Union At Ag To Sponsor Chili Feed

Chili feed for all Ag Union workers will be held Wednesday, March 5, in the Ag Union, according to Mary Lou Huse, Ag Union activities director.

The chili feed will mark the end of the Ag Union membership drive, which is now being held. Students may sign up for committees in the Ag Union office.

Ag Union committees are: Arts and handicrafts—Jo Meyer, chairman, Jean Holmes, sponsor, General entertainment—Don Lees, chairman; Bill Waldo, sponsor.

Dance committee—Wayne White chairman.

Hospitality and publicity—Don Leising and Glen Viehmyer, co-chairmen; Frank Sibert, sponsor.

Heart Association Grants NU Med School $2,500

The Nebraska Heart association has granted the University College of Medicine $2,500 to further the study of heart diseases. The money is a direct grant from the heart fund, which is accumulated from a statewide campaign.

Male Inhabits Campus Sorority House; Has Curly Hair, Lovable Disposition

AWS—take note! A male is living in one of the sorority houses on campus.

This male has dark curly hair and a lovable disposition. He is also an accomplished linguist, being able to understand three languages. According to reliable sources, he is rapidly becoming spoiled as a result of all the female attention.

The object of this attention is Caniche, a French poodle being used in the Kappa Kappa Gamma Coed Follies skit. Caniche (the word means poodle in French) belongs to Ann Griffis of Offutt Air Force Base, Omaha.

Caniche's method of entry into the United States was a little unorthodox, according to Miss Griffis. The poodle was brought in Paris while Colonel Griffis, Ann's father, was stationed in Germany several years ago. At the age of six weeks, Caniche was doped with a sleeping pill and brought to this country by airplane and Ann's father's "little black bag," the doctor's medical case.

His public appearance will be nothing new to Caniche. He recently won first prize in show and class in the dog show at Offutt. He will be taking bows again when he gets back to the base—because he became a father last week.

Caniche's language demands create a problem when Ann, who speaks all three languages, isn't around. He was raised with and understands commands in German best. He will tolerate the English language but seems to prefer French.

Caniche is enjoying University life and is little bothered by girls accusing him of having a Toni. HE knows it's natural. He is even obeying AWS rules—those pertaining to hours.

Sociology Prof To Read Paper At Iowa Meet

Dr. Allen P. Bates, assistant professor of sociology, will present a research paper at the annual conference of the Midwest Sociology society at Ames, Ia., March 20-22, according to Prof. James M. Reinhardt.

Reinhardt, chairman of the department of sociology and anthropology, said eight states will be included in the conference. They are North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska.

A number of research papers will be presented, he added. Bates said that the paper he will present will be entitled "Some Aspects of Social Ranking in a Face to Face Group."

The society, Bates said, is affiliated with the American Sociology society. Approximately eight members of the University sociology department will attend the conference, he added.

Engineer Presents 'Reservoir' Paper

George C. Ernst, chairman of the civil engineering department, Tuesday presented a research paper on the economy of concrete reservoirs at the opening session of the American Concrete Institute's annual convention in Cincinnati.

The paper, prepared by Ernst and instructors C. O. Brunken and A. R. Riveland, concerned "relative economy of conventional and prestressed reinforced concrete reservoirs."

The University faculty members spent three months preparing the paper last fall.

Nurses Association To Hear Hoiberg

Dr. Otto Hoiberg, associated professor of psychology will speak at the Nebraska State Nurses Association district three meeting Wednesday night at the Lincoln General Hospital nurses home.

The topic of his speech is "The Place in Which I Live." He will point out that it is necessary for a nurse to understand the community in which she lived in order to better understand her patients. Community relationships will also be bettered with this common understanding.

A film and business meeting will precede the talk.

NEW RULE

May Queen Candidates Need To File

This year, unlike previous years, candidates for 1952 May Queen are being allowed to file their own applications. Any senior woman who has participated in activities and has a 5.5 weighted average is eligible to file.

According to Peggy Mulvaney, co-chairman of filings and spring elections, the new system is to enable more outstanding women to file rather than limiting the number. Also, it affords equal opportunity to both affiliated and independent women.

In previous years sororities nominated candidates for the position. An all-junior-senior women election determines the outstanding senior woman and she is honored on Ivy Day as May Queen. The second high candidate is presented as maid of honor.

Applications will be accepted in Dean Hallgren's office from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Feb. 22 through Feb. 29. The date of the spring election will be announced later.

Cannon To Talk At Ag Better Living Series

Kenneth L. Cannon, assistant professor of home economics, will speak on "Adjustment in Marriage" at this week's Ag Better Living series at 5 p.m. Wednesday in the Ag Union lounge.

Cannon is an instructor in family relation and child development.

Wednesday's meeting will be the third discussion on marriage this semester. It is jointly sponsored by Ag YMCA and YWCA and Ag Union. Jean Holmes is in charge of the discussion.

Miss Holmes urged Ag students to attend the Better Living series and enter into the discussion, so that more ideas will be presented and better conclusions reached.

This discussion on marriage will be the last. It will be followed by a series of lectures and discussions on finance and leadership.

'Man Hunt' Dance Planned For Friday

A leap year dance, with "Man Hunt" as its theme, is scheduled for Friday from 9 p.m. until midnight in the Union ballroom.

Jimmy Philip's combo will provide music with Milli Grierson singing and Jimmy Koser playing the vibraphone. Tickets are 60 cents a person.

Charlotte Veta's social dance committee, with Jack Greer as committee sponsor, is in charge of the dance.

The Crib will feature a special drink Wednesday through Friday for the "Man Hunt."

According to Miss Veta, the dance is informal. Singles or couples are invited, she said.

it happened at nu...

R. J. Morgan, professor of political science, urged of his more witty students recently to pursue a course in the Law College.

In discussing civil rights, Morgan was presenting an illustration of "due process of law" in a California proceeding, in which a man was convicted of using narcotics after "evidence" was extracted with a stomach pump.

The student interrupted: "Would that be a violation of 'search without warrant?'"

Builders To Meet Wednesday Night

A combined city and ag Builders meeting has been called for 7 p.m. Wednesday.

The meeting will end a two-day membership drive on ag campus. City Builders will conduct its membership drive in conjunction with the Wednesday meeting.

Future plans for the campus-building organization will be explained by Miss Mary Mielenz, faculty adviser, and Dean Linscott, Builders president. Committee plans will also be discussed. Jane Calhoun and Jim Weber are chairmen for the meeting.

The meeting will be held in Parlors X, Y and Z, Union.

Ag Country Dancers To Meet Friday

Ag Country Dancers will hold a special meeting Friday night in the College activities building to decide on plans for remaining portion of the second semester.

Dick Kollars, newly elected president of the group, urged that all members be present at the meeting. It will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Dancing will be from 7:30 to 8:30.

Kollars also urged other students to attend the meeting if they are interested in square dancing. Ag Country Dancers meets each Friday, and holds one All-University square dance every month.

The Country Dancers are now planning for the Square Dance Festival, a meeting of all local square dance clubs, which will be held next month in the Coliseum.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 35..

THE LARGEMOUTH BASS

I'm a sucker for a left hook!

Always a sucker for attractive bait, our aquatic brother went off the deep end and got caught on the quick-trick cigarette hook! But he wormed his way out when he suddenly realized that cigarette mildness can't be tossed off reel lightly. Millions of smokers have found, too, there's only one true test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test—the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...
