Othello Tickets Remain On Sale Until Oct. 30

Tickets to "Othello," University Theatre presentation, are now on sale at the box office in the Temple from 12:30 to 5 p. m. daily.

The play will be presented Oct. 30 and 31 at the Nebraska theatre. Tickets, costing $1.50, will be available until Oct. 30. Season ticket price is $3.80 including tax.

Pat Loder as Desdemona and Jack Wenstrand as Othello will play the leading roles. Miss Loder is a sophomore majoring in speech and Wenstrand is a graduate student. Ron Gibson, a transfer student from the College of William and Mary, will play Iago, the villain.

On Oct. 30, the first night of the show, Honorary Producers, students selling the most tickets, will be presented.

The University Theatre, after a year of inactivity, will present three stage plays this year. "Idiot's Delight" by Robert Sherwood will be presented in December. The third play will be Elmer Rice's Pulitzer prize winner, "Street Scene."

Primary UMOG Voting To End Today At 5 P.M.

Primary voting for Ugliest Man on Campus ends today at 5 p. m. Five-cent ballots will be collected from the Crib, University drug, Hermies, Campus Inn and Ag Union Tuesday evening.

The six receiving the most votes will be announced as finalists in Wednesday's Daily Nebraska. Voting for finalists will be conducted at the AUF Charity ball Friday from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m.

Each Charity ball ticket enables the bearer to vote for one of the six UMOG finalists. Tickets may be purchased in the Union booth from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. throughout the week. Tickets are $2 a couple.

The AUF Charity ball will climax the current drive. Eddie Haddad and his orchestra will play for the informal dance from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m.

UMOG candidates are: Melvin Brydl, Acecia; E. James

'President's Own' Marine Corps Band To Give Concert At Coliseum Friday

"From the Halls of Montezuma" to the University Coliseum will flow the martial music of the United States Marine band Friday.

The band, "the President's Own," will present two concerts in Lincoln, at 3 and 8:15 p. m.

In connection with the band's appearance, Friday will be Marine Corps Day in Lincoln. Marines from Omaha, Lincoln and Hastings will participate, according to Ray Bowmaster, commandant of the Nebraska department of the Marine Corps league.

The band, the world's oldest symphonic band, will appear in Lincoln as part of a brief, presidentially approved nationwide tour. The tour is designed to permit Americans to hear and observe the official presidential band which ordinarily plays only for occasions of state and for presidential functions in Washington.

band's summer concerts on the Capital Plaza have been highlights in Washington's musical life. Concerts have been inaugurated recently at Jefferson memorial.

The Marine band was one of the pioneer broadcasting organizations in radio and the first concert band to telecast a series of concerts.

During its 153 years, only 18 leaders have conducted the band. John Phillip Sousa and the present conductor, Major William F. Santelmann, are probably the most familiar to the public.

The band has supplied music for every White House wedding, including those of Nellie Grant, Alice Roosevelt and President Grover Cleveland. It has played for the funeral of Presidents Lincoln and F. D. Roosevelt. It regularly greets royalty and foreign dignitaries and supplies music at Arlington National cemetery during the services for the nation's heroes.

Since its establishment in 1798, the Marine Band has played for 32 presidents and continues today as the official White House Band.

Reserved seat tickets for the Coliseum concerts are now on sale at the Dietze Music house. Mail orders should be addressed to Marine Band, c/o American Legion Drum corps, Box 491, Lincoln. A self-addressed, stamped envelope should be enclosed.

Tickets will go on sale at the Coliseum at 1 p. m. Friday.

Matinee tickets cost $1, while the evening performance seats sell for $1, $1.50 and $2.

The program will vary from Morton Gould's rhapsodic composition, "Jericho" to a Cole Porter melody and Merle Isaac's novelty arrangement of "Old McDonald Had a Farm."

The matinee program will consist of numbers chosen for a student audience.

Agri-Fun Skit Winner

BLUE MONDAY . . . Wayne White, manager of Coll-Agri-Fun board, presents the first place Coll-Agri-Fun plaque to Mildred Athey, president of Love Hall. Love Hall's skit, "Blue Monday," took first place honors in the annual presentation of the Ag fun night. Its skit was deemed the best of six entries. (Courtesy of the Lincoln Star).

Love Hall Wins Fun Night With 'Blue Monday' Skit

Love Hall regained the Coll-Agri-Fun plaque Saturday night with its skit "Blue Monday." The skit was chosen the best out of six entries in the annual presentation of Coll-Agri-Fun at the College of Agriculture.

The skit, with 48 members of Love Hall participating, was a parody of a house meeting, pointing up the confusion that takes place at such meetings.

The prize winning plaque was presented by Wayne White, manager of the Coll-Agri-Fun board, to Mildred Athey, president of Love Hall.

The winning curtain act, which won a $10 prize, was presented by the Home Economics club and was entitled "Cutie Coeds on NU Campus." YWCA was awarded second place in the skit competition with "Cowlege Days." Second place in the curtain acts went to Loomis Hall. Its curtain act was "The Trying Hour."

There were six skits and five curtain acts presented.

The skits were: "Fashion Show" by Ag Men's club; "Small Fry Professor" by Loomis Hall; "Blue Monday" by Love Hall; "Football Fools" by the Amikitas; "Cowboy's Dream" by Alpha Gamma Rho and "The Lone Stranger Rides Again" by Farm House.

Aggies Hold Poultry Day

Several hundred poultry raisers and hatcherymen are expected to attend the annual poultry field day at the College of Agriculture today.

The program begins at 10 a. m. in the College Activities building on Ag campus.

Several men will tell of their experiences in the poultry business. One of the highlights will be a talk by Dave Martin of Elkhorn, who supervises the Occoma Foods company's broiler plant. He will tell how the firm produces 80 thousand broiler chickens on 10 acres and has them average more than three pounds at 11 weeks.

Dr. Roland Bethke of St. Louis will tell about the Purina Mills feeding job with chickens.

Other speakers include Dr. Clifford Carpenter, president of the Institute of American Poultry Industries at Chicago, on "Quality in Volume"; J. R. Redditt of Omaha, on "How Do They Do It?"; and Dean W. V. Lambert of the College of Agriculture on "Progress on the Program."

Prof. F. E. Musshel, head of the University's poultry department, will present an illustrated talk on time savers in feeding poultry. Extension Poultryman Waldo F. Aubol of the University will conduct a tour of the poultry plant. Visitors will see a remodeled building made into a poultry breeding house.

A chicken barbecue is scheduled for 5 p. m.

McIntyre Slated For Homecoming Dance

Parade Route Planned

All organizations which have not as yet been contacted as to entering homecoming floats, are urged to send in their letters immediately to Jo O'Brien, 118 South 16th Street, or contact Jerry Stone, Cob co-chairman.

Formation of the floats in the parade will be in the order letters are received. All Tassels and Cobs are urged to participate in the parade as a group. For further information, organizations may phone 2-5886.

Traffic during homecoming will enter the campus at 17th and R streets. Then the traffic will proceed down R street, turn north on 14th street and continue until it turns east on Vine street. Then, turning south from Vine onto 16th street it will merge with the main traffic at 16th and R.

All traffic will be one way with one exception. Because 14th street is a state highway, a single lane of south bound traffic will be allowed there. No parking will be permitted on the proposed route, except one lane on the west side of 14th street.

The following streets will be blocked off entirely so that they may be opened in case of emergency: 15th street, from Vine to S street; U street, from 14th to 16th streets; S street, from 14th to 16th streets; and 15th street from Q to R streets.

Parking will be available in University parking lots and in the Elgin National Watch company lot.

Cornhusker Wins NSPA '51 All-American Rating

The 1951 Cornhusker was awarded the All-American honor rating by the National Scholastic Press Association at the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis.

This was the first time the yearbook received the top rating since 1947 although it has been listed with the first class yearbooks several times in the intervening years.

Ten books in the 5000 to 9999 enrollment classification were awarded the All-American rating. This is the second highest classification made on the enrollment basis.

The yearbooks are judged on a point system. For the top rating 3200 points are needed. The Cornhusker compiled 3350 points. Extra points were awarded for the end sheets, captions, athletic section, index, and use of pictorial advertising. The purpose was well fulfilled, according to the judge.

The pictures of the outstanding graduates from the various colleges was noted and complimented by Current Cornhusker editor, Dick Billig, first learned of the selection.

'Baby' Atomic Blast Set Off

FRENCHMAN'S FLAT, Nev.—the first atomic explosion in a new series set off near the Frenchman Flat proving ground was so small that it went unnoticed in Las Vegas, 65 miles south of the site.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced that the slight rumbling heard by watchers 30 miles from the scene was indeed a "baby" atomic blast. The mildness of the explosion touched off speculation.

EGYPT—British reinforcements continued to pour into the Suez canal zone while Egyptian troops were careful to keep out of range of those already dug in along the length of the canal.

Latest reports indicated that the British island of Cyprus had been stripped of its garrison, including the first battalion of the famous Cheshire regiment, arrived in Port Said.

Russians 'Needle' American Sector

BERLIN—The Russians seized a 3-mile square area of the American sector of Berlin in what is apparently the latest development in their "needle-the-west" campaign.

The area was an island in the Russian zone of the city similar to the several Russian islands inside the western sector.

Protestants Protest Clark Appointment

WASHINGTON—"Waves of protest" are descending on the White House from protest sources concerning the appointment by President Truman of Gen. Mark Clark as ambassador to the Vatican, according to one network news analyst. Little criticism of the general is reported, but a number of senators have stated that the appointment violates the American tradition of separation of church and state by recognizing the papacy as a state.

Cardinal Spellman of New ulation both that the test was a fizzle and that an atomic weapon the size of a hand-grenade had been tested.

In sharp contrast to tests held earlier in the year which broke windows in Las Vegas and rolled shock and light waves for 500 miles, the terse 20-word communique from the AEC stating that one test blast had actually been set off, was the first most citizens knew of it.

The royal navy dispatched the cruiser Gambia and at least, six destroyers to the scene, placing units at both ends of the canal.

The war ministry announced plans to fly still another brigade out from Britain, and the Egyptians threatened to take the dispute to the United Nations as a threat to the peace.

Protestants Protest Clark Appointment

York praised the move and unofficial Vatican reactions expressed "delight."

In the appointment message, the president pointed out that some 36 nations have diplomatic missions to the Vatican. Many congressmen were displeased that the appointment was announced just as congress was adjourning, preventing confirmation inquiries, and allowing the general to assume his duties in Rome before the legislators have a chance to investigate the matter in the next session.

Class Officers . . .

Election Still 'Wide Open'

Although filings for junior and senior class officers close Wednesday, the race is still "wide open," according to George Wilcox, Student Council elections chairman.

Through Monday afternoon only two of the eight offices to be filled had more than one candidate. The two are senior class president and vice-president.

The other five positions had only one applicant. At least two must file for each position in order to conduct the election, Wilcox announced.

Names of candidates will not be released by the Council until the filings have closed officially. According to Wilcox, this will avert pressure from any campus group.

To be eligible for election, a candidate for any of the offices must be regularly enrolled in the University, carry at least two hours and have a 5.5 weight average.

Applications should be sent to Frank Hallgren, assistant dean of student affairs, Administration building.

The Council will handle all campaign publicity to insure fairness in the election scheduled for Nov. 1.

Officers to be filled are senior class president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer and junior class president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

Senior class officers last year were Aaron Schmidt, president; Bob Waters, vice-president; Bob Pierce, secretary; and Arlen Beam, treasurer.

Junior class officers were Chuck Burmeister, president; Jerry Matzke, vice-president; Jack Cohen, secretary; and Gene Johnson, treasurer.

Med Lectures On Sigma Xi Meet Agenda

Three lecturers will address members of Sigma Xi, scientific research society, Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. The speakers, Dr. H. B. Hunt, Dr. H. J. Zimmerman and Thomas Kyle are all staff members of the College of Medicine.

Hunt, who is chairman of the department of radiology and physical medicine, will speak on "Radioactive Iodine in the Evaluation and Treatment of Goiter."

Zimmerman's topic will be "Approaches to the Inhibition of Anterior Pituitary Function." Zimmerman is connected with the department of internal medicine.

Thomas Kyle of the department of pathology and bacteriology will discuss "Isolation of Newcastle Disease Virus from Poultry and Man and Its Implications."

These lectures, which follow a dinner, are the Sigma Xi's first meeting of the season. Both events will be in the Union.

International Friendship . . .

Dinner, Model Meeting To Highlight UN Week

The Friendship Dinner held tonight at 6:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom will emphasize United Nations week, Oct. 21-27, according to Hester Morrison, NUCWA chairman of UN week.

"Friendship Through Understanding" is the theme for the event honoring foreign students. The dinner is sponsored by the Religious Welfare Council and the Cosmopolitan club.

Co-chairmen of the event are Hank Holst, Lutheran Student association, and Onuzulike Okonkwo, Cosmopolitan Club. Dr. George Rosenlof will be master of ceremonies.

A model security council meeting will be held Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in Love library. Representing their countries in the discussion will be Ti Tien, China; Jeanne Peck, France; N. L. Ahuja, India; Jeanette Burema, Nether-

Pep Queen To Highlight Intermission

Hal McIntyre and his orchestra will furnish the music for the Homecoming dance in the Coliseum, Nov. 3.

A saxophonist, McIntyre has been a favorite for college engagements since he left Glenn Miller to start his own band, according to the Homecoming dance committee.

Tickets for the dance may be bought from any Corn Cob or Tassel for $3 a couple. They will be sold at a booth in the Union all next week.

During intermission winners of the house decorations competition will be announced. First place winners in the sorority and fraternity divisions receive permanent plaques. They will also take possession of the traveling trophies won last year by Chi Omega and Beta Theta Pi.

Five Pep Queen candidates will take part in the intermission. Jayne Wade, 1950 Pep Queen, will reign during the Homecoming festivities until her successor is presented at the dance.

Nebraska's opponents are the University of Kansas Jayhawks. Last year the Cornhuskers defeated Missouri 40-34 for their first Homecoming win in four years.

Fraternities and honoraries are entering floats in the parade Saturday morning. Winning floats will be announced at half-time of the game. Sigma Alpha Epsilon took first place last year.

Two rallies are planned for next week. Wednesday, Oct. 31, will feature the burning of KU's symbol, the Jayhawk. Members of the football team and coaches will be introduced at Friday's rally. Pep queen candidates will also be announced.

"Where's your frat pin?"
"Haven't got it."
"Lost it?"
"Nope."
"Broken?"
"No, but you might say that it is busted."

For years the two sexes have been racing for supremacy. Now they've settled down to neck and neck.

It will be fair to partly cloudy Tuesday, with temperature rising to a high of near 58. The low will be 30, with light southerly wind.

The young man was busy on the phone trying to get a date with his girl.

"Let's make a date for Saturday," he cooed.
"I have a date for Saturday."
"Then let's make it Sunday."
"I'm going out of town Sunday."

"Well, then, how about Monday?"
"Oh, damn it, I'll go Saturday."

"Daddy, what's a bachelor?"
"A bachelor, son, is a boy who didn't have a car when he went to college."

Ag Builders Membership Campaign Closes Today

Today is the last chance for students to sign up for Ag Builders. Five committees are soliciting for new members in the Ag Union.

This year's board members include: publicity and publications, Terry Barnes; sales, Dale Reynolds; campus tours, Jean Vierk; membership, Artie Westcott; and parties and conventions, Barbara Raun.

Directing the drive is Frank Si-
