

Nebraska Publicity Director Kept Busy

By RON GIBSON
Sports Staff Reporter

Perhaps the busiest man in the athletic department of the University of Nebraska is athletic news director John Bentley.

For John Bentley is the man in charge of writing news releases about the Huskers. His job is handling the publicity angle of all University of Nebraska sports. Certainly no one is better qualified for the job than Bentley. He worked for the Lincoln Journal for twenty years, beginning in 1921. After that, he worked for the Omaha World-Herald for four years, and finally wound up in his present position in 1946.

Bentley attended the University of Nebraska, graduating in 1924.

As a sportswriter for the Journal, Bentley wrote about such NU grid greats as Lloyd Cardwell, Charlie Brock, Sam Francis, and the Rose Bowl team.

Since coming to the university as athletic news director, Bentley's best source of copy has been —guess who—Bobby Reynolds. One of Bentley's stories about Reynolds appeared in the Quarterback, a football supplement of the Sporting News, a national sports publication.

In addition to handling news releases, Bentley has other duties. He makes the arrangements for speakers who visit the university. Also, he left Tuesday evening for Minneapolis to handle the publicity for the Nebraska-Minnesota football game.

The newest project undertaken by the energetic Bentley is the addition of a sound track to the movies of the Cornhusker football games. Bentley said the photo lab is working overtime to put out the sound movies so that Husker football fans can see them on Monday evenings after the Saturday games. Bentley believes that Nebraska is the first school in the country to have sound movies of their football games.

The fact that UN is a pioneer in this field is another example of John Bentley's ingenuity and energy.

Complete Rebuilding Program Starts For NU Basketball Team, Says Good

By GLENN NELSON
Sports Staff Reporter

When head basketball coach Harry Good lifted the lids from the Coliseum baskets Monday he began a complete rebuilding program.

Gone from the Husker mentor's candidates this year are regulars Bob Pierce, center, Bob Mercier, guard, and Bernie Akromis, forward. Paul Kipper, who saw plenty of action as utility guard or forward, was also graduated last spring.

Pierce, rangy pivot man who threw in more points last season than any other Nebraskan, will be the hardest man to replace. He was the team's tallest man at six feet seven inches.

Jim Buchanan, senior guard, and Joe Good, junior forward, are the only returning starters of last year's team. Two other lettermen reporting Monday were senior Bud Ward, center, and Jim Snyder, junior forward.

Ten freshmen numeral winners of the 1950-51 campaign to report were Jim Abernathy, Bud Extrom, Bill Johnson, Danny Kuska, Charles McAfee, Bennett Martin, Pat Mallette, Fred Seger, Clark Smaha, and Don Weber.

In regard to freshman competition, Coach Good said, "The rule permitting freshmen to compete in varsity athletics this year will definitely help Nebraska's basketball situation."

A number of outstanding fresh prospects reported Monday, indicating a lift from new men this year. Four of the candidates were first team All-State high school players last year.

Heading the list was Paul Fredstrom, six feet three inch center from Northeast. Forwards Roger Rosenquist, six-three Omaha Tech athlete, and McCook's Clarence Cook, six feet four inches tall, and guard Darrell Lloyd of North Platte are also included in the group.

Several other freshmen were members of the second and third All-State teams. Stan Matzke, forward from Lincoln Teachers, and Frank Falloon, Falls City guard, were second team All-Staters to report.

Stuart Thorell, Loomis guard who is currently with the fresh grid squad, will report for basketball workouts following the football season.

Other men to be placed on All-State teams are Don Muenster, Omaha Benson forward, Willard

Fagler, six-five Harvard center, guard Chuck Jensen of Pawnee City, Sam Bell, Chester center, and guard Bob Kremek of Millard.

Two freshmen candidates were Iowa All-Staters. They are Gerald Sandblute of Sioux Center, forward, and Bill Goelberg, six-four center from Sioux City Central.

From Illinois are six feet five inch Ronald Colton of Peoria and Charles Ott of Lincoln, six-six center. Another out-stater is Dave Fahrback, from Howe High, Indianapolis, Ind.

Several more freshmen prospects are expected to report following the football season. Among these are Charles Chamley, Tony Lanik, George Mink, and Durrell Rankin. Hoppy McCue has indicated he would pass up basketball for track.

In regard to Big Seven competition this season, Coach Good predicted good teams for several of Nebraska's conference rivals.

"Veteran manpower prevails on several of the other Big Seven squads, causing Nebraska to face an even greater problem in its rebuilding," Good said.

He pointed out that Kansas would be back again this year with Lovellette and company. Oklahoma and Missouri will be loaded with experienced talent, and Kansas State should again be strong, according to the Husker coach.

Coach Good's release of the Cornhusker 1951-52 basketball schedule was as follows:

The Nebraska high school football picture has reached a crucial peak for teams contending for state honors. The Lincoln high Links, currently riding atop most sports polls throughout the state, meet the Omaha North Vikings.

It was just three weeks ago that we pointed to this game and predicted the winner to ride on the road to the mythical state prep championship. Now more than ever does it become apparent that our ideas were not too far off.

The Links have established a 5-0 record thus far in the season and it is almost safe to say they will pluck off Missouri Valley conference honors.

The Links took Omaha Central 33-13 in the opener, Sioux City East 14-0, Sioux City Central 13-0, Northeast's Rockets 26-0 and the Scottsbluff Bearcats, 27-6.

Omaha North's record shows victories over Grand Island 24-14, Omaha Tech 39-0, Creighton Prep 18-0 and Thomas Jefferson 20-6. The Vikings have yet to face their stiffest inter-city competition, Omaha Central and Omaha South.

The Links' coach, Bill Pfeiff, and the Vikings' head mentor, Carol Gast, have both indicated that they will pull all punches they have when the carnival begins at the Lincoln oval stadium.

Gast has been a strong pupil of the T-formation while at North and he has been hinting to the press that he might just throw in a few single wing plays.

Taking everything into consideration, especially the fact that the Links will be playing on their home field, it looks like LINCOLN HIGH 20, OMAHA NORTH 12.

Sig Alphas Trip Fiji's; ATO's Top Beta Sigs

By DOUG WILCOX
Sports Staff Reporter

Chilled boys took to the playing field out at the Ag College as another big intramural football day began. Although the weather was cold the actions of the boys were not, as sensational passing and ball catching spotlighted the intramural games.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, leaders of League AI, played the Phi Gamma Delta house. The final score in this game was 26 to 2 in favor of the Sig Alphas.

The Phi Gam's lone score came as Jerry Robertson, hard rushing defensive end for the Fiji's, caught Joe Gifford of the Sig Alphas in the end-zone. This gave the Phi Gama's their 2 points.

For the Sig Alpha's their first score came on a blocked Phi Gam punt as Bill Shainholtz rushed into the Fiji backfield. On the try for the conversion Joe Gifford successfully passed to halfback John Leach.

The score standing at 7 to 2 with 15 seconds left to play in the first half Gifford threw a long 40 yard pass into the waiting arms of Shainholtz who made a sensational catch for the touchdown.

In the try for the extra point Gifford attempted a pass which was knocked down.

In the second half the Sig Alpha's again scored as John Leach unbound to send a 25 yard pass to Bill Cronin. The conversion try was no good.

One of the most sensational plays of the game came as Leach passed 15 yards to Cronin. Cronin being uncontent to just catch the ball ran another 45 yards for a touchdown. The try for the extra point was made this time as Gifford passed to Shainholtz.

Defensively the Sig Alpha's shone on the play of ends, Bill Miller and Jack Scoville. The offensive standout of the game was Bill Shainholtz.

The boys of Alpha Tau Omega played Beta Sigma Psi in a tilt stimulated by the passing of Bernie Scheer of the ATO's.

The final score in this game was 13 to 0 in favor of the ATO's.

The first points of the game were made as Bernie Scheer intercepted a Beta Sig pass and ran 48 yards for a T.D. On the conversion try the ATO's were unsuccessful.

The next touchdown and the final points scored in the game was accomplished as Bernie Scheer passed 14 yards to Al Blessing. A play combination from Scheer to Otto Hammond to Doug Dale accounted for the extra point and the final score.

The outstanding players of the winning squad were Bernie Scheer and Dave Jones, who played a very fine defensive game.

Last Friday a game was played between Sigma Alpha Mu and Delta Sigma Pi. This game was one of the postponed games which were rescheduled into the tournament.

The final score in this tilt was 1 to 0 in favor of the S.A.M.'s who won it in an overtime. The overtime was won in this manner:

The S.A.M.'s in a series of passes made 8 yards. On the first play of the Delta Sig's they made 11 yards but on the other three plays allotted to them they lost their gained yardage and the game.

The outstanding players of the winning squad were Paul Galter, who passed to Ed Handelman for the winning yardage.

The Tridents forfeited to the Nebraska Co-op's because of an insufficient number of players at the playing field. The final score was then 1 to 0.

Drake University Tailback Sets Ground-Gaining Record

A Drake university tailback has set the all-time record for ground gaining.

Johnny Bright, the 200-pound Negro back, leads the nation in total yardage, rushing and scoring according to figures released by the National Collegiate Athletic bureau Tuesday.

Bright is following his previous records. For the past two years he has led in ground gaining.

Bright scored all four touchdowns against Detroit last Friday night. He boosted his all-time yardage to 5,874 as he led the ways to the 26-6 victory.

Bright ran 202 yards and passed for 84 more. As a result, "Johnny Bright Night" was celebrated in Des Moines.

Figures of Bright's success indicate that he is first in total yardage with 1,274, first in rushing with 807, first in point making with 78 on 13 touchdowns.

Don Klosterman, from Loyola in California, tops the nation's passers with 81 completions and 957 yards to his credit.

Ollie Matson of San Francisco follows Bright's performance with 684 yards gained in rushing. He is seventh in total offense and second in scoring with 10 touchdowns and 60 points.

Ward 'Lineman Of The Week'

Bob Ward, All-American guard from Maryland, was named lineman of the week Tuesday.

Ward played 37 minutes with a broken finger as the Terps defeated Georgia 43-7 last Saturday.

Praise was handed to Ward by his coach Jim Tatam as well as by the newsmen who saw the game. Five of the Maryland scores, one sports writer noted, came through holes alongside Ward.

Wally Butts, Georgia coach, said that, "He ruined our chances in the second quarter."

Carodine Booted Off Varsity Squad; Bordogna To Play Half

By ARLEY BONDARIN
Sports Staff Reporter

The second major development within two days involving the varsity of Nebraska's football team occurred Tuesday when it was announced that Tom Carodine had been dismissed from the squad.

Coupled with the departure of Don Vogt from school, Carodine's loss has dealt a heavy blow to the Husker hopes for the future. Both of the boys are sophomores and were counted upon heavily in future Nebraska plans.

Failure to regularly attend classes plus his failure to attend Monday's practice session, were given as the reasons for the dropping of the flashy ex-Boys Town ace.

Carodine's dismissal is a follow through on Coach Bill Glassford's statement of last week, threatening with dismissal any football players who continually cut classes without legitimate excuses. Coach Glassford did not indicate whether or not any other Varsity players would come under immediate disciplinary action.

Glassford explained, "The University of Nebraska is interested only in young fellows with a desire to improve themselves in the classroom and deeply interested in the moral fibre of a sound football organization."

Carodine, All-State in football and basketball, had been the leading ground gainer for the Huskers until his injury in the Kansas State game. His versatility and high school record had earned him nation wide recognition in many pre-season ratings.

However, the showing of John Bordogna, converted quarterback, against Penn State seemed they have relegated the highly touted sophomore speedster to a supporting role in the Husker offense.

The loss of Carodine, Vogt, and Nick Adduci within a matter of days plus the absence of Bobby Reynolds from the lineup has put a crimp in the once heralded depth of the Husker backfield.

Bordogna, on the strength of his fine performance last Saturday, will continue to run at the right halfback post. Dick Westin and Jim Cederdahl have been groomed to fill in and should prove to be adequate replacements.

Meanwhile, the Huskers continued to prepare for Saturday's contest with the Minnesota Gophers at Minneapolis. The boys gonnied pads yesterday but the work was not too heavy, as the team worked on timing.

Heavier work is scheduled for today, with the emphasis being placed on pass defense and defense against Minnesota plays.

Reynolds continued to work out with the team, but his appearance against the Gophers remains a question mark, pending the recovery of his injured shoulder.

Coach Glassford will take a squad of 42 to Minnesota for Saturday's contest. Frank Simon, senior end, and Bob Mullen, senior tackle, have been appointed game captains.

George Paynich witnessed the practice session without pads and is not expected to make the journey to Minneapolis. His leg injury has not completely healed.

Nebraska's all-American ace, Bobby Reynolds was in full pads in Monday's workout and appeared to be set for some action come Saturday.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 24 THE CLAM

"I should have kept my big mouth shut!"

Fresh out of Bivalve, N. J., he arrived on the campus all bug-eyed and his big mouth hanging open. He was immediately sucked into a "shell game" and found himself making all the quick-trick cigarette tests. But his native instinct told him that such an important item as cigarette mildness couldn't be tossed off lightly. Millions of smokers everywhere have discovered, too, that there's but one true test of mildness.

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke... on a pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests—Camel leads all other brands by billions
