Final Skits Chosen For 'Follies' Review

Five skits and four curtain and convince them that bubble acts have been chosen for par-gum will never take the place of ticipation in the 1952 Coed Fol-their candy friends. lies. The skits and curtain acts were chosen by Associated Wo-Give To The Purple Badge Blood men's Students board members Bank!" Two college girls are deand faculty judges.

The organized women's houses that will present skits are: Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Love Memorial Hall, Pi Beta Phi, and Kappa Kappa

Bank!" Two college girls are defellow, still feeling sick, was sent back home. Sent back home. It seems that she had gotten their efforts are needed for the soldiers in Korea. They all contribute, but a little more is needed for the while his healthy friend was fully friend was put in bed.

Those presenting curtain acts will be: Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Phi, Sigma Delta Tau and Korea.

Alpha Chi Omega.

A short description of each of the skits and curtain acts is:

Sigma Delta Tau—"Up and Atom." A scene depicting the pards, circus roustabouts, and cotton and ton conductive a day at the circus. atom as very dangerous, and ton candy typify a day at the circus something we have to watch out cus with all its glamour, excitefor. It includes a dance of an ment and sophistication.

For the first time, tryouts will be held for between act entertainment at Coed Follies. The tryouts will take place Tuesday, Feb. 12, at 4:30 in the Union. If necessary, a second judging will be Thursday, Feb. 14.

Applications may be obtained from Sue Holmes, director of between act entertainment, at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, 1545 S Street. Miss Holmes stated that there are openings for singers, dancers, instrument players, and other types of short acts. She emphasized that tryouts are being held after the announcement of Follies acts to allow the participation of those who were in acts not being treasure chest containing rubies, diamonds, emeralds and pearls. All these are liberated from the 'Arsenic, Old Lace' chest by a mermaid.

She added that this entertainment will not be actually competing in the Follies; the tryouts are for participation.

Kappa Rappa Gamma—"Invitation to Immigration." A story about four immigrants who come to the U.S. to live. Each one goes For Friday, Feb. 8 to the U.S. to live. Each one goes to a different town to live—one to Hollywood, one to Chicago, one to New Orleans and one to New York. Dancers typify each town.

Delta Gamma—"Hannah in HaTemple.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" tryouts for three female and four male parts will be held from 3 to 5 p.m., Friday, Feb. 8, in 204

Delta Gamma—"Hannah in HaTemple.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" tryouts for three female and four male parts will be held from 3 to 5 p.m., Friday, Feb. 8, in 204

Nebraska To Give

Delta Gamma—"Hannah in Havanna." Hannah, who is all alone and looking for a man in Havanna, wows all the men with her singing. She finally decides to go out with the hot tamale man, and they do the samba together.

Delta Delta Delta—"Crisis in Candyland." Two children who prefer bubble gum to candy produce consternation and worry in the land where candy dwells. Red hots, pieces of divinity, peppermint sticks and other candys dance for the amazed children 28 and 29.

The three-act play by Joseph Kisselring has been adapted into one-act by Pat Loder, director. Tom Erwin is production manager. The comedy is about two swect, elderly ladies who poison an elderly single gentleman to reliev them of their loneliness. As part of this service to humanity, the prefer bubble gum to candy produce consternation and worry in the land where candy dwells. Red hots, pieces of divinity, peppermint sticks and other candys dance for the amazed children 28 and 29.

dance for the amazed children 28 and 29.

new regimental executive officer. Schreiner, senior in the College of Business Administration, was honored as a distinguished military student. He also saw three years service in the 82nd airborne division. He is in the military police corps.

Also a senior in Biz Ad, Bryant

is in the field artillery corps. Cady is a sophomore in Arts and Sciences college. A member of the infantry corps, he previously spent 14 months in the navy and is a distinguished military student.

Phelps, a senior in Engineering college, is in the engineers corps

and is a distinguished military student. Also in the engineers corps, McBeth spent 15 months in the 43rd engineering combat bat-

Robert Schreiner To Serve

As Regimental Commander

spring semester. Battalion com- cadet lieutenant colonel.

manders are Arthur R. Bryant, Frederic L. Cady and Richard L. ester and their offices are: Phelps. John P. McBeth is the William L. Betz, company

Robert E. Schreiner, ROTC appointed as Regimental S-3. Cadet colonel, will serve as regimental commander during the and McBeth have the rank of mander.

and bad colds, three University fellows decided that they need check-ups at Student Health. Following her usual practice, the nurse stuck thermometers in their mouths.

After checking their temperatures, she sent two of the fellows upstairs to bed, telling one of them that he had a tempera-ture of 103 degrees. The third to fill the bottle. It is filled with the contributions of the coeds just Theatre in time to catch the plane for Choose atom, with a choral speaking scene.

Alpha Chi Omega — "Fish bragged that she can do anything, well wednesday, Feb. 13 from 7 to 9 for account of the bragged that she can do anything, well wednesday, Feb. 13 from 7 to 9 for account of the bragged that she can do anything, wednesday, Feb. 13 from 7 to 9 for account of the bragged that she can do anything, wednesday, Feb. 13 from 7 to 9 for account of the bragged that she can do anything, wednesday, Feb. 13 from 7 to 9 for account of the bragged that she can do anything. Tales." An all underwater effect, showing two lobsters guarding a into gold. With the help of the elf, who makes her promise him her first child unless she can learn the first child unless she can learn the rest calls for 16 men and the rest call

"What kind of a leader are you?", with types ranging from the "policeman" to the "politi-cian," will be under discussion at the first annual leadership conference for all University students,

Lincoln are determined by the county boards.

Merit system officials report a

the merit service office.

Dairy Royal Applications

Cadet captains for second sem-service offices or directly from hour.

William L. Betz, company com-mander; Richard J. Dunklau, bat- to: 1306 State Capitol, Lincoln 9,

Thomas G. Irwin, battalion S-3; For Cows Due Saturday

James M. Winter, company parlors and inspect the herd.

talion adjutant; David B. Engel, Neb. battalion S-3; Clifford L. Hopp, company commander; Thomas E

Hruza, company commander

Roland R. Kaspar, battalion S-3; Leland W. Keister, company com-

Thomas P. McCarthy, bat-talion adjutant; John F. Mesmer, company commander; Thorwald L. Nelson, company commander; John D. Rairigh, company commander; Marion G.

Reis, company commander;

James A. Smith, battalion adjutant; Gladwyn A. Youngs, company commander; Frank Kneifl, company commander. commander; Frank J. definite shortage of qualified sten- off the conference will be William ographers. The cost and effort, B. Bogar, principal of Lincoln they said, to acquire the necessary skill for these positions would be paid many times over.

fices, Nebraska state employment be discussion groups and a coffee

Ag students who wish to show a dairy animal in the Dairy Royal livestock show are asked to turn their names in Room 208. Dairy Husbandry building, by Saturday, according to Charles Frederick, president of the Varsity Dairy club.

hour discussions will be: Sharon Fritzler, Peggy Mulvaney, Gene Robinson, Dee Lovegrove, Don Noble, Jerry Johnson, Shirley Ransdell, Wayne White, Mary Hubka, Elizabeth Gass, Gene Hubka, Elizabeth Gass, Gene Johnson, Al Blessing and Dean Linscott.

discussions.

The Dairy Royal, which is new at Ag campus, is a showmanship contest, and will be held Tuesday, March 4. It will feature an open that the public and they

Five types of leadership tech-rive types of leadership techniques will come under student discussion during the coffee hours. These will be: "policeman," "we-must-get-results," "politician," "good fellow," and the "democratic" type.

Taking charge of the coffee hour discussions will be: Sharon

George Cobel, assisted by Bruce Kendall, faculty member,

will lead the parliamentary pro-

will lead the parliamentary procedure group; interview procedure will be headed by Glen Rosenquist, aided by George Round, director of University public relations. Marilyn Coupe and Mary Mielenz will take charge of the discussion of mass

meetings and Juanita Rediger and Ken Keller will lead the group concerned with publicity techniques and public relations.

George Wilcox and Frank Hall-

gren, assistant dean of student

Applications should be mailed human relationships.

Ten AWS Board members and two faculty persons judged the skits Wednesday and Thursday nights. Jack Wenstrand, business manager of the University Theatre, and Helen T. Martin, instructor of physical education for women are the two faculty judges. AWS judges are Juanita Rediger, Marilyn Moomey, Janet Steffen, Sally Hall, Connie Gordon, Nancy Button, Jean Loudon, Sue Holmes, Virginia Koehler, and

it happened at nu... With the current siege of flu and bad colds, three University fellows decided that they need Coeds' Penny Carnival o Open Saturday, 2 pm

Inflation, that unconquerable universal giant, will be stopped dead in its tracks for two brief hours Saturday afternoon in the Union ballroom.

For 25 of them, any University student can spend an inexpensive afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. throwing darts, spinning wheels and pitching horseshoes at Coed Counselors Penny Carnival.

Sixteen booths will vie for attention from an expected 1500 to 2000 students. The booths, operated by women's organized houses, will also aim at attracting the customer's vote for the outstanding

Students will purchase 25 cent tickets at the Lallroom door or from persons in charge of any of the booths. After tickets have been punched six times by booth operators, the holder is eligible to vote for what he considers the outstanding booth. Any number of tickets may be bought, although there is no limit to the number of punches on each.

Student vote will count 60 per cent in the determination of the winning booth. Three faculty judges will account for the remaining 40 per cent. The judges are Maxine Trauernicht, instructor in speech and dramatic art; William Hice, days that professor of journalism; and Don Clifton, instructor of education, Proceeds from ticket sales will be used by Coed Counselors for the organization's freshman parties and programs next year, according to Mary Hubka, president. Activities include Freshman Week party, Friendship Dinner, Christmas tea, and second semester freshman party.

Various Types Of Leaders

FROM THE PAST-A booth from last year's Penny Carnival

tion of nine-by-seven-foot booth panels—a half day's job, according to Harry Vincent, job pool manager.

Conference, Feb. 16, To Discuss Early Saturday morning the panels and other lumber will be moved from the pool's west sta-dium office to the Union ballroom, but rather inconspicuous when where Coed Counselors will hold dropped into the $125,000 bucket of annual job pool business.

The entire quarter-million—in-Four workmen will construct

Faculty members who will help with the coffee hour discussions and Rex Knowles, Presbyterian morning at the College of Agristudent pastor, will also help with the coffee hour discussion.

Mortar Board and Innocent societies are sponsoring the leader—

The which opened intribute which opened in the college of Agriculture. The meetings are to continue until Saturday noon.

Dr. Roscoe E. Hill, chairman of the University's agronomy decipies of the university of the university of the second of the university of the u To Discuss ship conference. Members of these partment, opened the session with organizations planning the confer- an outline of the short course oborganizations planning the conference are: Jo Raun, Nancy Button, jectives. Kenneth Messenger, in Marilyn Coupe, Miriam Willey, charge of the aircraft and special Jerry Johnson, Gene Robinson equipment center for the US de-Military Training bill currently and Gene Johnson.

Miss Willey has emphasized that the conference is not designed primarily for students working in activities. The leadpredicted an even wider use of Representing the proponents of pest control in the future.

pest control in the future.

The spray operators heard distenberger, instructor in air ROTC, cussions on safety, regulations, limitations on aircraft and tips on spraying to avoid drift which Arguing against the measure may damage other vegetation will be Ruth Raymond, associate editor of The Daily Nebraskan.

will be held this Sunday from 5 will be a ROTC man, according to to 7 p.m. in the Ag Union lounge. Darwin McAfee, COA president. Said the first, "I'm studying All Ag students who wish to at-tend the dinner are asked to leave nated should be notified by his to be a big businessman and I'll probably be very rich some

Arguing against the measure

The day and a half's off-and-on work will cost Coed Counselors

cluding labor and supplies is spent entirely by University de-partments and organizations for their names in the Ag Union of-fice by Friday.

backers so that he can be present for the meeting, McAfee said. This fice by Friday.

The dinner is furnished and election procedure will be folprepared by wives of members of lowed for the first time this year. the Ag faculty. The Ag Union is helping with arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Antes have been named as chairman of Sunbern during the business meeting.

Radcliffe Offers Fellowships

Radcliffe college is offering two tion, management problems and full tuition fellowships of $650 each and the Edith Gratia Stedman fellowship of $300 to women graduates. The fellowships provide a year one year graduate course in personnel and business administration for the academic year of 1952-53.

The Radcliffe college manage-ment training program includes Further information can be ob-six months of class instruction tained from J. North Whitehead, NROTC: "The first time I was taught by the Harvard business management training program, a boat, I was terribly seasick." school faculty. Courses in human Radcliffe college, Cambridge 38, relations, personnel administra- Mass.

Her first duties will be to prepare a funeral for her late

two MIG's in a fight involving 17 American Sabres and 30

P.M. Headlines

Staff News Writer

Elizabeth Comes Home

LONDON - When she left monarch of the United King-London a week ago, England's new Queen was Princess Elizabeth. Thursday she returned sadly home to take over as

Two Down In Three Minutes

KOREA - Lt. William C. Shofner became a hero early Thursday when he met and conquered two Red jets over North Korea.

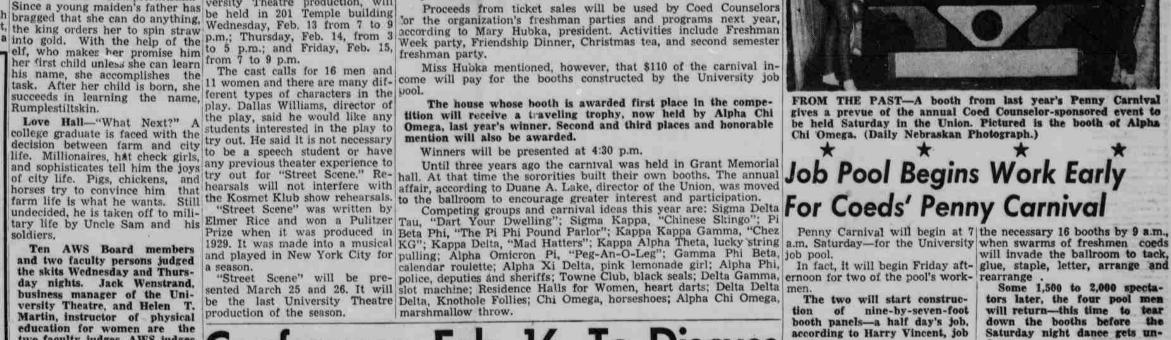

In the three minute battle, the Oklahoman riddled the Pilots reported cutting enemy lines in many points as the result of the raid which destroyed supply houses and rail lines.

New Ambassador To Russia wrote his Russian policy un-der the name of "Mr. X," re-ceived the nomination from the president and will be con-

WASHINGTON—The author of the policy of "containment of Russian communism" has been nominated ambassador to sidered by the senate in the George F. Kennan, who

Saturday night dance gets underway.

ership day will be open to all students, faculty members and interested persons.

than the intended weeds or in-

NU almanac

Campus age-guesser: "If they sects, look young, they're young: if they look old, they're old; if they look back, follow them."

Husker Poll: Four out of five women-haters are women.

Two college boys were discussing their future occupations.

Said the first "Tm stadying to the second sunday from NROTC and the secretary will be held this Sunday from the second sunday from the se look young, they're young; if they look old, they're old; if they look before Saturday. Blanks may be Taking the conference spotlight back, follow them."

before Saturday. Blanks may be Taking the conference spotlight back, follow them."

Hisker Poll: Fo

By STAFF WRITER

I'll make money while everyone

else goes in the hole."

As

Put away

you already know - comes

the weekend,

comes cool

weather. Lincoln weather

authorities say

to expect cool

air late this afternoon and evening, with the low near 20. Saturday may get back up into the high 30s. No really cold weather is in sight.

on a boat, I was terribly seasick."
ROTC: "Weak stomach?" NROTC: "Heck, no! I was throwing it just as far as the rest

Baby: "What is a girdle.

Father: "A girdle is a device

Ego Ed: "What's that you're used to keep an unfortunate situa-

Bud: "The title is 'What Twenty Million Girls Want'."

Ego Ed: "Did they spell my name right?"

only when it is in bottles. He: "Were you ever abroad?" She: "Sir!"

Modern youth respects old age

Appropriate remarks section:

tion from spreading."

this

Daddy?

reading?"

those picnic

The second squelched him with this: "That's nothing. I'm going to be an undertaker, and day night's dinner.

talion, eighth army. A senior, he is a distinguished military student. Norman G. Oliver has been public information officer. Groundhog Predictions Correct

Winter Returns At Ag Sno-Ball Friday

The groundhog's prediction of six more weeks of winter will be correct Friday night when the Aggies hold their Sno-Ball, the first second semester Ag dance. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. in the College Activities Building to the music of Bobby Mills and his orchestra. Tickets may be obtained in the Ag Union office and will also be available at the door. The price is $1.50 a couple.

The informal Sno-Ball is sponsored by the Ag Union dance committee, and is under the direction of Joe Edwards.

Highlight of the dance will be the presentation of the baby picture contest winner. The contest was held last week in the Ag Union. The idea of the contest was to identify as many of the baby pictures which zere on display in the Ag Union as possible. The baby pictures were of prominent Ag campus students, 10

BOBBY MILLS

house for the public, and they will get to see the new milking

The drawing for animals will be Saturday afternoon.

man, according to Jo Meyer, who is in charge of decorations. committee is Jeanne Vierk. The dance committee chairman is center of attraction on the dance floor. Completing the snow scene will be large snowflakes surrounding the snow-Sponsor of the Ag Union dance affairs, will preside at the meet-ing concerning election procedures. Evaluation procedures for activities will be led by Sara Fulton and Arthur Hitchcock of the University counseling serv-

Filings For AWS Board Positions To Open Tuesday

Filings for Associated Women hours to qualify them as bona Students' board positions open fide members of the class which Tuesday, Feb. 12, at Ellen Smith they wish to represent. (89 for hall. Five juniors, four sophomores, 53 for juniors and 27 for mores and four freshmen will be ophomores.) chosen in the spring election to 3. Have no scholastic delinquen-surrealistic picture to us, we realize that things can't be as bad as Candidates must meet the fol-be interviewed at a later date by "What's the matter with your senior AWS board members. The senior board members will select "Oh, I was over at the Union

Every time someone explains a serve as senior, junior and sophocies at the time of nomination. ize that things can't more board members during 1952-53. Filings will remain open until they are painted. Tuesday, Feb. 19. Candidates will

"What's the matter with your boys and 10 girls.

"cutest" baby will receive prizes.

The person whose baby picture is voted the "cutest" will also be sponsored by the Ag Union dance announced at the dance. Both the committee, under the direction of winner of the contest and the Jeanne Vierk and Fred Hosterman.

"cutest" baby will receive prizes.

Candidates must meet the folsenior AWS board members. The senior board members will select senior board members will select the candidates to appear on the getting some cigarettes yesterday and some clumsy fool stepped on this semester sufficient number of election.