

Lutheran Student House Beats '51 Softball Kings

By BILL MUNDELL
Intramural Sports Columnist

A new All-University champion will be crowned in intramural softball this year. The Lutheran Student Association saw to that Wednesday afternoon as the Lutherans upset highly-touted Practical Arts in the quarter-finals of the Independent playoffs by a 5-3 score.

Behind the terrific clutch-hurling of Denny Saughstad, the Lutherans staved off threat after threat. The Arts men outdid the winners 9-4, but Saughstad kept the hits well spaced while the Lutherans bunched their four in the first two frames.

The losers garnered two hits in each of the second, fourth, fifth and sixth innings but could do no effective damage. A pair of LSA errors following the two hits in the fifth frame paved the way to the bulk of the PA runs.

The winners cashed in heavily in the first inning when three big runs crossed the plate. With one out, Jerry Larson cracked a single to left and advanced to second as Bob Mortvedt drew a base on balls. Bernie Wallman, who already owns two grand-slams homers during the abbreviated season, then welded his mighty bat and drove the ball deep down the first base-line for a three-run round-tripper.

Saughstad scored what proved to be the winning run in the second canto as he lashed a double to left field and then came all the way around as the left-fielder booted the ball. He would have undoubtedly scored anyway as the next batsman, Ned Luther, slammed a long single to left for the winners' last hit of the game. It was all they needed, however, as Saughstad kept the Arts sluggers well under control. The Lutheran chucker struck out five while issuing no bases on balls.

Only Joe Ponceigo solved the LSA hurling as he cracked out three consecutive hits and drove in one run. Don Weber, on the mound for the losers was gully of four bases on balls while striking out a like number.

While the Practical Arts were feeling the axe, another top contender for the big crown was likewise getting their hopes doused. Cornhusker Co-op, All-U champion of two years ago, found themselves on the short end of their quarter-final contest with rejuvenated Delta Tau Delta.

The Delta's outfit 4-5 by the Coco boys, used two walks and a four-base error in the fifth inning to tally three runs and win the game by a 6-5 score.

The victors scored first in the third inning by pushing across three runs on the strength of two walks, two stolen bases and two singles. Cornhusker narrowed the gap with a pair of runs in their half of the same frame with two walks and a double by Stu Nelson. The Cocos sandwiched two singles around two Delt errors to take a 5-3 lead in the last of the fourth to set the stage for the winning rally in the fifth frame.

Karabotsos and Matheson led off with walks and after two quick strikeouts, George Paynich lofted a high fly to right field that was dropped and then booted while all three runners came home to victory.

Delt Keith Skalla and Cornhusker Stu Nelson kept on even terms in their pitching duties, with that big error hurting Nelson's efforts. Skalla walked nine and struck out three while Nelson walked four and struck out six. Both pitchers led their respective teams in hitting also, both men garnering two hits.

Ag Men's Club advanced to the semi-finals of the Independent tourney with a slashing 10-0 victory over Presby House.

Rich Jiskra posted a one-hit victory for the Aggies while his mates clubbed seven off Presby starter Kent Kelley and reliever Larry Schmidt.

Only catcher Jim Jenney of the losers could muster a hit off the slants of Jiskra, Jenney clouting a clean single to right in the third inning. The Aggie hurler walked one and struck out three.

Niemeler and Van Vleck led the winners at the plate with two hits apiece.

Alpha Tau Omega kept on the winning trail by winning their quarter-final contest from Theta Xi, 22-16. The Taus found out what the Delta Sigs had learned in the previous Theta IX game, that it is virtually impossible to retire the TX men in the final inning.

Theta Xi pushed six runs across in that last frame before succumbing to superior forces.

The ATO's kept a slim lead from the first inning until the fourth when the Xi's tallied twice and grabbed a 10-9 lead. The winners quickly regained the lead with seven runs in the fifth and six more in the sixth.

Oddly enough in a game that produced 38 runs, there were only 11 hits, seven by the winning Taus. In the game that was anything but well played, there were 14 walks by Theta Xi pitcher Shelby Johnstone and 17 walks by Tau hurler Dick Watson. Johnstone hit one batsman while Watson struck four. The Taus were guilty of eight errors while Theta Xi was erring six times.

Verl Scott was the leading batter for the winners with three of their seven hits while Bill Weber pounded out a two-run homer in the second inning and Leo McKillip clouted a four-bagger in the first. Al Blaha got half of the TX hits with a pair of singles.

The Baptist and Methodist Student House also engaged in a wild scoring orgy that saw the Baptists advancing to the semis with a 24-13 victory. The winning sluggers clouted a total of 21 base hits while the Methodists were collecting 15 safeties.

The first seven up in the Baptist second slammed out hits and before the inning was over they had collected 11 hits and 11 runs and victory. Both teams scored in every inning except the top of the fifth for the Methodists.

Jim Skinner, on the mound for the winners, was reached easily by the Methodist batsmen, but never to the extent of placing him in jeopardy of losing. He walked 13 and struck out two. His opposing hurler, Dick Satterfield, walked eight and struck out one.

Bob Almen, Fred Spann and Bill Larson each collected four hits during the spree. Merlyn Vanderbeak helped the Baptist cause with three safeties. Ken Ericson and Dick Hunt each hammered home-runs, both of them driving in three runs.

Wood and Bygland each rapped out three hits for the losers while only one man from each of the two teams went hitless.

Spike Dannehl hurled a masterful three-hitter as Beta Sigma Psi shut out Phi Delta Theta, 10-0. Dannehl allowed singles in each of the first, third and fourth innings to register the victory. Only two men reached third base for the Phi Delt and only three got as far as second as the Spiker sent six down swinging.

Meanwhile his Beta Sig mates were tagging Ken Fisher for eight hits and scoring seven runs in the first two frames.

Kroeller led the winners in batting with three consecutive hits while Dannehl helped his own cause with two for two. D. Toebben and Les Roberts cracked out consecutive homers in the fourth inning, Toebben's good for two runs.

Wahl, Carter and Roper were the men responsible for the Phi Delt hits.

The other quarter-final result of the day saw Delta Sigma Pi getting a surprise forfeit from the Dental College Freshmen.

Friday's semi-finals will find Beta Sigma Psi opposing Acacia and Delta Tau Delta meeting Alpha Tau Omega in the fraternity division while Delta Sigma Pi faces the Baptist Student House and Ag Men's Club battling the Lutheran Student Association.

The Acacia-Beta Sig game rates as a toss-up with the winner being stamped as favorite to take the fraternity title. Both outfits are hard-fighting and appear capable to handle the winner of the Taus and Delta, which should be Alpha Tau Omega.

The Independent winner should come out of the Lutheran-Ag Men fray with any edge going to the Lutherans because of their stopping of Practical Arts. The Baptist batting and Delta Pi pitching should cancel each other out with the victory in this contest going to the team presenting the best fielding.

Chicago Nips BoSox; Giants Smack Cards

It was Saul Rogavin who pitched a five-hitter as the Chicago White Sox thumped the American league leading Boston Red Sox, 4-2.

Eddie Stewart bopped his third home run of the current season and a two run clout at that, to allow the faltering ChiSox to come through with their first win on the three game series with the Red Sox.

Trailing 1-0 in the fourth inning, Manager Paul Richards crew scored two runs as first baseman Eddie Robinson hit a single with one man down.

Sam Mele came through with a long triple to right field to score Robinson and then Mele scored when catcher Phil Masi blooped a single into the centerfield pastures.

Ray Scarborough was just catching his breath in the seventh inning when Teddy Lepcio fumbled with a well belted ball off of the bat of Nelson Fox. The peg was wide and Nellie was safe at first.

Then came the climaxing point in Scarborough's downfall Up stepped Eddie Stewart and out went the ball over the right field stands on the second pitch.

Manager Al Lopez is probably patting himself on the back tonight for switching Ray Boone to the clean up spot in his Cleveland Indian batting order.

Boone came through with a home run and a single in driving in five runs and leading the tribe to a 12-5 shellacking of the New York Yankees.

Bobby Feller received the credit for the win as his mates backed him up with plenty of base hits. The win allowed the Indians to sweep their three game series from the Yanks.

Eddie Lopat took his second defeat of the season as the Indians got to Lopat after five innings. The tribe collected seven hits off their one time jinx and caused Lopat to lose to the Indians for the ninth time in his major league career. He's beaten the Indians 33 times.

The Washington Senators and Detroit Tigers were fighting hard but both lost the battle to old father time as the two teams ended in a 4-4 deadlock after 11 innings.

The game was called because the Tigers had to catch a train. It took three hours and 45 minutes to play the deadlock.

The Tigers scored two runs in the third innings and two more in the eighth. The Senators managed runs in the fifth, seventh, eighth and ninth frames.

The St. Louis Brownies played a never-say-die ball game as they nipped the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-8.

Jim Rivera slammed a circuit clout into the left field stands to give the win to the Brownies after they rallied from a five run deficit.

Manager Rogers Hornsby used a total of four chuckers to keep the Browns in the game and low and behold, ole Satchel Paige, sailing but still able, gained credit for the win.

On Mound

RAY NOVAK . . . He'll be on the hill for the Cornhusker baseball team this afternoon as Coach Tony Sharpe's boys go to war with the Iowa State Cyclones. Novak will be seeking his fifth win without a defeat today.

Bright Future

FRESHMAN MERCURY . . . Brien Hendrickson ranks as one of Coach Ed Weir's top sprinters this year. Hendrickson, former state gold medal winner in the sprints, was clocked in under 10 seconds in placing behind Kansas State's Thane Baker last Tuesday.

Nubbins Baseballers Meet Wesleyan Next

Coach Ed Berg's Nebraska B baseball team will swing into action Monday when they meet the Nebraska Wesleyan varsity at the Wesleyan baseball diamond. Game time is 4 p.m.

The Wesleyan nine is undefeated in the Midwestern Five conference and lost to the Husker Nubbins, 2-1 in their meeting during the earlier part of this season.

Coach Berg has indicated that he will start either Ray Wiegert or Ron Smith on the mound for the B team. Wiegert is a right handed chucker and Smith fires them southpaw. He is expecting to use both during the course of the game.

The B team's tentative starting lineup for the game:

- Shortstop . . . Al Kaarle
- Second base . . . Dan Brown or Leonard Singer
- Centerfield . . . Dennis Korinek
- Third base . . . Fred Seger
- Rightfield . . . Walt Finke
- Leftfield . . . Don Becker
- First base . . . George Mink
- Catcher . . . Chuck Jensen

ED BERG . . . His Nebraska B baseball team will be out to beat Nebraska Wesleyan for the second time Monday.

Golf shot of the early spring is Don Fambrough's 8-iron pitch into a bird nest on the local sand greens course here. Playing with Head Football Coach J. V. Sikes and Backfield mentor Cliff Kimsey, the other evening, the young line assistant tried to pitch to the green over a tree. The resultant short carry dropped the ball squarely in the nest.

End Coach Wayne Replogle won his fifth prize in five years at this placing third with a painting of the Padre Trail and Verde River in Arizona. Arch Unruh, junior won no prize but had offers to purchase two of his copper etchings from the same show.

"We tried to make him play it out," laughed Kimsey, "but he wouldn't do it. Under Coaches' rules it didn't cost him a stroke anyway."

Two other meet marks, both excellent, also will be in peril. KU's Herb Semper, and Fox, figure to crack the 4:20.2 listing Semper erected two years ago. The sturdy Kansas redhead will by-pass the Mile this week and might gallop as low as 9:15.0. Fox, Drake Reilays' champion at 4:18.2, is capable of getting under 9:15.0 also.

Tiger Captain Bob Gordon is a good bet to topple his own ceiling of 6-4 1/2 in the high jump. He swung over 6-6 1/2 against Indiana marking his third consecutive performance over 6-6.

Kansas will get favored to snap a string of four straight MU triumphs in the series while extending its own dual meet skein to eight in succession. Bill Easton's troupe hasn't been beaten in a face-to-face match since the 1951 indoor season.

Intramural Spring Golf Title To Phi Delt; Bob Voltz Leads

Phi Delta Theta captured the intramural spring golf tournament last weekend with a six-man total of 518. The tourney, scheduled for two successive Saturdays, was cut to one outing because of the limited entry list.

Phil Delt Bob Voltz took individual medal honors with a one-over-par 73 over the 18-hole course. Runner-up in the individual firing was another Phi Delt, Louis Roper, who shot a 75 during the tourney.

The Kansas-Missouri dual, frequent producer of the Big Seven's best mile times, is likely to toss out another scorcher Saturday morning when the Jayhawks and Tigers collide for the 45th time at Columbia.

Breaking 4:09.0 in his last three starts, Wes Santee, KU's newest mile phenom, is the prospective leveler this time. And the way the Ashland Cowpoke has been running only a rainstorm can save Bill McGuire's glittering meet standard of 4:10.7.

The lean Tiger erected this mark two years ago in his memorable race with Bob Karnes. The latter recorded 4:10.9 in the same race, also fracturing John Munski's former standard of 4:11.6. It is notable that all three of these times were below the present conference standard of 4:11.7 which McGuire hung up last May on his home track.

The meet Mile record was hammered down to 4:20.3 as early as 1933 when Glenn Cunningham paced three seconds off his own 1932 mark. Munski pushed it down to 4:16.6 for Missouri in 1938 in a dust storm at Columbia then pressed his 4:11.6 two years later.

Now comes Santee, the terrific sophomore. He blazed 4:08.8 last Saturday to establish a new meet record against Kansas State. He unfurled even more torrid stretches of 4:06.7

The Alpha Chis beat the Kappas to win the intermural basketball tournament this year.

The intermural soft ball tournament is now underway. Although it rains once a week, it is on a game night; and through many defaults a few games have managed to be played. Some of them are: the Kappa Delt second team defeated the AOP first team 14-6.

Wesley has defeated the Theta second team 26-10; and the Delta Gamma second team beat the Lutheran Student association 12-10. Wesley house has also defeated the Kappa first team by the large score of 35-7.

The Kappa first team also defeated the Sigma Delta Tau team by another very large score 23-1.

The doubles badminton tournament is also progressing rather rapidly. Some of the girls still in the third round of the tournament are Caarly Rogers, and Lois Olson Sigma Kappa; Ann Griffiths and Pat Loder Kappa, Jackie Griffiths, and Kay Christoffel Alpha Phi, Denny Bohrer and Joe Peck Alpha Phi, Ginny Noble, and Kathryn Haskell Theta, plus Joan Savage and Jean Fowler from the Chi O house. Barbara Hemphill and Marilyn Preuss also from the Chi O house, Carmean Boyer, and Maril Mooberry, Kappa, and Dorothy Camp, Marli Reddy, Kappa Delt.
