

Cast Of 'Girl Crazy' Swings Into First Week Of Practice

By JAN HARRISON Staff Writer

"Rehearsal schedules are up on the bulletin board. Check the time of rehearsals and be there on the dot. Bring your music and dance shoes and be prepared to work, work and work some more."

Familiar? Well, it should be to anyone in the cast of the Kosmet Klub show "Girl Crazy." Production crews and directors of the show swung into action this week as the cast got their first taste of rehearsal.

Last week, behind closed doors, the directors mapped out their plans for the production of the musical. Pances were blocked out step by step, music scores were taken apart and put back together again to try and judge the length of time a chorus would need to learn the difficult score.

Individual blockings for the main characters were worked out on paper, with many an unsatisfactory drawing thrown in the wastebasket before the desired result was achieved. Lights, property, costume and stage crews were set up and ticket committees and publicity chairman were given orders to begin.

In short, the wheels are now in motion and will continue to turn at a breathtaking rate until the nights of production on April 24 and 25.

Dance routines for the musical will feature such scenes as a Mexican fiesta, a western setting of broncho busters, a bar room ballet called "Barbary Coast," and a blues song and dance to "Sam and Delilah." Dance director, Jack Moore, plans to work up a dance a week, blocking the steps the first part and polishing the routines the later part. Working out technical difficulties will be the hardest part, Moore says.

Chorus rehearsals have been held in the Temple basement prior to this week's schedule posting of the other sections. Director, Aaron Schmidt, reports fast progress and hard working chorus members. Some of the songs being worked on are "Look What Love Has Done To Me," "I Got Rhythm," "Sam and Delilah," "Barbary Coast," "Treat Me Rough," and "Embraceable You."

Rehearsals for the leads, according to Max Whittaker, head director, are satisfactory and enthusiasm is running high. Lines are already being memorized and the date of the first complete rehearsal will run according to schedule.

The show itself was produced on Broadway in 1930. Ginger Rogers starred in the leading role and comedian, Willy Howard, played the famous part of Gieber. This was the first show Ethel Merman appeared in and because of her smash rise to fame in the role of Kate, the song "Sam and Delilah" was written especially for her and was added to the original score.

In the early 1940's, Hollywood bought the rights to the show and filmed it with Judy Garland and Mickey Rooney. Since then all America has sung and is still singing the hit tunes from the show "Girl Crazy."

Students Start AFROTC Underclassmen Group

Thirty-three University freshman and sophomore air force ROTC students have formed a new organization called Command Squadron.

According to Don Dunbar, newly-elected president of the group, all basic air science students may become members.

Other officers are Gene Wells, executive officer; Frank Wells, adjutant; Bob Bruner, operations officer; Jim Weber, finance officer; Bill Doole, public information officer; Paul Ely, provost marshal.

The constitution of Command Squadron, drawn up by the charter members, is awaiting approval by the Student Council.

The purpose of the group, Dunbar said, is to promote the air force ROTC program, to advance the esprit de corps of the air force and to better prepare

Adams, Literas, Perrin To Supervise RCCU Blood Recruitment Delegates

Jim Adams, Carmen Literas and Jean Perrin were elected as Red Cross blood recruitment board members at the delegate meeting Tuesday.

Elaine Kagawa is the council-board secretary.

Adams will head the special events committee and is chairman of affiliate men recruitment. He is a freshman in Arts and Science. Adams represents Delta Tau Delta.

Miss Literas is in charge of Beta Delta files and is independent women's chairman. Representing Adelphi, she is a freshman in Law college.

Publicity chairman and affiliated women's recruitment head is Miss Perrin. She represents Delta Gamma and is a Teachers college sophomore.

Secretary Miss Kagawa will be in charge of delegate membership and council-board minutes. She represents International house. Miss Kagawa is a junior in Teachers college.

The independent men's chairman position is still open.

The council of delegates voted to set a minimum quota of two donors a month from each affiliated and unaffiliated house. Blood pledge cards must be submitted to the Lancaster Red Cross office by Saturday.

The University blood quota is 75 pints a month. Bloodmobile will visit Scottish Rite temple, March 31 and April 1.

A Beta Delta rally will climax this month's drive. The next blood recruitment council meeting will be March 25.

Jo Ann Bals, soprano, will sing "The Star," by Rogers.

Entries Due March 31 For Photo Competition

Photography enthusiasts have until March 31 to enter prints in the seventh annual Kappa Alpha Mu international collegiate photography competition.

Any student enrolled in the University is eligible to enter prints in the competition sponsored by the photo-journalism honorary. Photographs must be 8 by 10 inches or larger and mounted on standard 16 by 20 inch photo mounts.

Up to 10 prints with no more than five entries in each of the four classes—picture story, news, feature and sports—may be submitted.

Prints will be judged in both amateur and professional divisions. KAM members and persons earning at least half of their income from photography will compete in the professional division.

An 11 volume Encyclopedia of Photography will be awarded the portfolio winner of the professional class. The winner in the amateur class will receive a scholarship to the Photo Workshop at the University of Missouri, May 11-19, 1952. If his pictures emphasize college life, the winner in the amateur class will also receive a $25 bonus.

Certificates of merit will be awarded to first, second, and third place winners in each class of both divisions.

Entries will be judged and placed on display at the national convention of Kappa Alpha Mu, April 10-12, at the University.

Judges will be Larry Robertson, chief of the photography department, Omaha World-Herald; Neale Copple, assistant Sunday editor, Lincoln Journal-Star; and Wendell Hoffman, University photo service.

Entry blanks and contest rules may be obtained from Prof. Ray F. Morgan, School of Journalism, B-4 Burnett hall.

Home Ec Meeting To Feature Hat Talk

The four S's of hats will be discussed at a Home Ec club meeting Thursday by a representative of a city department store. The meeting will be held in the Home Ec parlors at 4:30 p.m.

Shell, scoop, skimmer and sailor are the four S's which are types of hats that are at the present particularly popular, and are coming into style this spring.

Jeanne Vierk, Home Ec club president, announced that there would be a short business meeting following the discussion.

Entries Due March 22 For 1952 Ivy Day Sing

Groups wishing to participate in the 1952 Ivy day sing, to be held May 3, must submit their entries by Saturday March 22.

Sponsors of the sing, Kosmet Klub and Associated Women Students, announced the deadline for entries and released rules governing the groups.

The entries must contain the name of the song, the name of the director, expected alumni help, and a $3 fee.

Women's groups should submit their entries to Pat Wiedman, 626 No. 16th street. Men's groups should submit their entries to Chuck Widmaier, 410 No. 17th street.

The sing is governed by the following rules:

1. All organized groups at the University, including independent and medical students with the exception of honorary groups, may participate in the sing.
2. No medleys may be used and songs must not exceed five minutes. The same songs must not be sung two consecutive years.
3. Alumni cannot take part in the singing, but they may assist in preparation, providing they have not been connected professionally with music.
4. All groups must remain after their participation for recall if necessary.
5. No special articles of apparel shall be purchased for the sing.
6. Each group will be permitted one hour of professional supervision by music faculty personnel, which must be registered with the sing chairman.

Secretariat Added To UN Conference

Something new has been added to the Nebraska University Council for World Affairs' mock United Nations conference.

A Secretariat headed by Secretary General Charles Gomon has been established. Modeled after the United Nations Secretariat the steering committee has been divided into five departments.

Elaine Smithberger will assist Gomon by performing the secretarial duties of the model conference.

Heading the department of research, Nita Helmstadter and her committee members will collect background information to aid delegates with this year's problems.

Marilyn Mangold has been chosen to direct committee members working on the public relation department. They will handle all publicity releases.

Duties of the department of conference procedure chairman, Pat Allen, are to draft assembly rules and to supervise the elections of discussion chairmen.

Allan Garfinkle is director of the department of technical arrangements. His committee will organize seating arrangements and room assignments.

Members of the Secretariat will be present in the NUCWA room on the third floor of the Union at all times during the conference. They will be available to answer questions by delegates.

The problems to be discussed at this year's NUCWA model conference are the veto, with proposals for its abolition or limitation, and the powers of the General Assembly.

Pharmacy, N-Club Petitioning For Council Representation

College of Pharmacy and N-club expect to present petitions to Student Council this week in an attempt to acquire representation on the council.

College of Pharmacy, which is now represented jointly with the College of Dentistry, is trying to get separate representation.

The petition must contain 500 signatures and be submitted to the Council by Friday.

Pharmacy college Dean Joseph B. Burt said Tuesday that 120 signatures had been acquired. He added that he was "fairly sure" that the petition would be completed by Friday.

The N-club is not now represented on the council.

At last week's council meeting, the motion to allow N-club representation was defeated by a 16 to 5 vote.

Ira Epstein, in charge of the N-club petition, said he expected to collect the petitions from various members of the committee which is doing the petitioning Tuesday night. He said that he plans to present the petition to Council Wednesday.

The N-club petition would have to be presented to general faculty committee on student organization for approval.

If approved, it would be submitted to students for vote.

Placement Registration

All Teachers college students, whether or not they are planning on teaching immediately after graduation, should register for placement in the teaching field.

James Thorpe, assistant director of University extension division, said that all individuals qualified to teach should register as a form of assurance for the future.

University Concert Band Tours Nebraska Towns

CONCERT TIME . . . University concert band now on a three-day tour of Nebraska communities. (Daily Nebraskan Photo.)

The University ROTC concert band left Tuesday noon for a three-day tour of six Nebraska cities.

The 90-piece organization, directed by Donald A. Lantz, presented concerts Tuesday at Fremont and Norfolk. Programs at Neligh and O'Neill are scheduled for Wednesday. The band will play at Albion and Central City Thursday and return to Lincoln late that night.

In each town the band's appearance is under the sponsorship of a local civic or school organization.

The band is traveling in two chartered buses and is accompanied by Lantz, Col. C. J. Frankforter, sponsor, and Miss Mary Augustine, assistant to the dean of women. Equipment and uniforms are transported in three station wagons.

This program in each town consists of 13 numbers. Two of them will feature soloists accompanied by the band. The four soloists making the trip are Bonnie Weddel, harp; Lewis Forney, piano; Denny Schneider, cornet; and Jack Snider, French horn. Snider is director of the university brass choir and the other three are students majoring in music.

The following numbers make up the program:

"Commando March" by Samuel Barber.

"The Roman Carnival" overture by Hector Berlioz.

"Death and Transfiguration" finale by Richard Strauss.

"Concerto for Horn" by Franz Strauss (Jack Snider, soloist) or "Hungarian Melodies" by Vincent Bach (Denny Schneider, soloist).

"An Outdoor Overture" by Aaron Copland.

"Rhapsody in Blue" by George Gershwin (Lewis Forney, soloist) or "Legend of the Redwoods" by Grace Vamos (Bonnie Weddel, soloist).

"Trauersinfonie" by Richard Wagner.

"The Blue-Tail Fly" by Clare E. Grundman.

"Comedians' Gallop" by Dmitri Kabalevsky.

"Marche Slave" by P. L. Tchaikowsky.

"Lift of the Latin" (Samba) by David Bennett.

"Hail Nebraska," featuring a male glee club and a musical take-off on "The Thing."

"March of the Steel Men" by Charles S. Belsterling.

Marches will be played by encores.

Last year's tour, the first since the war, was also three days in length. Concerts were presented in Kearney, North Platte, Sidney and Curtis.

The concerts are sponsored by the following schools and organizations. Fremont high school activities association, band and orchestra parents club of the Norfolk public schools, Neligh high school, O'Neill Lions club, Albion Commercial club and Central City Lions club.
