Pre-Med Tests

Pre-medical students who have not yet taken the Medical College admission test and who expect to apply for 1953 entrance to medical colleges, other than that of the University, should see Dr. Eugene Powell, the pre-medical adviser, 306 Bessey Hall.

Applications for the test to be given, November 3, 1952, must be in the office of the Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N. J., by Oct. 20, 1952.

Sigma Theta Epsilon To Hold Rush Party Wednesday Night

Sigma Theta Epsilon, National Methodist Service Fraternity, will hold a rush party Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The party will be held at the Wesley Foundation, 1417 R Street, opposite the Union. The fraternity's new sponsor is Dr. Arthur Hitchcock, Dean of the Junior Division, Francis W. Benedict, Senior in the College of Business Administration, will officiate as president.

The weekly meetings are held at 7 p.m. on Tuesdays. One of the Fraternity's services is deputation teams. These are volunteer groups which go to churches within 150 miles of Lincoln to perform different services which the minister has requested. These may be ushering, serving at church suppers, etc.; all of which are usually done on Sundays. The group

It Happened At NU

A student was sitting in the library, feet comfortably propped on the chair opposite. A total stranger, scoring fifty empty chairs in the room, pulled out the student's footrest and sat on it. Smiling, she indicated a "fresh" copy of the morning paper under his books and said, "You don't mind if I read your paper."

Schupbach Names Staff Of KNUS

The staff of KNUS, campus radio station at the University, was announced by Paul Schupbach, temporary director of radio.

The new staff will be headed by Clarence Wurdinger, a senior speech major. Bob Spearman, a junior in the speech department, was named program director. Barrett, a speech department junior, will head the news and special events department. Diane Downing, an English major, will supervise the continuity department.

Wurdinger, the new station manager, said that KNUS plans to resume its broadcasting schedule on Sept. 29. KNUS will broadcast over program service between 3 and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

training and encourage a study of the Bible, to acquaint their members with the history, activities and purpose of the Methodist Church and to promote wholesome social activities.

fraternity members and pledges are not prohibited by their pledge from joining Sigma Theta Epsilon.

Any woman who is interested is urged to inquire about Kappa Phi, Methodist Woman's Sorority.
