

First Round Tennis Play Scheduled For This Week

Nine Entrants Vie For Championship Medal In 3 Rounds

Pairings To Be Posted

Finally enough entrants have been obtained so that at least one portion of the planned Summer Sports program can be carried out.

Nine individuals have registered for the tennis tournament which will begin the latter part of this week.

Ed Higginbotham, summer sports director, said that all first round tennis matches must be played by Monday of next week. Three rounds will be played before the tournament is completed.

A medal will be presented to the winner of the tennis tourney, which will be held on the University courts, west of the Physical Education building.

All pairings for the tourney will be posted on the bulletin board in the P. E. building.

Because of a lack of interest, the previously scheduled softball and table tennis tournaments were cancelled. The tennis competition will complete the summer sports program.

Sports and Re-Ports

Baseball fans in this area who remember the pitching of Bobby Shantz when he labored with the Lincoln Athletics, were well pleased with his performance in Tuesday's All-Star game. In the one inning he was on the mound, Bob struck out Whitey Lockman, Jackie Robinson, and Stan Musial. Little wonder that Mr. Shantz has a season's record of 14 wins and 2 losses.

Joe Gifford, ace Nebraska golfer, just missed qualifying for the NCAA golf tourney in Lafayette, Indiana. Joe was just two strokes over the limit to qualify for championship play.

The University will have a new swim coach for one year at least, Warren Emery, graduate of the University and a former member of the Nebraska swim team, will take over the duties of Hollie Lepley this fall while Hollie is at Indiana University working on his doctorate. Emery has been swim-coach at Lincoln High the past school year.

A's Business Manager To Go To Canada, Return To Football—His 'First Love'

NAGLE

Football mixed with baseball for a fleeting mid-summer moment Wednesday, when Coach Bill Glassford of the University of Nebraska helped celebrate "Nagle Night" at Sherman Field.

The Cornhusker grid-master joined Lincoln Civic Baseball officials and Fighting Fans in sending Business Manager Fran Nagle of the Lincoln Athletics off to the pro-football wars in the Canadian League.

Wednesday evening, during the Lincoln-Des Moines contest, Nagle officially turned over the reins to Tom Clark, his successor.

Nagle also turned over to Clark a vastly improved Lincoln Athletic baseball team which in the early part of the season was unable to win a ball game for a week at a time. Now the squad is playing .500 ball under its manager, Les Bell. In fact, the team just won its first double header of the season a few nights ago over the same Des Moines Bruins.

Nagle literally performed wonders for the University at quarterback during the 1950 and 1951 football seasons. He was sought in U. S. pro ranks, but decided to settle down to a business career in Lincoln.

The Canadian lure, however, was too great and he returned to his first love, football.

THE LINEUP

By CHARLES KLASEK

There is an old baseball adage that says "Any team that is in first place in the major league races on July 4th, will retain that lead and win the pennant."

However in reviewing the league standings as of Monday, July 7, we can't go along with the adage even though it has held true in many cases during the past. Consequently we'd like to predict the outcome of the American and National League pennant races as we believe they will end this September.

As far as the National League is concerned, the old adage will probably hold true with Brooklyn holding on to their four and a half game lead all the way to the wire. Although the Giants might possibly come up with another tremendous stretch drive, they are only good enough for a runner-up spot this year.

The Philadelphia Phillies should wake up enough to climb to the third place spot, but will be far behind the leaders. The St. Louis Cardinals will give the Phils a battle but will land in the fourth place position. The Chicago Cubs should drop to fifth during the scuffle.

Cincinnati, Boston, and Pittsburgh will stage an all-out battle for the cellar spot, but the Pirates should win easily with the Reds in the next-to-last position and the Braves sixth.

Over in the American League the race is much, much tighter. Here we believe the old adage will not hold true. Once the dormant pitching power of the Cleveland Indians comes to life, the Tribe will be a shoo-in for the pennant. Their main competition will come from the steady Chicago White Sox, who should land in the runner-up spot. The Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees will have a tight battle for the third place berth, but the Yanks hitting will give them the edge.

The second division positions will involve another tight race among the Washington Senators, Philadelphia Athletics, St. Louis Browns, and Detroit Tigers. A late season upsurge will carry the Browns into fifth place just a game or two above the early season wonders, the Washington Senators.

Philadelphia will lose what steam it had and drop to seventh place. Even a change in managers won't help the Detroit Tigers. Fred Hutchinson will find it takes both pitching and hitting to lift his team from the cellar.
