

Husker Horizons

Filling Stefan's Seat

With election for Third district congressman just a week away...

Car-paigning by the republican candidate, R. D. Harrison of Norfolk...

But the difference in campaign tactics is just the first between candidates...

The geographic angle may play some importance in this election. Since the late Congressman Stefan was from Norfolk...

On actual platforms Harrison has spent his time attacking administrative spending and promising voters he will do his best...

Refuting Olson's answer to GOP charges, republicans compare the Fremont contender to

Trial For Class Councils

Eyes of Student Council members will be focused a great deal this year on junior and senior class councils...

The councils are an attempt to stimulate competition between juniors and seniors which will creep down to underclassmen...

Although Schmidt's proposal, aimed at instilling class spirit in the University...

Joan Krueger

Democrat Gene O'Sullivan of Omaha who got away with similar promises one campaign...

Olson attacked Harrison's campaign methods, accusing republicans of being "big money boys."

What many consider the biggest mistake in the campaign so far by either candidate is Olson's attack on Korean truce talks...

So the battle goes on for another week. The election has become interesting and one that has aroused interest in the state...

Harrison-opposing administrative spending, Branman plan, socialized medicine and federal aid to education and offering to fill Stefan's shoes.

Olson-opposing Korean truce talks, running independently, "thinking for himself," charging Harrison of "Charlie McCarthyism" because he is employing a caravan...

Neither candidate has offered a solution to government spending. Neither candidate has indicated much of a constructive program.

Who will fill Stefan's seat? This election most voters will be voting for a successor to Karl Stefan—not a representative from the Third District.

Council To Discuss 1952 College Days

Discussion of College Days is on the agenda for the Student Council meeting Wednesday afternoon...

As success of every student venture depends ultimately on students themselves, so does this. If there is no need for councils...

Since the task is important, there should be a wide selection of candidates. Thus, it is important that a number of upperclassmen apply.

The only way we can determine the effectiveness of class councils is to give them a fair trial. This is the trial.

Ann's Alley

With dreams of Thanksgiving dinners still prevalent in our minds, the campus looks forward to three more weeks of grinding studies.

But overlooking studies, lots of dates are in store for steadyies, Gracia Eytne and Bob Hasebrook...

Excitement arose out Farm House way at the pinning of not one, but two Messersmiths. Rex and Lee both passed cigars announcing their pinnings to Mildred Athey and Barbara Sisley...

Besides dating, and studying, "important plans" will be the major topic of conversation between engaged couples. Bob Smith and Arlene Abbott, Herb Saxton and Jane Randall...

And one couple who won't be worrying about dates but still about studies from now on is Bob Sherman and Bev Heller, who were married in Iowa several weeks ago.

Among the couples attending the Brownell Hall charity ball in Omaha over the holidays were Jack Anderson and Nancy Peterson, Bob Gilmore and Barb Lucas...

Discussion of College Days is on the agenda for the Student Council meeting Wednesday afternoon. Bob Reichenbach, College Days board chairman, Joan Krueger, College Days board member...

By ANN GILLIGAN

land; and Bev Smith and pinmate, Don Pevries. Out Holdrege way over the weekend, Bill Alexander lost a "foot race" down the main street...

And now we turn to the coming weekend agenda! Below zero or not, the TKE's and dates will be stepping out for Friday evening entertainment in beach attire...

But more about parties Monday! Talking about hitting the town and stepping out a bit—the Sig Alphas are really getting under way. Just some of this happy group Saturday night in Omaha...

Little Man On Campus By Bibler

Stolen Goods Cornell Conducts Poll On Cribbing; 47% Of Students Cheat In Class, Exams

Cornell University... has proved that nearly half of the 322 students who responded to a student council questionnaire admitted cribbing in classes or examinations.

The questionnaire recently was sent to 500 students selected at random.

Of the 322 students who returned the questionnaire, about 10 per cent admitted cheating "frequently or occasionally," the council said. An additional 37 per cent admitted cheating was defined to include "cribbing, copying, giving and receiving air such as signals and notes, and discussing and using information about an examination which had been obtained illegally."

The council said that although 47 per cent of the students admitted cheating, two-thirds of them disapproved of it.

City College Of New York... tells us the Young Progressives of America were expelled from the campus of Brooklyn college last week after a faculty-student committee revoked its charter for being "communist related."

Prof. Herbert Stroup, chairman of Brooklyn college's faculty-student committee on student activities, said that the committee could see no other course of action. "A subcommittee of two students and two members of the faculty studying the case found that control of the organization by directors of the communist party was indicated," he said.

The Young Progressives of America have been unable to function this semester because none of 60 faculty members queried would consent to act as faculty advisers to the group.

Pontiac State College... asked students whether 18-year-olds should vote. The answer, by about two to one, was no. One coed said, "In my opinion 18-year-olds are not taking the voting situation too seriously and don't really care if they vote or not."

Most interesting comment came from a pre-law student: "You shouldn't vote until you are 30 years old."

At City College Of San Francisco... a psychology class was asked to write its views on the causes of college apathy. One student said apathy was "due to the lack of knowing each other; that is, there is not a friendly relation between the students as there was in high school... when we graduate, we don't even know who's who."

A slightly bitter coed took a different approach: "You have to have a student body card to breathe in this school. Most of the people who are here cannot afford the money to go to any other college, or their grades are too low. The only thing you have to have to get into this place is warm blood, but to get out you have to be a genius."

Other students blamed apathy on worry over the draft, uncertainty and student immaturity.

Chords And Dischords Critics Rate Lionel Hampton's Band Hot As Goodman, Sweet As Lombardo

Lionel Hampton's top crew is coming to Lincoln next week for the Military Ball, and contrary to the popular campus opinion his outfit is noted for their sweet music as well as their swing. Critics have described his band as "hot as Goodman and sweet as Lombardo."

corded their first vibraphone arrangement of "Memories of You," now a collector's item.

Thereafter, Hampton was much sought after by top flight bands and accepted an offer to join the now immortal Goodman sextet. It was during his four year association with Teagarden, Krupa, Elman, Freeman and others that Hampton gained national fame and formulated the drive and power which he displays today.

Hampton and his orchestra have recorded many records and the ones I was able to review were a good cross section of his work. Swing platters head his impressive list with such favorites as "Flying Home," "Live House Blues" and "How High The Moon."

Come to the Military Ball, hear and dance to Hampton's music, both swing and sweet. You will enjoy a style of music that is inspiring and rated tops in the field.

The Daily Nebraskan

FIFTY-FIRST YEAR Member Intercollegiate Press

The Daily Nebraskan is published by the students of the University of Nebraska as an expression of students' news and opinions only. According to Article II of the By-Laws governing student publications and administered by the Board of Publications...

EDITORIAL STAFF Editor: Tom Blachor. Assistant Editor: Ruth Rayward. Business Manager: Don Placer. Editor in Charge: Bob Smith. Managing Editor: Marshall Endrey. Editor: Connie Gordon. Editor: Bob Sherman. Editor: Jim Stiffen.

BUSINESS STAFF Business Manager: Don Placer. Treasurer: Jack Cohen. Editor: Bob Sherman. Editor: Jim Stiffen.

Advertisement for 'FORMALS!' featuring a couple in formal attire and text: 'such fashion excitement! just arrived... 100 BRAND NEW FORMALS! 29.95 to 49.95'. Includes 'Military Ball Dec. 7' and 'Mortar Board Ball Dec. 14'.