

CC Announces 144 'Sisters'

Coed Counselor board has selected 144 coeds as Big Sisters for the 1952-53 term, President Elizabeth Gass announced.

New Coed Counselors will be installed Sunday, April 20.

Big Sister work with women entering the University each fall in an effort to help them become acquainted. They also sponsor several parties for new students, a Christmas tea and Penny Carnival.

COUNCIL POSTS

More Filings Still Needed In 4 Colleges

Unless at least two candidates file for each position as college representative to student council, no elections for that college will be held. The same is true of junior and senior class offices.

In the Student Council filings, colleges which have filed double the number of representatives allowed will be voted upon, while those with one candidate for a position will not be represented on the Council.

Law, Dentistry and Pharmacy, and Arts and Sciences are the colleges with an insufficient number of candidates filing as of noon Wednesday. Agriculture, Engineering, Teachers, and Business Administration have well over the required number and elections will be held for these colleges.

The number of students who have filed from each college is as follows:

Arts and Sciences—four (two women, two men).

Agriculture—five (three women, two men).

Dentistry and Pharmacy—one man.

Engineering—six men.

Teachers—11 (eight women, three men).

Business administration—five (one woman, four men).

Law—one man.

The number of college representatives on Council will be:

Arts and Sciences—three (at least one man, one woman).

Agriculture—two (one man, one woman).

Dentistry and Pharmacy—one representative for both colleges.

Engineering—two.

Teachers—three (at least one man and one woman).

Business administration—two.

Positions for junior and senior class offices which need more candidates before elections can be held are: junior class—secretary; senior class—president and vice president.

Filings to date include:

Junior Class President—two.

Vice president—two.

Senior Class President—one.

Vice president—one.

Secretary—two.

Treasurer—two.

Coed Counselors—two.

Inter-Fraternity Council—four.

Men's dorm and coops—one.

Corn Cobs—three.

Builders—three.

Tassels—three.

Law Students Feted April 9

Law students having high scholarship and outstanding work in extra curricular Law college activities were honored Wednesday evening at the annual Law Association banquet at the Cornhusker hotel.

Seven seniors, all of whom rank in the upper 10 per cent of their class scholastically, were presented as new members of the Order of the Coif, national honorary law society.

They are: Lewis E. Pierce, William F. Fuhr, Jack A. Solomon, William J. Berquist, Donald R. Kanzler, Wilfred W. Nuernberger, and Marion W. Faddis.

Recognition was also given the following: The 1952 winners of the Allen Moot Court competition, Russell R. Strom, and Asa A. Christensen and the runners-up in the competition, John M. Gradwohl and Edward F. Carter, Jr.

The Board of Advisors whose members supervised the 1952 Moot Court Competition: Dean L. Donoho, chairman first semester; Harrison F. Russell, chairman second semester; Harold C. Prichard, John S. Miles, Donald L. Brock, William B. Brandt, Harry A. Curtis, Richard H. Tobler, Jay L. Dunlap, Richard L. Spangler, and Gladwyn A. Young.

The 1951-52 staff of the Nebraska Law Review, quarterly publication of College of Law students: Pierce, Editor in Chief; Donald H. Kelley, Fuhr, Solomon, William E. Morrow Jr., Donald R. Ravenscroft, Gradwohl, Emory P. Burnett, Jean A. Caha, Bruce L. Evans, John H. Faltys, William H. Grant, John D. Knapp, Robert J. Steininger, Charles K. Thompson, Paul D. Dunlap, and Robert W. Green.

Speaker at the banquet was Roy E. Willy of Sioux Falls, S. D., chairman of the House of Delegates to the American Bar association.

Guests included Chief Justice R. G. Simmons; Supreme Court Judges Paul E. Boudaugh, Elwood B. Chappell, Fred W. Messmore, Adolph E. Wenke, John W. Yeager, and Edward F. Carter; County Court Judge Harry Spencer; George Turner, Supreme Court clerk, and John Baylor.
