

AT MILLER'S

BELLE of the BALL GOWNS

a float on a whirling whiff of net

Frothy fantasies for those magic, most-beautiful hours you spend . . . dancing to the magic of sweet music and whispered compliments in a gown of fabled allure—as timeless as femininity.

For this enchanted season, select an appropriately flattering gown from our exciting collections. . . Short and long designs, $25 to $185.

Curving bare-shoulder bodice of petit-pleated rayon net, then a satin-wrapped mere-nothing of a waist above layer-over-layer of bouffant rayon net. In Turquoise, 69.95

Short and volatile . . . Champagne satin crinoline-stiffened to a pert sheet at center front, then, suddenly, whirl-skirted by extravagant yards of cloudlike nylon net. Extra appeal in the shoulder-circling aura of Champagne net. $35

The superb ball gown . . . the sort every girl should experience once . . . indisputably Red, of a liting, lovely depth. The skirt, traditionally enormous, spun of a misty infinity of nylon net over a huge wheel of stiffened lacquered net. Making it magnificent—a flight of imported lace over the skirt, glorifying the bodice above the rayon-velvet wrapped waist. Drifting stole—a giant mist of net. $185

DRESSES . . . Fashion Floor . . . Second

WHITE KID GLOVES, long, 12.95
Short and formal, 5.95

Lace or net mitts, long and short, 2.95 to $8

GLOVES . . . First Floor

YOUR FORMAL BAG—Josef's solid-sequined pouch, 18.50; Gold kid rectangle, 4.95. • All plus tax

LEATHERS . . . First Floor

BEAUTIFUL BRYANS, ultra-sheer, hand-detailed with rhinestone clocks, 2.90

HOSIERY . . . First Floor

SANDAL by Delmanette, in gold or Silver kid, 20.95; Low-heeled formal slippers, 14.95

SHOES . . . Second Floor

MILITARY BALL . . .
University of Nebraska
Coliseum . . . December 7

BLACK MASQUE BALL . . .
University of Nebraska
Coliseum . . . December 14

MILLER & PAINE