The new symbol features a lighted torch and the words "AUF for a brighter world." The symbol was designed and executed by Pat Adams, AUF art board member.

The organizations to which AUF will give funds this year are World Student Service fund, 40 per cent; University Cancer Research, 15 per cent; Community Chest, 40 per cent; and operating expenses, 5 per cent.

AUF is the only organization on the campus sanctioned by the University to solicit funds from the student body. Since its organization at the University in 1943, it has collected over $20,000 for charitable organizations all over the world.

Ralph Flanagan's Orchestra Returns To Lincoln For Third Time In Year

By PAT PECK
Feature Editor

The "Flanagan Flair" in dance music will be on tap for University students who make their way to the Turnpike Friday night.

Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra are making their third appearance in Lincoln. They previously played here in the fall of 1951 and last spring.

At that time Flanagan was working as top arranger for Perry Como's Chesterfield Supper Club and had scored many successful disc arrangements for top vocal artists. He decided he would make dance records that would sell, and he started recording for RCA Victor.

His first disc, "You're Breaking My Heart," was an immediate success. Following this hit, four of his records were released simultaneously and enjoyed the same popularity.

Under the pressure of public demand to see Ralph Flanagan he formed his own band and was heard for the first time at the King Philip Ballroom, Wrentham, Mass. Cars blocked the roads to the ballroom for four miles and the state troopers were called out to maintain order.

Record-breaking crowds continued to follow the Flanagan appearances and at the end of 1949 he almost made a clean sweep of Billboard's annual popularity poll of dance bands. Flanagan comes to Lincoln after having played at such places as the Steel Pier in Atlantic City and the Palladium in Los Angeles.

200,000 Pounds Of Clothing Needed For Destitute Children

Nebraska schools have been asked to take part in the 11th National Children's Clothing Crusade to collect clothing for aid to needy children in foreign lands and the U. S.

Every family in Nebraska is being asked to send a bundle of good, serviceable clothing to school during the week of Nov. 3-8.

The clothing will be distributed by Save The Children Federation, a child service organization which gives aid to neglected children at home and abroad.

Federation officials report that there are five million victims of Communist aggression in Korea desperately in need of aid, as well as thousands of American children that do not attend school because they lack sufficient clothing.

The clothing drive in Nebraska is expected to raise 200,000 pounds of clothing. F. B. Decker, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, reported and added, "If each family in Nebraska will send at least one bundle of good clothing, we will collect that amount."

Last Spring, Panty Raiders, Now, Squabbie Stealers

By TOM WOODARD
Staff Writer

Tuesday morning at 3, 14 dark clad figures stole along the streets toward the Delta Tau Delta house. Their determined step showed clearly that they had a certain object in mind.

The 14 were the Sigma Alpha Mu pledges, and their object—Squabbie, the large white paper mache dog atop the Delta house.

Under the leadership of Don Shafston and Yale Goldberg, the SAM pledges trekked to the fire house; borrowed a 30 foot ladder; and carried it to the north wall of the Delta house.

At the bottom of the ladder a short discussion was held; Norm Phillips shed his shoes; took a 400-foot rope; and mounted the ladder.

After securing the dog to the end of the rope, he carefully lowered it to the waiting hands below. Norm climbed down and the 14 quietly removed the ladder and Squabbie.

Squabbie made a repeat appearance the next day, but under slightly different circumstances. Instead of adorning the Delt rooftop, he dangled at the end of the rope—out of the Sammie house. His once beautiful white body was now decorated with SAM, and other choice comments.

An alert Delt noted Squabbie's new resting place, and quickly informed his brothers. The outraged Delt charged the Sammie house en masse, and recovered the slightly soiled Squabbie.

Squabbie again adorns the Delt rooftop. He is clean and again presentable. The Delt have instituted a special agent watch to protect their beloved mascot.

Ben Zinnecker, animal caretaker at the Delt house, reports that all future "Squabbie Stealers" will meet with water—lots of it—from firehoses installed on the roof. Take note all ambitious pledge classes!
