NU Head To Speak At Convo Talk Set For Wednesday

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson will address the first official all-University convocation at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Coliseum.

Although not the first convocation of the year, it will be the first for which all University classes are dismissed.

The Chancellor will discuss "What's Ahead." Although no advance information was available concerning the nature of the speech, Dr. Gustavson is expected to report to the student body on the state of the University and its prospects for the immediate future.

His all-University address last year was entitled "Here We Stand" and was the first in a series of annual reports.

Dr. Gustavson, a well-known scientist and educator, is beginning his sixth year as chancellor of the University. He is considered one of the outstanding educational administrators in the country.

He was decorated in 1948 by the Swedish government for his work in the fields of science and education. State chairman for the March of Dimes campaign for five years, he will be the honorary chairman for 1953.

The Chancellor's convocation is the first of four official all-University convocations to be sponsored during the year by the convocations committee. Classes will be dismissed for the four.

The committee, however, will probably sponsor several other addresses—called all-University convocations—for which the dismissal of classes will be left up to individual instructors.

"Whenever the occasion arises, when an outstanding person is available," said Carl J. Schneider, chairman of the convocations committee, "we will sponsor a convocation. The speeches, he added, will be scheduled when as many students as possible can attend.

The extra-official convocations will receive additional attention this fall, Schneider said, during the course of the elections campaign. Sen. John Sparkman (Dem.-Ala.), Democratic vice-presidential candidate, addressed University students two weeks ago at the invitation of the convocations committee.

Dwight Dell, petition candidate for United States senator (long term), will speak Oct. 22.

The second official convocation speaker, according to Schneider, will be W. H. Auden, who will appear Nov. 6. Auden, Schneider said, is "one of the outstanding poets of the time."

Born an English citizen, he is now a naturalized American. Auden is "something of a trail-blazer in modern literature," Schneider said.

Dell To Appear In NU Political Convo Oct. 22

Dwight Dell, Gage county farmer seeking election to the U. S. Senate as the petition candidate will address a public meeting in the Union at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 22.

Dell is the second aspirant to a major political post to request a hearing before a University audience to encourage a full discussion of issues involved in the 1952 general elections. Sen. John Sparkman, Democratic nominee for vice president, was the first.

Under the plan, the committee will cooperate to arrange a convocation on the campus for any senatorial, or congressional candidate who seeks the opportunity of appearing before a University audience.

Dell, who is chairman of the Nebraska Council of Churches, has filed a petition for the long-term senate post, opposing both Sen. Hugh Butler, Republican, and Stanley Long of Grand Island, Democratic nominee.

Board To Determine College Days Future

The future of the 1953 College Days will hang in the balance Thursday when the CD Board holds its first meeting.

If the Board favors such a program, committees will be appointed and plans will be laid for College Days next spring.

The program was abandoned last year when the Board found it impossible to coordinate enough activities for an effective program and when deans of the colleges did not sanction the College Days program.

Builders Calendar Sale Opens Again In Union

Builders Calendars will go on sale in a booth in the Union, Monday from 2 till 4 p.m. Persons who did not obtain a calendar during the sales campaign may purchase one at this time.

The following persons should pick up their calendars that were placed on order: Richard Beindorf, LeRoy Gilsdorf, Charles Berger, Dean Cowan, Roger Watt, H. B. Sidiki, and Paul Means.

Billy May

MILITARY BOUND—Headed for the first formal event of the year will be Billy May, who will be playing at the annual Military Ball.

Military Ball To Feature May's Band

COA Chooses Dec. 5 For Annual Dance

It's Billy May and his orchestra for the Military Ball!

The question of who is to play for the Ball on Dec. 5 has been one of the big questions in student minds this fall.

The Candidate Officer Association Executive Staff made the choice in their meeting Thursday. May has been billed as, "The most exciting dance band of the decade" by many of the disc jockies, and by dancing fans all over the country.

Featured with May are Carole Simpson, and a singing group, the "Maytimers."

May's newest releases are "All of Me" and "My Silent Love." These two numbers have received great acclaim.

May's music is said to be, "strictly for dancing," and is often referred to as being fresh and different. May is noted for his new methods in presenting dance music. He gained his reputation while he was playing tuba in his high school band. He disapproved of the way that many of the school songs were being played, and changed many of them. The changes were well received and May was launched on his career.

May was associated with two musical greats: Charley Barnett and Glenn Miller. His contributions, "Cherokee" and "Iau" have put his name high in the ranks of music makers.

After a stint as an arranger in Charlie Barnett's band, he joined Miller's orchestra where he held down the "Jazz Trumpet" chair and did some arranging.

When Miller's orchestra broke up in 1942, May remained in New York and began working in radio doing several network shows over NBC.

Later he moved to the West Coast where he was arranging for several radio programs including Bob Crosby's Old Gold series, the Kraft Music Hall, Duffy's Tavern, and the Red Skelton Show. He also made several appearances with Woody Herman.

Ozzie Nelson asked to direct the orchestra in his show. May still works on the radio program.

His association with Capitol Records began in 1946, when he arranged for a series of jazz records. It was the record company's move to produce "dance series" albums that led to May's "rediscovery."

A number of former Glenn Miller men will appear with May's orchestra when it plays at the Military Ball.

Take Me To The Ball Game

"COMFY CROWD" . . . If attendance figures are low at Yankee Stadium today, perhaps the comfortable lounge chairs around TV sets will be the factor involved. Of course, the hundreds of students who watch the game in the Union lounge should not cut down attendance appreciably, but they appear about to have the old Dodger-Yank spirit. Final Acts Selected For Talent Show

12 Will Compete For Top Places

"Best show ever" is the way Norman Gauger, General Entertainment committee chairman, describes the coming 1952 Union-sponsored Talent Show.

The show will be given Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

Twelve acts were chosen from 25 possibilities at try-outs Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. All of the competing acts were very good. Gauger said, thus making it difficult to decide the winning skits. He added, "The acts were chosen with the idea of presenting a well rounded show."

The 12 winning acts are: "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man," sung by Stella Whitney; "Lonesome Gal In Town," sung by Marilyn Lehr; "Apache Ballet" danced by Barbara Britton.

"Warsaw Concerto," piano solo by Jerry Humphrey; semi-classical selections sung by Jan Harrison; "Bess, You Is My Woman Now," from Porgy and Bess, vocal duet by Nick Amos and Nancy Thompson; "Old Man River," sung by Marshall Christensen.

A medley of three "blues" numbers, sung and played by Phoebe Dempster; "Jealousy," a marimba solo by Mary Maude Bedford; "Hallelujah," by the Hinmmon Trio; a piano comic number by Tom Schouland; and piano selections by Roger Sach.

Dress rehearsal will be held Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

Gauger stressed that all who tried out for the show, whether or not they were included on the program, will be listed in a talent file for future booking in campus show, benefit performances, and professional entertainment.

The Union Talent bureau is set up for this purpose—and has made contacts for professional engagements at places such as the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, country clubs, Boys Town, rodeos, Horace Heidt talent shows, Vet's hospital and orphanages.

Last year's Talent Show winners were Delores Garrett and Marshall Christensen singing "Tea For Two."

Position Open In Red Cross College Group

Fillings for the position of entertainment chairman of the Red Cross College Unit are now open. Red Cross president Bob La Shelle said Friday.

The entertainment chairman, La Shelle said, is responsible for organizing talent groups which present programs at the Orthopedic, Veterans and mental hospitals, and at the Lincoln orphanages throughout the year.

Norma Erickson formerly held this position.

La Shelle said that anyone interested in the position should make a written application indicating qualifications, experience, grade average and time able to spend. He asked that applications be left in the Red Cross box at the Union before 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 9.

Korean Veterans

Forms 7-1996a (Monthly Certification Training) have arrived at the University Office of the Veterans Affairs. All veterans attending the University under Public Law 550 (Korean G.I. Bill) are requested to sign this form at the Veterans Office, Room 106, Mechanics Art Building, at the earliest opportunity.

If this form is not received within 10 days after the end of the month, the education and training allowance may not be paid until the following month. The veteran should not inquire about his check for at least 20 days after this form is forwarded to the Veterans Administration.

From RGG to AUF

Friday Deadline Set For IFC Appeals

Fraternities may appeal the Inter-Fraternity Council's rulings on illegal rushing until Oct. 10, an IFC spokesman said Friday.

Appeals on the fines set by the council will be heard by the Alumni IFC at an unannounced date.

By Saturday, four fraternities had entered appeals. They were Delta Upsilon, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Nu and Sigma Alpha Mu.

The IFC, at a meeting Thursday, appointed committees on scholarship, help-week, rush-week, all-fraternity song book and a social committee.

Counselors Announce 16 Carnivalists

Coeads To Compete For Traveling Trophy

Penny Carnival, sponsored by Coed Counselors will be held Saturday, Oct. 18 from 2 to 4:30 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

Sixteen out of 25 applications were accepted to participate in the Penny Carnival. On the elimination committee were Jo Johnson, Sut Reinhardt, Winnie Stolz, Nancy De Bord and Elizabeth Gass.

The sixteen booths will be manned by the following organizations and their chairmen:

Towne Club, Patricia Herzog; Pi Beta Phi, Alice Todd; Alpha Chi Omega, Joan Heilman; Chi Omega, Jane Brode; Alpha Omicron Pi, Helen O'Brien; Wilson Hall, Alice Hall; Alpha Phi, Marcelyn Dedeck; Gamma Phi Beta, Nancy Kiely and Kay Nosky; Kappa Alpha Theta, Ingrid Swerre and Eileen Geraman; Alpha Xi Delta, Pat Lyon; Delta Delta Delta, Nancy Stanley; Sigma Kappa, Terry Fitch; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alana Ackerman and Marian Whitworth; Delta Gamma, Kathy Olds and Ann Beynon; Kappa Delta, Grace Harvey; and the Women's Dormitory, Charlotte Trumble.

Booths will be displayed in the Union Ballroom on a competitive basis with the winning booth receiving a traveling trophy.

Judging will be on the basis of the most and best originality, with awards going to first, second and third place winners and one honorable mention.

A meeting of the booth chairmen has been scheduled for Tuesday at 4 p.m. in Ellen Smith hall.

Sammy: Daddy, I wish you'd get me a baby sister to play with. Daddy: I'll talk to your mother about it.
Sammy: Oh, no. Let's surprise her.

Boy, did I miss the weather the past two days! It's enough to make me stop guessing. Oh well, today will be cold and slightly cloudy.

A sophomore called over to Student Health the other day—"Doctor? Remember me? You cured my rheumatism about a year ago!" "Is it bothering you again?" the doctor asked.

"Oh, no," the voice said. "But you told me to keep out of the wet. Well, I've felt perfectly swell for a year. Now is it safe for me to take a bath?"

Chancellor's Farm House Talk Cleared

Greek Animosity Was Not Intended

By TOM WOODWARD Staff Writer

There have been questions and comments galore concerning the speech made by Chancellor Gustavson at the Farm House National Convention.

A Lincoln newspaper carried an account of the speech with quotes referring to the "Spirit of Democracy and Mutual Help" found on Ag campus, that the Chancellor, "hoped would become common to the University as a whole."

In a telephone interview the Chancellor said that his remarks were not intended as being derogatory to the Greek letter fraternities. He said that Farm House was founded for Agricultural students and it seemed only natural to give it such a name. He said that it would have created a false atmosphere to give the fraternity a Greek letter name, for it would have little real meaning to its members and their parents. He added that he did not mean that any fraternity, with a Greek name was necessarily under a false atmosphere.

Gustavson said that he thought there were many areas where the city campus could strive for better co-operation. He gave an example of two departments, which should be working in conjunction that are actually in very active competition with each other.

Chancellor Gustavson said that his speech was not mainly concerned with fraternities, Greek or otherwise.

The Chancellor said that he regretted that there had been any misunderstanding of what he meant in his speech, and said that the quotes from his speech had been "lifted" at random, from context, especially on the fraternity matter.

P. M. Headlines

By SALLY ADAMS

GEN. EISENHOWER has charged that Communists infiltrated every corner of the government while the administration "sneered" at the Red menace. The Republican nominee spoke in Milwaukee Friday night sharing the platform with Sen. Joseph McCarthy. However, the general declared:

"The right to question or challenge a man's judgment carries with it no automatic right to question his honor . . . We would have nothing left to defend if we allowed ourselves to be swept into any spirit of violent vigilantism."

But Eisenhower urged that McCarthy be sent back to the Senate. In his speech McCarthy drew a chorus of boos as he said, "As long as I represent you in the Senate, I shall continue to call them as I see them regardless of who happens to be President."

Eisenhower made reference to both Truman and Stevenson in his attack on Communism. He said domination of the nation's policies by men who scoffed at the menace of Red penetration in government "meant—in its most ugly triumph—treason itself."

GOV. ADLAI STEVENSON said that "defense and inflation control" demand "top priority" and that national solvency is more important than new social security benefits. His Ohio audience greeted every mention of Sen. Robert Taft with boos.

The Democratic nominee said Taft's "team lost the Chicago game but won the breakfast game in New York, and what's more he won it single-handed. I understand they plan to play the third game in the White House unless they're all played out by Nov. 4."

Stevenson said he was as opposed to socialized medicine as any doctor in the country. He said that we must find a means of solving health problems without abuse and ill-temper.

The Democrats have become the nation's conservative party, he said, while the "Republicans . . . are behaving like the radical party—the party of the reckless and the embittered, bent on dismantling institutions which have been built solidly into our social fabric."

GEORGE F. KENNAN, United States ambassador to Russia, has been barred by the Soviet government on grounds that he "slandered" the Soviets. Moscow in an unexpected note demanded his immediate recall because he compared life for Americans in Moscow with the internment he underwent in Nazi Germany after Pearl Harbor. Kennan was in Geneva at the time the note was sent so he will not be able to return to Moscow.

AUF's Drive Opens Today

Speakers Bureau To Spearhead AUF

Education is the keynote of the All University Fund campaign this year.

A special Speakers Bureau has been set up to furnish persons who will talk at Oct. 6 meetings of organized houses, dorms, and unorganized houses on city and Ag campuses.

University clubs may obtain a speaker by calling Eldon Park at 3-2659 three days in advance of the meeting.

The speaker will give facts about AUF in general and the 1952 drive in particular.

Park is chairman of the Speakers Bureau. His assistants are Jim Adams and Marilyn Erwin.

Members of the Speakers Bureau are: Sherry Clover, Mary Alice Hopp, Mimi Hamer, Ann Skold, Phyllis Armstrong, Marilyn Erwin, Shirley Mead, Barbara Peters, Paul Meaker, Homer Kenison, Jim Adams, Eileen Mullarky, Muriel Pickett, Elaine Kagawa, Tahira Vahidy, Janet Takayue, Florida Fallah.

Each member of the Speakers Bureau will speak at at least one house or dorm Monday evening.

'All Changes Should Be Registered'

Students To Report Revisions To Dr. Hoover

Students who have not registered a change of address and phone number with the Registration department will be doing themselves a service by doing so as soon as possible, according to Dr. Floyd W. Hoover, acting director of registration.

Many calls come in requesting addresses and phone numbers of students. Sometimes these calls might be urgent, he explained. It is, therefore, extremely important that each student who has made a change of address go to Room B-7 in Administration Hall and fill out his permanent address on a card supplied for the purpose.

Dr. Hoover said that there is no charge, and that it will not be necessary to stand in line.

I-House Gives Homecoming Fund To Polio

International House announced Monday the contribution of its $15 Homecoming fund to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Helen Jean Utterback, President of the International House, said, "We feel this is a very worthwhile organization to put our Homecoming money into. The House is extremely happy that it can contribute this small amount."

Miss Utterback said that although the only Homecoming display they will have will be a sign welcoming the alumni, the House will not be lacking in the spirit of Homecoming.

The polio fund has now received $115 from three organized houses on the Nebraska Campus. The other two are Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority. Both Houses also contributed their entire Homecoming fund for polio relief.

Aggies Fair Board Filings Open Today

Filings for Junior members of the Farmer's Fair Board begin Monday. According to Don Leising, Board manager, three men and three women will be chosen for positions.

In order to qualify, a student must have 83 hours credit in University work, a 4.5 weighted average and be carrying 12 hours this semester.

Letters of application are to be written and sent to Dean Lambert's office. Filings will run for two weeks.

Each year the Board plans and sponsors the Farmer's Fair on Ag Campus. During this year's Fair such activities as a rodeo, barbecue and dance are held along with Ag Campus open house.
