

Jacobs Sings Track Version Of 'Cry'

With water from melting snow leaking through the east stadium track at Pneuonia Downs, Oklahoma's fresh air indoor track, the Sooner runners need umbrellas instead of mittens these days.

"I've got 40 buckets scattered around the track catching falling water," says Coach John Jacobs. "We can hardly run for dodging the buckets. Yesterday we had only one dry lane so I had my sprinters hit the sawdust trail in single file, just like they were at a revival."

"I took all the sawdust out of our indoor jumping pits, screened the broken glass out of it and spread it around our indoor track so the boys wouldn't get shin splints. It looked pretty. But there was water under that sawdust. When the boys tried to run those spongy curves they fell down. But that was because they ran faster than I told 'em to."

In the Sugar Bowl track meet at New Orleans, La., December 31, the Sooners set a new record in the 1,600 meters relay with their mark of 3:14.1, despite one terrible fumble that saw Quannah Cox, Oklahoma's Comanche Indian anchor, start his leg five yards behind Paul Wells of Oklahoma A. M.

Like his great-grandpappy, the famous Comanche war chief Quannah Parker, the Sooner Quannah is a fleet little gent when he gets mixed up in a running war with the palefaces. Cox overtook Wells and beat him in three yards, turning his lap in 48.6 seconds around two curves.

Despite the adverse conditions that have been reported down Norman-way, track experts are looking for the Sooners to be pretty close to the top when it comes to the Big Seven conference indoor track meet at Kansas City.

Jacobs has a fine freshman and sophomore crop this year and the Sooners boast a team that could easily be the most well balanced squad in the conference.

J. W. Mashburn and Harry Lee, Oklahoma 440-yard runners, received beautiful trophies for placing second and third in the Sugar Bowl 400 meters race December 30 at New Orleans, La.

When Derald Smith, Sooner sophomore half-miler from Oklahoma City Capitol Hill, who stayed home, saw the trophies upon the Oklahoma relay team's return to Norman, he asked, "What the heck did they give for fourth place?"

PHOG'S BABY-FACED BOY... Towering and terrific Clyde Lovellette singled the hoops for 31 points against Kansas State, up the remaining slack and lost but his teammates failed to pick to the Wildcats 81-64.

Kansas State's Win Shifts Big-7 Race

The Big Seven championship race took the spotlight in national sports activity last week.

The two top teams in last week's Associated Press poll, Illinois and Kansas, Nos. 1-2 respectively, were both joined Saturday night for their first loss of the season.

DePaul eked out a 69-65 upset victory over the Illinois, and Kansas absorbed an 81-64 shock at the hands of Kansas State. The Jayhawks were engaged in a nip-and-tuck battle with K-State for the Big Seven lead. Both went into the game boasting 3-0 conference records, sharing the league leadership.

Now the Wildcats' 4-0 mark places Kansas in the second slot with 3 wins, one loss. The two clubs will tangle again on March 7 at Lawrence, so Clyde Lovellette and Co. will have their chance for revenge.

Kansas State and Kansas are the only teams still having a chance to win the conference crown.

The new co-ed badminton club starts this Wednesday. This club includes anyone who is interested in badminton, and who enjoys good vigorous recreation with boys and girls. This club is a new idea thought up by the staff at Grant Memorial, and its success will depend upon the interest of the student body.

It starts at 7:15 p.m. and lasts until 9 at Grant Memorial. There is no cost and the only thing that you need to bring is tennis shoes.

Grant Memorial is really starting the new semester off with a bang. The big event of the week is the volleyball play-offs between the dorm and the Kappa Gamma's. Inevitably every year these two teams meet in the play-offs.

Intramural table tennis started last night. "Rosemary Amos is the chairman of this tournament."

Patsy Peters, the basketball sport head, announced that the basketball practices will start tonight. And the intramural tournaments will start in a couple of weeks. The practice schedule will be posted later. The girls' dorm won the bowling tournament.

Coach Ed Weir has announced that there is an opening for any student at the University of Nebraska who might be interested in the position of student manager of the freshman track team. It is still possible for any students who are interested in checking out equipment to do so if they contact Coach Weir at his coliseum office.

LOST CAUSE... Bob Kremke played a nice floor game and scored nine points as his green shirted teammates dropped a 63-45 scrimmage to their red shirted intrasquad rivals.

Gophers Meet IS Wrestlers

Fresh from their 19-9 victory over Wisconsin, the Iowa State College wrestling team will face a rough three-match schedule in the next week, according to Coach Hugo Ottopalik.

The matmen will meet a strong University of Minnesota. Minnesota is one of the top Big Ten squads and the Cyclones will be hard-pressed in every weight class of the contest.

On Jan. 30, the squad will meet the National Champions of Japan when the all-Japanese team stops in Ames on a tour of the United States. Again, the Cyclone wrestlers will be competing with the top experienced wrestlers of international note.

On Feb. 1, the Cyclones will meet Oklahoma University, national collegiate champion of last season, in a conference match. All of the matches will be held in the College Armory. Starting time for the meets is 7:30 p.m.

Encouraged by the showing of the Iowa State matmen to date, Coach Ottopalik says that the Cyclones will furnish tough opposition to any team they meet this season. The squad is inexperienced, featuring five freshmen in the lineup.

Coach Ottopalik will again face one of his former national champions when he sends the Cyclones into action against the Gophers.

Iowa State will probably use the following lineup, although late changes might be made: Lou Carson, 121; Beau Hazlip, 130; Sam Ruzic, 137; Bob Wilson, 147; Ron Larsen, 157; Bill Bollinger, 167; Bob Wirts, 177; and Mel Waldon, heavyweight.

Bob McKee Gold Gloves Contender

Bob McKee, University of Nebraska junior, belted his way through two fights in one night to garner the middleweight boxing championship in the 1952 South-east Nebraska regional golden gloves tournament held recently in Lincoln.

McKee, representing the Lincoln VFW team, decided on running mate Bill Burns and Carson Bracy of Offutt Field. The Lexington slugger's in-fighting ability proved the margin of his close decision from the Offutt veteran.

Fighting in the 157 pound class, McKee will compete in the Omaha regionals early in February. Providing he survives the Omaha tourney, he will travel to Chicago and New York for the national finals scheduled for some time in March.

A member of Delta Upsilon fraternity, McKee "hoped he would have the luck to carry him through the Omaha eliminations."

Bill Dudley of the pro-football Redskins kicked 10 field goals out of 12 attempts in the 1951 season.

Nebraska B Team Displays Scoring Punch In Scrimmage

Coach Tony Sharpe ran his Nebraska Nubbins basketball team through an intrasquad scrimmage as a preliminary to the Nebraska-South Dakota basketball game.

The red shirts, led by a scorching shooting by Gary Renzelman, Dave Fahrback and Murray Backhaus, sent the green-clad shirted squad home with a 63-45 trouncing.

Renzelman hit the hoop for 18 points and Fahrback and Backhaus both connected for 16 points apiece. The red shirts were able to connect on only 5 of 16 free throw attempts.

Bob Kremke, former Millard star, topped the losers by combining three baskets and three free throws for nine points.

Eldon Carmine and Lee Dobler each scored seven.

Cornhusker Cindermen Look Good In Opener Against IS

By TOM BECKER
Sports Staff Writer

The Nebraska track team ushered in the 1952 season successfully as they topped Iowa State, 64-10.

The young Huskers outscored the Cyclones 43-25 in track events as they won six of seven events.

Nebraska edged IS 21-15 in the field with sweeps in the high jump and broad jump.

Lee Moore, junior miler, led the Husker performers as he toured the mile in 4:26.2 breaking the old record of 4:30.2 by Christian-son of Iowa State in 1929.

Nebraska scoring was paced by sweeps in 60-yard low hurdles, high jump, and broad jump.

Bob Fairchild sped to a :64 in the 60-yard dash and Don Sterba landed third.

Dale Schnackel came from behind to win the 880 in 2:00.8, one of his best times. Schnackel was pushed all the way by Moore, who finished second.

Don Bedker was also an individual standout as he won the 60-yard high hurdles in :07.5 erasing Bob Berkshire's record of :07.6 in 48.

Dan Tolman led the field in low hurdles followed by teammates Don Bedker and Gaylord Smith. Tolman's time was :07.1.

Paul Grimm put the shot 48 feet 4 inches, the farthest of his career, for second place.

The biggest surprise of the evening was Bob Sand's 6 feet 1 1/2 effort in the high jump.

Gone are the days of Don Cooper and Leonard Kehl in the pole vault. Jim Hofstetter, Bob Selden, and Dick Wendt tied for third at 11 feet 6 1/2 inches.

He's far too sophisticated to be amused by slap-stick comedy! From the minute the curtain went up, he knew that you just can't judge cigarette mildness by one fast puff or a single, swift sniff. Those capers may fool a frosh — but he's been around and he knows! From coast-to-coast, millions of smokers agree: There's but one true test of cigarette mildness!

It's the sensible test... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke, on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...
