. He participated on both the winning K-State teams at the Colorado Relays.

The Cyclone golfers won the 1951 Iowa collegiate title and showed some remarkable improvement. Coach Hugo Otpoalik is giving his team members a chance to show their competitive talents against Grinnell and Kansas State this weekend. He wants to check over some of these surprising youngsters.

Ed Robinson is the leading hitter for the Kansas State baseball team. The 200-pound outfielder has hit 6 of 15 trips to the plate for a .400 average.

Dick Johnson is the second leading slugger on Coach Ray Wauthier's club. This veteran outfielder has hit 8 out of 21 times up at the plate for a .381 average.

Coach Harry Schmidt will use five men in the Big Seven contest against K-State in tennis Friday. The tennis men are Terry Smith, Bill Hukill, Dan McEachron, Dean Harper and Sherill Christian.

So far the Cyclones have divided contests with Teachers, Minnesota, Carleton and Colorado.

the losers, gave up nine safeties in absorbing the loss. Futcher struck out seven and walked three while Sisley struck out three and walked one.
