

Sigma Chi Captures Intramural Mat Title

By GLENN NELSON
Sports Staff Writer

Sigma Chi gathered a total of 41 points to breeze to the All-University wrestling championship.

The Sigs clinched the trophy in the finals and consolation bouts Wednesday by grabbing eight places of fourth or better in the meet.

Men's Dorm, which entered the final round with only a few pin points, rang up 26 points to overcome Beta Theta Pi and Delta Tau Delta for second place in the tournament.

Beta Theta Pi, first in pin point totals until the final matches, sunk to third place in the final scoring. The Deltas took fourth place with an eighteen point total.

Bob Glenn, Men's Dorm 123-pounder, opened the finals of the meet with a fall. He threw Don Peterson, Delta Sigma Phi, in 3:25.

Mary Lewis, Sigma Phi Epsilon, forfeited to Gary Sherman of Sigma Chi in the consolation bout of the 123-pound class.

Scott Hedden, Men's Dorm, and Jerry Canzano, Delta Sig, both showed plenty of wrestling talent in the 130-pound final match. Hedden ended the event with a pin after 5:20 of the third round.

Phil Visek, Beta Theta Pi, threw Dael Hahn, Sigma Chi, to gain third place in the 130-pound class. The time was 4:24.

Bill Burrows, Theta Chi, made quick work of Tom Thompson, Phi Gamma, to win the 137-pound crown. Burrows pinned his opponent in only .35 of the first round. Richard Hldek and Milo Brabek were not present for their consolation bout.

Dick Sheilenberg, Sigma Nu, dethroned Harry O'Hanian 11-4 for the 147-pound division championship. Bob Howard, Beta Theta Pi, forfeited to Beta Max Andrews in the consolation bout.

Bob Russell, Sigma Chi, threw Eldon Schafer, Sigma Chi, in 1:34 to win the 157-pound finals. Bob Debord, another Sigma Chi, won a forfeit from Sig Ep Lev Donaldson in the consolation bout.

Don Loren, Men's Dorm, and Jerry Yeager, Delta Tau Delta, fought a close, rough battle for the 167-pound crown. Loren won a 5-3 decision. Carl Ofe, Sigma Chi, took third place in that division on a forfeit from Royce Tomjes, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

One of the closest matches of the tourney was the final tangle between Sigma Chi Gary Ashbaugh and Tom Harrington, Beta. Ashbaugh won a referee's decision to become champion in the 177-pound class.

Stan Snyder, Sigma Chi, took third place in the 177-pound class on Delt Milton Dewhirst's forfeit. Max Kitzelman turned in a hard-earned 6-5 decision over Ed Husmann in the heavyweight finals. Kitzelman represents Chi-O-Pa.

In the play-off match for third and fourth place in the heavyweight division, Eldon Park, Delta Tau Delta, pinned Herschel Morton, Sigma Nu, in 2:50.

Ho Hum! Oklahoma Hits AP Top Ten Again; Set Records

By ARLEY BONDARIN
Staff Sports Writer

For the fourth year in a row the Oklahoma Sooners have finished in the top ten football teams in the nation according to the annual Associated Press poll.

This season the Sooners garnered the number ten spot as they rolled to their fourth consecutive Big Seven Conference championship.

During Coach Bud Wilkinson's four year tenure as head mentor, the Sooners were ranked fifth in 1948, second in 1949, won the national championship in 1950, and tenth this season.

By winning the tenth spot in the ratings, Oklahoma became the only college to make the nation's top ten in the last four years in a row.

Here are the number of times the leading schools have finished in the first ten the last four years: Oklahoma 4, Army, California and Michigan 3 each, Tennessee, Princeton, Michigan State and Notre Dame 2 each and 19 other schools one each.

Oklahoma also emerges as the national leader over the four years in a tabulating system of 10 points for a first place, 9 for a second, etc. The Sooners lead with 26 points, followed by Army 21, California 21, Notre Dame 19, Michigan 19, and Tennessee 17.

Here are the AP ratings the last four seasons:

1951—1. Tennessee, 2. Michigan State, 3. Maryland, 4. Illinois, 5. Georgia Tech, 6. Princeton, 7. Stanford, 8. Wisconsin, 9. Baylor, 10. Oklahoma.

1950—1. Oklahoma, 2. Army, 3. Texas, 4. Tennessee, 5. California, 6. Princeton, 7. Kentucky, 8. Michigan State, 9. Michigan, 10. Clemson.

1949—1. Notre Dame, 2. Oklahoma, 3. California, 4. Army, 5. Rice, 6. Ohio State, 7. Michigan, 8. Minnesota, 9. Louisiana State, 10. College of the Pacific.

1948—1. Michigan, 2. Notre Dame, 3. North Carolina, 4. California, 5. Oklahoma, 6. Army, 7. Northwestern, 8. Georgia, 9. Oregon, 10. Southern Methodist.

Another Wilkinson achievement is that he has coached a full team, eleven men, who have been selected on first team all-American squads.

The list includes: Ends Frankie Anderson and Jim Owens, Tackles Wade Walker and Jim Weatherall, Guards Buddy Burris and Stan West, Center Tom Catlin and Backs Jack Mitchell, Darrell Rayol, Buddy Jones, and Leon Heath.

Don Branby Challenging Letter-Winning Record Set By White

Byron "Whizzer" White, Colorado all-American, is the only in 60 years of Buff sports history to earn nine varsity letters.

But today, 13 years after White last performed for the Herd, Colorado is grooming Don Branby, Big Seven all-conference end from Glenwood, Minn., as a challenger for White's time-honored record.

"I never dreamed it could be possible," Branby replies when queried about his chances of tying the mark. "If I do earn nine letters, the 195 lb. challenger hastens to add, "it will be 90 per cent pure luck."

But when checking Branby's record, you find the 90 per cent "pure luck" to be just plain 90 per cent "pure modesty."

Last year, Don became the first Colorado sophomore to land on a Big Seven all-conference football squad. The team included such notables as all-Americans Leon Heath and Jim Weatherall of Oklahoma, and Nebraska's Bobby Reynolds.

To top off the year, Don added letters in basketball as a guard and in baseball covering third base. With three "C's" in major sports, Branby tied White's first record for number of letters earned in the sophomore year.

So far this season it's a twice-told tale with a little added lustre. When the Buff gridders finished the season, Don was named first string defensive end on the Associated Press all-Big Seven team, a distinction the Minnesotan calls "the most unexpected honor I've ever achieved."

As a tribute to his consistent play with the second-place Buffs, Coach Dal Ward named Don captain against Michigan State in the final game.

Normally, only seniors are named game captains.

With four letters down and five to go, Don looks forward to the 22 games on tap for Colorado's basketball squad. When the Buff eagles leave on an eastern jaunt December 19, the 22-year-old junior wants to be with them.

And it looks as though he's going to make it for this week Coach Bebe Lee boosted him up to the varsity and picked him a possible starter for the Baylor series here this weekend. The only thing to keep him from it is mastery of the switchover from football to basketball.

If he falls short, he'll have other outlets. Colorado's ski team takes to the slopes in two weeks and Branby's as much at home on skis as when he anchors the left side of the Buff line.

No matter how you look at it, Branby is Colorado's present "Mr. All-Around Athlete," and within a year Buff record books may officially confirm the title.

Clark Refuses To Publish Athletic Scholarship List

By MARSHALL KUSHNER
Assistant Sports Editor

The University of Nebraska will not publish a list of athletes receiving athletic scholarships, it was announced. Both Nebraska and Kansas universities have refused to take similar action of publishing the list as done at the University of Missouri.

"We're looking out for the best interest of the athletic department," said athletic director George "Poisy" Clark. "We haven't refused to open the books to anyone individually who has asked to see them. But we are not going to publish a list."

If the "higher-ups" decide to publish a list, Clark said he would be glad to oblige. "I wouldn't want to do anything that would antagonize the boys," Clark continued.

Clark opined that he was "unable to see what could be gained by publishing such a list in the newspapers." If a logical answer can be rendered, "I'd gladly publish the names."

At Kansas, A. C. "Dutch" Longborg, University of Kansas athletic director, agreed that he was "unable to see where anything is to be gained" by K.U.'s publishing at this time the names of boys it has on athletic scholarships.

"Neither do I see any reason for announcing how much the scholarships cost the university or how much each boy gets," Longborg stated.

At Missouri, athletic Director Don Faurot held nothing back and gave the press a complete list of boys receiving financial assistance from the athletic department.

The breakdown at the University of Nebraska looks something like this, as announced by Clark:

1. 101 University of Nebraska athletic scholarships. Football has 61; basketball 16; baseball 7; track 6; wrestling 4; gymnastics 3; swimming 2; and tennis and golf 1.
2. 60 privately sponsored jobs for athletes. These jobs are provided by local businessmen who pay $50 a month.
3. 159 students are working for the concessions department. These boys may work regularly or irregularly. The profit from these is divided thus: four cents on each ten cent item is kept by the salesman. Two cents goes on to the grant-in-aid fund.

The figures released by Faurot showed that Missouri's athletic program cost the department $85,000 annually. Of this sum, $50,000 comes from the intercollegiate funds. The remainder of this sum is drawn from alumni and educational foundation sources and concessions.

Clark did reveal the scholarship set-up for one Husker athlete. Dick Regier, football end, is receiving a $750 scholarship to cover room, board and tuition. Regier must keep up a semester average of "6" to remain eligible for the aid.

Sigma Nu, Deltas, Beta Sigs Take Bowling Lead

By ED BERG
Sports Staff Writer

Sigma Nu provided the big noise in the intramural bowling playoffs Monday at the Lincoln city alleys.

The Sigma Nu team, composed of Roy Clark, Howard Herbst, Larry Shafer, Paul Johnson and Bob Reeser, knocked over 2387 pins in their three 30-minute games against the Pioneer House. Their total was easily the highest of the evening.

Team Captain Reeser paced the Sigma Nu's with a 503 series that included games of 184 and 171. Shafer failed to register a 500 series by a single pin.

Best for the outclassed Pioneer House were Lyle Wolfe and Bill Irby. Irby rolled up a 213 game which was high for both clubs.

Delta Upsilon and Zeta Beta Tau hooked up in quite a duel in their Monday action. The D.U.'s finally won out by a scant ten pins, 2282-2272. A red hot 831 second game by the D.U. team provided the victory margin. Bob Lyons chipped in a 243 line and Jack Baugher topped 201 pins in the big second game. Bill Alexander and Jack Randecker were big helps in the narrow triumph.

Arnie Stern blasted out a pair of 190 games for the Z.B.T.'s. Showing occasional flashes for the Z.B.T.'s was Arley Bondarin.

Delta Sigma Pi doused the Sigma Alpha Epsilon hopes with 2252-2222 victory. A poor first game hurt the Sig Alph cause. Greulich, the anchor man of the Delta Sigma Pi squad, pined both teams with a 540 series that included a 263 line. Most consistent man of the night was Scott of the same club with games of 150, 155 and 153. Ervin Peterson was tops for the losers.

Beta Sigma Psi had the easiest win of the Monday session as they advanced on a forfeit from Sigma Alpha Mu Going through the formalities, the Beta Sigma Psi team combined for a 1950 total. Eugene Miller had games of 182, 184 and 161 for a 507 series.

Tuesday play was limited to one contest. The Delta Upsilon quintet came back to blast the Theta Chi entry out of the running. Jack Randecker was hotter than a forest fire as he rolled up a 607 on games of 224, 185 and 198.

For the Theta Chi's it was their "old reliable" Jack Fuller who led the way. Fuller chalked up a 224 game also, but he had to be content with a 160 and a 167 for his other scores.

Here are the AP ratings the last four seasons:

1951—1. Tennessee, 2. Michigan State, 3. Maryland, 4. Illinois, 5. Georgia Tech, 6. Princeton, 7. Stanford, 8. Wisconsin, 9. Baylor, 10. Oklahoma.
