

Jr.-Sr. Voting Polls Open Thursday 8 a.m.-5 p.m.

Election of junior and senior class officers will be held Thursday, according to George Wilcox Student Council vice president.

Each candidate, or a group sponsoring him, may make an unlimited number of posters, handbills or similar campaign devices. Individual house calls by the candidates are not restricted, Wilcox said.

Senior candidates for president are: Nancy Button, president of W.S. Mortar Board, member of Delta Omicron and Teachers college music major; Joe Gifford, College of Arts and Sciences, and golf team; John Litteras, president of Cornhusker Co-Op, vice president of American Institute of Agricultural Engineers.

Senior vice president candidates are: John Adams, College of Engineering, member of Student Council and member of Engineering Exec Board; Leonard Bush, College of Business Administration, member of YMCA and member of Arnold Air Society.

Senior secretary candidates: Richard Phelps, College of Engineering, Engineering Executive Board member and secretary of American Society of Mechanical Engineers; Theodore Kratt, College of Engineering.

Junior secretary candidates: Marilyn Howell, College of Business Administration, YWCA cabinet, Coed Counselor, Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Chi Theta; Joan Krueger, speech and journalism major, vice president of Delta Sigma Rho, Theta Sigma Phi, Gamma Alpha Chi, assistant chairman of College Days, Builders, associate editor of the Daily Nebraskan and debate squad member; Martin Lewis, College of Business Administration, AUF, assistant business manager of Cornhusker, Arnold Air Society and member of Corn Cobs; Philip Ostwald, College of Engineering and assistant editor of Nebraska Blue Print.

Posters with a picture of each candidate will be in the Union Wednesday. Each candidate must give an 8 by 10-inch picture of himself to Don Noble at the Council office by noon Tuesday.

Senior candidates for president are: Nancy Button, president of W.S. Mortar Board, member of Delta Omicron and Teachers college music major; Joe Gifford, College of Arts and Sciences, and golf team; John Litteras, president of Cornhusker Co-Op, vice president of American Institute of Agricultural Engineers.

Senior vice president candidates are: John Adams, College of Engineering, member of Student Council and member of Engineering Exec Board; Leonard Bush, College of Business Administration, member of YMCA and member of Arnold Air Society.

Senior secretary candidates: Richard Phelps, College of Engineering, Engineering Executive Board member and secretary of American Society of Mechanical Engineers; Theodore Kratt, College of Engineering.

Junior secretary candidates: Marilyn Howell, College of Business Administration, YWCA cabinet, Coed Counselor, Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Chi Theta; Joan Krueger, speech and journalism major, vice president of Delta Sigma Rho, Theta Sigma Phi, Gamma Alpha Chi, assistant chairman of College Days, Builders, associate editor of the Daily Nebraskan and debate squad member; Martin Lewis, College of Business Administration, AUF, assistant business manager of Cornhusker, Arnold Air Society and member of Corn Cobs; Philip Ostwald, College of Engineering and assistant editor of Nebraska Blue Print.

Junior treasurer candidates: John Greer, Teachers college, College Days board, member of swimming team and Union committee; Jack Savage, College of Engineering, director of AIA, Kosmet Klub member, and Nebraska Blue Print staff member; Shirley Schonberg, Teachers college, Tassels, YWCA member and member of the Religious Welfare Club.

DAI... NEBRASKAN

VOL. 51—No. 32 LINCOLN, NEBRASKA Tuesday, October 30, 1951

Memorial Service For Faculty, Nov. 4

The seventh University Memorial service will be held in Love Memorial library Sunday, Nov. 4, in commemoration of staff members who have died after a number of years of service for the University.

The program is scheduled for 3 p.m. on the Sunday following homecoming for the benefit of alumni who wish to attend.

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson will preside over the program and the chaplain of the day will be Dr. Ernest E. Smith, pastor of the Second Baptist church.

The late Edward Provost Brown of Arbor, member of the Board of Regents of the University for six years, will be honored in a citation to be read by a fellow member of the board.

Organist Myron Roberts will provide music before and after the service.

Other faculty members to be honored are: Axel Louis Elmquist, associate professor of Germanic languages who died Oct. 29, 1949.

Discussion topics will be: "Should the Classroom be Made a Religious Experience?"; "Should the Bible be Studied in the Public Schools?"; and "Are Denominational Differences Reason Enough for Teachers to Avoid Religious Training?"

William Porter Haney, assistant professor of otorhinolaryngology, Emeritus, who died July 19, 1951.

Participating in the program, in addition to Rev. Knowles, will be representatives from the different religious houses, and convocation committee members—Bob LaSelle, Lynn Kunkel, Charles Swinkle, Ruth Sorenson, Jean Davis and Jo Reifschneider. Charles Swinkle will be in charge of the discussion.

St. Peter and the devil were having a hot argument over the bridge which separated the two places. Now the bridge was broken down, and they were unable to agree on who was to do the repairing.

Phil Spicer Wins First In Crystal Ball Contest

The tie between Texas A. & M. and Baylor was all that kept last week's Crystal Ball winners from picking a perfect slate.

St. Peter became angry because the devil claimed to be too busy to do any such work, so he threatened to sue.

John Willock, 4819 Madison, was awarded second prize in the contest, $2. His entry was number 45.

St. Peter thought for a minute, and said: "Forget the bridge then, you don't have any engineers."

Third prize of $1 went to Bob Green, YMCA, for his pickings, number 60.

Now I lay me down to sleep. The prof is dry, the lecturer's deep. If I should wake before I wake.

Senior Students In College Of Engineering Take Tours To Inspect Power Plants, Industries, Public Buildings

More than 180 senior students from six departments of the College of Engineering are taking two and three-day inspection tours this week.

Mostly cloudy today, with the temperatures turning slightly cooler as the day digresses into evening. Light showers by afternoon or evening.

The tours must be taken by seniors as requirements for graduation. Each student must write a report of the inspection trip before he can graduate.

Who was that lady I saw you with last night? I wasn't out, I was just resting my eyes.

Nine agricultural engineering seniors and John F. Schrank, faculty sponsor, left Sunday morning for Charles City, Ia., where Monday morning they visited the Oliver manufacturing plant.

Monday evening the group heard George E. Johnson, chief engineer of Central Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation district, as they met at Jeffrey Lodge near Central City.

Civil engineering seniors left for Columbus Monday morning with faculty sponsors E. B. Merier, H. M. McMaster and C. O. Brunken. Approximately 23 seniors are making the trip.

Wednesday evening, the group will tour Loup River Public Power district and Behlen manufacturing company at Columbus, Lincoln Water Treatment plant at Ashland, Omaha Sewage Treatment plant, Omaha Steel company, Omaha flood control project supervised by the US corps of engineers and Bellevue bridge over the Missouri.

Before returning to Lincoln

Forty-nine mechanical engineering seniors began their tour in Omaha Monday morning by visiting Omaha Steel company, World Publishing company and other Omaha plants.

it happened at nu...

Military dignitaries and six senior women vying for the title of Honorary Commandant were present at the COA reception Thursday.

Saturday's 'Half-Time' Announced

The University R.O.T.C. marching band will lead off half-time ceremonies at the Kansas-Nebraska homecoming game Saturday.

Jayne Wade, 1950 pep queen, Chancellor R. G. Gustavson and the five '51 pep queen candidates will walk to the center of the playing field to the accompaniment of the University of Kansas band.

The Nebraskan band will depict the evolution of a band—from the ancient lyre to the modern band—while the '50 Queen remains seated on her throne in the center of the field.

Mortar Boards and Innocents will then escort Miss Wade to the speaker's platform, where Chancellor Gustavson, after welcoming the alumni, will present flowers to the Queen.

Dick Carson, master of ceremonies, will introduce the five candidates for the '51 Queen to the homecoming crowd.

St. Peter and the devil were having a hot argument over the bridge which separated the two places. Now the bridge was broken down, and they were unable to agree on who was to do the repairing.

St. Peter became angry because the devil claimed to be too busy to do any such work, so he threatened to sue.

St. Peter thought for a minute, and said: "Forget the bridge then, you don't have any engineers."

Now I lay me down to sleep. The prof is dry, the lecturer's deep. If I should wake before I wake.

Who was that lady I saw you with last night? I wasn't out, I was just resting my eyes.

Othello Opens Tonight; Loder, Wenstrand Star

Tonight, at 8 p.m., the University Theatre will present Othello, its first show of the '51-'52 season, under the direction of Prof. Dallas S. Williams.

Williams feels that this play is the most difficult of all the plays he has directed since coming to Nebraska eight years ago.

The characterization in Shakespeare's Othello makes the play also very challenging to the actors. Williams felt that the presentation of a play the caliber of Othello was keeping within the tradition that the University Theatre has built up in the past years.

Wenstrand, business manager for the University Theatre, said that about 900 seats had been reserved for both Tuesday and Wednesday nights. There are about 200 seats left for each performance.

The leading roles in the show are played by Pat Loder as Desdemona, Jack Wenstrand as Othello, Hank Gibson as Iago and Marty Miller as Emilia.

Others in the cast are Dick Carson, Ken Clement, Harry Stiver, D. K. Smith, Don Lewis, Milt Hoffman, Jack Lange, Dick Miller, Gale Randal, Richard Marrs, Denis Knapik, Frank Adamek, Keith Heim, Ormand Meyer, Dave Sisler, Chuck Huestis, John Wittcock, Jim Weldon, Marvin Strommer, and James Ehret.

Action of the play revolves around the villainous Iago and his plot to bring revenge on Othello. The story briefly is about a Moorish noble, Othello, who causes Iago to plot against him and Cassio. Othello has chosen Cassio as his lieutenant, not Iago. Consequently Iago sets about to bring the downfall of the two.

Jensby concluded by remarking: "I am looking forward very much to our first performance tonight."

Dallas Williams expressed his optimistic viewpoint by saying, "I feel that the play is going to be a success and the cast is doing fine work. It is the most difficult play ever put on here but should be effective from the theatrical point of view."

Opening performance of Othello will be presented at the Nebraska Theatre at 8 o'clock this evening.

St. Peter and the devil were having a hot argument over the bridge which separated the two places. Now the bridge was broken down, and they were unable to agree on who was to do the repairing.

St. Peter became angry because the devil claimed to be too busy to do any such work, so he threatened to sue.

St. Peter thought for a minute, and said: "Forget the bridge then, you don't have any engineers."

Now I lay me down to sleep. The prof is dry, the lecturer's deep. If I should wake before I wake.

Who was that lady I saw you with last night? I wasn't out, I was just resting my eyes.

Mostly cloudy today, with the temperatures turning slightly cooler as the day digresses into evening. Light showers by afternoon or evening.

Who was that lady I saw you with last night? I wasn't out, I was just resting my eyes.

Monday evening the group heard George E. Johnson, chief engineer of Central Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation district, as they met at Jeffrey Lodge near Central City.

Who was that lady I saw you with last night? I wasn't out, I was just resting my eyes.

Wednesday evening, the group will tour Loup River Public Power district and Behlen manufacturing company at Columbus, Lincoln Water Treatment plant at Ashland, Omaha Sewage Treatment plant, Omaha Steel company, Omaha flood control project supervised by the US corps of engineers and Bellevue bridge over the Missouri.

Who was that lady I saw you with last night? I wasn't out, I was just resting my eyes.

Friday evening, the group will tour Loup River Public Power district and Behlen manufacturing company at Columbus, Lincoln Water Treatment plant at Ashland, Omaha Sewage Treatment plant, Omaha Steel company, Omaha flood control project supervised by the US corps of engineers and Bellevue bridge over the Missouri.

Who was that lady I saw you with last night? I wasn't out, I was just resting my eyes.

Saturday evening, the group will tour Loup River Public Power district and Behlen manufacturing company at Columbus, Lincoln Water Treatment plant at Ashland, Omaha Sewage Treatment plant, Omaha Steel company, Omaha flood control project supervised by the US corps of engineers and Bellevue bridge over the Missouri.

Who was that lady I saw you with last night? I wasn't out, I was just resting my eyes.

Sunday evening, the group will tour Loup River Public Power district and Behlen manufacturing company at Columbus, Lincoln Water Treatment plant at Ashland, Omaha Sewage Treatment plant, Omaha Steel company, Omaha flood control project supervised by the US corps of engineers and Bellevue bridge over the Missouri.

Who was that lady I saw you with last night? I wasn't out, I was just resting my eyes.

Monday evening, the group will tour Loup River Public Power district and Behlen manufacturing company at Columbus, Lincoln Water Treatment plant at Ashland, Omaha Sewage Treatment plant, Omaha Steel company, Omaha flood control project supervised by the US corps of engineers and Bellevue bridge over the Missouri.

OTHELLO STARS... Appearing tonight in the leading roles of Shakespeare's Othello will be (r.) Jack Wenstrand, Othello, and (l.) Pat Loder, Desdemona. The play is being presented in the Nebraska theatre. (Courtesy of Daily Nebraskan.)

Committee Announces Homecoming Traffic Plan

A definite plan to eliminate the confusion of Homecoming traffic has been decided by Student Council representatives Elaine Esch, Barbara Young and Don Noble.

All traffic will be one-way with the exception of a single lane of south bound traffic on 14th street because 14th is a state highway.

The plan is as follows: Traffic will enter the proposed route at 17th and R streets. It will then proceed down R street turning north on 14th street and continuing down 14th until turning east on Vine street. The traffic

The following streets will be blocked off entirely: 15th from Vine to S. U from 16th to 14th, S from 16th to 14th, and 15th from Q to R. In case of an emergency any of these streets may be made available for immediate use.

The Student Council will send letters to the organized houses in the restricted area asking their cooperation by not parking their cars in those streets after 5 p.m., Nov. 2. Permission has been granted by Elmer Jura, general manager of the Elgin Watch company, for the use of the Elgin parking lot during the evening of Nov. 2.

With the various parking lots on campus and the additional space at Elgin, the committee believes that occupants of the houses will be able to find plenty of parking space.

Churchill Disappointed under the labor government, but who realize the importance of global resistance to communism.

Britain is once again on the verge of economic chaos as the result of the $13 billion armament program which she cannot afford, added to the rising cost of raw materials and food stuffs which must be imported to keep the country producing.

Churchill has pledged not to alter the cradle to grave benefits of the British social security program, and to continue the rearmament. This second plan will meet with mixed reactions from Britons who are tired of continued austerity.

The burning of the Jayhawk will also take place. Led by Tassels, Corn Cobs and Peppers, rosters will reduce the bird to ashes on a funeral pyre at a secret ceremonial ground.

UMT Program Recommended WASHINGTON—The national security training commission, a group appointed by congress to investigate the manpower situation in relation to defense needs, recommended in a 110 page report that all 18-year olds be subject to 6 months of universal military training and that such a program be instituted "without delay."

The rally will begin at 7 p.m. at the coliseum. It will proceed east to 16th and Vine, south to 16th and R, west to the Union and then to the grounds to burn the Jayhawk.

Egypt Orders Drafting EGYPT—The Egyptian government ordered the drafting of all men between 18 and 50 to implement the mobilization program. The Sudanese legislature decided to ask the U.N. to investigate a threat to the peace in the dispute between Egypt and Britain over the ad-

Members of the rally committee are: Tassels, Joan O'Brien and Jane Jackson; Corn Cobs, Ira Epstein and Larry Anderson; cheerleaders, Don Devries and George Hancock.

Union To Hold Post-Rally Homecoming Pep Dances What may one do on Homecoming eve? The Union dance committee has the answer. A pep dance will be held in the ballroom at 9 p.m. Friday following the rally.

John Moyer's combo will furnish the music. Tickets are 44 cents a couple. The Union will choose University talent to entertain at intermission.

The Student Council and police have worked out the problem of Homecoming traffic, and the Union has tried to do its part by giving the sight-seers "something to do."

Police have worked out the problem of Homecoming traffic, and the Union has tried to do its part by giving the sight-seers "something to do."