

Classes will be dismissed at 10 a.m. Wednesday for the first time this year for an all-University convocation in which Chancellor Gustavson will speak on "What's Ahead."

AWS Board
Sallie Matteson, Teachers College senior, replaces Marilyn Bamesburger who recently resigned as senior board member of AWS.

AGR's Donate Money To Polio

Iowa State Follows Example Set By Nebraska And Kansas State

The Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity announced today the donation of their Homecoming house display fund will go to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Publicity Chairman, Don Novotny, revealed that $25 would be forwarded to the polio fund. This leaves $25 for the House to spend on their Homecoming float.

"We feel that by donating more time to our float," Novotny said, "we can be in the spirit of Homecoming and be doing a good turn for polio victims at the same time."

Gamma Lambda To Pledge 10 Members

Gamma Lambda, honorary band fraternity, will hold its formal pledging ceremony Tuesday noon in Parlor Z of the Union.

Class Council

Dean J. P. Colbert will give a short talk at the first meeting of the Junior-Senior Class Council Friday at 3 p.m. in Union Room 313.

ASCE Holds First Meeting Of Semester

The student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers held its first meeting of the year Oct. 1. Forty-nine members attended the initial gathering for the purpose of the coming year.

Information regarding the ASCE may be obtained by freshmen or sophomores interested in civil engineering from Henry Wolf, Dick Barnell, Dick Bierman or Norm Scott.

LINCOLN LEGAL AID BUREAU Students In Law College Practice On Real Cases

Need a lawyer? Broke? It is one of the aims of Lincoln's Legal Aid Bureau to provide free legal service, if feasible, for people who cannot afford a lawyer.

Dean E. O. Belsheim feels, are getting good training. If the case is one which lends itself to the attention of the court, the student, assigned to it follows through with a local attorney.

NUCWA Demo-GOP Discussions Scheduled

A student-faculty panel will discuss the foreign policies of the two major political parties at a NUCWA-sponsored mass meeting in Room 316 of the Union, Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The Democratic party's views will be presented by Bruce Kendall of the Speech Department and Ken Rystrom, Managing Editor of The Daily Nebraskan.

The Republican policy will be explained by Professor Maurice Latta, assistant professor of economics, and Doris Carlson, past president of NUCWA.

Paul Means, chairman of the Speakers Bureau, said that the audience is urged to take part in the program by asking questions.

Means said that the meeting was one of a series leading up to United Nations week, Oct. 19-26. The purpose of the meetings, he said, is to give students information and create interest in today's world affairs.

Sophomore Applicants Announced

Sophomore applicants for the Board of Student Publications were announced by the Student Council Monday.

Applicants are Marvin Friedman, Shirley Mead, Walter Wright, William Neef, Ann Koker, Frank Chapman, Mary Sue Lundt, Agnes Anderson, Jean Steffen, Dan Rasdal, Bill DeVries, Mimi DuTeau and Ann Faulkner.

Members appointed as junior and senior representatives last week by the Student Council were Hile Goodrich and Marshall Kushner, Goodrich, a journalism major and reporter for the Lincoln Star, fills the senior position.

The sophomore board members were not appointed at that time because only one application was received for the position by the Student Council last Tuesday night, the previous deadline for applications.

Band Day To Feature 62 Bands; 3600 Prepsters Will Participate

BAND DAY 1951... This scene will be reconstructed for University and Kansas spectators Saturday as 62 high school bands converge on the campus for the annual Band Day celebration. In addition to the half-time performance shown above the bands march in a parade through the Lincoln business district. (Daily Nebraskan Photo.)

Chancellor Among Forty Speakers At National Convention In Chicago

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson left Nebraska Monday morning for Chicago where he addressed the national convention of the American Meat Institute, held Oct. 3 through the 6.

The annual Institute was held at the Palmer House in Chicago where meat packers and manufacturers of packing equipment from all over the nation were represented.

The manufacturers also had what were termed "hospitality rooms" in which they held open house for the conventioners.

Wednesday Set As A.H. Club Deadline

Wayne Frost, president of the Block and Bridge Club, announced that the club's fall membership drive will be extended until Wednesday.

The animal husbandry department requires that the prospective members have a 4.5 average, a sophomore standing, Animal Husbandry I and an interest in the field of animal husbandry.

P. M. Headlines

MOSCOW—A Hitlerite regime in the United States is rushing the West toward a new world war. This charge was made by Politburo member, George Malenkov, at the opening of the 19th Soviet Communist Party Congress.

This was the first time that the keynote address to the Congress has not been delivered by Premier Josef Stalin.

Viacheslav Molotov, acting chairman of the Congress, also lashed out at United States' foreign policy. He said that the United States and its Allies were arming "ever further, fanning up war hysteria and carrying out preparations for launching a world war."

ABOARD THE EISENHOWER SPECIAL—Gen. Dwight Eisenhower accused President Truman of leading a "clattering din" and of "firing blanks" in the presidential campaign.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—Gov. Adlai Stevenson has shifted emphasis in his campaign speeches from the idea of continued prosperity under Democratic leadership to the menace of Communism.

PROVO, UTAH—President Truman said he was "confident that history will bear me out" in support of the moral character of his administration.

NEW YORK—Scientists have found a vast submarine canyon on the floor of the Atlantic Ocean. Dr. W. Maurice Ewing, professor of geology and oceanology at Columbia University, said it may be part of an undersea channel system comparable in extent to the Mississippi River and its tributaries.

Korean Veterans

Forms 7-1996a (Monthly Certification Training) have arrived at the University Office of the Veterans Affairs. All veterans attending the University under Public Law 550 (Korean G.I. Bill) are requested to sign this form at the Veterans Office, Room 106, Mechanics Art Building, at the earliest opportunity.

Election Workers
Workers are needed for the election and counting boards for the mock election. Students who are interested may contact Neala O'Dell at 2-4120.

Applications Due In Junior Management Examinations

The Civil Service Commission said today the date of the 1952 Junior Management Assistant examinations will be announced the third week in October.

Contracts Let

Bids on the elevator, newspaper stacks, and finish hardware for the State Historical Society's new building under construction at 15th and R Sts., were let last week.

'KICKOFF' DINNER

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson will address All University Fund board members, their representatives and assistants at the AUF "kick-off" dinner Tuesday night. The dinner will be held in Parlors A and B of the Union at 5:30 p.m.

Twelve Teams To Take Part In Solicitation

All University Fund solicitation of unorganized students living in Lincoln will begin Tuesday, according to Adele Coryell, head of unorganized student solicitation.

Deferment Tests Set For December

Selective Service Boards have received application blanks for students who are interested in taking the Selective Service College Qualification Test for deferment from the armed services.

Left Overs

Although it won't snow today, the weather will be very cold and windy.

Jack: You know, Dick, every time I kiss my pinmate, she closes her eyes and squeals.

That's all!

Downtown Parade Scheduled Earlier, Routing Reversed

Saturday is Band Day at the University. This means that some 3,000 high school students from all over the state will be in Lincoln for a full day of marching and playing.

The preppers will be guests of the University at the Husker-Kansas State football game Saturday afternoon and will form a mass band to supply the colorful half-time show.

This year the traditional parade through downtown Lincoln will be held earlier than last year and the route of march reversed. The first of the 62 bands will leave the campus at 8:30 a.m.

Rehearsals for the half-time show will take up the rest of the morning. At noon the musicians will eat a snack lunch furnished by the retailers division of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

For the half-time performance the high school players will cover the entire football field. Under the direction of Donald A. Lentz, conductor of the University Band, the mass band will play four selections: "Star Spangled Banner," "Dear Old Nebraska U.," "The Nobleman," and "Symbol of Honor."

Participating bands and their directors include: Albion, Ivan C. Caldwell; Arapahoe, Jack Learned; Arcadia, Neil W. Short; Ashland, K. Lanke; Aurora, Glenn L. Clark; Auburn, R. J. Chetlain; Beaver City, Norman E. Ash; Bertrand, Ivan Miller; Big Springs, C. R. Sussena; Blue Hill, Ralph L. Gray; Broken Bow, Howard A. Jacob.

Central City, M. L. Crandell; Ceresco, Roma Johnson; Chadron, C. Ward Rounds; Chapman, D. L. Priestly; Cook, Harold Luttmann; rete, L. C. Havlicek; Culbertson, Vernon T. Hanneman; De Witt, Dorothy Schneider; Dodge, Phyllis Cowger; Fairfield, Eugene Kresl; Fairmont, Earl Green; Franklin, Marcia Ireland.

Genoa, Frank L. Bauer; Gothenburg, Keith L. Lysinger; Grand Island, Ralph J. Graniers; Harrison, David L. Jessor; Holbrook, Charles Schroeder; Humboldt, Henry Deines, Sr.; Johnson, Paul Parker; Kearney, W. M. Nelson; Kimball, G. E. Pancheau; Lexington, Glenn E. Miller.

Lincoln High, Lyle A. Welch; Lincoln Northeast, David Fowler; Lincoln, College View, William Spilchal; Loup City, Gordon Flood; Madison, Harold Osborn; Minden, Donald Helmer.

The O'Keefe Elevator Company had the low bid of $10,716 for the elevator installation. The low bid on construction of newspaper stacks was by the Hamilton Manufacturing Co. of Two Rivers, Wisconsin, at $6,500.

A Lincoln firm, R. L. White Co., bidding of $1,720 will furnish the finished hardware.

The bids were accepted after a total of 12 had been offered. The date of installation of the equipment has not yet definitely set.

The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. All pre-medical technician and pre-nursing students are invited to attend.

By LILA WANER
One of the coeds was shocked by the language used by a couple of workmen working on the Historical Society building so she complained to the foreman.

The foreman asked the two men for an explanation. "Well, sir, me and Joe was on the job. I was on the roof with a blowtorch and accidentally let a hot spark fall on Joe. It went down his neck and he looked up at me and said, 'Really, Alfred, you must try to be a little more careful.'"

Jack: I say she does! Dick: What's that? Jack: I say, does she?

Hello! Is that you Joan? Yes, it is. Are you going to marry me? Sure am. Who is this on the phone?

Jane: Why do you come to dances with a fellow like that? He can't even dance. Mary: No, but he sure can in-ter-mis-sion.

That's all!

Nebraska City, Duane Schulz; Nemaha, Charles B.erry; Ord, Glenn L. Trent; Orleans, Ray C. Mitchell; O'Neill (St. Mary's Academy), Charles B. Houser.

Pawnee City, H. A. Schrepel; Polk, Joyce Hurt; Ravenna, R. T. Folsom; Rushville, George Hinne; Scotia, Richard Davis; Scottsbluff, Vernon A. Forbes; Scribner, Arla Mae Soltermoser; Selby, Dean M. Dellinger; Sidney, Dean Killon; Stanton, Allan Nyegaard; Stromsburg, Carroll Brown; Sutton, A. B. Kelley; Tilden, Gerold Chalupa; Walthill, Ira P. Schwarz; Wausa, Fred W. Vorce, Jr.; West Point, E. E. Hanna; Wisner, Robert W. Rosenquist; Wymore, Clarence Garder.

The Home Economics Club will hold its annual Ellen H. Richards dinner in the Union ballroom, Oct. 30, revealed Jo Meyer, chairman for the event.

Speakers for the occasion will be Anna May Wilson of Winetha, Ill. Miss Wilson is the author of many articles in "Today's Health" on the subjects of food and health.

Special recognition of four home economics teachers who have service on the faculty for 25 years will be presented at the dinner.

Mary Ellen Maronde will assist Miss Meyer as chairman for the event. Other committees are: programs, Marilyn Larson; publicity, Connie Clark; The Daily Nebraskan, Terry Barnes; posters, Shirley Marsh; newspapers, Norma Westcott; tickets, Barbara Spilker; Madeline Watson, Pat Graham; programs, Evelyn Leweritson, Eleanor Stevenson, decorations, Betty Hrabik, Mary Niehaus; hostess, Jean Rippe, Sharon Reed; Food, Ardith Smith.

This annual dinner is held in memory of the late Ellen H. Richards who is regarded as the founder of home economics.

On Wednesday October 8, at Love Library Auditorium, Dr. J. P. Tollman will address all Pre-Medical students. Dr. Tollman was recently appointed as Dean of the University of Nebraska College of Medicine at Omaha.

Previous to his appointment, he held several positions on the staff of the Medical College, and recently he returned from service in the United States Army.

The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. All pre-medical technician and pre-nursing students are invited to attend.

By LILA WANER
One of the coeds was shocked by the language used by a couple of workmen working on the Historical Society building so she complained to the foreman.

The foreman asked the two men for an explanation. "Well, sir, me and Joe was on the job. I was on the roof with a blowtorch and accidentally let a hot spark fall on Joe. It went down his neck and he looked up at me and said, 'Really, Alfred, you must try to be a little more careful.'"

Jack: You know, Dick, every time I kiss my pinmate, she closes her eyes and squeals.

Dick: I say she does! Jack: What's that? Dick: I say, does she?

Hello! Is that you Joan? Yes, it is. Are you going to marry me? Sure am. Who is this on the phone?

Jane: Why do you come to dances with a fellow like that? He can't even dance. Mary: No, but he sure can in-ter-mis-sion.

That's all!

That's all!