IS IT WORTH IT? . . . Typical freshman spirit seems to be all that keeps William Beltzer from becoming mired down in forms, exams, reports and red tape. Here he examines his placement examination scores with his adviser. Instructor Thoman. If he is like 1500 other new students, Bill will be pretty exasperated before he has gone through a dozen lines, visited eighteen or nineteen different offices and talked-and argued-with countless office girls, doormen and teachers. Sometimes he will wonder 7 this business of going to college is worth it.
