Parrot Tracks

By DICK RALSTON Staff Writer When an Englishman is told a joke, he laughs three times: first, to be polite; second, when the joke is explained; and third, when he catches on.

I've gained back a little confidence in the weatherman and I'll try to be a little more specific today. The weatherman in his views do not necessarily reflect those of The Daily Nebraskan.

Yesterday, a feature in The Daily Nebraskan poked fun at students who are late for 8 a.m. classes. This is no joke! It is a serious matter and faculty members are extremely unfair in their approach to the problem.

Four Pianos Featured In Tonight's Concert

Forty flying fingers and four pianos will be the center of attention Thursday night in the Coliseum.

The audience will be seated "in-the-round" to obtain maximum acoustics. Tickets for the quartet may be purchased Thursday in the Union activities office until 5 p.m. and at the box-office after 7 p.m.

When arranging music for the quartet, the members say they try to combine three things: 1. To preserve the musical identity of the original composition; 2. To make the four pianos sound like one instrument but of greater scope, variety and tonal effect;

Ernie Bebb is promotions chairman. Committee members are Stan Sipple, Shirley Murphy and Hal Hasselbach. Ticket sales chairman is Joy Wachal. Committee members are Bob LaShelle, Bill Waldo, Barbara Reinecke and Jack Greer.
