

ATO's Win Badminton Title; Singles To Deuser

By BILL MUNDELL
Intramural Sports Columnist

The 1952 intramural badminton tournaments reached completion Wednesday with the crowning of the All-University singles and doubles champions as well as awarding the team championship trophy.

Alpha Tau Omega emerged as team champion by the barest of margins as the Taus overcame the Presby House lead and edged the Presbys 30-29. Chuck Deuser of Kappa Sigma captured the All-U singles title and Bob Osborne and Bob Barnwell of Alpha Tau Omega were crowned doubles champions.

Deuser, who had lost to the champions in both previous years' tournaments, finally went all the way as he bested Osborne of the Taus in the singles final in two straight games. Osborne, who made the best individual showing in the tournaments by being on the championship doubles outfit and advancing to the singles final, couldn't cope with the nifty playing and terrific smashes of the champion.

Osborne and Barnwell also captured the doubles title in two straight contests, disposing of an independent team, Howard Doty and Bob Davey.

The ATO's grabbed three valuable points in the last three days of the tournaments to nudge into the team championship. Trailing Presby 27-29 with the last Presby entry eliminated, the Tau doubles outfit copped the title to narrow the margin to one point.

In reality, Osborne won the tournament for the ATO's in the singles quarter-finals as he defeated Dave Berger of the Methodist Student House. His victory pushed the Taus into a tie with Presby for the lead, but at the same time it clinched the title for his outfit because his next opponent was his teammate, Barnwell, and the champions were assured of the valuable point.

Following the Presbys in the final official standings came Phi Delta Theta with a 26-point total. The Phi Deltas held the lead throughout the first two weeks of the tournament, but faded in the furious finish and wound up third.

Capturing fourth place in the standings was Phi Gamma Delta with 24 points. They, too, were an early season leader as they trailed the Phi Deltas by only a point or two during the first week. Rounding out the top five teams is Kappa Sigma with 17 points.

The next five teams in order of finish were Delta Upsilon, Methodist Student House, Phi Kappa Psi, Cornhusker Co-op and Beta Theta Pi.

The Independents entering the competition tied the ATO's with a 30-point total, but since their total was the sum of all the men not officially on one team, their total cannot be figured in counting toward the team title.

Bob Osborne wound up the tournaments as the individual star as he was credited with scoring ten points. Seven of Osborne's tallies came in his singles matches while three came as his share of the six points scored by the Tau doubles championship team.

Deuser was only a point behind Osborne with nine points to his credit. Eight of his came via the singles and one from the two doubles victories his team earned.

Barnwell captured third place with eight points, five on singles and three on doubles while DuWayne Furman, an independent entry, was credited with 7½ points, six in singles and 1½ in doubles play.

The final 1952 standings are as follows:

Die-Hard Cubs Beat Bums; Nats Hit Lemon

Everyone, especially in the Eb-betts Field, is wondering just how long the dazzling Chicago Cubs are going to keep plugging away at the National league baseball lead.

The Colossal Cubs blasted the Brooklyn Dodgers, 7-2, and are now actually one-half game ahead of Chuck Dressen's boys, although they are behind in percentage points.

The Dodgers have won eight games and lost three for a .727 percentage mark, while the Cubs of Phil Cavaretta have ten wins and four setbacks for .714.

It was Johnny Klippstein going the entire route for the Cubs. This would have been a feat in itself for Cub pitchers of the past few years. Klippstein was hurling a shutout game against last year's National league pennant winners until the ninth inning when they got to Klip for two runs.

The Dodgers scored the runs when Duke Snider led off with a single and Andy Pafko, Carl Furillo and Pee Wee Reese followed suit. It was centerfielder Frankie Baumholtz who quenched the Brooklyn fire with a great catch of a well hit ball by third baseman Billy Cox into deep right-center field.

The Cubs got off to a fast start in the first inning when Ham-merin' Hank Sauer bashed a double into right field with the bases loaded. The Cubs scored three runs in the initial frame.

It was Ralph Branca who took the loss for the Dodgers and Klippstein the win. Branca now pos-sesses a 1-1 record and Klippstein a 1-0.

The Washington Senators arose to the occasion, playing before Mrs. Harry Truman and Margaret, and defeated the Cleveland Indians and ace Bob Lemon, 2-1.

Gil Coan's double and Frankie Campos' single in the 13th round of the marathon beat the tribe's left-handed fireballer.

Coan lined a screaming two-bagger to left and Campos knocked him in to break up a pitcher's dual deluxe between Lemon and the Senator's Sid Hud-son.

Cleveland got 12 hits off Hud-son's slants and the Senators got 10 hits off Lemon. The loss dropped the Indians to third place in the American league standings.

Cincinnati nipped a down-trodden Boston Braves ball club, 7-6, as Herman Wehmeier went all the way for the Reds.

The winning tally came in the seventh inning when big first sacker Ted Kluszewski hit a double, followed by a walk, a single by Dick Sisler and a wild pitch.

Wehmeier was credited with the win, his second of the season. Vern Bickford was charged with his second loss of the season.

The New York Giants trumped Mel Queen's deliveries and drove him from the mound in the third inning as they went on to whip the Pittsburgh Pirates, 13-5.

The Giants scored seven runs in that big third inning and Wes Westrum's third home run of the season and accounted for three of them.

Hank Thompson homered for the Giants in the fourth with no-ducks in the pond. All in all, the Giants gathered 13 hits.

Ralph Kiner blasted his sec-ond home run of the season with one man on base in the ninth inning. Jem Hearn went all the way for Manager Leo Duroch-er's outfit and garnered his sec-ond win of the season.

Righthander Duane Pillette took his place amongst the parade of potent pitchers possessed by the St. Louis Browns as he chucked a five-hitter at the Boston Red Sox and beat them, 6-1.

Dizzy Trout pulled a hot one out of the fire for teammate Art Hout-telman as the Detroit Tigers sneaked by the New York Yankees 5-4.

Trout came in to relieve Hout-telman in the ninth with none out and runners on first and third. Ole Diz retired the side and Hout-telman won another game.

Vic Wertz rapped out two homers during the course of the game. They came in the fourth and fifth innings and were his fourth and fifth circuit clouts this season.

Houttelman was touched for only seven hits and got in minor trouble in the eighth when the Tigers committed two errors. Johnny Sain took the loss for the Yanks.

Phi Dels Trip Sig Eps, 8-7; Ag Men, M-Streeters Win

Two consecutive base hits by Don Secord and Joe Carter in last of the sixth inning pushed across the winning run as Phi Delta Theta defeated Sigma Phi Epsi-lon, 8-7, in a second round soft-ball contest Wednesday afternoon.

The Sig Eps had forced the Phi Dels to play their half of the final frame after a brilliant rally in the last two innings overcame an 0-7 deficit and tied the count at 7-all.

The Sig Eps found themselves way behind at the close of the runs crossed the plate. Five hits, two walks and an error led to the victors' third-inning track meet. The winners added another tally in the fourth that set the stage for four Sig Eps runs in the fifth and another three in the sixth canto.

Phi Delt hurler, Kenny Fisher, limited the losers to eight hits, seven of them coming in the last two innings. He walked two and struck out none. The winners collected ten hits off Sig Ep pitcher, third inning as six big Phi Delts Dave Brandon, five in the big third inning. Brandon walked three and struck out none.

In first-round contests the Ag Men's Club and M-Street Boys advanced in the tournaments.

The Aggies staved off a last-inning rally to defeat the Psy-chology Department, 7-5. Four runs crossed the plate for the psych-ologists in the top of the sixth before the Ag Men could cut the output.

The victors had taken an early 1-0 lead and stretched that into a comfortable 5-1 margin after three frames. The eventual win-ning runs were tallied in the fourth on hits by Wilkins and VanVleck.

Tony Woolman, on the mound for the winners, gave up 11 hits but scattered them well until the final two innings when the psy-chologists collected six. Dick Tomlinson, hurling for the losers, was a little less generous with his safeties, allowing but nine, but the Aggies got them when they counted, bunching seven in the second, third and fourth frames.

VanVleck led the victors at the plate with three hits in three at-tempts. Leising garnered two more for the winners. Les Cohen, Firestone, Bacon and Hal Batt each collected two for the losers.

The M-Street Boys climbed all over the Presby House soft-balls for a 23-5 victory. The winners clubbed a total of 20 base hits, including eight for extra bases and six home-runs.

The M-Streeters started off fast, scoring four runs in the first and followed that up with five in the second, eight in the third and six in the fourth inning.

Bill Thayer, on the mound for the winners, limited the Presbys to nine hits, four of them going for extra bases, however.

Don Sterba led the victors' at-tack on Bob Parrish and Larry Schmidt with three homers and a single in four trips. Emil Radik clouted a pair of homers in four attempts and Jim Evans notched the other round-tripper for the winners. Schmidt and Scott Stock-ton chalked up home runs for the losers. Schmidt collected three for three during the contest while Stockton clouted a triple.

A Wide Throw

HOP, SKIP AND PRAY . . . Bobby Decker, Nebraska baseball team's third baseman, jumps into third base safely after a wide throw to K-State third baseman, Richard Meyers. The Huskers are hoping for such luck Friday and Saturday against Oklahoma A.M.

Buff Diamondmen Face Busy Weekend

Six Big Seven games in nine days—that's the docket for Colo-rado's baseball squad as it swings into the pithy part of its 1952 schedule this weekend.

Tossed into the thick of the league fight two weeks ago by a split against Big Seven and na-tional (NCAA) champion Okla-homa, the Buffs might well decide their pennant chances before the home folks as the tangle with Kansas, Missouri and Kansas State in successive two-game series. All are at home.

Here's the schedule: Kansas Friday and Saturday, both games starting at 2 p.m.; Missouri Mon-day and Tuesday, both games at 3; Kansas State the following Fri-day and Saturday, Friday's game at 3 and Saturday's at 2.

Presently the conference ap-pears a three-way fight among Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska with Colorado putting in its bid in event it hurdles the upcom-ing home stand. All four have been defeated but once.

Kansas owns a 4-1 league rec-ord, and Missouri 3-1 though Miz-zouri seems likely to boost that by two in a weekend series at Kan-sas State prior to making the jaunt to Boulder. K-State has a 1-6 record.

The Jayhawks suffered their first loss just this week, 7-5 to unpredictable Iowa State, then came on to set down the Cyclones, 15-14, in a 3½ hour marathon to stay in the race.

Loser in that ball game was Don Stonestreet, a junior right-hander from Wichita who figures to start Friday's contest against the Buffs. Stonestreet, victim of his mates' faulty play against the Indians, had a 3-0 record going into the game and currently has thrown 28 innings, giving up only one earned run.

Stonestreet likely will face Colorado's prize soph John Quinlan, winner of four straight. Quinlan ran his strikeout string to 35 in 28 innings with a 17-strikeout job against Fitzsim-mons hospital here in his last start. He's given up only 16 hits and 10 walks in the 28 frames he's worked.

Senior Phil Cohen, Frank Pren-tup's only returning starter, will pitch the second day against KU's Carl Sandefur providing Cohen fully recovers from a sore arm which has plagued him all spring. Tom Brookshier (1-2) will work the opening game against Missouri and Quinlan the second.

Another newcomer, Frosh Car-roll Hardy, will be called upon to provide batting power. The Buff football find, currently playing centerfield for the baseballers, leads hitters with a .467 mark, 10 hits in 21 trips.

Pros Win IM Kegling Honors; Kappa Sigs Take Second Place

The Pros all but lived up to their name as they walked off with the intramural bowling title.

The Pros rolled to a 2522 pin total to top runner up Kappa Sigma, with 2387 pins. Delta Theta Phi placed third with 2291.

The Pros were led by Bob Rosser and Jack Fuller. Rosser bowled a 593 three-game series and Fuller a 540 to take top hon-ors in this department.

Chuck Deuser led the second place Kappa Sig entry with a 509 series and Delta Theta Phi's Ward Zimmerman rolled a 507.

Zimmerman fired the best in-dividual game of the tourna-ment with a 226 effort. Rosser and Fuller came through with 207 and a 201 game respectively.

The Pros jumped to a com-manding lead after the first game and set the pace for the remain-ing two games. The game sum-maries:

	1st	2nd	3rd	Total
Pros	828	841	853	2522
Kappa Sigs	788	816	785	2387
Delta Theta Phi	813	761	717	2291

Nebraska's baseball team kept up its strong bid for the Big Seven championships with a pair of de-cisive victories over hapless Kan-sas State.

The K-Staters fell easily be-fore a 17 hit, 19 run barrage Wednesday, and took a similar defeat Tuesday.

The Huskers appear to be in good condition for their final pen-nant drive, and also have a good chance to grab the first place po-sition from the league leading Missouri Tigers.

The Tigers must meet the hard-hitting Oklahoma Sooners before their season ends, and may have their victory string clipped in that series.

The Missourians, who have shown a distinct weakness in their pitching staff on several occasions this season, will have to pull some fancy tricks out of their hat in order to tame the CU batsmen.

The University of Kansas is still in the running for the flag, with a record of four wins against one defeat. The Jayhawkers have been the only team capable of silenc-ing Nebraska's nine so far this season.

Kansas State is deep in the cel-lar position of the conference. The Wildcats have mustered only one win in nine league games this season.

Wes Santee Developing Into Modern Cunningham After Drake Showing

"How does that guy catch any-body? He doesn't look like he's moving."

That's the general impression of the grandstand fan when he watches Wes Santee, KU's new Glenn Cunningham, who melted the cinders to glass at Drake last weekend in firing Kansas to a new American Four-Mile relay record and new Drake Relays Distance Medley standard.

At least a portion of the lay-man's observation is correct. San-tee doesn't look like he's traveling fast enough to win from scratch, much less destroy fine competi-tors after spotting them 60 and 80 yards handicaps as he did at Des Moines. He doesn't reach out. There are no long bouncing strides.

The fact is that Santee has parlayed Finnish distance run-ning technique into what must be the swiftest sophomore miles ever unfurled by an American runner. He uses a shortened stride, keeping his feet under him and his body upright.

This technique is not widely employed by American runners. However, the nation's top levelers like Fred Wilt, Curtis Stone, Hor-see Ashenfelter and Don McEwen all run in this manner.

Most of these aces learned this style near the close of their col-egiate careers or beyond. Santee is a natural. He ran that way when Coach Bill Easton picked him off a Southwest Kansas ranch at Ashland two years ago. And the Jayhawker bossman, who enjoys high national reputation as dis-tance developer, has made over his young prize very little.

"All we've done with Wes is lengthen his stride about six inches and relax his arm action a little more. He is as naturally Finnish-style runner as you'll see."

"This style of running keeps the body weight over the legs dur-ing the entire race and maintains perfect balance thereby conserv-ing energy. It is a pushing-off run-ning motion rather than the pull-ing action which is most com-monly seen and used."

"Of course, nobody wins in any sport technique alone. Wes is a free, easy, rhythmic runner. He is so well coordinated in his style that you don't realize how fast he's traveling. Another thing, he has brought up on a ranch and has been used to hard work vir-tually all his life. On occasions he did a day's work before going to a track meet in high school. He's been willing to work hard to im-prove. He has the urge to be-come better. And he owns natural speed."

The latter statement is attested to by the lean cowboy's 49.7 quarter mile leg in the Mile Re-lay against Nebraska here two weeks ago. Both Cunningham and Bob Karnes, two previous Kansas mile greats, were close to 49.0 in the quarter.

For the record Santee was timed by Drake Relays referee Al Moreau Moreau, of LSU, in 4:06.7 for his anchor leg of the Four-Mile, and 4:07.2 on Saturday in the Distance Medley.

For comparison, Cunningham, now a farmer near Emporia, Kan., ran 4:11.1 to win the NCAA as a sophomore in 1932. He set a record of 4:14.3 for the old Big Six that year, which endured for 18 springs.

If you haven't heard enough listen to Tommy Deckard, Drake track coach and one of America's distance greats two decades ago at Indiana. . . . Said the former Hoosier mile. . . "Santee is the best prospect for a Four-minute Mile this country has yet pro-duced."

Wes goes to the post Saturday at Manhattan in the 35th KU-Kansas State outdoor meet as the Jayhawks seek to maintain an unblemished string of six dual wins. KU's record-shattering perfor-mances in the Drake Relays estab-lished four new school records. It's new American four-mile re-lay mark of 17:15.9 wiped out the old University record of 17:20.9 erected just two years ago by Cliff Abel, Herb Semper, Pat Bowers and Bob Karnes, at the Texas Re-lays. The new foursome also in-cludes Semper, who contributed a 4:14.5 mile in the No. 3 carry; and three sophomores, Lloyd Koby, Sedgwick, leadoff; Art Dalzell, Spring Hill, No. 2, and Wes San-tee, Ashland, anchor.

With John Reiderer, Holton Junior, opening; Dave Fisher, Mission senior, running second; Semper third, and Santee, the anchor, the Jayhawkers also hung up a new distance Medley mark of 10:01.8, thus erasing their 10:06.0 clocking at Austin less than a month previous.

The Mile relay listing of 3:13.1, which copped the title at Des Moines, also toppled the 3:14.7 standard which the same four-some of Don Smith, Don DeVin-ney, Reiderer, and Frank Cin-drich used to finish third at Texas.

DeVinney's intercollegiate standard of :52.4 in the 440-yard intermediate hurdles at Drake, also went for a new school mark, since there was no previous list-ing on the KU books.
