

Recognition, Honors Mark Ivy Day

Krasne Tapped MB's President

... 16 Selected

Sixteen careers of leadership, scholarship and service to the University were climaxed Saturday by the traditional masking of Mortar Boards.

Top on the list was Sylvia Krasne who was tapped as president by Sharon Fritzer, 1951-52 Mortar Board president.

Miss Krasne is a member of Associated Women Students, All University Fund board, Religious Welfare Council, Tassels and past president of Sigma Delta Tau. She is in Arts and Sciences college.

Krasne
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Second-tapped and vice president is Virginia Koehler. She is vice president of AWS, past acting president of Nebraska University Council on World Affairs, member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Pi Lambda Theta, Phi Sigma Iota, Delta Gamma and is in Teachers College.

Koehler
Courtesy Lincoln Star

Pinkerton
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Kellogg
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Cecelia Pinkerton, a Teachers College student, was picked as the new secretary. Miss Pinkerton is secretary of Builders, vice president of Tassels, member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Pi Lambda Theta, Newman Club, and Chi Omega.

Chosen as Mortar Board treasurer was Mary Ann Kellogg. Miss Kellogg is president of Tassels, member of Women's Athletic Association, AUF, Pi Lambda Theta and recording secretary of Alpha Xi Delta. She is a student in Teachers College.

Nanci DeBord was chosen historian. She is in Arts and Sciences college, is secretary of Coed Counselors, corresponding secretary of Student Council, Junior Class council, Alpha Epsilon Rho and Alpha Omicron Pi.

Joan Krueger was masked as publicity chairman, a newly created position. In Arts and Sciences college, Miss Krueger is editor of The Daily Nebraskan, president of NUCWA, president of Delta Sigma Rho, vice president of Theta Sigma Phi, member of Gamma Alpha Chi, University debate squad, Kappa Tau Alpha and past member of Builders. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta.

Other members tapped and their activities are:

Gertrude Carey—president of Barb Activities Board for Women, member of AWS, Religious Welfare Council and Pi Lambda Theta.

Doris Carlson—president of YWCA, University Debate Squad, Delta Sigma Rho vice president, member of Pi Lambda Theta, Phi Sigma Iota, Gamma Phi Beta and past president of NUCWA.

Adele Coryell—past managing editor of the Cornhusker, AUF and president of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Elizabeth Gass—Coed Counselors president, Home Economics club cabinet, member of Phi Epsilon Omicron and Kappa Alpha Theta.

Joan Hanson—AUF president, past president of Red Cross, 1952 Typical Nebraska Coed, member of Alpha Epsilon Rho, Newman Club, and Gamma Phi Beta.

Jean Holmes—Alpha Chi Omega president, past state Home Economics president and present council member, member of Phi Upsilon Omicron, Ag Union board and Tassels.

Jean Loudon—AWS president, member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Pi Lambda Theta, Union committee and Alpha Chi Omega.

Hester Morrison—YWCA vice president, member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Sigma Iota, Pi Lambda Theta, NUCWA, Religious Welfare Council, and Chi Omega.

Jessie Vierk—president of Home Economics club, vice president of Ag Builders, 1951 Typical Nebraska Coed, Ag Builders board and a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron and Alpha Chi Omega.

Artie Westcott—secretary of Tassels, vice president of Phi Upsilon Omicron, vice president of Ag YWCA secretary of Gamma Alpha Chi and member of Home Economics club.

Carlson
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Carey
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Gass
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Hanson
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Westcott
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Morrison
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Loudon
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Vierk
Courtesy The Lincoln State Journal

Pagentry Reigns

IVY DAY COURT . . . May Queen, Delores Lovegrove reigns over Ivy Day activities attended by her Maid of Honor on her right, Delores Irwin. In front of the Queen her court is (l. to r.) Page, Shirley Murphy. Attendants: Norma Westcott, Janet Steffen, Shirley Coy, Pat Beechan, Marilyn Bamesberger, Shirley Ransdell, Elizabeth Moodie, Marilyn Cook, Julie Johnson, Mary Lou Flaherty, Beverly Mann, Sue Brownlee, Sally Jo Speicher and Page, Georgia Hulac. (Daily Nebraskan Photo.)

Queen Lovegrove Rules Over Ivy Day Festivities

Wearing the pearl encrusted white satin crown of the 1952 May Queen Saturday was Delores Lovegrove, brown-haired, brown-eyed senior in Teachers College.

She reigned over the court of honored women and festivities at the 51st annual Ivy Day ceremonies held on the campus.

An art major, she plans to go into occupational therapy work after graduation. She was presented her crown by Delores Irwin, maid-of-honor.

The May Queen and her maid-of-honor were selected by secret ballot of junior and senior women, and her identity was not revealed until the court procession Saturday morning.

For her appearance as queen, Miss Lovegrove wore a gown of white satin. Chantilly lace trimming the front from bodice to hem in four panels. The skirt flowed into a court train and she carried out the Ivy Day colors of purple and yellow by wearing a gown of yellow lace satin.

The May Queen is past president of campus YWCA; member of Panhellenic Council; Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary; Pi Lambda Theta, honorary and professional education fraternity for women; Delta Phi Delta, national honorary organization for art students; and scholarship chairman of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Miss Irwin is past president of Women's Athletic Association; member of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society; and a Teachers College student.

Members of the Ivy Day Court included: Attendants: Seniors—Elizabeth Moodie and Shirley Ransdell. Juniors—Marilyn Bames-berger, Patricia Bechan, Marilyn Cook, Shirley Coy, Kathleen Dill, Mary Lou Flaherty, Julie Johnson and Beverly Mann. Sophomores—Sue Brownlee and Janet Steffen. Freshmen—Sally Jo Speicher and Norma Westcott.

Pages—Georgia Hulac and Shirley Murphy. Children in the court were: Lewis R. Anderson III, crown-bearer; flower girl; Susan Kay Jenkins, flower girl. The Anderson children are a granddaughter and grandson of Mrs. Louise Barr Anderson, The first May Queen.

Leaders of the Ivy Chain: Nancy Benjamin, Marilyn Clark, Clarice Finla, Mary Ann Grundman, Janet Ross, and Mary Sidner.

Leaders of the Daisy Chain: Barbara Bredthauer, Elaine Fish, Lois Gerelick and Ruth Raymond.

Jean Loudon, Con Woolwine Win Honors As 1952 Junior-Senior Prom Queen, King

Jean Loudon and Con Woolwine were chosen Saturday to reign as King and Queen of the Junior-Senior prom. They were elected by the electric recording of the applause of those attending the annual dance.

Miss Loudon, a junior in Teachers college, was nominated for the honor by Delta Tau Delta fraternity. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega.

Woolwine was nominated by Delta Delta Delta sorority. A senior in the College of Business Administration, he is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

The 1952 King and Queen were selected from a group of twelve finalists. They were each presented a crown which is a traveling trophy for the Junior-Senior royalty. Bob Swaim senior class treasurer presiding in the absence of President Joe Gifford, presented the new queen with a dozen red roses.

The candidates entered the ballroom in couples and were introduced by Swaim. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Carson and Sgt. and Mrs. Henry O'Neil, faculty chaperons, took the readings from the applause meter to determine the finalists.

Serving as a court for Miss Loudon and Woolwine were the other candidates—Mildred

Yeakley, Pat O'Brien, Marilyn Peterson, Jackie Sorenson, Dolly McQuiston, Jack Cohen, Bruce Hendrickson, Don Winkelmann, Gene Robinson and George Wilcox.

Dave Haun and his orchestra furnished the music for the traditional dance. It was sponsored by the members of the Junior and Senior class officers and the class councils.

For the first time, the Prom was planned as a climax to the events of Ivy Day. This was also the first time that a King had been selected to reign with a Queen for the dance.

NU Leaders

NU WHEELS . . . Dr. Nathan Blumberg, Ivy Day master of ceremonies awaits his next cue while Dr. T. J. Thompson, Dean of Student affairs, chats with Innocents president Jerry Johnson.

Musical Notes

Alpha Phi, Sigma Chi Win Sing Competition

Alpha Phi, using a song about its sorority, "Alpha Phi Sweetheart," and Sigma Chi, singing a spiritual, "Jonah," took the top two places in Ivy Day sing competition Saturday afternoon.

Sixteen inch loving cup traveling trophies and a plaque were given to two winners. Plaques were also given Delta Delta Delta, Beta Sigma Psi, second place winners and Pi Beta Phi, Tau Kappa Epsilon, third place winners.

The Tri-Delta sang "Delta Dream" while the Beta Sig won with "De Animals A-coming." "Wonderbar" was the title of the Pi Phi number. The other third place number was "Baby-Don's Falling."

It was the second triumph in as many years for the Sigma Chi director, Charles Curtis. Marcia Ireland lead the Alpha Phi song with Janice Fullerton and John Nelson conducting the second place winners. Nancy Norman and Bob Van Voorhis lead the third place winners.

Virginia Cooper representing Associated Women Students presented the trophies to the winners in the women's competition.

Two Pinmates Couples Tapped As Innocents, Mortar Boards

BY DICK RALSTON
Feature Editor

Pinmates Artie Westcott, Don Noble and Cecilia Pinkerton, Dean Linscott had ample reason for rejoicing Saturday night.

Artie and Cecilia were masked for Mortar Board during the Ivy Day ceremonies and Dean and Don were tackled for Innocents—a fact in itself quite a coincidence.

But the laws of chance were dealt an even greater blow Saturday. Artie and Don are both from Holdrege and although Dean hails from Blue Springs while Cecilia is from Beatrice they both went to Beatrice High School.

Innocents Tackle Number 1—Noble

... 13 Successors

The Innocents couldn't find their men. The Thirteen crossed and re-crossed through the Ivy Day throng and still were unable to locate all of their junior successors.

Ten minutes later, the Innocents reassembled. President Jerry Johnson went after his man. He walked around one side of the crowd, crossed to the other side, shifted, retraced his steps.

And then he tackled Don Noble, new president of Innocents Society.

Successfully tackled were Wayne White, vice president; Dean Linscott, secretary; Arnold Stern, treasurer; and John Greer, sergeant-at-arms.

Other tapped Innocents were Dan Tolman, Glenn Rosenquist, Robert LaShelle, Marty Lewis, Art Becker, Ira Epstein, Bill Adams and Don Pieper.

Former Gov. Dwight P. Griswold of Scottsbluff and Lt. Gov. Charles Warner of Waverly were announced as new honorary Innocents by Bob Mosher, former Innocent and announcer.

Noble, College of Pharmacy, is president of Corn Cobs, business manager of the Cornhusker, member of Student Council, University band, and of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

White, Ag college student, is treasurer of Student Council, president of Ag Executive board, manager of Coll-Agri-Fun board, Ag Union committee chairman, and vice president of Farm House fraternity.

Linscott, Ag student, is president of Builders, business manager of Cornhusker Countyman, member of Student Council, and vice president of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

Stern, freshman law student, is assistant business manager of The Daily Nebraskan, Interfraternity Council treasurer, and president of Zeta Beta Tau fraternity.

Greer, Teachers college, is a member of swimming team, junior class treasurer, president of Arnold Air society, and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Tolman, business administration, is vice president of Corn Cobs, Varsity track team, junior class secretary, KNUS sports director, and secretary of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Rosenquist, arts and sciences, is vice president of Interfraternity council, member of the Board of Student Publications, junior class council and treasurer of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

LaShelle, business administration, is president of Red Cross College Unit, University convocations committee, and Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Lewis, business administration, is treasurer of Corn Cobs, president of junior class, assistant business manager of 1952 Cornhusker, and vice president of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Becker, Ag student, is a member of University band, Alpha Zeta Chronicle, president Voc Ag association junior offices, president of Ag Lutheran Student association, president of midwest region Lutheran Student association, and member of Farm House fraternity.

Epstein, arts and sciences, is Yell King, Student Council secretary, Yell Squad advisory board and president of Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity.

Adams, business administration, is historian of Kosmet Klub, vice president of junior class, treasurer of Red Cross College Unit, and Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Pieper, arts and sciences, is managing editor of The Daily Nebraskan, vice president of Sigma Delta Chi and a member of junior class council and of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Coed Chem Group Initiates Members

Iota Sigma Pi, women's chemistry honorary, initiated four new members Tuesday, April 28.

Those initiated were, Annette Luebers, Bernadine Robb, Alice Joy Heiss and Anna Thurston. After the initiation ceremony all members attended a dinner and meeting.

Dr. O. J. Webster, of the University agronomy department, addressed the group. Dr. Webster has returned recently from a year's stay in Nigeria.

Heels Up

INAUGURATION CEREMONY . . . Don Noble, Innocent president, elect, goes down before the flying tackle of Jerry Johnson, president of the society. (Daily Nebraskan Photo.)

Surprise!

NEW PREXY . . . Sharon Fritzer hastily slips a black mask over her chosen successor, Sylvia Krasne, as president of Mortar Board. Another Mortar Board scolding the masking is Audrey Rosenbaum, alumna. (Daily Nebraskan Photo.)